At three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort having passed into the Chapter-Room) they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that the two vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, be filled ; and as, by the statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, the Right Honourable Granville-George, Earl Granville, was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state ; and his lordship having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Most Honourable Richard, Marquess of Westminster, was next introduced, and having been knighted, with the same ceremony, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Right Honourable Granville-George Earl Granville, Lord President of Her Majesty's Council, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Earl Fortescue and Viscount Palmerston, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

Earl Granville, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter, on his knees, presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next, in like manner, presented the Ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonitition; the Earl then again kissed Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were presented to the Sovereign, when the Most Honourable Richard, Marquess of Westminster, was, by Her Majesty's command, declared duly elected, and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the Ribband and George, with the like ceremonies.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.
