AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and Vestry Clerks of the undermentioned parishes ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation, stating, that for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the undermentioned parishes, with the following modifications, viz.:

WANDSWORTH. — In Garrett-lane Burial-ground, in the parish of Wandsworth, with the exception of family vaults and graves, no grave be reopened, and that no new grave be made except in ground not hitherto used for interments; that in family vaults and brick graves each coffin be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented; that in family earthen graves, a layer of earth eighteen inches thick be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin, and that in all cases, a covering of four feet of earth be left above the coffin, measuring to the ordinary level of the ground; that burials be forthwith discontinued in the burial-grounds of the Baptist and Independent Chapels, Wandsworth.

CHELSEA. — Burials to be discontinued in the Roman Catholic Cemetery, Cadogan-street, Chelsea, on the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of November next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said tenth day of November.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in the same, with the following modifications:

BRAMLEY, SURREY. — That burials be discontinued forthwith under the Parish Church of Bramley, Surrey; and also in the Old Churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, which can be opened, when required, without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented, and also, with the exception of the reserved earthen graves, provided that they be opened without disturbing human remains, and that no body be buried without a covering of four feet and six inches of earth.

SHERBURN, MILFORD JUNCTION, YORKSHIRE. — Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the Parish Church of Sherburn, Milford Junction, Yorkshire, and from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the Churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, provided that each coffin be entombed in an airtight manner, and that no body be interred without a covering of three feet of earth.

KIRKHEATON, YORKSHIRE. — Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the Church of Kirkheaton, Yorkshire; and, from and after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the Churchyard, with the exception of family vaults and graves which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven. That family vaults and brick graves be used on the following conditions: that, when required, they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each body be separately entombed in an airtight manner. That the family earthen graves be opened without disturbing human remains, and that the only bodies interred in them be those of the husbands and wives of persons already buried therein.

ULVERSTONE. — Burials to be discontinued forthwith in the Churchyards of Saint Mary and Holy Trinity, and in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground, Ulverstone, except so far as is compatible with the 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th
