THE QUEEN'S LEVEES.

NEW REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, Issued by Her Majesty's Command, February 6, 1858.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees are to send a card having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come, to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

BREADALBANE, Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 18, 1858.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To Her Most Gracious Majesty, VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the President, Vice-Presidents and Committee of the German Hospital, Dalston, most humbly desire to be allowed to join in the congratulations which arise from all parts of your Majesty's dominions on that happy event, which still fills all our hearts with joy.

Especially may the German Hospital prefer this request, placed as it is, under the protection of your Majesty, of His Majesty the King of Prussia and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, as to none other can the auspicious union that has just taken place be of greater or deeper interest.

Receiving from this high protection abundant fruits of most substantial support, we are especially moved most earnestly to hope that both for your Majesty, your Royal Consort, your beloved Daughter, and her Princely Husband, as well as for this realm and for Prussia, this Marriage may realize all the bright hopes it has raised up, and fulfil the augury of its auspicious celebration.

That it may cement still closer the bonds which unite the great Saxon races for their common benefit and prosperity, is the devout wish of every heart, of none more so than of those now addressing you, and if our sentiments bear a resemblance to the many congratulations already offered for your gracious acceptance on this happy occasion, it is because your Majesty's subjects are of one accord in hailing with unmingled delight, the Marriage of the Princess Royal of England, with the expectant heir to Prussia's Royal Throne.

That your Majesty may long be spared to reign in peace and happiness over us, to be a bright example to the Princes of the earth in every queenly virtue, and to see the fondest wishes of your parental heart fulfilled in your Daughter's welfare and happiness, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's faithful subjects.
