Whitehall, February 2, 1858.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same most graciously:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN and His Royal Highness the PRINCE CONSORT.

AS Governor of the Military Knights of Windsor, I most humbly and respectfully beg leave to be permitted, on the part of my Brethren and myself, to offer our most sincere congratulations to your Majesty and Royal Prince Consort on the auspicious Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, and to assure you that we take a lively interest in everything that contributes to your happiness; and we earnestly pray that their Royal Highnesses may live many years, in imitation of the domestic and virtuous example set by your Most Excellent Majesty and Royal Consort; and we beg further to be permitted to assure you of our firm and unbounded attachment and loyalty to your royal persons and illustrious race.

The above, with the most profound respect, is humbly submitted by the Military Knights and myself.

*Chas. Moore, Major,
 Governor M. K. W.*

Lower Ward, Windsor Castle,
 25th January, 1858.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's faithful subjects, the Commissioners acting for the Town of Southport, under "The Southport Improvement Act, 1846," beg leave humbly to express our feelings of veneration for your Majesty's royal person and family, and of devoted loyalty to the Throne.

We beg to congratulate your Majesty on the auspicious Marriage which has this day been solemnized; and we fervently pray that the union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal of England with his Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, may be productive of the happiest results to the illustrious pair, and greatly strengthen the bonds of amity and peace between the two nations.

Given under our Common Seal this 25th day of January, 1858.

Peter Wood, M.D., Chairman of the Commissioners.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Tiverton, in council assembled, beg respectfully to offer your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal of England with His Royal Highness Frederick William, Prince of Prussia. Entertaining, in common with our fellow subjects, feelings of the most devoted loyalty and affection towards your Royal Person and Throne, we rejoice at an event which we hope (under Divine Providence) may add to your Majesty's happiness. We feel confident that the bestowal of the hand of the Princess Royal on a Prince of the exalted rank and high attainments of His Royal Highness cannot fail to give gratification to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, as well as to the English nation at large. We trust this alliance with Protestant Prussia will tend greatly to extend and increase the influence of your Majesty's Government among the nations of Europe. At the same time we sincerely hope that the result of this union may be the enjoyment of every earthly blessing and domestic felicity on the part of our beloved Princess.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough of Tiverton, the 26th day of January, 1858.
