ERRATA in the Gazette of the 15th May.

Re Davison's Patent Extension.

In this Advertisement the name of one of the original Patentees should have been spelt Symington, and not Lymington, and in the description of the process the word classification should have been desiccation.

In the Matter of certain Letters Patent granted to Robert Davison, of Brick Lane, Spital Fields, Civil Engineer, and William Symington, of East Smithfield, Civil Engineer, bearing date and sealed at Westminster, the 2nd day of November, 1843, for "a method of cleansing, sweetening, and purifying, casks, vats, and other vessels;" and also of certain other Letters Patent granted to the said Robert Davison and William Symington, bearing date and sealed at Edinburgh, the 1st day of July, 1844, and at Dublin the 26th day of September, 1844, respectively, for "a method or methods of drying, seasoning, purifying and hardening wood and other articles, either in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, parts of which are applicable to the preparation and desiccation of animal, vegetable, and mineral substances."

NOTICE is hereby given that, under and by virtue and in pursuance of an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 5th and 6th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions," and of another Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the 5th and 6th years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions,'" and of another Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act, passed in the 4th year of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdiction and powers,'" and of the Patent Law Amendment Act 1852; a Petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council by and on behalf of Robert Davison, assignee of the above mentioned Letters Patent for the "invention of a method of cleansing, sweetening and purifying casks, vats, and other vessels," and of so much of the two other above-mentioned Letters Patent as relate to the same invention, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the term of the said using and vending of the said invention. And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on the 20th day of June next, or on the then next day of sitting of the said Committee, to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition; and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 20th day of June.

Thomas Clark, 3, Dean's Court, St. Paul's Church Yard, London, Agent for the Petition.
