

ces from Poland said, That the Moscovite Ambassadors would be the 2d of this Month on the Frontiers of Silesia, upon which, the Emperor has sent an Officer to receive and conduct them hither. The Baron de Berchem, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, has had Audience of the Emperor.

Strasbourg, Jan. 6. Lieutenant General Monclar, and the Sieur de Vauban, are still at Fort Louis, on which, besides the Soldiers, several thousand Peasants do constantly work, and a great many Boats are employed in carrying Materials thither.

Cologne, Jan. 10. The Electoral Prince Palatin will part from Düsseldorf the next week for Vienna. The Imperial Sub-Commissioners continue still here, and have not yet fixed the time of their departure.

Hamburg, Jan. 11. The Letters from Stockholm, inform us, That the Queen of Sweden was brought to Bed of a Son, who was named Charles Gustavus. It's said the Princes of Lunenburg will meet together the next week at Bergerdorff. There is likewise a discourse of a Conference to be held at Alema, about the Affairs of the Duke of Holstein. They write from Dresden, That the Elector of Saxony giving Audience of Leave to an Envoy that was at his Court from the Republick of Venice, had told him, That having himself Occasion for his Troops, now in the Service of that State, he had sent them Orders to return home.

Brussels, Jan. 17. Our Governor General has, we are told, dispatched an Extraordinary Courier to Spain, to give the King an account of what hath been agreed on between the Commissioners of the Two Crowns in the Conference at Philipville, concerning the Limits on the side of Namur, the Particulars whereof will not be made Publick, till the same be ratified by his Catholick Majesty. The Letters from Vienna of the 5th Instant, confirm the Action of Major General Thungen; They say, a Body of Turks and Tartars commanded by the Son of the Cham of Tartary, and two Bassas, being come to Essecke, and having laid a Bridge of Boats over the Drava, with a design to make an Incurſion into the Lower Hungary, as well to ravage the Country, as to conduct to Alba Regalis and Canisa a supply of Provisions, which they had for that purpose gathered together at Sigeb, Major General Thungen, upon Notice of it, marched from Fras Charches the 19th of the last month in the Evening with 500 Horse and 250 Foot towards Sigeb, and arriving before that place at Break of day, surprized the Lower Town, which they burnt with all the Forage and other Provisions that had been laid up there; The Turks made a Sally out of the Castle, but were repulsed, and the Imperialists returned with the loss only of 3 or 4 men to Five Churches.

Hague, Jan. 14. The States of Holland have been every day assembled since Wednesday last, but we do not hear that they are yet come to a Resolution upon any of the matters they had before them at their last meeting. The 11th Instant arrived here the Duke of Croy from Germany, having served the last Campaign as Lieutenant General in the Imperial Army in Hungary. The Commissioners of this State continue their Conferences at Maeſtricht with those of the States of Liege.

Paris, Jan. 15. The Dauphiness being indisposed, the Solemnity of Christning the Children of France was not performed on Sunday last as was intended. The Ambassadors of Siam had yesterday their Audience of Leave of the King; It's said they will part from hence towards the end of the next week for Brest. It's believed the Court will go on Tuesday next to Marli, to pass some days there. The King has given the Government of the Pays d'Auvergne, to the Count de Grammont; And that of Chasteau Trompette, and the Lieutenantancy of the Lower Guyenne, to the Sieur de la Hiera Governor of Ro-croy. Monsieur de Louvois having a Humor fallen in his Leg, is so ill with it, that he has desired Leave to retire from Court till it be cured. Mr. Skelton, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain, is to have his Audience on Saturday next. We have an account from St. Malo, that three Ships were arrived there with four Millions and an half of Pieces of Eight from Cadix; And that at the same time these Vessels parted out of the Bay of Cadix, the Duke of Montemar likewise set Sail from thence with the Ships under his Command for Toulon. The Letters from Portugal say, there was no longer any doubt made of a double Marriage between the King and the Princess Palatin; And between the Infanta and Prince Charles, third Son of the Elector Palatin. There is a Report of a Rencontre between a French Barque and a Corsair of Argiers, who would have visited Her, but the French putting themselves into a posture of defence, obliged the Argerine to retire, having lost 15 or 16 men. But another French Vessel, which was met by the Marquis de Flory, came not off so well, he having not only visited Her, but likewise taken out of her several Passengers, and 80000 Crowns in money; Upon which the King has given Orders to all his Men of War to seize the said Marquis de Flory, and the Ships belonging to him (which he fitted out under pretence of Cruising, againt the Turks) wherever they meet them.
