NOTICE TO MARINERS.

IRELAND—WEST COAST.

Arran Islands' Lights.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation hereby give notice that two new lighthouses have been erected on the Arran Islands, off the west coast of the county of Galway, from which lights will be exhibited during the night of the 1st of December, 1857, and thenceforth will be lighted every night from sunset to sunrise.

Specification given of the position and appearance of the Lights, by Mr. Halpin, Superintendent of Lighthouses.

Arran Islands North Lighthouse is built on Rock Island, the outermost of the chain, in lat. 53° 8' 55" N. and Long. 9° 51' 30" west of Greenwich, bearing from Slyne Head South Light, S. b E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., distant 20 $\frac{1}{2}$ nautical miles; from Skird Rocks, S. b E., distant 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ miles; from Loophead, N.E. b N., distant 36 miles.

This light will be a revolving light, of the natural appearance, giving a bright flash once in every three minutes, and will be visible from seaward between the bearings of W.N.W., round by the westward to N.W. by N. The illuminating apparatus is catadioptric of the first order, its focal point 115 feet over the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather the light should be visible at a distance of 16 miles.

The tower is circular, of gray stone colour, 101 feet in height from base to summit; the top below the lantern sash will be painted red, also two horizontal belts will be coloured red, on the tower.

Arran Islands South Lighthouse is erected on the south-western point of Inisheer, the most southern of the islands, in lat. 53° 2' 40" N., and long. 9° 31' 30" W., it bears from Blackhead, W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S. distant 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from Finnis Rock, (off S.E. point of Inisheer) W. b N $\frac{1}{4}$ N., distant 1½ miles; from Loophead, N.E. b E. distant 33 miles.

This light will be a fixed light, visible from seaward between the bearings of S.E. ¾ S., round by the southward to W. b S., and having its focal plane 110 feet over the mean level of the sea, should be seen in clear weather within a distance of 15 miles. The illuminating apparatus is catadioptric of the first order. A strip or sector of red light will be shown in the direction of the Finnis Rock—in all other directions the light will be of the natural appearance.

The tower is circular, of gray stone colour below the projecting gallery, and is 112 feet in height from its base to the top of the dome.

From and after the date of exhibition of the new lights, the old light heretofore on the summit of Inishmore, or the Great Island, will be discontinued, and the lantern and top of the old light-house tower will be removed.

[Bearings are magnetic, Var. (at the Arran Islands in 1857) 27¼° W.]

By order,

W. Lees, Secretary.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, of September 4, 1857.]

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Tipperary Joint Stock Bank, and the Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857.

It appearing to be expedient, and for the benefit of the parties interested, I, Jeremiah John Murphy, the Master of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, charged with the winding up of this Company, do hereby require the creditors of the said Tipperary Joint Stock Bank to meet before me, on the 22nd day of October next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon, at my chambers, Inn's-quay, in the city of Dublin, for the purpose of appointing one or more person or persons (other than the Official Manager) to represent all the creditors of the said Tipperary Joint Stock Company in and about the proceedings before me in this matter, or such of the same proceedings as shall from time to time seem expedient.

The creditors who have already proved their debts, or whose debts have been admitted by the Official Manager on the file of proceedings, or who, previously to such meeting, shall have lodged an affidavit of their debt before me, and who would be entitled to vote in the choice of assignees in bankruptcy, may by themselves attend, or may authorise any other person, by any letter or writing signed by such creditor on unstamped paper, to appear for such creditor at such meeting, to choose some person or persons to represent all the creditors of the said Company accordingly.—Dated this 1st day of September, 1857.

J. J. Murphy.

James Dillon Meldon, Solicitor, Chambers,
14, Upper Ormond-quay, Dublin.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
August 12, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 15th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

B 2

of the cure of any country, and all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

NAVY BEEF. NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	2,500 ...	2,000 ...	2,500 ...	2,000
Gosport	1,500 ...	1,200 ...	1,500 ...	1,200
Plymouth ...	1,500 ...	1,200 ...	1,500 ...	1,200
Haulbowline	1,000 ...	600 ...	1,000 ...	600

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port, must give a separate tender for each Port.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows, viz.:—One-third of each quantity for each place by the 9th day of January, 1858; another third thereof by the 27th day of February, 1858; and the remainder thereof by the 15th day of April, 1858, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable in seven days from and after the respective dates thereof.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the revised form of contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Bills in payment for any beef or pork delivered into Her Majesty's Stores will be sent to parties upon transmitting the usual certificates of receipt.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT AND SPLIT PEAS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 26, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice that on Thursday the 17th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Wheat, 3,000 quarters, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 300 quarters, Deptford; 200 quarters, Gosport; 150 quarters, Plymouth; half of each to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60lbs. per bushel.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, but separate tenders must be made for each port, and no attention will be paid to any offer not so made.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the wheat and peas (not less than 2 quarts of each for each port), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs, at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR MUSTARD SEED.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 29, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 17th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Mustard Seed (Brown), 150 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Mustard Seed (White) 150 quarters, half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the seed.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the seed (not less than 2 quarts of each) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to Commander Bevis conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Mustard Seed," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR SWINGING LAMPS AND MESS UTENSILS.

Transport Department, Admiralty, Somerset-House, August 31, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Friday the 25th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Transport Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of Swinging Lamps, Knives, Forks, Spoons, Bowls, Plates, and Dishes, &c., &c., &c., as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles, and the conditions of the revised contract, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Lamps and Mess Utensils," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR NECESSARIES AND BARRACK STORES FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, September 10, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 1st October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning, the undermentioned articles for the use of the Royal Marines, viz.:

NECESSARIES:

Linen Holdalls, Braces, Knives, Forks, and Spoons, Worsted Gloves, Shoe and Clothes Brushes.

BARRACK STORES:

Sheets, Bed Cords, Sacking Bottoms, Cabbage Nets, Brooms, Brushes, Mops, and Coal Baskets.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, No. 15, Duke-street, Westminster, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

The conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

Bank of England, September 10, 1857.
