THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 15th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

SALT MEAT,

of the cure of any country, and all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

	NAVY BEEF.		NAVY PORK.
	Tierces.	Barrels.	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford .....	2,500	2,000	2,500	2,000
Gosport .....	1,500	1,200	1,500	1,200
Plymouth ...	1,500	1,200	1,500	1,200
Haulbowline	1,000	600	1,000	600

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port, must give a separate tender for each Port.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows, viz. :—One-third of each quantity for each place by the 9th day of January, 1858; another third thereof by the 27th day of February, 1858; and the remainder thereof by the 15th day of April, 1858, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable in seven days from and after the respective dates thereof.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the revised form of contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Bills in payment for any beef or pork delivered into Her Majesty's Stores will be sent to parties upon transmitting the usual certificates of receipt.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

In the Matter of an Act passed in the session held in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates," and in the Matter of two pieces of land, partly freehold and partly copyhold, situate at Little Bealings, in the county of Suffolk, being part of the estates settled by the will of Elizabeth Capper, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application has been made by petition to the High Court of Chancery, before his Honour the Master of the Rolls, under the above mentioned Act, for the purpose of authorizing the sale and disposition of all those two pieces of land, situate at Little Bealings, in the said county of Suffolk, commonly called or known by the name of Great Beacons and Little Beacons, containing together by admeasurement 9A. 2R. 18P., be the same more or less, and in the occupation of Frederick Groom, including the timber and other trees thereon. And notice is hereby given, that the name, address, and description, of the petitioner in these matters, is Francis Capper Brooke, of Ufford, in the county of Suffolk, Esq. Any person wishing to be heard in opposition to such application must apply to his Honour the Master of the Rolls, by motion for leave to appear and may be heard in opposition thereto, within seven clear days after the 7th day of November, 1857, being the last day on which this advertisement will be published, and that Messrs. Clowes, Son, and Hickley, are the Solicitors to the petitioner, in the matters of this petition, and that their office, No. 10, King's Bench-walk, Temple, London, is the place where the petitioner may be served with any order of this Court or notice relating to the subject of the petition.—Dated this 19th day of August, 1857.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty (cap 120), intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates," and in the Matter of the freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates, devised and bequeathed by the will of the late Right Honourable Digby, seventh Baron Middleton, deceased, situate in the parishes of Westerleigh, Puckchurch, Henbury (inclusively of the tithings or chapelrys of Redwick and Northwick), Westbury-upon-Trium, Shirehampton, Compton, Greenfield, Almondsbury, Bitton, Mangotsfield, and Siston, in the county of Gloucester, and in the parish of Wick, or Wick St. Lawrence, in the county of Somerset.

WHEREAS a petition in the matter of the above-mentioned Act, and in the matter of the freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates, devised and bequeathed by the above-mentioned will, situate in the parishes of Westerleigh, Henbury, Mangotsfield, and Siston, in the county of Gloucester, and in the parish of Wick St. Lawrence, in the county of Somerset, was lately presented to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before the Vice Chancellor Sir William Page Wood), by the Right Honourable Henry, Lord Middleton, and others, praying that such of the estates, comprised in, and devised by the said will, as were situate in the said counties of Gloucester and Somerset, or either of those counties, might be sold, under the direction of the Court of Chancery, in manner therein prayed, and that the moneys to arise by such sale might be paid to and applied by the trustees of the said will, in manner in the said petition also prayed, and that the costs and expenses of and incidental to that application, and the expenses of the said sale, might be paid out of the same moneys; and whereas a notice of the said petition (and which was intituled similarly to the said petition), was advertised in certain newspapers, pursuant to the directions of the said Vice Chancellor, but it was afterwards discovered by the petitioners, that the said petition and notice respectively were defectively intituled, and required to be amended in that particular and otherwise; and whereas the said petition coming on to be heard before the said Vice Chancellor, on the 27th day of July last, his Honour directed (amongst other things), the said petition to be amended accordingly, and which has since been done; now therefore notice is hereby given, that an application will be made on behalf of the petitioners, and come on to be heard before the said Vice Chancellor Sir William Page Wood (who is the vacation Judge), on or after the 21st day of September, 1857, for an order upon the said amended petition, and which petition, as amended, is intitled in the several hereinabove matters, and prays that such of the freehold, copyhold, and leasehold hereditaments and premises, comprised in, and devised and bequeathed by the said will, as are situate in the said counties of Gloucester and Somerset respectively, or either of those counties, together with all engines, machinery, implements, goods, chattels, and effects, in or upon or used or employed about such collieries, as form part of the same hereditaments and premises or any of them may be sold under the direction of the said Court, and that the moneys to arise by such sale may be paid to and applied by the trustees of the said will, in manner in the said petition prayed, and that the costs and expenses of and incident to that application, and the expenses of the said sale, may be paid out of the same moneys. Notice is hereby further given, that any person or body corporate desiring so to do, may apply to the said Court of Chancery (and in particular to the said Vice Chancellor, at his chambers in Lincoln's-inn), for leave to be heard in opposition to, or in support of the said petition, and may be furnished by the undersigned, with a copy of the said petition, upon payment of the regulated charge for the same, and that the said petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of the undersigned, Solicitors, No. 63, Lincoln's-inn-fields (W.C.), in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 24th day of August, 1857.
