Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1857.

[The following Order of Her Majesty in Council has been substituted for Her Order, of the same date, published in the London Gazette of the 1st September instant.]

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, in the counties of Surrey and Kent, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by Orders made by your Majesty in Council, bearing date respectively the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette, the district of Saint James, Hatcham, was constituted out of the parish of Saint Paul, Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, and the right of patronage of the said district of Saint James, Hatcham, and of the nomination of the minister thereof for the first turn of presentation, was assigned to Alexander Read, of Dorset-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire; and whereas the Reverend Augustus Kerr Bozzi Granville was duly nominated and licensed to the said district; and whereas the said district has since become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the provisions of the said Act, and the said Augustus Kerr Bozzi Granville is now the perpetual curate thereof.

"And whereas a suitable house of residence for the perpetual curate for the time being of the said new parish has been provided by the said Augustus Kerr Bozzi Granville upon the understanding that in consideration thereof we should recommend to your Majesty in Council that the right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, should be assigned to the said Augustus Kerr Bozzi Granville, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day upon which such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Augustus Kerr Bozzi Granville, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, September 10, 1857.

Whitehall, September 10, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto the Right Honourable Thomas Babington Macaulay, and to the heirs male of his body, lawfully begotten, by the name, style, and title of Baron Macaulay, of Rothley, in the county of Leicester.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, September 10, 1857.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Helsingfors, reporting that the Imperial Senate of Finland has notified that rye, corn, oats, meal, and grits of those cereals, peas, and potatoes, may be imported, duty free, into the Grand Duchy of Finland, until the 31st December next.

War-Office, Pall-Mall, 11th September, 1857.

REGULATIONS to be observed at the magazines, Liverpool, during the repair of one of the magazines, authorized by Master-General of Ordnance, as per Gazette of 25th February, 1852, and to continue in force until the magazine is again moored for the reception of powder.

1. All vessels having gunpowder on board are to hoist a red flag, which is to be kept up until the whole of the powder is discharged.

2. The import vessel is not to anchor within a quarter of a mile of the magazine; before anchoring all fires are to be completely extinguished, and they are not on any account to be relighted until the powder is discharged.

3. In any lighter used for the temporary accommodation of powder during the repair of the magazine, all iron bolts, nails, &c., in the hold or other part of the vessel, which may be at all liable to be brought into contact with the powder barrels, are to be carefully covered with sheet lead or pieces of leather, secured by copper nails; and the Master is enjoined to assure himself by frequent examination that such is the case.

4. On receiving powder on board the lighter, the Master is to see that the platform in the vessel's hold and the gangways and coverings of the hatchways are covered with tanned hides, the hold having previously been carefully swept and freed from grit or dust.

5. While any powder continues on board, the vessel is on no account to be left without either the Master or the Mate, and one other man.

6. The men employed in receiving or discharging the powder are to be clothed in canvas frocks, and trousers, and to wear magazine slippers, such clothing to be worn at no other time.

7. No lights are to be allowed, except the signal one; another for the watch, which is to have water under it; and a temporary light in an approved hand-lantern, which is to be brought from the shore for the purpose of lighting the signal and the light for the watch, and which is then to be extinguished. Smoking is strictly prohibited, and under no pretence whatever is any lucifer match to be permitted on board.

8. Import vessels with mixed cargoes are to observe the same precautions in approaching the lighter and discharging their powder as they would do under similar circumstances at the magazine.

9. Printed copies of these regulations are to be given to the masters and placed in conspicuous parts of the vessels.

10. Any lighter used for the foregoing purposes is to be under the direction of the authorized Storekeeper of the magazines.

By order of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War.

J. R. Godley.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 7, 1857.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the grant for the destruction of pirates in the Chinese seas, by Her Majesty's ship Bittern, between the 27th June, 1854, and the 30th March, 1856.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Independent Chapel, situated at High-street, in the parish of Eltham, in the county of Kent, in the district of Lewisham Union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of August, 1857, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 4th day of September, 1857.

Tho. Parker, jr., Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Congregational Church, situated at Huyton Park, in the parish of Huyton, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Prescott, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 1st day of September, 1857, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 8th day of September, 1857.

Thomas Tyrer, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building named the Roman Catholic Chapel, situated at Saint James's-square, in the parish of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, in the district of Cheltenham, being a building licensed and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic chapel exclusively, was, on the 31st day of August, 1857, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 5th day of September, 1857.

Rowd. J. Ticehurst, Superintendent Registrar.

East India House, 2nd September, 1857.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company publish, for the information of Proprietors of Promissory Notes of the Bengal Four per Cent. Loans, who may not be resident in India, the following Notification, which has been issued by the Government of India, and published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary of the 20th of July, 1857.

No. 27.

Financial Department, the 20th July, 1857.

The holders of Four per Cent. Promissory Notes of this Government are hereby informed that, until further orders, subscriptions to the open Five per Cent. Loan will be received from them, half in cash and half in the said promissory notes.

In cases in which promissory notes of the Sicca Rupee Loans are subscribed, and in which, by conversion into Company's rupees, the amount of such notes, added to the equivalent amount subscribed in cash, may not make up even hundreds, it will be optional with the holders to pay such additional sums in cash as may be necessary to make up even hundreds, or to receive back the difference between the amount of the notes subscribed and the amount necessary to make up even hundreds.

Any broken interest that may be due on the Four per Cent. Promissory Notes will be paid at the time the notes are subscribed to the Five per Cent. Loan.

(Signed) C. H. Lushington, Secretary to the Government of India.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

Board of Trade, Corn Department.

Published by Authority of Parliament.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

In the Matter of certain letters patent, granted to Peter Rothwell Jackson, of Strawberry-hill, near Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, bearing date and sealed at Westminster, the 24th day of February, 1844, in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, for "certain improvements in the construction and manufacture of wheels, cylinders, hoops and rollers, and in the machinery or apparatus connected therewith, and also improvements in steam valves;" and of certain other letters patent, granted to the said Peter Rothwell Jackson, bearing date the 17th day of September, in the eighth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, and sealed at Edinburgh, the 24th day of September, 1844, for "certain improvements in the construction and manufacture of wheels, cylinders, hoops and rollers, and in the machinery or apparatus connected therewith, and also improvements in steam valves;" and of certain other letters patent, granted to the said Peter Rothwell Jackson, bearing date the 23rd day of October, in the eighth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, and enrolled at Dublin, the 8th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1844, for "certain improvements in the construction and manufacture of wheels, cylinders, hoops and rollers, and in the machinery or apparatus connected therewith, and also improvements in steam valves."

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue, and in pursuance of, an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;" and of an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled 'An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;'" and of an Act made and passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act for the better administration of justice in Her Majesty's Privy Council, and to extend its jurisdiction and powers, and of the 'Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852;'" a petition will be presented to Her Majesty in Council, by the said Peter Rothwell Jackson, praying Her Majesty to grant a prolongation of the terms of sole using and vending the said invention, granted in the said several letters patent to the said Peter Rothwell Jackson. And notice is hereby given, that, on the 22nd day of October next, an application will be made to the Right Honourable the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, for the said Committee to fix an early day for the hearing of the matters contained in the said petition, and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, must enter a caveat at the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 22nd day of October next.—Dated this 5th day of September, in the year of our Lord, 1857.

Gregory, Gregory, Skirrow and Rowcliffe,
Bedford-row, London; Agents for Rushton and Armistead, of Bolton, Solicitors for the said Peter Rothwell Jackson.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, of September 4, 1857.]

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Tipperary Joint Stock Bank, and the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857.

IT appearing to be expedient, and for the benefit of the parties interested, I, Jeremiah John Murphy, the Master of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, charged with the winding up of this Company, do hereby require the creditors of the said Tipperary Joint Stock Bank to meet before me, on the 22nd day of October next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon, at my chambers, Inn's-quay, in the city of Dublin, for the purpose of appointing one or more person or persons (other than the Official Manager) to represent all the creditors of the said Tipperary Joint Stock Company in and about the proceedings before me in this matter, or such of the same proceedings as shall from time to time seem expedient.

The creditors who have already proved their debts, or whose debts have been admitted by the Official Manager on the file of proceedings, or who, previously to such meeting, shall have lodged an affidavit of their debt before me, and who would be entitled to vote in the choice of assignees in bankruptcy, may by themselves attend, or may authorise any other person, by any letter or writing signed by such creditor on unstamped paper, to appear for such creditor at such meeting, to choose some person or persons to represent all the creditors of the said Company accordingly.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1857.

J. J. Murphy.

James Dillon Meldon, Solicitor, Chambers,
14, Upper Ormond-quay, Dublin.

SALE OF PROVISIONS, &c., AT DEPTFORD

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
August 27, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Wednesday the 16th September next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, the Captain Superintendent will put up to sale, in Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, several lots of

NAVY, ARMY, AND VICTUALLING STORES,

Consisting of Salt Beef and Pork, Compressed Vegetables, Coffee, Clothing, &c., &c., &c., all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
August 12, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 15th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

of the cure of any country, and all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

NAVY BEEF. NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	2,500	2,000	2,500	2,000
Gosport	1,500	1,200	1,500	1,200
Plymouth ...	1,500	1,200	1,500	1,200
Haulbowline	1,000	600	1,000	600

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port, must give a separate tender for each Port.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows, viz.:—One-third of each quantity for each place by the 9th day of January, 1858; another third thereof by the 27th day of February, 1858; and the remainder thereof by the 15th day of April, 1858, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable in seven days from and after the respective dates thereof.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the revised form of contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Bills in payment for any beef or pork delivered into Her Majesty's Stores will be sent to parties upon transmitting the usual certificates of receipt.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR COCOA, SOAP, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 26, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 14th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Gosport and Plymouth, the undermentioned articles, viz. :

Cocoa, 100 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 100 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 15 tons, Gosport; 10 tons, Plymouth; half of each to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, but separate tenders must be made for each port, and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The cocoa and tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package (not less than 1 lb. for each port), must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the packet service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an Agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR MUSTARD SEED.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 29, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 17th September next, at half
