TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1857.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of November, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales," it is amongst other things declared and enacted, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, shall have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the Assizes and Sessions under the Commissions of Gaol Delivery, and other Commissions for the dispatch of Civil and Criminal business, shall be holden, and to order and direct such Assizes and Sessions for the dispatch of Criminal and Civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same Circuit, and to order and direct the Assizes and Sessions under such Commission for the dispatch of Criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of Civil business at one or more place or places, in such county, on the same Circuit; and further, to order and direct any Special Commission of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such County:

And whereas, as at present constituted, the Assizes for the county of Wilts are held alternately at Salisbury and Devizes, namely, at Salisbury in the Spring, and at Devizes in the Summer, of each year:

And whereas it is expedient that the holding of the said Assizes should be reversed; that is to say: that the Spring Assize should be held at Devizes, and the Summer Assize at Salisbury.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, in future, the Spring Assize for the county of Wilts shall, in each and every year, be holden at Devizes, in and for the said county; and that the Summer Assize shall be holden at Salisbury, in and for the said county.

Reigate Union.—Foreign of Reigate.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the part of the parish of Reigate termed the foreign of Reigate, in the county of Surrey ;—

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said part of the parish of Reigate is situate ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Poor Law Board did, on application of the Churchwardens of that part of the parish of Reigate which is termed the foreign of Reigate, in the county of Surrey, made in pursuance of a resolution of the vestry of the said part of the said parish, held at the Bats and Balls Inn therein, after public notice in that behalf, on Friday the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the Poor Law Board did order and direct that so much of the Act relating to vestry clerks, 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 57, as related to the appointment of a vestry clerk, should forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said part of the parish of Reigate termed the foreign of Reigate.

And whereas at another meeting of the vestry of the said part of the said parish termed the foreign of Reigate, held at the Infant School Room, Station Road, within the said foreign of Reigate, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday the fifteenth day of October last, it was resolved,—

“ That the Poor Law Board be requested to issue an Order, under their Seal of Office, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict. c. 57), entitled ‘ An Act to prevent the holding of ‘ Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and ‘ for regulating the Appointment of Vestry ‘ Clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in force within this foreign of Reigate, as regards that portion of it which relates to the providing of accommodation for holding ‘ Vestry Meetings.’ ”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said part of the said parish of Reigate have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the said Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct, as follows; that is to say :—

ARTICLE 1. That so much of the aforesaid Act as relates to the providing of a Room for the purpose of holding Vestry and other Meetings for the transaction of any business of, or relating to, that part of the said parish of Reigate termed the foreign of Reigate, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said foreign of Reigate.

ARTICLE 2. That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this twenty-sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Notice.

(Extension from Garston to Liverpool.)

SIR,

THE Saint Helen's Canal and Railway Company intend to apply to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes:—

To make and maintain a railway, with all proper stations, approaches, conveniences, and works connected therewith, commencing in the township of Garston, and parish of Childwall, in Lancashire, by a junction with the Garston Extension of the Saint Helen's Railway, at, or near the spot where the same railway crosses the road leading from Garston to St. Michael's Church, passing through Garston, the foreshore of the River Mersey, Aigburth, Childwall, Toxteth-park, and Liverpool; and terminating in the piece of land belonging to the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, of the borough of Liverpool, in Toxteth-park, which is bounded on the south by the east end of Sefton-street. And also, a branch railway, commencing in the said piece of land, crossing Sefton-street, and terminating by a junction with the railways belonging to the trustees of the Liverpool Docks, at or near the south-east side of Egerton-street, in Toxteth-park aforesaid, and in the borough of Liverpool; all which works will be in Lancashire.

The Bill will authorise the Saint Helen's Canal and Railway Company to purchase lands and houses, compulsorily, for the purposes of the intended railways and works, and to levy tolls, rates, and charges for the use of the same; and the Bill will vary or extinguish all easements, rights, and privileges, which may interfere with the construction or maintenance of the same railways and works.

The Bill will also enable the same Company to raise for the purposes of the said Bill, additional capital by shares and by borrowing, and to attach to the shares so to be raised any preference or priority of dividend, or any other advantage which the Bill may define.

It is also intended in the said Bill to reserve to the London and North Western Railway Company, power to contribute funds towards the construction of the proposed railways and works, upon such conditions as the Bill may prescribe.

The said Bill will vary, extend, and enlarge the provisions of the Acts relating to the Saint Helen's Canal and Railway Company, namely, the 8 and 9 Vict., cap. 117, and the Saint Helen's Canal and Railway Act, 1846, 1847, 1853, and 1857; and also the Act 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 204, and the other Acts relating to the London and North Western Railway Company.

Duplicate plans and sections of the said railways and works, describing the line, situation, and levels thereof, together with a book of reference to the plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands and other property which may be taken for the purposes of the said railways and works; a published map, with the lines of railway delineated thereon, so as to show their general course and direction, and a copy of this notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for Lancashire, at his office in Preston; and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Liverpool, at his office in Liverpool; and a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, and notice will, on or before the same day be deposited for public inspection with the parish clerk of Childwall, and with the clerk of St. Michael's Church, in Toxteth-park aforesaid, at the respective residences of the said clerks.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this 20th day of November, 1857.
