FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1858.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 25, 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Levee, announced to be held at St. James's Palace on Wednesday, the 10th of March next, will not take place.

Her Majesty will hold a Levee (as already announced) on Wednesday, the 17th of March, and a further Levee on Wednesday, the 24th of March next.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Levee on the 17th March, it being a Collar Day.

THE QUEEN'S LEVEES.

NEW REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

Issued by Her Majesty's Command, February 6, 1858.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before each Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees are to send a card having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come, to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for the Order published in the London Gazette of the 4th of February last.]

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1858,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the second day of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth of January instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the fifteenth of February instant, (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:

SOWERBY BRIDGE.—Forthwith in the several churches and chapels of Sowerby Bridge; and from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (with the exception of family vaults and walled graves, which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which are free from water and can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in the reserved grave space belonging to the incumbent, the Reverend C. Rogers, which may be used, on the above conditions, for vaults and walled graves, for the interment of Mr. Rogers and the members of his family), in the churchyard of Sowerby Bridge. In the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Burial-ground, Bolton-row, with the exception of family vaults and graves, burials to be forthwith discontinued within five yards of the day school and Sunday school, and it is ordered that, with the same exception, no graves be reopened. It is also ordered that in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, Warley, with the exception of family vaults and graves, no grave be re-opened.

BACUP.—Under all churches and chapels in the consolidated chapelry of St. John, Bacup; and on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in Saint John's Churchyard, and in the Ebenezer and Irwell-terrace Chapel Burial-grounds, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the ninth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which are free from water, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner; and it is ordered that in the meantime interment be discontinued in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, except in graves not less than four feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of remains or coffins; and it is also ordered, that (with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves, to be used with the above-named precaution, and except in existing family graves not less than five feet deep, and which can be opened without the exposure of remains, and except in graves at least three yards from any building, and which have never been previously opened, one body only to be buried in each) interment be discontinued forthwith in the Wesleyan and the Independent Burial-grounds.

HALIFAX.—In the parish church of Halifax, also in the Baptist Chapel, Pellon-lane, Hanover-street Chapel, Salem Chapel, Northgate End Chapel, and in the Roman Catholic Chapel; also in the burial-grounds of the Primitive Methodist Chapel, Baptist Chapel, Pellon-lane, Northgate End Chapel, and Roman Catholic Chapel. From and after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (with the exception of family vaults and brick graves which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven), in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James's Church, and Hanover-street Chapel; and it is ordered, that the above excepted vaults and brick graves be used on the following conditions: that no coffin be buried within three feet of the ordinary level of the ground; that, when required, the vaults and graves be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in an airtight manner; and it is further ordered, that in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James's Church, and Hanover-street Chapel, the only bodies buried be those of the husband, wife, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already interred; and in the parish churchyard, the bodies of the husband and wife of persons already buried. In the Halifax General Cemetery, on the east side, within thirteen yards of all dwelling-houses; and also in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, South Parade, with the exception of six hundred and seventy-five square yards of unoccupied ground on the east side, and of family vaults and graves which were in existence on the first August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and it is ordered, that in the said General Cemetery, and Burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that the burials be conducted in accordance with the fifth and seventh of the Official Regulations for New Burial-grounds.
