Lieutenant-Colonel John Jones, Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles, to the Adjutant-General, Field Force before Delhi.

Sir, Camp before Delhi, July 31, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier-General commanding the Field Force, that about 1 P.M., on the 18th instant, I received orders to take command of a moveable column consisting of the troops named in the margin,* and to proceed to the Subzee Mundy and ground in front of it, and drive the enemy back, who were there in position. On arriving at the pukka road leading to the Subzee Mundy, I ordered the Sikhs into the wood on the right of the road, and to advance in skirmishing order, their left resting on the road and their right on the canal, the remainder of the column advancing along the road, the head of it being in line with the skirmishers in cover. On arriving at the Subzee Mundy, I ordered Her Majesty's 75th Regiment to enter the village and to advance through it and clear it, which duty they performed; but were detained some time at a serai before they could drive the enemy from it; but eventually they succeeded. During this time the remainder of the column was on the road on the Subzee Mundy, with the exception of two guns, supported by Cavalry and Infantry, which I advanced. On Her Majesty's 75th moving on, I advanced the whole of the column to the gate leading up to Hindoo Rao's house, and then took the road to the right and crossed the canal, placing two guns in position on the first road leading to the city, and advancing the other two to a road parallel to the first. On arriving there, the enemy were stationed behind the crest of a hill to our right, when I opened fire on them with round shot, and the Infantry with musketry. Before being able to get the second two guns up, I was obliged to clear that part of the Subzee Mundy of the enemy. Having driven the enemy from the ground I was ordered to clear, I remained in position until I received orders to retire, which I did, by alternate half-batteries, each supported by Cavalry and Infantry, and keeping up a heavy fire of Artillery and Infantry as the enemy attempted to show themselves, which entirely prevented their advancing. On arriving at the gateway leading to Hindoo Rao's house, I left two guns and a troop of Cavalry with Major Reid, who was in position there with his regiment of Goorkhas. I then retired the remainder of the force into camp.

I have, &c.

JOHN JONES, Lieutenant-Colonel.

* Four field-guns; part of Her Majesty's 8th Regiment; part of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment; part of Her Majesty's 75th Regiment; some Sikh Infantry; and Captain Hodson's Punjaub Cavalry.
