

Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and Henry Thomas Murdock Kirby, have signed and sealed this representation, and the said Warden, Fellows, and Scholars have hereunto affixed their common seal, we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Wadhurst and Mayfield described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united into one consolidated chapelry for the said church at Tidebrook aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Tidebrook.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Warden, Fellows, and Scholars and Henry Thomas Murdock Kirby, testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised alternately by the incumbents for the time being of the said parishes of Wadhurst and Mayfield, and that the first turn should belong to the incumbent of the said parish of Wadhurst.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Wadhurst, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line extending from the boundary between the said parish and the parish of Mayfield, along the middle of a rivulet or stream called Snape Brook as far as a point marked by a boundary stone placed on the south-western bank of such stream at the spot indicated by the letter C on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and extending thence in a westerly direction in a straight line to a point in the middle of the road leading from Beal's Oak to Newhouse, opposite to a boundary stone placed on the eastern side of such road, at the spot marked D on the said map, extending thence in the same direction along the middle of such last mentioned road to the middle of the road leading from Rushes Cross to Best Beech Hill, extending thence in a northerly direction along the middle of such last mentioned road, crossing the road leading from Best Beech Hill to Mark Cross to a point situate at a distance of one hundred yards north of the middle of the last mentioned road, extending thence parallel to the middle of the last mentioned road, and at the like distance of one hundred yards therefrom to the boundary of the parish of Rotherfield: And also all that part of the parish of Mayfield, in the said county and diocese, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line extending from the boundary of the parish of Tidehurst, along the middle of a rivulet or stream called the Rother River as far as the middle of the road leading from Merrywether Mill to Sharnden; extending thence in a northerly direction in a straight line to a point in the middle of the road leading from Tidebrook to a place called "Colkin's Mill," opposite to a boundary stone placed on the western side of such road at the spot marked E on the said map; and extending thence in a north-westernly direction parallel to, but at a distance of one hundred yards south of, the middle of the road leading from Rushes Cross to Stile House, as far as the boundary of the parish of Rotherfield."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Tidebrook, in the parish of Wadhurst, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act, and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised alternately by, the incumbents for the time being of the parishes of Wadhurst and Mayfield, and that the first turn shall belong to the incumbent of the said parish of Wadhurst; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of April, 1858.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, section one; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, section one; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the township and chapelry district of Tranmere, in the parish of Bebington, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Tranmere aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said township and chapelry district of Tranmere, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Tranmere.'

"And with the like consent of the said John,
