TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1857.

Horse Guards, S.W., May 4, 1857.

HER Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

By command of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief,

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

Admiralty, May 4, 1857.

HER Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Fleet or Royal Marines should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

R. OSBORNE.

Whitehall, May 2, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, to be Her Majesty's High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Admiralty, May 5, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Marines, named in the Supplement to the London Gazette, of Friday, the 1st instant, as having received Her Majesty's permission to accept and wear the Insignia of the several classes of the Legion of Honour conferred upon them by His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and who have not already received such Insignia, are requested to apply for the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, between the hours of twelve and four o'clock daily.

Warrant officers, petty officers, and seamen, who have been nominated to the Order, must, on applying for the Insignia, produce their Certificate of Service, and should they be now serving, a written application, duly authenticated by their present Commanding Officer, will be received in lieu of a personal application.

War-Office, May 5, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Officers and Men in Her Majesty's Army, named in the Supplement to the London Gazette of Friday the 1st instant, as having received Her Majesty's permission to accept and wear the Insignia of the several classes of the Legion of Honour, conferred upon them by His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and who have not already received such Insignia, are requested to apply for the same, at the War-Office, Horse Guards, between the hours of twelve and four o'clock daily.

The Insignia for such Non-commissioned Officers and Men, as have been nominated to the 5th Class of the Order, and who are now serving with their respective corps, will be delivered to the Officers commanding those corps, or to such Officers as they may depute to receive them, with a view to their distribution.

War-Office, May 5, 1857.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration,—in accordance with the rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th of January, 1856,—on account of acts of bravery performed by them before the Enemy during the late War, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Grenadier Guards ...	Colonel Hon. Henry Hugh Man- vers Percy Date of Act of Bravery, 5th November, 1854	At a moment when the Guards were at some distance from the Sand Bag Battery, at the Battle of Inkerman, Colonel Percy charged singly into the battery, followed immediately by the Guards; the embrasures of the battery, as also the parapet, were held by the Russians, who kept up a most severe fire of musketry. At the Battle of Inkerman Colonel Percy found himself with many men of various regiments, who had charged too far, nearly surrounded by the Russians, and without ammunition. Colonel Percy, by his knowledge of ground, though wounded, extricated these men, and, passing under a heavy fire from the Russians then in the Sand Bag Battery, brought them safe to where ammunition was to be obtained, thereby saving some fifty men, and enabling them to renew the combat. He received the approval of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, for this action, on the spot.—Colonel Percy was engaged with, and put hors de combat, a Russian soldier.
7th Regiment ...	Lieutenant William Hope ... Date of Act of Bravery, 18th June, 1855	After the troops had retreated on the morning of the 18th June, 1855, Lieutenant W. Hope being informed by the late Serjeant-Major William Bacon, who was himself wounded, that Lieutenant and Adjutant Hobson was lying outside the trenches badly wounded, went out to look for him, and found him lying in the old agricultural ditch running towards the left flank of the Redan. He then returned, and got four men to bring him in. Finding, however, that Lieutenant Hobson could not be removed without a stretcher, he then ran back across the open to Egerton's Pit, where he procured one, and carried it to where Lieutenant Hobson was lying. All this was done under a very heavy fire from the Russian batteries.
7th Regiment ...	Assistant-Surgeon Thomas Egerton Hale, M.D. Date of Act of Bravery, 8th September, 1855	First. For remaining with an officer who was dangerously wounded, (Captain H. M. Jones, 7th Regiment), in the fifth parallel, on 8th September, 1855, when all the men in the immediate neighbourhood retreated, excepting Lieutenant W. Hope and Dr. Hale; and for endeavouring to rally the men, in conjunction with Lieutenant W. Hope, 7th Royal Fusiliers. Secondly. For having, on 8th September, 1855, after the regiments had retired into the trenches, cleared the most advanced sap of the wounded, and carried into the sap, under a heavy fire, several wounded men from the open ground, being assisted by Serjeant Charles Fisher, 7th Royal Fusiliers.

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Coldstream Guards (late of the 49th Regiment)	Brevet-Major John Augustus Conolly Date of Act of Bravery, 26th October, 1854.	In the attack by the Russians against the position held by the Second Division, 26th October, 1854, Major Conolly, then a Lieutenant in the 49th Regiment, while in command of a company of that regiment, on outlying picket, made himself most conspicuous by the gallantry of his behaviour. He came particularly under the observation of the late Field-Marshal Lord Raglan, while in personal encounter with several Russians, in defence of his post. He ultimately fell, dangerously wounded. Lieutenant Conolly was highly praised in General Orders, and promoted into the Coldstream Guards, as a reward for his exemplary behaviour on this occasion.

Whitehall, May 5, 1857.

The Queen, taking into the royal consideration that, upon the death of Nathaniel, Baron Scarsdale, of Scarsdale, in the county of Derby, unmarried, in the month of November last, the dignity of Baron Scarsdale devolved upon Alfred-Nathaniel-Holden, now Baron Scarsdale, as eldest son and heir of Alfred Curzon, Clerk, commonly called the Honourable Alfred Curzon, younger brother of the said Nathaniel, Baron Scarsdale, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sisters of the said Alfred-Nathaniel-Holden, Baron Scarsdale, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their late father survived the said Nathaniel, Baron Scarsdale, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Scarsdale, Her Majesty hath been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Sophia-Felicité, wife of William-Hatfield de Rodes, of Barlborough Hall, in the county of Derby, Esq., High Sheriff of the said county, and Mary-Catherine Curzon, Spinster, shall henceforth have, hold and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence and precedence as if their late father, the said Honourable Alfred Curzon, had survived his brother, the said Nathaniel, Baron Scarsdale, and had, thereby, succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Scarsdale :

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command that the said royal order and declaration be registered in the College of Arms.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 4, 1857.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Stockholm, enclosing the following translation of a Proclamation which has been issued by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, relative to the cattle disease.

The Royal and State Chamber of Commerce makes known that information having been given to the Board that in certain places in the Grand Duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin cases of virulent diseases among horned cattle have appeared, and that the same disease which has been for some time prevalent in the Kingdom of the Netherlands has latterly increased considerably in the Province of Friesland, the Chamber of Commerce now declares the Grand Duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin infected by disease in horned cattle, and repeats the Order formerly published, declaring the following countries infected by the same disease; viz.: The Netherlands, England, Scotland, the Duchy of Holstein, as well as that part of the Duchy of Schleswick which is situated between the River Eider and Huzum in the west and Flensburg in the east; besides which, The Netherlands, Zeland, Funen, and Jutland are declared infected with glanders in horses.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 4, 1856.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing copy of a French Imperial Decree, temporarily permitting the free importation into France of Arachide seeds (ground nuts), under conditions specified in the Decree.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 4, 1857.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Isloy, reporting the re-establishment of the export duty on gold and silver from the ports of Peru; viz.:

4 reals, or 1s. 10½d. per mark of 8oz. of silver.
2 reals, or 11¼d. per oz. of gold.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 4, 1857.*

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

Carnarvonshire Turnpike Roads.

WHEREAS the Trustees of the Carnarvonshire Turnpike Roads, acting under the powers of the Local Act of the 2nd of William the Fourth, cap. 60, have made application to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, pursuant to the Act of the session holden in the 14th and 15th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 38, for a Provisional Order, to reduce the rate of interest on the mortgage debt charged or secured on the tolls or revenues of the said roads;

And whereas the said application is dated the eighteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and is signed by four of the said trustees, who therein certify that the persons entitled to more than two-thirds of the money charged or secured on the tolls of the said roads and remaining unpaid, have signified their consents in writing under their hands to the said application;

And whereas it appears desirable to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department that the aforesaid application should be granted upon the terms herein set forth:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power and authority of the said Act of the 14th and 15th of Victoria, cap. 38, given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in conformity with the said application, I do by this Provisional Order under my hand declare,—subject to the confirmation hereof by Parliament,—that from the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the rate of interest shall be reduced from five pounds to four pounds per centum, per annum, upon the bonded or mortgage debt of seventeen thousand three hundred and fifty-eight pounds ten shillings, charged or secured upon the tolls or revenues of the said roads.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand.

I, James Denham Pinnock, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I believe the preceding two sheets of paper* to contain a true and faithful Return of all sums of Money received and paid by me, and Balances paid into the Bank of Victoria at Melbourne, at the date of this Return; and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, by virtue of the provisions of an Act, made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales, and to substitute declarations in lieu thereof, and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Declared before me, at Melbourne, this 29th day of January, 1857.
WILLIAM A'BECKETT, C. J.

J. D. PINNOCK,
Registrar of the Supreme Court and Curator of Intestate Estates,
Supreme Court, Registry Office, Melbourne, Victoria.
