

empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable :

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Beckingham, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section three, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the twenty-eight day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section three, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation with respect to an alteration of the boundaries of the district chapelry called 'The Trinity District,' in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the fourth day of the following month of June, the said Trinity District was duly assigned out of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would be expedient that the boundaries of such district should be altered by adding thereto a portion of the adjacent parish of Saint James, Dover, in the said county and diocese as herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury (who is patron in right of his see of the said district chapelry, called Trinity District, and of the said parish of Saint James, Dover), and of the Reverend William Edward Light, Incumbent of the said parish of Saint James, Dover, and of the Reverend Lewis Borrett White, Incumbent of Trinity District aforesaid, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed these presents, we beg leave to represent that it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry, called Trinity District, shall hereafter be altered by the addition to such district chapelry, of all that part of the said parish of Saint James, Dover, which is situated to the south, west, and south-west, of an imaginary line, commencing at a point on the sea shore, opposite to the middle of the roadway or passage between the premises, known as Marsh's Baths, and the house, numbered 1, in Waterloocrescent, and thence proceeding along the middle of such roadway or passage and of the roadway leading thence to the street, called the New Bridge, and also along the middle of such last-mentioned street, until it crosses the boundary between the said parish of Saint James, and the parish of Saint Mary, Dover, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed addition and alteration be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the like advice, to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.
