East India House, January 20, 1858.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Special General Court of the said Company will be held, by adjournment, at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 27th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of continuing the consideration of the following proposed Resolution, which was moved at the General Court held on the 13th instant; viz.:

"That the proposed transfer of the governing powers of the East India Company to the Crown is opposed to the rights and privileges of the East India Company, is fraught with danger to the constitutional interests of England, is perilous to the safety of our Indian Empire, and calls for the resistance of the Corporation by all constitutional means."

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

Beniowski's Patent Printing Company (Limited).

NOTICE.—A General Meeting of the Shareholders of the above Company is convened for the 1st of February, 1858, at twelve o'clock, to take place at their offices, 8, Bow-street, Covent Garden, when a special resolution will be proposed to wind up the Company voluntarily.

B. Beniowski, Managing Director.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Duston Iron Ore Company (Limited), held at the Company's office, Wellington chambers, Cannon-street, London, on Wednesday, the 20th day of January instant, the following resolutions were duly proposed and carried.

That in the opinion of this meeting it is advisable to wind up this Company, and that immediate steps be taken to wind it up.

That the least expensive and most expeditious method of winding up the said Company, will be that of the voluntary method, as enacted by the Joint Stock Companies Act, of 1856; and, that it is the opinion of this meeting, that the necessary steps should be taken immediately to carry the said winding up into effect.
