In Chancery.

In the Matter of Andrew's Settled Estate, and in the Matter of the Act of Parliament, 19 and 20 Victoria, chapter 120.

NOTICE is hereby given, that under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the 19th and 20th years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to facilitate leases and sales of settled estates," an application has been made by petition to the High Court of Chancery, before his Honour the Master of the Rolls, by Matthew Bernard Lucas, of No. 11, Adam-street, Adelphi, in the city of Westminster, Gentleman, William Andrews, of Reading, in the county of Berks, Gentleman, and Bernard Lucas, of Clapton, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, praying that the said Matthew Bernard Lucas, William Andrews, and Bernard Lucas, may be authorized to sell the said estate, called Glanbrydan, in the parishes of Llandilo-Vawr, otherwise Llandilo, and Talley, in the county of Carmarthen, and all other (if any) the hereditaments devised in settlement by the will of the late John Goldswyer Andrews, Esq., deceased. The said petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of the said Matthew Bernard Lucas, No. 11, Adam-street, Adelphi.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chap. 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate the leases and sales of settled estates," and in the matter of three cottages and three acres and seventeen and a half perches of land, situate in the parish of Hatton, in the county of Middlesex, and devised by, and subject to, the limitations contained in the will of Augustus Gostling, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Lydia Gostling, of Whitton-place, in the parish of Whitton, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, did on the 9th day of July, 1857, prefer her petition, entitled in the said matters to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, praying that she might be at liberty to sell and convey to Sir Frederick Pollock, Knight, Lord Chief Baron of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, his heirs and assigns, or otherwise, as he should direct, the said three cottages and three acres and seventeen and a half perches of land, situate at Hatton-field, in the parish of Hatton aforesaid, and demised to or in the occupation of the said Sir Frederick Pollock, or his undertenants, and that the sum of five hundred and twenty pounds might be paid to Edward Tylee and George Henry Brookes, the trustees under the said will of the said Augustus Gostling, by the said Sir Frederick Pollock, for the purpose of being applied by them in the purchase of the messuages or tenements and land at Whitton aforesaid, in the said petition mentioned; and that the same messuages or tenements and land, might be conveyed to the said Edward Tylee and George Henry Brooks, and their heirs, to the uses upon the trusts, and with, under, and subject to, the powers, provisos, and declarations in the said will of the said Augustus Gostling, expressed and declared of and concerning the houses and land at Hatton-field aforesaid, or such and so many of such uses, trusts, powers, provisos, and declarations, as should at the time of such conveyance be in existence, and capable of taking effect. The said Sir Frederick Pollock paying the costs, charges, and expences of, and incident to, the said petition, the sale and conveyance to him of the said cottages and land at Hatton-field aforesaid, and the sale and conveyance of the said messuages or tenements and land at Whitton aforesaid, to the said Edward Tylee and George Henry Brooks, and their heirs in manner aforesaid. And notice is hereby further given, that such petition will in due course be heard before his Honour the Master of the Rolls; and that the place where the said petitioner is to be served with any petition or notice under the said Act, is the office of Messrs. Blake, Tylee, and Tylee, No. 14, Essex-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 24th day of December, 1857.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause William Sission and another against Ann Bilyard, the creditors of Marmaduke Hare, late of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, Gentleman, who died in or about the month of November, 1853, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 25th day of January, 1858, to come in and prove their debts at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or
