FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1857.

Buckingham-Palace, December 3, 1856.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart., C.B., Deputy Great Chamberlain (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby); and the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Earl Granville, K.G., Lord President of the Council, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness The Prince Consort on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Circumstances have recently arisen, connected with the commercial interests of the country, which have induced me to call Parliament together before the usual time.

The failure of certain joint-stock banks, and of some commercial firms, produced such an extent of distrust as led me to authorise my Ministers to recommend to the Directors of the Bank of England the adoption of a course of proceeding which appeared necessary for allaying the prevalent alarm. As that course has involved a departure from the existing law, a Bill for indemnifying those who advised and those who adopted it will be submitted for your consideration.

I have observed, with great regret, that the disturbed state of commercial transactions in general has occasioned a diminution of employment in the manufacturing districts, which I fear cannot fail to be attended with much local distress. I trust, however, that this evil may not be of long duration; and the abundant harvest with which it has graciously pleased Divine Providence to bless this land, will, I hope, in some degree mitigate the sufferings which this state of things must unavoidably produce.

While I deeply deplore the severe suffering to which many of my subjects in India have been exposed, and while I grieve for the extensive bereavements and sorrow which it has caused, I have derived the greatest satisfaction from the distinguished successes which have attended the heroic exertions of the comparatively small forces which have been opposed to greatly superior numbers, without the aid of the powerful reinforcements despatched from this country to their assistance. The arrival of those reinforcements will, I trust, speedily complete the suppression of this widely spread revolt.

The gallantry of the troops employed against the mutineers, their courage in action, their endurance under privation, fatigue, and the effects of climate; the high spirit and self-devotion of the officers; the ability, skill, and persevering energy of the commanders, have excited my warmest admiration: and I have observed with equal gratification that many civilians placed in extreme difficulty and danger have displayed the highest qualities, including, in some instances, those that would do honour to veteran soldiers.

It is satisfactory to know that the general mass of the population of India have taken no part in the rebellion, while the most considerable of the native Princes have acted in the most friendly manner, and have rendered important services.

I have given Directions that papers relating to these matters shall be laid before you.

The affairs of my East Indian dominions will require your serious consideration; and I recommend them to your earnest attention.

The nations of Europe are in the enjoyment of the blessings of peace, which nothing seems likely to disturb.

The stipulations of the Treaty which I concluded with the Shah of Persia have been faithfully carried into execution, and the Persian forces have evacuated the territory of Herat.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have given directions that the estimates for the next year shall be prepared, for the purpose of being laid before you.

They will be framed with a careful regard to the exigencies of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Your attention will be called to the laws which regulate the representation of the people in Parliament, with a view to consider what amendments may be safely and beneficially made therein.

Measures will be submitted for your consideration for simplifying and amending the laws relating to real property, and also for consolidating and amending several important branches of the criminal law.

I confidently commit to your wisdom the great interests of my empire; and I fervently pray, that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your Counsels, and may guide your deliberations to those ends which are dearest to my heart, the happiness and prosperity of my loyal and faithful people.

India Board, December 4, 1857.

THE following Despatches have been received at the East India House :

No. 1.

Lieutenant-Colonel J. D. Macpherson, Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, to the Military Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 400.

SIR, Lahore, August 8, 1857.

I AM instructed, by Sir John Lawrence, K.C.B., Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, a copy of Brigadier-General Nicholson's despatch, relative to the defeat and dispersion of the Sealkote mutineers, together with a copy of a brigade order issued by the Brigadier-General to the troops under his command.

2. A report of the defeat of the mutineers has already been submitted in the political department, No. 28, dated 18th ultimo, since which fully 150 of the mutinous soldiers who had escaped, have been seized and executed.

I have, &c.,

J. D. MACPHERSON, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner.

No. 2.

Brigadier-General Nicholson, commanding Punjab Moveable Column, Goordaspore, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Head Quarters, before Delhi, Goordaspore, July 19, 1857.

I HAVE the honor herewith to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, an account of my proceedings, and of the column under my command, since the date of my last letter (the 27th ultimo).

2. In it I reported the disarming of the 33rd and 35th Regiments, Native Infantry, and the reasons which had induced me to have recourse to that measure.

3. On the same date I commenced retracing my steps from Philour, and on the 5th July, encamped with the column at Umritsur.

4. I selected this station for an encampment, merely on account of its centrality, my position there enabling me to afford speedy aid, if required, either to Lahore or the Jullundur Doab, while, at the same time, it overawed the Manjha, and rendered hopeless any attempt to mutiny on the part of the 59th Regiment Native Infantry.

5. On the morning of the 7th, I received intelligence of the mutiny of the 14th Native Infantry, at Jelum, and that it was successfully holding against the force sent to disarm it, under Colonel Ellice. I waited throughout the day and the following night, in the hope of hearing of the defeat of the 14th, but this expectation not having been realized, and unfavourable accounts continuing to arrive, I reluctantly felt myself obliged to disarm the 59th Native Infantry, at sunrise on the 8th.

6. I feel bound, however, to place on record my belief that, both in conduct and feeling, this regiment was quite an exceptional one at the present crisis.

It had neither committed itself in any way, nor do I believe that, up to the day it was disarmed, it had any intention of committing itself, and I may deeply regret that, even as a precautionary measure, it should have become my duty to disarm it. I beg very strongly to recommend this corps, both as regards officers and men, to the favourable consideration of Government.

7. Early on the morning of the 10th, I received intelligence by telegraph, that the troops at Sealkote, consisting of the 46th Native Infantry, and the right wing 9th Light Cavalry, had broken out into open mutiny the previous morning. This intelligence was confirmed half an hour later, by a musician of the 46th Native Infantry, who rode in express with the news. I immediately disarmed the left wing 9th Cavalry, with the column, a step I had refrained from when disarming the 33rd and 35th Regiments, lest it should prematurely excite the wing at Sealkote.

8. In the course of the day, information reached me from various quarters that the Sealkote troops had marched in an easterly direction the previous evening. Their object was evidently to plunder the station of Goordaspore, and get the 2nd Irregular Cavalry there to join them; they would then no doubt have proceeded, via Noorpoor and Hushyarpore, to Jullundur, whence they would have made the best of their way to Delhi. At Noorpoor they expected to be joined by the 4th Regiment Native Infantry, and at Hushyarpore, by the 16th Irregular Cavalry.

9. It was evident that, as the mutineers had two days' start, and as Goordaspore was something over 41 miles from my encampment, no time was to be lost. I, therefore, decided on reaching that station in a single forced march, and this, with the aid of ekkas and ponies for the infantry, was successfully accomplished in less than 20 hours.

10. The mutineers were, at this date (the 11th), at Noorkobe, about 15 miles on the right bank of the Ravee. Fearing that, if I opposed their passage of the river, they might break away southwards and so escape me, I decided on allowing them to cross without molestation, and accordingly remained at Goordaspore until 9 a.m., the following morning, when, hearing that they had commenced crossing by a ford at the Trimmoo Ferry, about nine miles distant, I moved out against them with a force as per margin.*

11. I came upon them at noon, about a mile on this side the river: their infantry was drawn up in line, its right resting on a serai and dismantled ghurree, its left on a small village and clump of trees; their cavalry appeared to be pretty equally distributed on the flanks.

12. I advanced to the attack in the following order, viz.:

Three guns light field battery in the centre; the troop of horse artillery, equally divided, 100 yards on either side; 300 of Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, with Enfield Rifles, in extended order at one pace between, and on the flanks of, the artillery; the remainder of Her Majesty's 52nd, with the Punjaub Infantry, were in rear as supports and reserve. The New Police Ressalas I employed to mask the artillery until, at about 600 yards, a threatened charge of a party of the mutineer cavalry induced me to unmask and unlimber the three guns on the left to check it. The sight of the guns had the desired effect, and we resumed our advance, except that the police, being now no longer useful as maskers, and seeming undesirous of engaging, were ordered to the rear.

13. My intention was to advance to within 300 yards of the mutineer position, and then open fire simultaneously from the artillery and Enfield Rifles, the latter weapons being known to be thoroughly effective at that distance, while the smooth bore musket, with which alone the mutineers were armed, is comparatively useless.

14. The action commenced by the mutineers' infantry opening upon us with file firing at as nearly as possible the above distance; we lost no time in replying, and for about ten minutes they stood up very well indeed against the great odds opposed to them, many of them advancing boldly up to the very guns; meanwhile the cavalry had made several rushes in detached parties on our flanks and rear, but had always been repulsed by the file firing of our infantry.

15. The New Police Ressalas fled when threatened with a charge, but, considering their want of discipline and how very recently they had been raised, I cannot say that I consider them very culpable. There were, however, some honorable exceptions.

16. The mutineers were followed up to the bank of the river by the artillery, which occasioned them some little loss both in crossing and after they had gained an island in the centre, on which they had a 12-pounder iron gun. A few rounds were fired at us from this piece, but without effect.

17. The enemy left dead upon the ground on which they fought 120 men; many more were swept away by the river. Their wounded were probably not less than double the above number. All their camp equipage, &c., on this side of the river fell into our hands.

18. The want of cavalry (which crippled us sadly during the action), the depth of the water in the ford, and the fatigue the troops had undergone on the previous day, all conspired to prevent me from attempting to pursue the enemy across the river. I therefore left the Punjaub Infantry with Lieutenant Boswell in the serai, and brought back the European Infantry and Artillery to their encampment at Goordaspore, there to await news of the further movements of the mutineers.

19. On the 13th, I appointed Captain Adams,

* 3rd Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery; 3 guns, No. 17 Light Field Battery; Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry; detachment from 3rd and 6th Punjaub Infantry (184 men); 1 Company 2nd Police Battalion; 2 newly raised Ressalas.

Assistant Commissioner (kindly placed at my disposal by Mr. Roberts, the Commissioner,) to command the detachment at the Ghaut, with a view to his watching and furnishing intelligence of the remnant of the mutineers on the island. From this officer's information, corroborated as it was from other quarters, I ascertained that the discomfiture of the mutineers in the action of the 12th, had been much more complete than I had at first supposed, and that not more than 300 men remained with the gun on the island; also that all, or very nearly all, of those who had dispersed had first divested themselves of their arms and accoutrements.

20. I accordingly at once decided on attacking the remnant on the island, and, with this view, on the evening of the 15th, got down two boats from ferries high up the river, all the boats in our immediate neighbourhood having been sunk by the civil authorities on the first news of the approach of the mutineers. At daybreak on the morning of the 16th, Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, and one company of the Punjaub Infantry, with a company, Police Battalion,* crossed, one mile and a quarter below the enemy's position, our guns, placed higher up the stream, keeping the enemy's gun in play. When the whole of the infantry had crossed, the advance commenced, the 52nd leading in skirmishing order. The affair was over in a few minutes, without any check, and with a loss to us of only six men wounded. A few resolute men among the mutineers died manfully at the gun; the rest fled, and were either slain on the bank or driven into the river.

21. I do not need to dwell upon the services which the column has rendered the State in these operations; his Excellency will himself thoroughly comprehend and appreciate them.

My best thanks are due to officers and men of all grades and both arms for the cordial and valuable assistance I have throughout received from them, more particularly to Colonel Campbell, commanding Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Dawes, commanding the Artillery, Captain Bouchier, commanding No. 17 Light Field Battery, Captain Blane, Her Majesty's 52nd, my Brigade-Major, and Captain Grindlay, 6th Light Cavalry, Deputy Assistant-Quartermaster-General to the column.

Lieutenant Angelo, 59th Native Infantry, Lieutenant Dixon, 9th Light Cavalry, and Lieutenant Baillie, 35th Native Infantry, also made themselves extremely useful in reconnoitring and other ways; and I much regret that a severe wound, received by the latter officer, will temporarily deprive me of his services.

22. I cannot conclude without expressing my obligations to Mr. Roberts, the Commissioner and Superintendent of the Division, and to Captain Adams, the Assistant Commissioner of Goordaspore. Both officers were present in the affairs of the 12th and 16th, and afforded me much valuable assistance throughout, in the way of information. Captain Adams also commanded the Punjaub Infantry and Police Detachment at the Ghaut from the 13th to the 16th instant, and the detachment which crossed the river on the latter date.

Lieutenant Perkins, Assistant Commissioner, Umritsur, was present at the action of the 12th, and had his horse wounded.

I enclose returns of casualties.

I have, &c.,

H. J. NICHOLSON,
Brigadier-General Commanding Punjaub
Moveable Column.

* Lieutenant Boswell with another company, was employed in watching a ford higher up the river.

No. 3.

Moveable Column Orders by Brigadier-General Nicholson, Commanding Camp Goordaspore.

July 17, 1857.

THE last remaining party of the Sealkote mutineers was yesterday morning destroyed and its gun captured.

The object of the forced march of the column from Umritsur to this place having been thus successfully accomplished, the Brigadier-General desires to return his sincere thanks to officers and men of all arms and grades for the cordial and valuable assistance he has received from them throughout these operations.

The Brigadier-General considers that the column has reason to feel proud of the service it has rendered the State within the last few days.

By a forced march of unusual length performed at a very trying season of the year, it has been able to preserve many stations and districts from pillage and plunder, to save more than one regiment from the danger of too close a contact with the mutineers; and the mutineer force itself, 1,100 strong, notwithstanding the very desperate character of the resistance offered by it, has been utterly destroyed or dispersed.

It will be the pleasing duty of the Brigadier-General to bring prominently to the notice of Government in detail the services rendered by officers and men on this occasion, and he entertains no doubt but that those services will be appreciated and acknowledged as they deserve to be.

SEYMOUR BLANE, Captain,
Major of Brigade.

Major Eyre to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Dinapore Division.

*Koer Sing's Palace, Jugdispore,
August 13, 1857.*

SIR,

MY letter of yesterday will have informed you of the successful march of my force upon this place, and the complete route and dispersion of the rebel Koer Sing and his army.

2. Leaving Arrah at 2 P.M. on the 11th, I marched eight miles, and encamped for the night on the bank of the Gagur Nuddee.

3. Resuming the route next morning at 6-30 A.M., I proceeded without difficulty as far as Rumneacon, where for two miles the road passed over rice-fields, and was in many places under water; had heavy rain fallen, this road must have been impassable for guns.

4. At 9 A.M. I halted to refresh the troops and animals for an hour; at 10-30 we detected parties of the enemy's horse and foot occupying the village of Tola Narainpore, evidently with the view of disputing our passage of the river immediately beyond it. I forthwith pushed forward skirmishing parties from the 5th Fusiliers and Wake's Sikhs in that direction, backed up by Jackson's valuable little troop of Shahabad Volunteer Yeomanry. This elicited a sharp fire, which was maintained on both sides with great spirit; as our main body approached nearer, I advanced two guns to the front, and opened a fire of grape on a party of the enemy, whose heads I could just discern in ambush, about 300 yards distant.

5. This caused them to rise in some confusion, discovering large masses who had been lying in close concealment. The men of Her Majesty's 10th now became so impatient to be led to the charge that, instead of continuing the fire from the guns as I had intended, I yielded to them the honour of putting the foe to flight. With loud and continued shouts they advanced and charged, led on in the most noble manner by Captain Patterson, impetuously driving all before them. The sepoys fell back on the large village of Dullaur across the river, where entrenchments had been thrown up. There they endeavoured to make a stand, but were driven out by the joint efforts of the gallant 10th and 5th Fusiliers, the latter under Captains L'Estrange and Scott.

6. Thence our route lay through a dense and difficult jungle, for one mile and a-half to Jugdispore, throughout which a running fight was maintained, during which two guns were captured.

7. Jugdispore was but feebly defended, and at 1 P.M. we took possession of Koer Sing's noted stronghold, wherein we found large stores of grain, ammunition, and other materials of war.

8. Koer Sing has fled to the Jutoorah jungle, south of this, with a few followers, and the villagers around Jugdispore are sending in tokens of their submission.

9. It now remains for me to recommend, to the favour of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and of Government, those to whose gallant deeds I am indebted for the success that has (under Providence) attended my efforts. Besides those already named above, Captains L'Estrange and Patterson make special mention in their reports of the individuals named in the margin.*

10. Mr. A. C. Wake, of the Bengal Civil Service, at the head of his Arrah Sikhs, nobly sustained the reputation already acquired by his heroic defence of the fortified house at Arrah, against overwhelming odds; he was gallantly seconded by Mr. J. C. Colvin, Civil Service.

11. The Honorable Captain Hastings, behaved with his accustomed gallantry and devotion, everywhere making his presence felt beneficially. Lieutenant Wylde, my Acting Quartermaster, in like manner seconded me most ably and bravely.

12. The Volunteer Yeomanry of Shahabad were admirably headed by Lieutenant Jackson,

* Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers—Captain Scott, Ensign Oldfield, Colour-Serjeants Cattermole and McMames. Her Majesty's 10th Foot—Lieutenant Beale, Serjeant Neate, Corporal Baldwin, Privates Macdonald, Purcell, Raby (Grenadiers), Yates, Connorton.

12th Native Infantry, and Lieutenant Kelly, who reports favourably of Messrs. Barber, Nicholl, and Burrows.

13. The Veterinary Surgeon Siddall has also rendered me good service.

14. The field hospital could not be better managed than that under the superintendence of Assistant-Surgeon Eteson, whose zeal and soldierly conduct have been conspicuous. Staff-Sergeant Melvill, of the Artillery, has proved himself a most deserving and excellent soldier. To him I confided the howitzer for the protection of my rear, which was at one time threatened, and was preserved intact by his skill and judgment.

15. It would be unjust to omit the valuable aid I have received from Syed Azeem-ood-deen, Deputy Collector of Arrah, in assisting me to procure the best information. Mr. B. N. Samuels, Head Clerk of the Shahabad Office, furnished me with an admirable map of my route to Jugdispore, and acted as my guide on the line of march. I always found his information most accurate, and consider him well deserving of reward.

I have, &c.,

V. EYRE, Major,
Commanding Field Force.

P.S. —Mr. Littledale, the Civil Judge of Arrah, volunteered to accompany the expedition, and I was glad to avail myself of his experience.

No. 6.

Captain L'Estrange to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Dinapore Division.

SIR, Jugdispore, August 13, 1857.

-I HAVE the honour to report that an expeditionary field force left Arrah on the 11th instant, having been detained here since the 3rd instant, waiting for the arrival of reinforcements, in order to attack the rebel chief, Koer Sing, and the remainder of those mutineers who had been so completely routed by us on the 2nd instant, at Beebeegunge, and who had taken refuge in Koer Sing's stronghold at Jugdispore.

The difficulty attending the enterprise was, by universal report, very great. The roads were represented as being, at this season of the year, almost impassable: and the position of Koer Sing and his followers was deemed, by all who had any knowledge of the country surrounding him, as being inaccessible.

Under all these circumstances, a feeling of doubt, if not of apprehension, as to the success of our expedition, might easily have pervaded troops less confident than ours were, in the judgment, talent, and courage of our leader.

Our force consisted of two 9-pounder guns, one 24-pounder howitzer, 197 men, Her Majesty's 10th (commanded by Captain Patterson), my detachment Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers (137 men), 150 Sikhs from Arrah and Patna, and 16 mounted volunteers, the great number of whom had been with us, and had rendered us such great assistance at Beebeegunge.

We marched on the evening of the 11th instant, about half-way between Arrah and Jugdispore, and there got intelligence that we might expect to meet the enemy at a village called Dullaur, about two or three miles from Jugdispore, and close to a nullah, which was rather broad, but supposed to be fordable.

Our order of march was as follows:—

An advanced guard of 50 men of the 5th Fusiliers, commanded by Captain Scott, and 50 Sikhs, commanded by H. Wake, Esquire, Magistrate of Arrah;

The two 9-pounder guns, flanked on either side by the remainder of the 5th Fusiliers in single file;

A division of 100 men, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, formed up in column of sections;

The baggage elephants, &c.;

The 24-pounder howitzer, defended by the remainder of the 10th and Sikhs;

The rear-guard, consisting of the Patna Sikhs, under command of Lieutenant Robertson, late 7th Bengal Native Infantry.

In consequence of the rain which fell during the night of the 11th instant, we found the roads very heavy; but all hands went cheerfully to work, and, as we expected, came in sight of the enemy about 11 A.M. They appeared in considerable numbers, and could be plainly seen moving about through the woods. Our skirmishers immediately rushed forward, and opened a brisk fire on the rebels, who occupied the wood to our front and right, and very soon forced the mutineers to "right incline," and join one of their strong reserves which was entrenched behind a parapet $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet high, and about 60 yards in length.

This body of men was completely hidden in dense jungle, and protected in front by the nullah, which I have before observed was between us and the village of Dullaur, and had they remained concealed a short time longer, until our main body had reached this nullah, our loss must have been very great. Our skirmishers brought right shoulders forward, and charged the entrenchment. I immediately gave notice to our main body of the position of the enemy, which very soon indicated itself by a tremendous fire upon us all, while our skirmishers rushed upon the rebels in front; the division, in column of sections, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, attacked them in flank and rear, and I ordered my men, who were protecting the guns, to contribute their fire at long ranges, as occasion might require. The rebels, whose number I estimate at about 1,200 men, stood their ground with unexpected obstinacy, but our charge could not be resisted, and we soon saw them flying through the jungle and making for the village, closely pursued by the skirmishers; our main body then crossed the nullah, advanced through the village, and previous to re-entering the jungle I reinforced the skirmishers, who effectually cleared the way for us, although the enemy kept up a dropping fire upon us until we arrived in the heart of the city. The time between our first meeting the enemy and finding ourselves in possession of Koer Sing's boasted stronghold was about two hours and a half, during the first hour of which a tremendous fire and very hard fighting was kept up on both sides.

From this account it will be seen that our skirmishers carried everything before them in the most gallant style; our main body was at the same time exposed to great danger, and was remarkable for its extreme steadiness throughout the engagement. I have now great pleasure in bringing before your notice the distinguished gallantry of Captain Scott, Ensign Oldfield, Colour-Serjeants Cattermole and McMames, all of the 5th Fusiliers; on this occasion, the former officer's courage and daring in the field are equalled only by the cheerfulness and zeal with which he performed every branch of duty. Captain the Hon. E. P. Hastings was, as usual, conspicuous in the thick of the fight, and I cannot sufficiently thank him for all the services he has rendered to us; our Interpreter's (Lieutenant Wyld) conduct fully justifies the report which I had the pleasure of making to you from the camp near Arrah; and I hope it will not be considered as out of my province if I include in the list of those who so highly distinguished themselves, the name of Lieutenant Jackson, commanding the volunteers, Lieutenant Kelly, and Veterinary-Surgeon Siddall, of the same force, also Mr. Wake, who commanded his party of the Sikhs with great judgment.

The loss of my detachment consists of one man killed, and four wounded.

I have, &c.

F. W. L'ESTRANGE, Captain,
5th Fusiliers, Commanding Detachment.

No. 7.

Captain Patterson to Major Eyre.

SIR, Jugdispore, August 13, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you that, on our approach to Dullaur Nullah, I received an order from the Honorable Captain Hastings to throw out skirmishers on our front and left, the enemy having suddenly opened a sharp fire on the column. I accordingly advanced the 1st Division, consisting of the grenadiers and a sub-Division of No. 4 Company Her Majesty's 10th Foot, who in the most gallant manner charged and carried successively two villages and some patches of jungle. I cannot say how many of the enemy were killed, as they retreated in all directions in the utmost confusion before our men, being unable, it would seem, even to look at our bayonets. I afterwards reformed at the village of Dullaur, and rejoined the column.

Skirmishers were afterwards sent out on our right and front from the same Division, and a sub-Division of the 2nd Division, consisting of the left sub-Division of No. 4 Company, and the right sub-Division of No. 6 Company, under Lieutenant Barlow, till we came to Jugdispore, which you are aware we found abandoned by the enemy. I cannot sufficiently express my admiration at the good conduct of the men in this brilliant affair. My loss is, Privates Maurice Carey and Nicholas Walsh wounded.

When the conduct of all was so good, it is difficult for me to distinguish particular individuals; but I should be committing an injustice if I did not bring to your notice the names of the following officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, viz., Lieutenant Beale, Serjeant Neat, Corporal Baldwin, Privates Macdonald, Purcell, Riley (Grenadiers), and Yates and Connorton, No. 4 Company.

I have, &c.,

Major Eyre to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Dinapore Division.

Camp, Jugdispore,

SIR, August 14, 1857, 2:30 P.M.

YOU will probably have received my dispatches of the 12th and 13th, giving particulars of the encounter with the rebels at Dullaur, and successful advance to this place.

Early this morning I detached a company of Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers and 100 Sikhs, with the Yeomanry Volunteers, the whole under Captain L'Estrange, to Jutowrah, where Koer Sing has a residence.

The party has just returned with information that the place was empty, though Koer Sing had recently been there. He is reported to have gone towards Rhotas, the sepoys have dispersed entirely, and the country hereabouts is quite quiet.

I am destroying the town, and preparing to blow up the palace and principal buildings around it. To-day I partially destroyed a new Hindoo temple on which Koer Sing had recently lavished large sums; I did this because it is known that the Brahmins have instigated him to rebellion.

Captain L'Estrange reports having destroyed Koer Sing's new palace at Jutowrah, and Lieutenant Jackson, with the Volunteers, on their way back to the camp, set fire to the residences of Oomar Sing and Dhyal Sing, the two brothers of Koer Sing.

I am desirous now of ascertaining the wishes of the higher authorities with respect to my future movements: my own judgment prompts me to march to Gya and settle that part of the province, were I certain that such a demonstration is still a desideratum.

My European force enjoys excellent health; to-day I have lost one Sikh from cholera.

I have, &c.

V. EYRE, Major.

Commanding Field Force.

The Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India.

Head-Quarters, Calcutta,

August 21, 1857.

SIR, I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to Government, letters in original, relative to the military operations that have been carried on by Major V. Eyre against the mutineers under Koer Sing in the Arrah district.

2. I am to request you will be good enough to inform the Governor-General in Council that his Excellency highly approves of the judgment evinced by Major Eyre throughout these movements, and of the gallantry and perseverance of the officers and men under his command, in bringing them to a triumphant conclusion.

3. Sir Colin Campbell, I am to add, recommends to the favorable notice of his Lordship, the persons brought prominently forward in these dispatches; but regrets to have to disapprove of the destruction of the Hindoo temple at Jugdispore by Major Eyre, under a mistaken view of the duties of a commander at the present crisis.

4. The return of the inclosures is requested when done with.

I have, &c.,

W. MAYHEW, Major.

Captain R. C. Lawrence, in political charge of the Cashmere Auxiliary Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi Field Force.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, September 22, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding the Delhi Field Force, the operations of the Kissun Gunj column of assault, on the morning of the 14th instant, subsequent to Major Reid being wounded.

2. On assuming command of the column, I found the different detachments of which it was composed, so broken, and disorganized, by the heavy fire of the enemy, that it was impossible to form them up in broken ground, and, under a severe fire, to renew the attack on the Kissun Gunj batteries. All I could effect, was to keep the enemy in check, which was done, for the course of an hour, without losing ground, in the expectation of the arrival of artillery, for which Major Reid had made a requisition previous to his being wounded. This aid did not arrive. The enemy appeared in large numbers on our right flank. I was apprehensive that they might get into our rear, and endanger the safety of the line of batteries below Hindoo Rao's house, and of the camp itself. I therefore directed the troops to retire, which they did leisurely, and in as good order as the nature of the ground would permit, keeping up a heavy fire upon the enemy. I then strengthened the Subzee Mundi picket, and directed the occupation of the batteries above alluded to by detachments from the column.

3. The Jummoo troops, detached under command of Captain Dwyer, for the occupation of the Eedgah, met with unexpected opposition, and were totally unsuccessful. This circumstance added much to the difficulties under which the main column labored, enabling the enemy to advance on its right flank, and endanger its rear, and more particularly the safety of the Subzee Mundi picket, which was hotly pressed. Four 6-pounder guns belonging to the Cashmere troops, detached under Captain Dwyer, were, I regret to say, captured by the enemy. The circumstance under which this misfortune occurred, did not come under my personal observation. I therefore called upon Captain Dwyer for a report, which I herewith forward in original, for submission to the Major-General. I concur with Captain Dwyer in considering that the detachment under his command was inadequate to oppose the force brought against it.

4. As blame may be attached to the Jummoo troops for the loss of their guns, I feel bound to state my opinion that the portion of them attached to the main column behaved as well as could be expected. When tried and experienced soldiers, both European and Native, were unsuccessful, what could be looked for from undisciplined and ill-armed men, such as compose the Jummoo Contingent.

The loss sustained by this force on the 14th instant, viz., 22 killed and 67 wounded (in addition, 4 sowars of mounted police were killed, and 17 wounded), which has been already reported to Major-General Wilson, shows that they shared in the danger and difficulties of the day.

5. Major-General Wilson is well aware of the strength of the position which was held by the enemy at Kissun Gunj, and of the nature of the ground over which the attacking force had to move. On the morning in question the enemy were prepared in large numbers for an attack on their position. They had evidently received intimation that such was intended. After the attack commenced, they received considerable reinforcements from the city. Under these circumstances, I look with confidence to the Major-General attaching no blame to the troops engaged in this unsuccessful affair.

I have, &c.,

Captain H. Dwyer, 59th N.I., attached to the Cashmere Force, to Captain R. C. Lawrence, in political charge of the Jummoo Auxiliary Force.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, September 22, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for your information, that, on the morning of the 14th instant, I proceeded, in accordance with the instructions I received, with 400 men and four guns, of the Cashmere force, towards the Eedgah, for the purpose of occupying and holding it.

The road was most difficult for artillery, and, to enable the guns to get into the Rhotuck Pucka road, which leads to the Eedgah, a portion of stone wall had to be levelled.

The noise, I believe, prepared the enemy to receive us, as, on reaching the road, we were attacked by about 2000 men, who lined all the walls on the right hand side of the road.

We immediately opened fire with four guns and some zumboorahs, and continued to fire for about three-quarters of an hour. We had not been firing long when the Kissun Gunj Battery fired into us from the left, and, finding that we were getting out-flanked, and that the enemy did not appear to be suffering much from our fire, owing to their protection by stone walls and jungle, I ordered an advance, in view to effect an entrance into the Eedgah, if possible.

This advance, I am sorry to say, was not effected, notwithstanding the utmost exertions on the part of Lieutenant Tennant of the Engineers, Lieutenants Graham and Manderson, and myself. A small body of infantry could not be collected to support the guns, as the whole of it had, almost from the commencement, proceeded to skirmish in very extended order, contrary to my repeated orders.

On the order for the guns to limber up being given, no horses could be got; for, while the guns were being worked, the horses had been made over to grass-cutters, who took most of them away altogether; five or six horses I saw killed; the rest were never brought back, and I was informed that they also had been killed.

The attempt to secure the Eedgah was, I regret to say, a complete failure; but it appears to me that the force I had was quite inadequate to effect that object.

A body of 100 mounted police, which accompanied the detachment, behaved admirably, and remained to the last. The ground, however, rendered it impossible for cavalry to charge.

Ram Singh, one of my orderlies, killed a man, by whom I was attacked, and is himself badly wounded; the other, Chundah Singh, had his horse killed.

Dated Field Force Staff Office, Camp before Delhi, August 27, 1857.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to forward, for transmission to Major-General Gowan, C.B., commanding in the Upper Provinces, and through him to Government, the accompanying report of the operations of a detachment of Irregular Cavalry I sent out, under the command of Lieutenant Hodson, on the 14th instant, to watch a party of the enemy who had moved out from Delhi on the Rhotuck road, and to afford support, if necessary, either to Sowput, or our ally the Jheend Rajah.

Lieutenant Hodson most fully carried out my instructions, to my entire satisfaction, and his report will shew that the whole of his detachment, both officers and men, behaved throughout in a most gallant and effectual manner.

It must have been most gratifying to Lieutenant Hodson to find his new regiment so steady and staunch in their first engagement with the enemy.

I particularly request that Major-General Gowan will bring to the notice of Government the ready and loyal conduct, on this occasion, of the Jheend Rajah, and the good service performed by his troops. I have already, through Colonel Dunsford, commanding the Rajah's troops, expressed my acknowledgments to the Rajah for the ready assistance he afforded on this occasion, and from the commencement of our operations before Delhi, and also my satisfaction at the favourable report made by Lieutenant Hodson of the gallantry of his men.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON.

No. 38.

From Lieutenant W. S. R. Hodson, Commanding Irregular Horse, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi Field Force.

Dated Camp, Delhi, August 24th, 1857.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to report the proceedings of the cavalry detachment* which left camp under my command on the night of 14th and 15th instant, under verbal instructions from Major-General Wilson Commanding the Field Force.

* European Officers, 6; Guide Cavalry, 103 sabres; Hodson's Irregular Horse, 233 sabres; Jheend Horse, 25 sabres;—Total, 361 sabres.

2. My instructions were to watch a party of the enemy who had moved out from Delhi by the Nujufgurh road, with the avowed purpose of threatening our communications with Sowput and the Grand Trunk road, or if marching to attack Hansi and the Rajah of Jheend, to ascertain their precise object and direction, and to afford support to either Sowput or the Jheend Rajah as might be necessary. I was also to examine the state of the roads and country, with a view to the probable necessity of a larger force taking the field.

3. On reaching Boanah by way of Azadpoor and the Canal Bank, I ascertained that the enemy had passed the 14th at Samplah, and were said to be moving towards Rhotuck. I therefore pushed on to Khurkowdah, on the road from Boanah to that town, reaching it about noon on the 15th.

4. Having been informed that a number of Irregular Cavalry men, whose homes were in the village, had arrived the day before from Delhi at Khurkowdah, I took measures for securing the several entrances to it and attempting their capture, sending a small party of the Guide Corps to surprise and arrest the leading man, named Bisharut Ali, a Resuldar of the 1st Irregular Cavalry. Both objects were accomplished, only two sowars having had time to effect their escape before the village was surrounded. I then entered the village with a party of dismounted sowars. From information received from the villagers, I was able to seize several of the mutineer sowars before they had time to arm. A large party, however, took refuge in the upper story of a house belonging to one of the lumberdars of the village, and defended themselves desperately. They were eventually overpowered and destroyed, but not without considerable difficulty and several casualties on our side, Lieutenant H. Gough and seven men being wounded. I subsequently caused those of the captured who were proved on inquiry to have been in the service of Government, and to have joined the rebels, to be executed.

5. During the afternoon of the 15th, the enemy broke up from Samplah, and marched to Rhotuck, where they gave out that they were going to remain for two or three days. I marched after them on the morning of the 16th towards Rhotuck, by Sussaineh Hamaoonpoor and Balout. On reaching Bohur, five miles short of Rhotuck, I ascertained that the rebels had suddenly marched early in the morning towards Medinha, on hearing of our movements; I therefore halted for the day, the rain being very heavy.

6. On the morning of the 17th, we moved on Rhotuck. On approaching the town, and riding on to reconnoitre with a small party, I found a large body of armed men drawn up at the old fort in front of the place, accompanied by a few sowars. They immediately opened fire on us, and as we withdrew to bring up the detachment, followed us up the road, firing and yelling in derision.

The instant the head of the column arrived, they were charged, dispersed, and driven into the town, leaving thirteen of their number dead. They subsequently turned out to be Rangurs, Kusais, and other turbulent inhabitants of the town, headed by Bahur Khan, the Chief of the Rangurs.

7. After riding round Rhotuck, and reconnoitering the surrounding country, and the approaches to it, I encamped in the open space in rear of the kutchery buildings, at the junction of the road, by which we had marched from Bohur, with the main road to Delhi. Some of the zemindars and Hindoos of Rhotuck came out to me immediately afterwards, and through their instrumentality the detachment was amply provided with all necessary supplies: no further attempt was made to annoy us.

8. At about seven o'clock the next morning I received information that Bahur Khan had gone, during the night, to the camp of the rebels, on the Hansi-road, and brought back three hundred Rangur horsemen belonging to different irregular cavalry regiments to assist him in an attack upon us. Three or four minutes afterwards a large body of horsemen dashed up the roads from the town, at speed, followed by a mass of foot-men, armed with swords and matchlocks, certainly not less than 900 or 1000 in number. At the moment of the attack a party of twenty-five Jheend horsemen, who had come from Gohanah, on hearing from me of our approach, were crossing the road towards our camp, and found themselves suddenly charged by and intermixed with the enemy's horse.

They defended themselves with their carbines, and thus checked the attacking party, two of their number being wounded. The whole of the horses of the detachment having been kept saddled, no time was lost in turning out, and the instant the twenty leading men were on their horses the enemy was charged and driven back in confusion towards the town, their flight being covered by the matchlock men who had occupied some buildings and compounds between the kutchery and the town. Directly the whole of the detachment was ready and formed up, I sent what little baggage and followers we had to the rear, under a sufficient escort, and prepared for a further attack. I formed the main body on the road in three lines, the guides in front, sending the troop out to the right front under Lieutenant Wise, and one to the left under Lieutenant Macdowell, ready to take the enemy in flank should they again charge up the roads (of which there are three) leading from the town to our position. These movements were covered by skirmishers and by the excellent fire of the Jheend horsemen, armed with matchlocks, whom I desired to dismount and drive back by their fire any party of the enemy who might come from under shelter of the buildings. This service they performed exceedingly well and most cheerfully.

9. Finding that our ammunition was nearly exhausted after some time had elapsed, and that there appeared little chance of the enemy coming from their cover to attack us again, I determined to draw them out into the open country behind our position and endeavour to bring on a fight there. Every thing turned out as I had anticipated. My men withdrew slowly and deliberately by alternate troops (the troop nearest the enemy by alternate ranks) along the line of the Bohur road, by which we had reached Rhotuck, our left extending towards the main road to Delhi, the Jheend horsemen protected our right and a troop of my own regiment the left. The enemy moved out the instant we withdrew, following us in great numbers, yelling and shouting and keeping up a heavy fire of matchlocks. Their horsemen were principally on their right, and a party galloping up the main road threatened our left flank. I continued to retire until we got into open and comparatively dry ground, and then turned and charged the mass who had come to within from 150 to 200 yards of us.

The Guides, who were nearest to them, were upon them in an instant, closely followed by and soon intermixed with our own men.

The enemy stood for a few seconds, turned, and then were driven back in utter confusion to the very walls of the town; it being with some difficulty that the officers could prevent their men entering the town with the fugitives. Fifty of the enemy, all horsemen, were killed on the ground, and many must have been wounded.

10. Nothing could be better than the conduct of all concerned. The Guide Cavalry behaved with their usual dashing gallantry, and their example was well emulated by the men of my new regiment, now for the first time engaged with an enemy. They not only remained under fire unflinchingly, but retired before the enemy steadily and deliberately, and, when ordered, turned and charged home boldly. It would have been hopeless to expect this, but for the magnificent leading and admirable management of the officers in command of the several troops, Captain Ward and Lieutenants Macdowell, Wise, C. J. Gough, and H. Gough. The difficulty of their task will be appreciated when it is remembered that, with the exception of the Guides, none of the party had been drilled or formed, or knew anything of field movements.

11. After their defeat, as I subsequently ascertained, the Rangur horsemen evacuated the place the same evening, carrying away their wounded with them. The whole of the Rangurs and Kussaies of the town also fled during the night for refuge to the neighbouring villages. As soon as I had reassembled the detachment on our original ground and ascertained personally that no parties of the enemy remained outside Rhotuck, I moved round by our right to the northern side of the town on the Gohana road and encamped at Dusseea, the first village sufficiently large to furnish us with supplies.

I was in direct communication with Jheend, twenty-two coss distant, and with Gohana, where a body of the Rajah's troops are stationed; and, by way of Khylore, my communication with camp, and, by way of Khurkowdah, with Sowput, was perfectly secure. I was also prepared to move off to the right towards Hansi to General Cortlandt, should he attack the rebel force moving in that direction. This force had moved off from Medinra to Melnin on our reaching Rhotuck, and thence to Moondahab, and on the 18th evacuated the Rhotuck district and marched to Barsee, five coss from Hansi, in considerably diminished numbers.

12. On the 19th I halted at Dusseea, receiving at day break a valuable reinforcement in the shape of eighty well equipped horsemen from Jheend, with the promise of infantry and a gun if I required them. They had already been sent off by the Rajah with his usual ever ready zeal, and would have been available in a few hours. On the evening of the 19th, I received the Major-General's orders to return towards camp and march the next day to Khurkowdah, and on the 21st by a circuitous route to Sowput.

13. I cannot close this without testifying to the excellent conduct of the Jheend horsemen throughout the whole of our proceedings. Nothing could have been better than their behaviour from first to last, both in keeping up our communications, in enduring fatigue and bad weather, and in gallantry in action. This is not the first time I have had experience of the good service they have rendered. At the action of Badleesurai on the 8th of June, they particularly distinguished themselves, and they did no less well on the present occasion. I trust the Major-General will be pleased to convey his acknowledgements of their conduct to the Rajah.

14. A list of casualties is enclosed.

SIR Delhi, October 16, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith a copy of Colonel Greathed's report of his engagement with the rebels in the cantonment of Agra on the 10th instant.

It is gratifying to know that all the enemy's guns were captured, though the return alluded to in Colonel Greathed's letter has not come to hand. I am given to understand that they were twelve in number, and some of them heavy ordnance.

The conduct of the troops engaged seems to have been admirable in every respect, and will, I trust, meet with the approbation of Major-General Gowan.

No. 41.

Lieutenant-Colonel E. Greathed to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi.

SIR, Camp, Agra, October 11, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, that, in consequence of urgent letters from Agra, I marched from Hattrass at 6 p.m. on the 9th, carrying the European infantry on elephants and carts, and encamped on the Brigade Parade-ground at this place about 8 A.M. Yesterday at half-past 10 o'clock my camp was suddenly attacked in the front and right flank. I galloped to the front and found the artillery getting into action, and Her Majesty's 9th Lancers in the saddle. I proceeded myself with Her Majesty's 8th Regiment and the 4th Punjaub Infantry to the right flank, for the purpose of dislodging the enemy, and taking their guns, which were raking our camp. On the way I took with me the 1st, 2nd, and 5th Punjaub Cavalry, extending the infantry in skirmishing order with their supports. I took the cavalry to the open space near the European Infantry Barracks, with directions to move as circumstances would permit. The 9-pounder Agra battery had by this time come up; I advanced them in support of the infantry on the road leading from the Artillery Parade-ground to the Dholepore road, and the skirmishers advanced and cleared the compounds to their front; the Punjaub Cavalry, under Lieutenant Watson, had then the opportunity of making a most gallant charge, driving off the enemy's sowars and capturing four guns. After this the rebels made no stand on the right, but the left continued to be hotly engaged, and the enemy's sowars advanced with great determination on the guns, one of which was disabled from its gunners having been cut down, and for the moment in the possession of the enemy; it was however instantly recaptured, and the 9th Lancers charged the sowars and drove them from the field. I regret to say that two most excellent officers, Lieutenants French and Jones, were wounded, the former mortally, and I fear that little hope can be entertained of the recovery of Lieutenant Jones. I advanced during this time on the Dholepore road, capturing guns as we went on, and the 9th Lancers and artillery, supported by the 75th and 2nd Punjaub Infantry, advanced on the left, taking four guns on their way. The whole line now moved to the front, the Punjaub Cavalry, as usual, performing most excellent service on the flanks, till we reached a village three miles from hence, where we halted for a short time, the whole of the enemy being then in full flight: we were now joined by the 3rd Europeans, and Colonel Cotton, commanding at Agra, came up and took command of the whole of the troops. The enemy's camp was descried about two miles in advance, and we marched upon it, the road strewn in all directions with baggage and carts; the infantry was ordered to halt at the camp, and the cavalry and artillery pursued the enemy to the Kharee Nuddee, ten and a half miles from Agra. The enemy had crossed the river before we reached it, leaving behind him all his guns, a return of which is attached. The artillery fired grape and round shot at the retreating enemy across the river, with good effect. The country all round was covered with fugitives, of whom a large number were cut up; they have all now crossed the Kharee Nuddee. After a short halt we returned to camp, and the captured guns were all brought in during the night. I have not been able to estimate the enemy's number, as in addition to the Indore force, and the Neemuch and the Nusseerabad brigades, Sepoys were found killed belonging to 16th Grenadiers, Hurrianah Light Infantry, Gwalior Contingent and several others. The whole country as far as one could see was covered with fugitives, but of these many were probably camp followers and rabble. I have never seen such a rout, and, had our artillery and cavalry been fresh, few would have crossed the Kharee Nuddee, but they had marched forty-one miles in less than thirty hours before arriving at Agra. It is impossible to say too much of the excellent conduct of the whole of the troops, officers and men, and I trust it will meet with the approbation of the Major-General commanding the Field Force at Delhi.

It is my intention as soon as I have been joined by the detachment, now on its way from Delhi, to proceed towards Futtyghur, with a view of effecting a junction with General Havelock's force, subject to the approbation of General Penny.

I have, &c.,

E. H. Greathed, Lieut.-Colonel,
Commanding Moveable Column.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Probates and Letters of Administration in England," it is enacted that the said Act (except where otherwise specially provided) shall come into operation on such day, not sooner than the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, as Her Majesty shall by Order in Council appoint, provided that such Order shall be made one month at least previously to the day so to be appointed; and whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that the Court of Probate appointed under the provisions of the said Act, is to hold its ordinary sittings, and to have its principal registry at such place or places in London or Middlesex, as Her Majesty in Council shall from time to time appoint.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that the said recited Act (except where otherwise specially provided) shall come into operation on the eleventh day of January next; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that the above-mentioned Court of Probate shall hold its ordinary sittings in any of the courts in Westminster Hall which can be conveniently used for the purpose, and shall have its principal registry in the city of London in the building now used as the public registry of the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England," it is enacted that the said Act shall come into operation on such day, not sooner than the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, as Her Majesty shall by Order in Council appoint, provided that such Order be made one month at least previously to the day so to be appointed: And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted that the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, appointed under the provisions of the said Act, shall hold its sittings at such place or places in London or Middlesex, or elsewhere, as Her Majesty in Council shall from time to time appoint:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that the said recited Act shall come into operation on the eleventh day of January next; And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that the above-mentioned Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall hold its sittings in any of the Courts in Westminster Hall which can be conveniently used for the purpose.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her Majesty, "for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, of which the county of Yorkshire was one, and the town of Boston was named as a place for holding one of the courts of the said county for the district therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, and in the twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred, and fifty-four, to order that the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Boston, should, after the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, be holden at Wetherby, by the name of the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Wetherby:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that the County Court now holden at Wetherby should be holden at Tadcaster, instead of at Wetherby: Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the County Court now holden by the name of "The County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Wetherby," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Tadcaster," and the said Court now holden at Wetherby shall be holden at Tadcaster instead of at Wetherby.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied;

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council; that all the provisions of the said Act should be extended and applied to the two Courts of Record of the borough of Colchester, called the Law Hundred and Foreign Courts;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that within one month after this Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," shall apply to the said two Courts of Record of the borough of Colchester, called the Law Hundred and Foreign Courts;

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to direct that the forms given in Schedules A and B to the said Act annexed, may and shall be so altered as to make the same applicable to the said Courts of Record, and the Judge and deputy Judge thereof, instead of to Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, and the Judges thereof; and that the costs mentioned in the first section of the said Act shall be fixed by the Registrar of the said Courts of Record, subject to the approval of the Judge thereof, and that the Judge of the said Courts, or any deputy or assistant Judge thereof, shall and may, as to the said Courts, exercise all the powers given by the said Act to any Judge or Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster, in or by the first, second, third, and fourth sections thereof.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the churchyard of BALDOCK, Herts, from the first of January to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ;

In the churchyard of St. Mary, BATTLE, and in the burial-grounds of the Unitarian and Zion chapels, in that parish, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, on the same conditions as those contained in an Order in Council of the thirtieth of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in respect of the said churchyard and burial-grounds ;

In the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent Chapel, Cheese-lane, of the Independent West End Chapel, of Salem Chapel, and of the Baptist Chapel, all in WELLINGBOROUGH, from the first of January to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ;

In St. Andrew's Churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent and Baptist Chapels, in WHITTLESEY, from the first of January next to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine ;

In the churchyard of NEW WINDSOR, in the burial-grounds of the Baptist Chapel, and in the Acre Burial-ground, in Windsor, from the first of December instant to the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued, as therein mentioned, with certain exceptions, in the General Cemetery in the old parish of BIRMINGHAM, and whereas by another Order in Council of the second of February last, the operation of the said Order, so far as it related to the said cemetery, was postponed until the thirty-first of December last, and it seems fit that the said first-mentioned Order be again varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the twenty-fourth September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as regards interments in the Birmingham General Cemetery, be further suspended to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ; and it is also ordered that in the meantime the following regulations be observed, viz. ; That in common graves therein, and in those of the Church of England Cemetery, not more than four bodies be buried in any such grave ; every coffin buried in them shall be separated from any other coffin by at least a foot of earth, and shall be buried at least four feet below the surface, and every such grave to be filled in on the day of burial and not again opened. And that on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, one body only be buried in any common grave, and no such grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years. No unwall'd grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family, in which case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin ; but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed. No coffin shall be buried in any unwall'd grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground, unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years of age, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the sixteenth of November last, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyards of Saint Mary and Holy Trinity, ULVERSTON, and in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground in that parish, except so far as was compatible with the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth of the Regulations for New Burial-grounds, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the twelve last words of the seventh of the said Regulations be omitted in the application of such Regulations to the above-named churchyards and burial-ground.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of “the dead in the metropolis,” made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications;

SOWERBY BRIDGE.—Forthwith in the several churches and chapels of Sowerby Bridge, and that from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (with the exception of family vaults and walled graves, which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which are free from water and can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner), burials be discontinued in the churchyard of Sowerby Bridge; and that the use of the reserved grave space belonging to the incumbent, the Reverend C. Rogers, be permitted on the above conditions for vaults and walled graves, for the interment of Mr. Rogers and the members of his family. That in the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Burial-ground, Bolton-row, with the exception of family vaults and graves, burials be forthwith discontinued within five yards of the day school and Sunday school, and that, with the same exception, no graves be reopened. That in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, Warley, with the exception of family vaults and graves, no grave be re-opened.

BACUP.—Forthwith under all churches and chapels in the parish of Bacup, and on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine in Saint John’s Churchyard, and in the Ebenezer and Irwell-street Chapel Burial-grounds, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the ninth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner; and also, that in the meantime interment be discontinued, except in graves not less than four feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of remains or coffins; also that (with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, to be used with the above-named precaution, and except in existing family graves not less than five feet deep, and which can be opened without the exposure of remains, and except in graves at least three yards from any building, and which have never been previously opened, one body only to be buried in each) interment be discontinued forthwith in the Wesleyan and the Independent Burial-grounds.

HALIFAX.—Forthwith in the parish church of Halifax, also in the Baptist Chapel, Pellon-lane, Hanover-street Chapel, Salem Chapel, Northgate End Chapel, and the Roman Catholic Chapel; also forthwith in the burial-grounds of the Primitive Methodist Chapel, Baptist Chapel, Pellon-lane, Northgate End Chapel, and Roman Catholic Chapel. That from and after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, with the exception of family vaults and brick graves which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials be discontinued in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James’s Church, and Hanover-street Chapel; that the above excepted vaults and brick graves be used on the following conditions: that no coffin be buried within three feet of the ordinary level of the ground; that, when required, the vaults and graves be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in an air-tight manner; that in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James’s Church, and Hanover-street Chapel, the only bodies buried be those of the husband, wife, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already interred; and in the parish churchyard, the bodies of the husband and wife of persons already buried. That in the Halifax General Cemetery burials be forthwith discontinued on the east side, within thirteen yards of all dwelling-houses; and also in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, South Parade, with the exception of six hundred and seventy-five square yards of unoccupied ground on the east side, and of family vaults and graves which were in existence on the first August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; that in the General Cemetery and Burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that the burials be conducted in accordance with the fifth and seventh of the Official Regulations for New Burial-grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty’s Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of January next;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of January.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of HANLEY, within the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, have, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to make further provision for “the burial of the dead in England beyond the “limits of the metropolis,” presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that two Orders in Council have been issued for closing (with the exceptions or modifications therein mentioned) certain burial-grounds within the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent; that the said parish is situate partly within and partly without the said borough of Hanley, and that the several burial-grounds mentioned in the said two Orders in Council are all situate within the said borough, and within the said parish, and that there is great difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish, under the provisions of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," and praying, that powers may be vested in the said Town Council of the borough of Hanley, for providing requisite places of burial, under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, or for such part thereof as is situate within the said borough of Hanley.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eleventh day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct, that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the borough of HANLEY, one month at least before the said eleventh day of January.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Board of Health for the district of the township of BARNSELY, in the county of York, established under "The Public Health Act, 1849," have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to Amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said township of Barnsley is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for the said district under any of the Burial Acts now in force, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing certain burial-grounds within the said district, as mentioned in such Order, and praying that Her Majesty would be pleased to order that the said Local Board of Health shall be the Burial Board for the district of the township of Barnsley aforesaid.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the 11th day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board of Health of Barnsley aforesaid, one month at least before the said 11th day of January next.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas a postal convention was some time since made and entered into between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of the Republic of New Granada, and is still in force, and a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, was also duly made for the purpose of better carrying into effect the terms of such convention, dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, whereby it was ordered and directed that the letters and newspapers therein mentioned might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any port in New Granada subject to the several rates of postage, and to the regulations therein contained.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Warrant dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, should be repealed, and that such rates of postage should be charged, and such other regulations made with respect to the letters and newspapers hereinafter mentioned as are hereinafter contained.

1. Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before mentioned Acts, or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct that the said Warrant, dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, and the several rates of postage and the several orders, directions, and regulations therein mentioned and contained, shall cease and determine, and shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed and revoked.

2. And we do further order and direct as follows (that is to say), on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to, any part of the republic of New Granada, and transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and any port in New Granada, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of British postage following (that is to say):—

If the sea conveyance be by packet-boat, a rate of one shilling.

And if by private ship, a rate of eight pence.

3. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to, any part of New Granada, transmitted by the post between any port in New Granada and any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom (letters transmitted through the United Kingdom between New Granada and France, or any foreign country though France only excepted, which letters are to be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed), there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of British postage following (that is to say):—

For the conveyance of every such letter between any port in New Granada and any part of the United Kingdom, if the sea conveyance be by packet-boat a rate of one shilling, and if by private ship a rate of eight pence.

And for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and such colony or foreign country.

4. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by packet-boat or private ship (without passing through the United Kingdom) between any of Her Majesty's colonies and any of the ports of New Granada, or between the French colonies of Martinique or Guadeloupe, and any of the ports of New Granada, or between any ports in New Granada, there shall be charged, taken and paid, a rate of British postage of four pence.

5. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by packet boat between any foreign port at which such packet may touch (Martinique and Guadeloupe excepted), and any port in New Granada (without passing through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged, taken and paid a rate of British postage of one shilling.

6. All letters so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, if exceeding half an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say):—

On every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight of any letter so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, above the weight of three ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional ounce shall be charged as an additional ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

7. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, are now by law entitled to of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

8. And we further direct that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned may be sent by the post, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter contained (that is to say)

Newspapers published in New Granada and sent direct from New Granada to the United Kingdom or any of the British colonies (whether through the United Kingdom or not) by packet-boat, or private ship, at a rate of one penny each.

British newspapers (in whatever language they be published) sent direct from the United Kingdom to any port in New Granada, and colonial newspapers sent from any port in Her Majesty's colonies to any port in New Granada (whether through the United Kingdom or not) by packet-boat or private ship at a rate of one penny each.

Newspapers published in New Granada, and sent direct from one port in New Granada to another port in New Granada by packet-boat at a rate of one penny each.

Foreign newspapers sent direct by packet-boat between any port in New Granada and any other foreign port without passing through the United Kingdom, at a rate of two-pence each.

9. Every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

10. Every printed newspaper which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following (that is to say):

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding 31 days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post-office in London, and shall be posted within 15 days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

Every printed newspaper, whether British, colonial, or foreign, shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover and an envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no word or communication printed on any such newspaper after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper or the cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vender, or agent, by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof. No printed newspaper, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any letter or communication, nor any other inclosure.

Every newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

11. If any newspaper, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, be sent by the post otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under the 10th clause of this Warrant, the same shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and any such newspaper on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit, not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such newspapers as on unpaid letters.

12. The rates of postage chargeable on letters and printed newspapers, respectively transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

13. The respective letters and newspapers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be re-directed and again forwarded by the post.

14. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage, hereby fixed or any of the orders, directions, regulations and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

15. This Warrant shall come into operation on the seventeenth day of December instant.

16. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

Blackburn Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the holder of the shares hereunder specified, in the Blackburn Railway Company, having failed to pay several calls payable by him on such shares, together with the interest accrued due thereon, and more than two calendar months having elapsed since the time appointed for payment of the last of such calls, the Directors of the said Company intend, after the expiration of twenty-one days from the date hereof, pursuant to the powers and provisions of the "Companies' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," to declare the said shares forfeited, unless, in the meantime, the amount due for and in respect of such calls, with all interest thereon respectively, to the day of payment, be fully paid and discharged.

Dated the 1st day of December, 1857.

Geo. Gunn, Secretary to the Blackburn Railway Company.

CONTRACT FOR TIN PLATERERS' WARES.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 26, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 15th December next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

'TIN PLATERERS' WARES.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of the tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained, at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tin Platerers' Wares," and must be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SPLIT PEAS, OATS, AND VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, November 30, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 18th December next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:—

Split Peas, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of any of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Samples of the peas and oats (not less than 2 quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.
