J. G. Holmes ...	Major Commanding 12th Irregular Cavalry	Killed	Segowlie	1857. July 23	The murderers, six of the sowars of the 12th Irregulars and the Khalasa, named below, waylaid and shot Major Holmes, as he was driving out with his wife in the evening, about 2 miles from the lines: the Khalasa went and seized the reins of the horses, Dulil Khan shot Major Holmes, one of the others cut off his head. The Khalasa then pulled Mrs. Holmes out of the cart, and with the assistance of a sowar, murdered her by cutting off her head. They then went to Dr. Garner's house, murdered him, his wife, and their little boy, and set fire to his house, which was burnt to the ground. They afterwards met with Mr. Bennett, whom they shot. They then plundered Major Holmes' houses, and other valuable property, and left in the morning for Govenhgunge. The names of the murderers are Dulil Khan, Zabtay Khan, Summood Khan, Moulvia Kubbee Khan, Parjer (so called), a bargeer or under sowar of Syed Khan, and Pundooa Khalasa, a friend and dependent of Dulil Khan Sowar.
