Board of Trade, Whitehall, January 18, 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Lisbon, reporting that the Board of Health at that place having declared the port of Lisbon to be "suspected," no passengers on board vessels touching there, will be permitted to land at Madeira, without having performed a quarantine of observation of five days; and as this quarantine cannot be observed in the port of Funchal, it is requisite that passengers desiring to be admitted to that port should quit the vessel in which they arrive at Lisbon, and after having performed the requisite quarantine, should proceed thence in another vessel to their destination. If, however, any death, or the outbreak of any disease requiring a fresh quarantine of observation should occur on the voyage from Lisbon to Madeira, no passenger will be permitted to land at that island.
