NEW REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE, Issued by Her Majesty's Command, February 6, 1858.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before each Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

Whitehall, March 15, 1858.

THE following Address of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with the strongest feelings of devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, offering our humble but sincere congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal of England with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

Whilst participating with the deepest sympathy and unfeigned satisfaction in your Majesty's maternal feelings in the loss, as well as anxious hope for the welfare and happiness of a beloved daughter, we would feign trust that the auspicious event, bringing increased joy and happiness to our beloved Princess, will tend at the same time to cement more closely the friendly relations now existing between your Majesty's Kingdom and that of Prussia.

That our beloved Princess, trained as she has been with every fostering care, and guided by the brightest example, will fulfil the fondest hopes, and prove a crown of joy to the illustrious Prince, we doubt not; and to the wish that the Almighty Disposer of events may bless the Marriage, shedding around every earthly happiness, we would humbly add a prayer, that He will see fit to continue to your Majesty, and every member of your august family, the blessings of health and happiness.

Given under our Common Seal, at Huntingdon, in the county of Huntingdon, this 12th day of February, 1858.

W. Ward, Mayor.
