FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1857.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of November, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections." it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justice of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such riding, county, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county of Durham, in general quarter sessions assembled, on the nineteenth day of October last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places in the northern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that Castle Eden may be a polling place for the said northern division, within which division such place is situate;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that Castle Eden shall be a polling place for the northern division of the said county of Durham; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.
