C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Harlow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester.

“ Whereas the church of the district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow, in the above mentioned county and diocese, is in the patronage of the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Harlow.

“ And whereas by two instruments, bearing date respectively the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the eleventh day of September, in the same year, certain rent charges or annual or other sums of money in lieu or commutation of tithes, amounting together to one hundred and one pounds, two shillings, and eight pence per annum, arising and becoming due or payable from, out of, or in respect of certain farms, lands, and hereditaments situate and being in the parish of South Bemfleet, in the said county of Essex, have been granted and conveyed by John Watlington Perry Watlington, of Moor Hall, in the last-named county, Esquire, and Richard Perry, of No. 18, Chester-terrace, Hyde-park, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, to be applied and disposed of for the perpetual augmentation of the maintenance of the curate or incumbent of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow.

“ And whereas such grant and conveyance as aforesaid was made upon the understanding and faith that we, the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the vicar of Harlow, should submit to your Majesty in Council the recommendation with respect to the patronage of the said district chapelry which is hereinafter accordingly made.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Rochester, and of the Reverend Charles Miller, as such vicar of Harlow as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Watlington Perry Watlington, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said
