ARTICLE II.

ARTICLE III.

Her Britannic Majesty consents that French subjects shall have free access to the River Gambia for the purposes of their commerce. Les bâtiments Français dans la Rivière de Gambie seront sujets aux mêmes droits, péages, et règlements que les navires Anglais; et tout article importé ou exporté par bâtiments Français paiera le même droit que celui qui est ou pourra être imposé sur le même article importé ou exporté par bâtiments Anglais.

Le Gouvernement Français pourra entretenir à Bathurst un Agent Consulaire; étant bien entendu que le dit Agent Consulaire devra être préalablement agréé et admis en la forme ordinaire par le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of April, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Littlebury, in the county of Essex, and now vested in us.

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said sinecure rectory of Littlebury (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), became vested in us on the vacancy of the said rectory, which occurred on or about the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by the resignation of the Reverend John Henry Sparke, the then sinecure rector, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said sinecure rectory of Littlebury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

Monte Videan Government, throwing open the ports of Maldonado, Colonia and Paisander, for the despatch of articles which may be introduced through them from Montevideo, strictly subject to the Customs' laws and regulations. This permis-

Board of Trade, Whitehall, April 6, 1857.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister to the Argentine Confederation, enclosing copy of the following Decree recently issued by the Argentine Government, explanatory of a Decree issued by that Government on the 19th July last, and which appeared in the London Gazette of the 6th October, 1856.

1. The capes to which the law of July 19th refers, are those of Santa Maria and San Antonio, at the entrance of the River Plate.

2. The trade carried on by the Cordillera of the Andes comes within Article 2 of the Law, and will continue to pay simply the ordinary duty.

3. The said Article 2 of the Law does not forbid vessels coming from outside the capes, bound for the ports of the Confederation, to touch at the intermediate ports of the River Plate.

4. The said vessels can bring cargo for the ports of the River Plate and for others of the Confederation, without the fact of their doing so, or of the discharge of the part destined for them, involving the merchandize directed to the ports of the Confederation in the payment of differential duties.

5. Also merchandize coming from outside the capes which, having been directed to the ports of the River Plate, has been sent on, either all or in part, to those of the Confederation without having been discharged or transhipped in the former ports, will be considered as coming under Article 2 of the Law.

6. As a general rule all merchandize introduced into the Confederation in vessels which have touched at intermediate ports inside the capes, shall be subject to the differential duties, if the parties interested do not clearly prove that they are included in Articles 3, 4 or 5 of the present decree.

7. To facilitate the fulfilment of the preceding Article, the Argentine Commercial Agent at Buenos Ayres, and the Consul General at Monte Video, shall be authorized, in the cases mentioned in the said Articles 3, 4 and 5, at the request of the parties interested to deliver proper certificates, having previously taken all necessary steps for the full verification of the fact which they certify.

The Royal Panopticon, justly distinguished as one of the chief architectural monuments of the metropolis, is designed in the rich and pure Moorish style of the 15th century, and is a structure vast in capacity, elegant in proportions, and elaborate beyond description in decoration. It was erected at a great cost in the most substantial manner, as an institution for promoting the development of science and art, and generally as a place for popular and instructive entertainments,—for these purposes the structure and its accessories are admirably adapted. In addition to the main building, with its capacious galleries, there are two large lecture theatres, machinery, and engineers' rooms, refectory, workmen's room, store-rooms, two dwelling-houses, &c. The premises are easily convertible into a theatre or opera house, the erection of a centre floor to the first gallery would add a splendid concert-hall, and secure intact the present capabilities of the structure.

Should the building be purchased with a view of carrying out the original objects of the institution, the magnificent organ, and any portion of the valuable plant and machinery, may be taken at a valuation. If not so taken, power will be reserved to sell the same as advertized.

Detailed particulars and plans may be obtained at the Auction Mart, City; of St. Barbe Sladen, Esq., Solicitor, No. 14, Parliament-street, Westminster; of Nathaniel Charles Milne, Esq., Solicitor, No. 2, Harcourt-buildings, Temple; Messrs. Vallance and Vallance, Solicitors, No. 20, Essex-street, Strand; and at Messrs. Chinnock and Galsworthy's Auction and Land Offices, No. 28, Regent-street, Waterloo-place, London.
