India Board, December 23, 1857.

THE following dispatch has been received at the East India House.

No. 1.

The Governor-General of India in Council to the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

Fort William, November 9, 1857. (No. 71.)

IN conformity with instructions received from the Secret Committee, that your Honorable Court should be furnished with authentic intelligence respecting Europeans, whether belonging to the East India Company's service or not, who may be killed or wounded by the hands of rebels, a circular has been issued to the authorities noted on the margin,* requesting them henceforward to cause such a return to be made, for submission to your Honorable Court.

2. With respect to past transactions, these authorities have been requested to collect, from the best available sources, as complete a statement as can be procured of those who have fallen; and that, though this statement is to be made as complete as possible, still, whatever information they might have, should be sent in, without waiting until the report can be made complete.

3. These returns, when received, will be duly transmitted to your Honorable Court. In the meantime we forward a list, extracted from letters addressed to this department.

4. The Home and Military Departments have been directed to submit what information they now possess on the subject, to this Department, for transmission to your Honorable Court.

We have, &c.,

CONTRACT FOR VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, December 21, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 4th January next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned quantity of

VINEGAR; viz.:

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons; half to be delivered in six weeks, and the remainder in four weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the vinegar.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Vinegar" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR SUET.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, December 23, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 4th January next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned article, viz. :—

Suet, 150,000 lbs. ; to be delivered in fifteen equal weekly deliveries, the first of such deliveries to be made by the 16th January, 1858.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the suet.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Suet," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.
