The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, May 7, 1857.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded to inform you, that Her Majesty has availed herself of the earliest opportunity of having recourse to your advice and assistance after the Dissolution of the last Parliament; and Her Majesty trusts that there will be found sufficient time during the present session to enable you satisfactorily to deal with various important matters, some of which had occupied the attention of Parliament in the beginning of this year.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to inform you, that the general aspect of affairs in Europe affords a well-grounded confidence in the continuance of Peace.

All the main stipulations of the Treaty of Paris have been carried into execution, and it is to be hoped that what remains to be done in regard to those matters will be speedily accomplished.

The negotiations upon the subject of the differences which had arisen between the King of Prussia and the Swiss Confederation, in regard to the affairs of Neuchâtel, are drawing to a close, and will, Her Majesty trusts, be terminated by an arrangement honourable and satisfactory to all parties.

The negotiations in which Her Majesty has been engaged with the Government of the United States, and with the Government of Honduras, in regard to the affairs of Central America, have not yet been brought to a close.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to inform you, that a Treaty of Peace between Her Majesty and the Shah of Persia was signed at Paris on the fourth of March, by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, and by the Ambassador of the Shah; and Her Majesty will give directions that this Treaty shall be laid before you as soon as the ratifications thereof shall have been duly exchanged.

Her Majesty commands us to express to you Her regret that, at the date of the latest advices from China, the differences which had arisen between the High Commissioner at Canton and Her Majesty's Civil and Naval Officers in China still remain unadjusted. But Her Majesty has sent to China a Plenipotentiary fully instructed to deal with all matters of difference, and that Plenipotentiary will be supported by an adequate naval and military force, in the event of such assistance becoming necessary.

We are commanded to inform you, that Her Majesty, in conjunction with several other European Powers, has concluded a Treaty with the King of Denmark for the redemption of the Sound Dues. This Treaty, together with a separate Convention between Her Majesty and the King of Denmark, completing the arrangement, will be laid before you, and Her Majesty will cause the measures necessary for fulfilling the engagements thereby contracted to be submitted for your consideration.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has directed the estimates for the present year to be laid before you.

They have been prepared with a careful attention to economy, and with a due regard to the efficiency of the departments of the public service to which they severally relate.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to recommend to your earnest consideration measures which will be proposed to you for the consolidation and improvement of the law.

Bills will be submitted to you for improving the laws relating to the testamentary and matrimonial jurisdiction now exercised by the Ecclesiastical Courts, and also for checking fraudulent breaches of trust.

Her Majesty commands us to express to you Her heartfelt gratification at witnessing the continued well-being and contentment of Her people, and the progressive development of productive industry throughout Her dominions.

Her Majesty confidently commits to your wisdom and care the great interests of Her empire, and fervently prays that the blessing of Almighty God may be vouchsafed to your deliberations, and may lead you to conclusions conducive to the objects of Her Majesty's constant solicitude, the welfare and happiness of Her loyal and faithful people.

Whitehall, May 8, 1857.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of another Princess, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, was presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Commissioners of Supply of the county of Ayr, assembled at their Annual County Meeting, at Ayr, the 30th of April, 1857.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners of Supply of the county of Ayr, gladly seize the opportunity of our annual meeting to approach the foot of the Throne with the renewed expression of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and Government.

In common with all your Majesty's subjects we hail with joy the birth of a Princess; and we unite in gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's safety, and hasten to present our dutiful congratulations to your Majesty and your August Consort on so auspicious an occasion.

Participating in every event which tends to increase your Majesty's domestic happiness and the stability of the Throne, it is our earnest hope and prayer that your Majesty's convalescence may be speedy and complete, and that the life of the Infant Princess may be preserved to be a blessing to your Majesty, and an additional ornament to her Illustrious House.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, by our Convener.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," it is provided, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power, when within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen (not being Moorish subjects), who desert from British merchant ships in the territories belonging to the Sultan of Morocco and Fez.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the affairs of India are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of May, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that before any Passenger Ship shall be cleared out, the Emigration Officer at the port of clearance shall satisfy himself that there is on board a sufficient quantity of pure water, carried in tanks or casks, to secure, throughout the intended voyage, the issue of three quarts daily to each statute adult for the use of the passengers, exclusive of the quantity required for cooking; and whereas it is also enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for permitting the use on board of Passenger Ships of an apparatus for distilling water, and for defining, in such case, the quantity of fresh water to be carried in tanks or casks for the passengers.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and in exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," hereby order as follows:

Any "Passenger Ship" propelled wholly by steam engines of not less power than is sufficient, without the aid of sails, to propel the ship at the rate of five statute miles an hour, may be cleared out and proceed on her voyage, having on board, in tanks or casks, only half the quantity of pure water required by the said Act to be carried for the use of the passengers; provided,

1. That there be on board such Passenger Ship an efficient apparatus, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the port of clearance, for distilling fresh water from salt water;

2. That the Owners, Charterers, or Masters of the ship, before clearance, lodge with such Emigration Officer a certificate from the Engineer or Surveyor of the Board of Trade, or other competent person to be named by the Emigration Officer, declaring that the apparatus has been, within the seven days immediately preceding the date of such certificate, examined by a competent person, and is then in good working condition, and stating the number of imperial gallons of pure fresh water which it is capable of producing in every twenty-four hours;

3. That the Emigration Officer is satisfied that this number of gallons is not less than the whole number of persons about to proceed on the intended voyage of such ship; that is to say, the whole number of cabin passengers, passengers, and crew;

4. That there is rated on the ship's articles, and on board the ship, some person who, to the satisfaction of the said Emigration Officer, shall be competent for the proper management of such distilling apparatus.

And to prevent all doubts on the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "Passenger Ship," "Emigration Officer," "Statute Adult," and "Master," shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1855."

In the churchyards of St. Peter, St. Helen, St. Andrew, St. Alban, St. Swithin, All Saints, St. Martin, and St. Nicholas, in St. George's Churchyard in the parish of Claines, and in the Independent Burial-ground in All Saints' parish, all in the city of WORCESTER, from the first of June next to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twentieth of March last, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-ground of Union Chapel, ALDEBURGH, in Suffolk, from and after the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, with certain exceptions therein mentioned, and it seems fit that so much of the said Order as relates to the said churchyard and burial-ground be varied; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be discontinued from and after the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight (with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves), in all parts of the said churchyard in which graves have been opened within the last thirty years; and that no human remains be exposed in opening any vault or grave; and it is also ordered, as aforesaid, that burials be discontinued from and after the said first of February (with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves), in the burial-ground of Union Chapel; and that the family vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard and burial-ground be used on the following conditions, viz., that when required they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were regulated in the new burial-ground of BANGOR, and directed to be wholly discontinued therein, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (which time has since been extended to the first of July, in that year), and it seems fit that as much of the said Order as relates to that burial-ground be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that from and after the said first of July, interments be discontinued in the new burial-ground of Bangor, except in graves never previously opened, one body only to be buried in each, and except in now existing family graves for the burial of members of the same family; and it is further ordered that no coffin be placed within a foot of any other coffin, or less than four feet below the surface of the ground, unless in a vault or brick grave, in which each coffin shall be imbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner; and it is also ordered, that no vault or grave be buried in, which is not free from water.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eleventh of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, certain regulations were made with respect to burials in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground, FAILSWORTH, Manchester, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu of such regulations, that no burial shall take place in the said burial-ground within ten yards of any dwelling-house, that only one body be buried in each grave, and that no burial take place without a covering of earth of at least four and a half feet in depth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the level of the ground; and it is further ordered that interments be discontinued therein, on and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, unless the ground be effectually drained to the depth of seven feet at the least.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in St. Gregory's Churchyard, SUDBURY, in the county of Suffolk, from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and such time has since been extended to the thirty-first of March last, and it seems fit that the said Order and the Orders extending the same be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be permitted in the new portion of the said churchyard, until the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

War-Office, May 8, 1857.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Royal Sign Manual, of which the following is a copy, to enquire into the Organization, Government, and Direction of the Medical Department of the Army :

VICTORIA, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith,

To Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor, the Right Honourable Sidney Herbert; and to Our trusty and well-beloved Augustus Stafford Stafford, Esquire; Sir Henry Knight Storks, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, a Colonel in Our Army, and Secretary for Military Correspondence in Our War Department; Andrew Smith, M.D., Director-General of Our Army Medical Department; Thomas Alexander, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath; Sir Thomas Phillips, Knight; James Randal Martin, Esquire, F.R.S.; Sir James Clark, Baronet, M.D.; and John Sutherland, M.D., greeting;

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to Us that, considering the great importance of maintaining and improving the health of all ranks of Our Army, at home and abroad, and of providing for their medical care and treatment in cases of disease, wounds, and other casualties whatsoever, in the most approved manner, it is expedient that certain enquiries should be made into the constitution of the Medical Department of Our Army, the mode of appointment of its officers, and the system which regulates their rank, pay, promotion, and retirement; likewise it is further expedient to examine into the condition and administration of the Hospitals of Our Army, with a view to their increased efficiency.

Now know ye, that We, having taken into Our consideration the premises, do hereby order and direct you the said Sidney Herbert, Augustus Stafford Stafford, Sir Henry Knight Storks, Andrew Smith, Thomas Alexander, Sir Thomas Phillips, Sir James Clark, James Randal Martin, and John Sutherland, to enquire into the organization, government, and direction of the Medical Department of Our Army.

And firstly, to enquire into the mode by which candidates for first Commissions are selected, and the system adopted for their promotion and routine of service; also the mode adopted in regard to their pay and retiring allowances.

And further, We do order and direct you to enquire into the means now adopted for acquiring, keeping up, and adding to the professional knowledge of the officers of Our Medical Department, and to consider whether it will be expedient to encourage them to combine civil practice where compatible with military duty.

And further, We do order and direct you to enquire into the operation of the regulations now in force, with a view to the prevention of disease in Our Army, both at home and abroad, as regards barrack accommodation, encampments, clothing, rations, and other matters relating thereto, having regard to the various climates to which our troops are exposed, and the duties and responsibility of the medical authorities on these matters.

And further, We do order and direct you to enquire into the state and condition of military hospitals, both general and regimental.

Also into the system adopted in the same, or the treatment of Our soldiers, and the powers possessed or exercised by the Medical Superintendents or other functionaries in such hospitals, for providing diet, medicines, and every requisite for the medical and surgical treatment of the patients under their charge, together with the character of the diet, medical comforts, furniture, and other hospital supplies.

Also, We do further direct you to enquire generally as to the expenditure of such hospitals, and the financial control now exercised in and over the same, and the relative authority of the various departments whose functions are exercised within the hospitals.

And further, We do order and direct you to enquire into the rules and regulations, or the practice, in force for invaliding and discharging the soldiers of Our Army, when brought forward for discharge, as unfit for further service.

And further, We do order and direct you to enquire into the system of management and treatment of, and the provision made for, patients in civil hospitals, whether in immediate connection with Our Army or otherwise, and to consider whether such management or treatment, or any portion thereof, can be introduced with advantage in the Medical Department of Our Army.

And We further order and direct you to enquire into the expediency of making provision in Our military hospitals for the officers of Our Army suffering from disease or accident incurred in Our service, and to consider whether it will be advisable to provide in Our military hospitals for the treatment and cure of lunatic officers or soldiers, or to establish a separate military hospital or hospitals for that purpose, or in any other manner to provide for the treatment of such cases.

And We do further command and require you to report what changes you may consider it expedient to make in the organization, management, and expenditure of the Medical Department of Our Army, with a view to the utmost efficiency of this branch of Our military service, and what measures you may recommend to be adopted, with a view to the preservation of the health of Our troops at home and abroad; and also that you do report your opinion upon such returns or records as should be kept by the medical officers of Our Army, with a view to the preparation of a well digested and accurate body of military medical statistics.

And it is Our further will and pleasure that you, or any five or more of you, do obtain information touching the matters aforesaid by the examination of all persons most competent, by reason of their knowledge, habits, or experience to afford it, and also by calling for all documents, papers, or records which may appear to you, or any five or more of you, calculated to assist your researches and to promote the formation of a sound judgment on the subject, and that you, or any five or more of you, do report to us, under your hands and seals, your several proceedings, by virtue of this Our Commission, together with your opinions touching the several matters hereby referred for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and in the twentieth year of Our reign.
