TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 1857.

Buckingham Palace, June 20, 1857.

THIS day the Archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied by the Bishops and Clergy of the province, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address; which was received by Her Majesty on the Throne :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, approach your Majesty with the assurance of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We feel it to be a ground of much thankfulness to Almighty God, that in offering this our accustomed Address, we are able to join with it, our humble congratulations on the blessings which it has pleased Him, to continue to your Majesty, and to your Illustrious Consort, blessings which are happily shared by the country at large, as well in regard to its internal tranquillity and welfare, as to the restoration of peace among the European Powers; at the same time we would desire to offer our respectful condolence, upon the loss of that excellent Princess, whose decease marks the removal of a generation of your Majesty's Illustrious House.

Since the last occasion when we were permitted to address your Majesty, several subjects of much interest to the National Church have been brought under our consideration. Amongst these, we humbly conceive, that none calls more urgently for our attention than the best mode of extending the blessings of the Church to the increasing population, which has far outgrown the actual provision both of the number of Clergy, and of the funds available for their support. Whilst we deeply regret this spiritual destitution, we thankfully acknowledge the measure of private liberality which has been directed towards the purpose of conveying the means of grace to our population at home, and to those colonial possessions of your Majesty which are so widely extending the laws, the language, the liberties, and, as we trust, the religion, of our native land.

It is a gratifying reflection that through private munificence, with little assistance from private sources, your Majesty's reign has been signalized by the erection of new sees in every quarter of the globe, from Africa to New Zealand, from Victoria to Rupert's Land.

We have observed with satisfaction, that your Majesty has been pleased to appoint a Commission to consider the boundaries of some of the Dioceses in England, and we earnestly pray that their enquiries and recommendations may be so directed, as to promote the efficiency and well being of our Church.

In the promotion of Public Education, a question which intimately concerns us, as Ministers of Religion, we thankfully acknowledge the liberal aid afforded us by Public Grants. The attention directed towards the instruction of the young, is a marked feature of the present age. But we deeply deplore the difficulties which in too many cases induce the labouring classes to remove their children from school at a very early age, before they have received the full advantages of a sound education, and been properly instructed in their duty towards God and Man. It is difficult to suggest the remedy. But if it should please your Majesty, in accordance with the spirit of that general summons in your Majesty's writ, "to treat of certain difficult and urgent affairs concerning your Majesty, the security and defence of the Church of England, and the peace and tranquillity, public good of your kingdom, and your subjects of the same." To commit to our special deliberation, this or any other questions affecting the interests of our holy religion, or the usefulness of the Church, we trust that we shall not be found unmindful of the solemn character of the functions we are called to discharge; and shall conduct our proceedings in a spirit of reverent dependence upon the divine blessing, and with the diligence which would become us, in obeying your Majesty's commands.

Hitherto the shortness of time given to our consultations has, in a great measure, frustrated the advantages which we humbly trust would result, if fuller opportunity were afforded for ascertaining the opinions of the Clergy, by discussion in Convocation.

Meanwhile, we assure your Majesty, that any difficulties which may impede our endeavours to convey the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as the ruling principle of life, to every parish, and to every individual in the land, will rather serve to stimulate than restrain our exertions; and we have the encouragement of knowing, that, whilst we attempt to carry into effect this important purpose, we are promoting the earnest wish and prayer of your Majesty, whom God has appointed to be our supreme Governor on earth, and whom we trust that He may long preserve to see the increase of temporal prosperity, and the growth of true religion throughout your Majesty's dominions.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I receive with much gratification, your renewed assurance of loyal and affectionate attachment to my throne and person, and I thank you for your expression of sympathy with my deep sorrow for the recent loss of my late beloved aunt, the Duchess of Gloucester. I heartily concur in your feelings of gratitude to Almighty God for the many and great blessings which he has bestowed on my family and on this nation, and I sincerely pray that your zealous endeavours to increase the efficiency of the church, to extend its ministrations, and to render them as conducive as possible, to the advancement throughout my dominions of peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, will, by the divine blessing, tend to establish our national prosperity on the surest foundations, and to promote the permanent welfare, and highest interests of all classes of my people."

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the printed newspapers hereinafter mentioned.

2. That on every newspaper transmitted under this Warrant, as hereinbefore is mentioned, exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such newspaper, above the weight of eight ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such newspaper would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

3. That every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

4. That every newspaper which shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and restrictions made by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 24th day of December, 1855, so far as the same are applicable thereto, and also to the several further orders and directions hereinafter-mentioned and contained.

5. That Her Majesty's Postmaster-General shall and may charge, all or any such newspapers sent by the post, otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations mentioned or referred to in this Warrant, with such rate or rates of postage not exceeding in amount such rates or rate as would be chargeable upon the same as letters or a letter, as to him shall seem fit.

6. That the rates of postage chargeable on printed newspapers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

7. That the respective packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage, respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

8. That the term "British Newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning as the term "British Newspaper," used in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856; and that the term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean every port or place in Asia within the limits of the Charter of the East India Company (China, Hong Kong, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted), and that the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

9. That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates, orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

10. That this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.
