ARTICULO I.

Desde la fecha en que este Convenio se ponga en vigor conforme á lo dispuesto en el Artículo XIII, los autores de obras literarias ó artisticas á quienes las leyes de uno de los dos paises conceden ahora ó concedieren en lo sucesivo el derecho de propiedad ó de reproduccion, tendrán la facultad de ejercer este derecho en los dominios del otro pais durante el mismo tiempo y en los mismos limites en que se ejerciese en este otro pais el derecho concedido á los autores de obras de igual clase publicadas en el; por manera que la reproduccion ó publicación fraudulenta en uno de los dos Estados de cualquiera obra literaria ó artistica publicada en el otro, será tratada del mismo modo que lo seria la reproduccion ó publicación fraudunature first published in such other country; and so that such authors in the one country shall have the same remedies before the courts of justice in the other country, and shall enjoy in that other country the same protection against piracy and unauthorized re-publication, as the law now does or may hereafter grant to authors in that country.

The terms "works of literature or of art," employed at the beginning of this Article, shall be understood to comprise publications of books, of dramatic works, of musical compositions, of drawing, of painting, of sculpture, of engraving, of lithography, and of any other works whatsoever of literature and of the fine arts.

The lawful representatives or assigns of authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers, shall, in all respects, enjoy the same rights which by the present Convention are granted to the authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers themselves.

ARTICLE II.

The protection granted to original works is extended to translations; it being, however, clearly understood that the intention of the present Article is simply to protect a translator in respect of his own translation, and that it is not intended to confer upon the first translator of any work the exclusive right of translating that work, except in the case and to the extent provided for in the following Article.

ARTICLE III.

The author of any work published in either of the two countries, who may choose to reserve the right of translating it, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translation thereof authorized by him, be, in the following cases, entitled to protection from the publication in the other country of any translation of such work not so authorized by him:—

§ 1. If the original work shall have been registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other;

§ 2. If the author has notified on the title-page of his work his intention to reserve the right of translating it;

§ 3. Provided always, that at least a part of the authorized translation shall have appeared within a year after the registration and deposit of the original, and that the whole shall have been published within three years after the date of such deposit;

§ 4. And provided that the publication of the translation shall take place within one of the two countries, and that it shall be registered and deposited according to the provisions of Article VIII.

With regard to works which are published in parts, it will be sufficient if the declaration of the author that he reserves the right of translation shall appear in the first part. But with reference to the period of five years limited by this Article for the exercise of the exclusive right of translation, each part shall be treated as a separate work, and each part shall be registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

ARTICLE IV.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles shall also be applicable to the representation of dramatic works, and to the performance of musical compositions, in so far as the laws of each of the two countries are or shall be applicable in this respect lenta de una obra de igual género publicada por primera vez en este otro país; y que los autores de uno de los dos países tendrán la misma acción ante los tribunales del otro, y gozarán en este mismo de igual protección contra las publicaciones fraudulentas ó reproducciones no autorizadas, que la que la ley concede ó concediere en lo sucesivo á los autores del referido país.

La expresión "obras literarias ó artísticas," empleada al principio de este Artículo, comprenderá las publicaciones de libros, de obras dramáticas, de composiciones musicales, de dibujo, de pintura, de escultura, de grabado, de litografías, y de toda otra producción literaria ó artística.

Los apoderados legítimos ó derecho-habientes de los autores, traductores, compositores, pintores, escultores, y grabadores disfrutarán en un todo de iguales derechos que los concedidos por el presente Convenio á los mismos autores, traductores, compositores, pintores, escultores, y grabadores.

ARTICULO II.

La protección otorgada á las obras originales se hace extensiva á las traducciones.

El presente Artículo tiene sin embargo por unico objeto proteger al traductor en lo relativo á su propia traducción, y no el de conferir al primer traductor de una obra el derecho esclusivo de traducción, excepto en los casos y con las restricciones previstas en el Artículo siguiente.

ARTICULO III.

El autor de cualquiera obra publicada en una de las dos naciones, que se reserve el derecho de traducción, gozará por el término de cinco años, contados desde la fecha en que se haga la primera publicación de la traducción de su obra, autorizada por el, del privilegio de protección contra la publicación en el otro país de cualquiera traducción de su obra que el autor no haya autorizado, con las condiciones siguientes:—

§ 4. La traducción deberá publicarse en una de las dos naciones, y ser registrada y depositada conforme á las disposiciones del Artículo VIII.

Con respecto á las obras publicadas por entregas, bastará que la declaración del autor, de que se reserva el derecho de traducción, se exprese en la primera de dichas entregas. No obstante, en lo referente al período de cinco años señalado por este Artículo, para ejercer el derecho esclusivo de traducción, se considerará cada entrega como una obra separada, que deberá ser registrada y depositada en uno de los dos países en el término de tres meses á contar desde su primera publicación en el otro.

ARTICULO IV.

Las estipulaciones de los Artículos que preceden serán igualmente aplicables á la representación de obras dramáticas y á la ejecución de composiciones musicales, en tanto que las leyes de cada uno de los dos países sean ó lleguen á ser aplicables en to dramatic and musical works first publicly represented or performed therein.

In order, however, to entitle the author to legal protection in regard to the translation of a dramatic work, such translation must appear within three months after the registration and deposit of the original.

It is understood that the protection stipulated by the present Article is not intended to prohibit fair imitations, or adaptations of dramatic works to the stage in England and Spain respectively, but is only meant to prevent piratical translations.

The question whether a work is an imitation or a piracy, shall in all cases be decided by the courts of justice of the respective countries, according to the laws in force in each.

ARTICLE V.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of Articles I and II of the present Convention, articles extracted from newspapers or periodicals published in either of the two countries, may be re-published or translated in the newspapers or periodicals of the other country, provided the source from whence such articles are taken be acknowledged.

Nevertheless, this permission shall not be construed to authorize the re-publication in one of the two countries, of articles other than those of political discussion, from newspapers or periodicals published in the other country, the authors of which shall have notified in a conspicuous manner in the journal or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the re-publication thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of an infraction of the provisions of the foregoing Articles, the pirated works or articles shall be seized and destroyed; and the persons who may have committed such infraction shall be liable in each country to the penalties and actions which are or may be prescribed by the laws of that country for such offences, committed in respect of a work or production of home origin.

ARTICLE VIII.

2. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, it must be registered at the Ministry of Public Works (Ministerio de Fomento) at Madrid.

No person shall be entitled to such protection as aforesaid, unless he shall have duly complied with the laws and regulations of the respective countries in regard to the work in respect of which such protection may be claimed. With regard to books, maps, and prints, and also with regard to dramatic works and musical compositions (unless such

Se entiende que la proteccion estipulada en el presente Artículo no tiene por objeto prohibir las imitaciones de buena fé, ni los arreglos de obras dramáticas á la escena de España y de Inglaterra respectivamente, sino unicamente impedir las traducciones fraudulentas.

La cuestion de si una obra es imitacion ó reproduccion fraudulenta, será resuelta en todos los casos por los tribunales de los paises respectivos, segun las leyes vigentes en cada uno.

ARTICULO V.

No obstante las estipulaciones de los Artículos I y II del presente Convenio, los artículos copiados de diarios y periodicos publicados en uno de los dos Estados, podrán ser reproducidos ó traducidos en los periodicos ó diarios del otro, con tal que se exprese su procedencia.

Este permiso, sin embargo, no se comprenderá que autoriza la reproduccion en cualquiera de los dos paises, de artículos que no sean de discusion política insertos en diarios ó periodicos publicados en el otro, cuyos autores hubieran declarado de una manera clara en el diario ó periodico mismo en que los publicaren, que prohiben su reproduccion.

ARTICULO VI.

Queda prohibida la importacion y venta en uno ú otro pais de los ejemplares fraudulentos de obras protegidas contra la falsificacion por los Artículos I, II, III, y V del presente Convenio, ya procedan del Estado en que se publicó la obra, ó de cualquier otro pais extranjero.

ARTICULO VIII.

Los autores y traductores, lo mismo que sus apoderados legitimos ó los derecho-habientes en uno ú otro pais, no podrán disfrutar de la proteccion estipulada en los Artículos que preceden, ni reclamar el derecho de propiedad en uno de los dos paises, á menos que la obra haya sido registrada del modo siguiente, á saber:

In every case, the formality of deposit and registration must be fulfilled within three months after the first publication of the work in the other country. With regard to works published in parts, each part shall be treated as a separate work.

A certified copy of the entry in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers in London shall confer, within the British dominions, the exclusive right of re-publication, until a better right shall have been established by any other party before a court of justice.

The certificate given under the laws of Spain, proving the registration of any work in that country, shall be valid for the same purpose throughout the territories of Her Catholic Majesty.

A certificate or certified copy of the registration of any work so registered in either country shall, if required, be delivered at the time of registration; and such certificate shall state the exact date at which the registration was made.
