NOTICE.

THE Subscriber, the Reverend James M'Crie, of the United Presbyterian Church, Old Meldrum, hereby intimates, that having, by a deed of assignation executed by him of date 17th December, 1857, sold and assigned the whole Shares of the Aberdeen Town and County Bank which belonged to him, either personally or in right of, and as representing, his deceased Spouse, Mrs. Mary Forsyth or M'Crie, he has now ceased to be a Partner of that Company.

James M'Crie.
DAVID MITCHELL, Witness.
JOHN FINNIE, Witness.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 10th day of February, 1847, and made between Robert Worsley, of Golborne, in the county of Lancaster, Esq., since deceased, of the one part; and Robert Grundy and Ralph Forster, both of Hindley, in the parish of Wigan, in the said county, Cotton Spinners and Copartners, of the other part; the said Robert Worsley did demise, lease, set, and to farm let unto the said Robert Grundy and Ralph Forster, their executors, administrators, and limited assigns, all that then newly-erected cotton mill or factory, called Hindley New Mill, engine-house, warehouse, gas-house, and other the erections and buildings thereunto belonging, and the yard and land occupied therewith, situate in Hindley aforesaid, together with the steam-engine, millwright's work and gearing, boilers, steam-pipes, and other fixtures erected and set up in the said cotton mill or factory, engine-house, and other buildings, or on some part thereof; and also all and singular the machinery, machines, utensils, and implements of trade, articles and things in or upon the said cotton mill, warehouse, gas-house, buildings, and premises, and specified in the schedule to the said indenture annexed, for a term of twenty-one years, at the rent, and subject to the stipulations, conditions, and agreements, in the said indenture contained. And also by certain arrangements, acts, deeds, matters, and things, recently made and entered into between the said Robert Grundy and Ralph Forster, the right estate and interest of him, the said Ralph Forster, under or by virtue of the said indenture of lease, have become vested in the said Robert Grundy alone, who is now the sole lessee, assignee, or tenant of the said cotton mill, buildings, steam-engine, fixtures, machinery, and premises. And take notice, that the said Robert Grundy has no interest or property in the said cotton mill and buildings, or in the steam-engine, fixtures, machinery, machines, implements of trade, articles and things, now in and about the same, and comprised in or affected by the said indenture, save as tenant, and lessee thereof, under the trustees of the estate of the said Robert Worsley, deceased.—Dated this 21st day of December, 1857.

THOS. FRED. TAYLOR, Wigan, Solicitor to the said Trustees.

In Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act to facilitate leases and sales of settled estates," a petition, entitled in the matter of the said Act, and in the matter of freehold estates in the township of Wirksworth and parish of Kirk Ireton, both in the county of Derby, and of copyhold estates in the township of Wirksworth and parish of Kirk Ireton aforesaid, within the manor and wapentake of Wirksworth, in the county aforesaid, and of copyhold estates in the said township of Wirksworth, within the manor of the Dean of Lincoln, devised by the will of Charles Hurt, deceased, was on the 14th day of December, 1857, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by Philip Anthony Hart, of Wirksworth, in the said county of Derby, Esq., praying that the whole of the said estates or such parts thereof as the said Court might think proper, might be sold under the direction of the said Court; and that the said Frederic Arkwright and Alfred Arkwright, and any other necessary parties might be directed to execute all deeds of conveyance, and to take all admissions, make all surrenders, and do all other acts requisite and necessary for conveying and surrendering the said freehold and copyhold estates to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and that the monies to be produced by such sale, might be paid to the said Frederic Arkwright and Alfred Arkwright, upon the trusts of the said will of the said Charles Hurt; and that the costs and expences of all parties of, and incident to, this application, might be taxed as between Solicitor and Client, by one of the Taxing Masters of the said Court, and might be a charge on the said estates, and be paid by the said trustees, out of the produce of the sale of the said estates; and that the application of the monies to arise from the sale of the said estates, in manner directed by the said Act, might be made by the trustees for the time being, of the said will of the said Charles Hurt, without any application to the Court. And notice is hereby further given, that such petition will in due course be heard before his Honour the Master of the Rolls, and that the place where the said petitioner is to be served with any petition or notice under the said Act, is the office of Messrs. Boys and Tweedie, No. 6, Ely-place, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 23rd day of December, 1857.
