London, 13th March, 1857.

A. J. White, Manager.

Bank of England, March 10, 1857.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday the 19th instant, at twelve o'clock precisely, to consider of a dividend.

Also that another General Court will be held at the Bank, on Tuesday the 14th April next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon till four in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening); and the same Court will be continued, by adjournment, and held at the same place, and during the same hours, on Wednesday the 15th April next, for the election of twenty-four Directors (which will also be one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the charter); and the election of the twenty-four Directors will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

Printed lists of the Proprietors having votes will be ready to be delivered at the Bank, on Monday the 23rd March.

John Bentley, Secretary.

N.B. By an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of George 3rd, no person will be entitled to vote at the said election who shall not have been six calendar months possessed, in his own right, of the stock for which he shall then give his vote, unless the said stock shall have been acquired or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the city of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such stock.
