

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the parish of SNENTON, in the county of Nottingham, and that interments should be forthwith discontinued in the church of that parish, also within twelve feet of the walls of the church, and (with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented) in the old part of the churchyard. That in the new part of the churchyard, with the exception of vaults and family graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that, with the same exception, no grave be reopened.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourth day of May next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourth day of May.
