Cawnpore, 14th November, Saturday, 8 P.M.
General Hindham, to the Governor-General, at Calcutta.

NEWS from Commander-in-Chief's Camp at Alum Bagh, 9 A.M., the 13th. After several skirmishes on the day, ending in capture of two guns, the fort of Jullabad was taken and blown up. The Commander-in-Chief communicated with Sir J. Outram by means of a semaphore, and will probably occupy the Dilkhosa to-day. The country people round Lucknow are hostile.

Captain Bruce, by order of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to the Governor-General, at Calcutta.

THE Commander-in-Chief occupied the Dilkhosa and the Martinière, after a running fight of two hours, yesterday, at noon. The enemy came forward to attack at 3 P.M. After a struggle of an hour, he was beaten back, repulsed heavily. An advanced picquet having cleared some villages across the canal, we took post there for the night. Our loss was very trifling—Lieutenant Mayne, Horse Artillery, Quartermaster General's Department, and Lieutenant Wheatcroft, Carabiniers, killed.

Major-General Mansfield to the Private Secretary to the Governor-General at Calcutta

Head Quarters, Secunder Bagh, Lucknow, November 18, 1857.

ON the 16th, the Commander-in-Chief advanced across the canal straight on Secunder Bagh, which was carried after a very severe struggle, the enemy suffering enormously. These positions having been occupied, the Salmack was attacked with heavy artillery for three hours; it was carried at dusk, after one of the severest fights ever witnessed. Early on the 17th, communications were opened to the left rear of the barracks, towards the canal. A cannonade having been kept up all the morning on the Mess House, that very strong position was carried by assault at 3 P.M. The troops pushed rapidly on, after carrying the Mess House, and were able to seize the Mothee Mahal before dark. Sir James Outram and Sir Henry Havelock then came out to meet the Commander-in-Chief.

The Commander-in-Chief's wound is very slight, and does not interfere with his duty.

By order,

W. MANSFIELD, Chief of the Staff.

A list of killed and wounded will be sent.
