AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the 340th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted, that "The Master or Mate of any ship may, upon giving due notice and consenting to pay the usual expenses, apply to any pilotage authority to be examined as to his capacity to pilot the ship of which he is master or mate or any, one or more ships belonging to the same owner, within any part of the district over which such pilotage authority has jurisdiction, and such master or mate shall, if such authority thinks fit, thereupon be examined, and, if found competent, a pilotage certificate shall be granted to him, containing his name, a specification of the ship or ships in respect of which he has been examined, and a description of the limits within which he is to pilot the same, such limits to be within such jurisdiction as aforesaid; and such certificate shall enable the person therein named to pilot the ship or any of the ships therein specified of which he is acting as master or mate at the time, but no other, within the limits therein described, without incurring any penalties for the non-employment of a qualified pilot."

And whereas by the 332nd section of that Act, it is enacted that "Every pilotage authority shall have power, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt the masters of any ships, or of any classes of ships, from being compelled to employ qualified pilots, and to annex any terms or conditions to such exemptions, and to revise and extend any exemptions now existing by virtue of the said Act, or any other Act of

"That the ship or ships which he is so qualified to pilot shall be of no greater draught of water than the ship or ships in respect of which his certificate was granted.

"And that the name and description of every ship which he is so qualified to pilot shall have been by or with the consent of the said Trinity House first added to, or endorsed upon, his certificate."

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said bye-law is proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve and consent to, the said bye-law as a bye-law of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond.

PRESENT,

- "6. Ships passing through the limits of any pilotage district, on their voyages between two places both situate out of such limits, and not being bound to any place within such limits, nor anchoring therein."

And whereas it is expedient that such ships as aforesaid, shall be exempted from compulsory pilotage as well when carrying passengers, as when not carrying passengers; and, by the 332nd section of the said Act, it is enacted that every pilotage authority shall have power by bye-law, made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt the Masters of any ships, or of any classes of ships, from being compelled to employ qualified pilots; and to annex any terms and conditions to such exemptions; and to revise and extend any exemptions now existing by virtue of the said Act upon such terms and conditions, and in such manner, as may appear desirable to such authority.

And whereas the Trinity House, as a pilotage authority under the said Act, has submitted for the consent of Her Majesty in Council the following bye-law; viz.:

"That all ships mentioned in the 379th section of 'The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,' shall be exempted from compulsory pilotage in the London District, and in the Trinity House Outport Districts, as well when carrying passengers as when not carrying passengers, provided, as regards any such ship when carrying passengers, the Master or his Mate have a pilotage certificate in force for the time being, enabling such Master or Mate to pilot such ship within such district or districts, granted under the provisions either of the 340th or of the 355th section of the said Act."

NOTICE TO SHIP OWNERS AND MASTERS.

Formalities enjoined by the Turkish Authorities for Vessels passing through the Dardanelles.

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch and its inclosures from Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, calling attention to the disregard shewn by British Ship Masters to the regulations laid down by the Turkish authorities for all ships passing through the Dardanelles.

Shipowners and Masters are accordingly cautioned, that the facilities which were temporarily granted to Transports passing through the Dardanelles during the late War have been withdrawn, and that vessels are now required as formerly to stop at the Dardanelles for the purpose of completing the necessary formalities, and of delivering the Firmans granted to them at Constantinople.

Hitherto, upon the non-observance of these regulations, the Turkish authorities have been in the habit of firing blank cartridge to attract the attention of vessels passing by the forts; but as this lenient mode of proceeding has not had the desired effect, the Pacha in command has signified to Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople his determination no longer to tolerate such unwarrantable and manifestly wilful irregularities, and has ordered that (after allowing a reasonable time for the notification to masters of steam vessels and their agents at Constantinople of his intention) shotted guns shall be fired into any vessel attempting to evade the regulations in question.
