TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1857.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, August 28, 1857.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament; and at the same time to express to you Her Majesty's cordial acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have performed your important duties during a Session which, though shorter than usual, has nevertheless been unusually laborious.

Her Majesty commands us to express to you Her satisfaction that the present state of affairs in Europe inspires a well-grounded confidence in the continuance of Peace.

The arrangements connected with the full execution of the stipulations of the Treaty of Paris have from various causes not yet been completed; but Her Majesty trusts that by the earnest efforts of the contracting parties to that Treaty all that remains to be done with reference to its stipulations may ere long be satisfactorily settled.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that the extensive mutinies which have broken out among the Native troops of the army of Bengal, followed by serious disturbances in many parts of that Presidency, have occasioned to Her Majesty extreme concern; and the barbarities which have been inflicted upon many of Her Majesty's subjects in India, and the sufferings which have been endured, have filled Her Majesty's heart with the deepest grief; while the conduct of many civil and military officers, who have been placed in circumstances of much difficulty, and have been exposed to great danger, has excited Her Majesty's warmest admiration.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that She will omit no measure calculated to quell these grave disorders; and Her Majesty is confident that, with the blessing of providence, the powerful means at Her disposal will enable Her to accomplish that end.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the service of the present year, and for the assurances which you have given Her of your readiness to afford Her Majesty whatever support may be necessary for the restoration of tranquillity in India.

Her Majesty has been gratified to find that you have been enabled to provide the amount required to be paid to Denmark for the redemption of the Sound dues, without on that account adding to the National Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to convey to you Her heartfelt acknowledgments for the provision which you have made for Her beloved daughter the Princess Royal, on Her approaching marriage with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that She has seen with satisfaction that, although the present Session has been short, you have been able to pass many Acts of great importance, and to which Her Majesty has given Her cordial assent.

The Acts for establishing a more efficient jurisdiction for the proving of wills in England and Ireland correct defects which have for many years been complained of.

The Act for amending the law relating to divorce and to matrimonial causes will remedy evils which have long been felt.

The several Acts for the punishment of fraudulent breaches of trust;

For amending the law relating to secondary punishments;

For amending the law concerning joint stock banks;

For consolidating and amending the law relating to bankruptcy and insolvency in Ireland;

For the better care and treatment of pauper lunatics in Scotland;

For improving the organization of the county police in Scotland;

Together with other Acts of less importance, but likewise tending to the progressive improvement of the law, have met with Her Majesty's ready assent.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to express to you Her confidence, that, on your return to your several counties, you will employ that influence which so justly belongs to you, to promote the welfare and happiness of Her loyal and faithful people; and She prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend and prosper your endeavours.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Friday the sixth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday the sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorize the embodying of "the Militia," after reciting that whereas the sudden demand for the services in India of a large body of Her Majesty's regular forces, may render it expedient to draw out and embody the militia or some part of the militia of the United Kingdom; it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, respectively, at any time after the passing of this Act, and before the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to cause all or any part of the respective militias in England, Scotland, and Ireland, to be drawn out and embodied in like manner as in the respective cases in which such militia are now by law authorized to be drawn out and embodied.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct that the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or proportion of them, or any of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby order and direct the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or portion of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-six, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, section eleven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-six, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, section eleven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the dean and canons of the cathedral church of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the annual incomes of the dean and canons of the said cathedral church are subject to much fluctuation and uncertainty, and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry and consideration, that the following arrangement should be adopted for regulating such incomes:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of the cathedral church of Canterbury, in this present and every future year so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said cathedral church, a correct account in writing, in such form and verified in such manner as we shall from time to time direct, showing every sum of money, from whatsoever source arising, which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to the dean and each canon in respect of the deanery, and of each canony of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid, and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount which may have so become due and payable to any such dean shall exceed the sum of two thousand pounds, or to any such canon the sum of one thousand pounds, then and in every such case the amount of the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said treasurer to our credit at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable in the case of any such dean shall be less than the sum of two thousand pounds, or in the case of any such canon less than the sum of one thousand pounds, then and in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency; and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by the same dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates under the provisions of the said Acts.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding, upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canony, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canons so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of two thousand pounds, or one thousand pounds respectively, and no more, as shall be proportioned, according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or any canonry, all the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof would if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy, out of the revenues of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid, after such audit; and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of two thousand pounds in the case of a dean, and one thousand pounds in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us; and that in case the amount of such moneys shall be below the said sum of two thousand pounds or one thousand pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay, in respect of such deanery or canonry, any greater sums for that year than shall together be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year to two thousand pounds or one thousand pounds, as the case may be; and that the respective incomes of two thousand pounds to the dean and one thousand pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall, on every such vacancy as last aforesaid, be strictly apportionable between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statutes or usage of the said cathedral church relating to the division of the corporate revenues thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Very Reverend Henry Alford, Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Canterbury, testified by his having hereunto set his hand and seal, that the provisions of this scheme shall apply to and affect him, the said Henry Alford, and the income payable to him as such dean.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said cathedral church, or the deans and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, section twelve; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Notting Hill, in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Notting Hill aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the Reverend John Philip Gell, incumbent of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, testified by their having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, and that the same should be named 'The District chapelry of Saint Peter, Notting Hill.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The district chapelry of Saint Peter, Notting Hill, being all that part of the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, which is situate on the eastern side of a line commencing at a point marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed, in the street or road called Ledbury-road, where it crosses the boundary of such district parish, and thence extending southward along the middle of such road to a point opposite to the middle of the street or road called Westbourne-gardens, and extending thence westward along such last-mentioned street or road, and of the streets or roads called

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections nine and twenty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, sections four and twenty-three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections nine and twenty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, sections four and twenty-three, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the said parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a deed, bearing date the twenty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between the Right Honourable Charles William Earl Fitzwilliam, of the first part; the Reverend Edmund Davys, Clerk, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, of the second part; the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough and Ordinary of the parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, and also, in right of his bishoprick, patron of the said vicarage, of the third part; and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part; which deed is intended forthwith to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, the said Charles William Earl Fitzwilliam has granted and secured to the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors incumbents thereof for the time being, and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein secondly named Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the said new parish, a clear annual sum of one hundred pounds, by means of a rentcharge issuing out of and charged upon certain lands and hereditaments belonging to the said Earl, situate and being in the said parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough.

"And whereas by the same deed the said Edmund Davys has, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, granted and secured to the incumbent of the said district or new parish, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors incumbents thereof for the time being, a clear annual sum of thirty pounds, by means of a rentcharge issuing out of and charged upon certain lands and hereditaments situate in the parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, forming part of the endowments of the said vicarage of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Charles William, Earl Fitzwilliam, and by the said Edmund Davys, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the benefaction towards the endowment of the incumbent of the district or new parish hereinafter recommended to be constituted, firstly above mentioned, the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and the right of nomination of the incumbent of the same, should be assigned to the said Charles William, Earl Fitzwilliam, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint John Baptist, Peterborough, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed (all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed), shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Saint Mary, Boongate."

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the incumbent for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the said secondly named Act, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the said new parish, the sum of twenty pounds; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such incumbent as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the incumbent making the vacancy or his personal representative or representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to such district or new parish: provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed or secured to such incumbent and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Charles William, Earl Fitzwilliam, his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

SCHEDULE.

The district of SAINT MARY, BOONGATE, being—
