Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1857.

Horse Guards, S.W., May 4, 1857.

HER Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

By command of His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief,

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

Admiralty, May 4, 1857.

HER Majesty does not require that the Officers of the Fleet or Royal Marines should wear any other Mourning, on the present melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, than a black crape round the left arm, with their uniforms.

R. OSBORNE.

Whitehall, May 2, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, to be Her Majesty's High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Admiralty, May 5, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Marines, named in the Supplement to the London Gazette, of Friday, the 1st instant, as having received Her Majesty's permission to accept and wear the Insignia of the several classes of the Legion of Honour conferred upon them by His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and who have not already received such Insignia, are requested to apply for the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, between the hours of twelve and four o'clock daily.

Warrant officers, petty officers, and seamen, who have been nominated to the Order, must, on applying for the Insignia, produce their Certificate of Service, and should they be now serving, a written application, duly authenticated by their present Commanding Officer, will be received in lieu of a personal application.

War-Office, May 5, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Officers and Men in Her Majesty's Army, named in the Supplement to the London Gazette of Friday the 1st instant, as having received Her Majesty's permission to accept and wear the Insignia of the several classes of the Legion of Honour, conferred upon them by His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and who have not already received such Insignia, are requested to apply for the same, at the War-Office, Horse Guards, between the hours of twelve and four o'clock daily.

The Insignia for such Non-commissioned Officers and Men, as have been nominated to the 5th Class of the Order, and who are now serving with their respective corps, will be delivered to the Officers commanding those corps, or to such Officers as they may depute to receive them, with a view to their distribution.
