SIR,

No. 237 6.

IN continuation of my previous communications, No. 2133 and 2288, dated respectively the 9th and 13th instant, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit, for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the inclosed letter (without date) from Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, detailing his proceedings subsequent to the capture of the Fort of Rathghur and action with the insurgents near the town of Barodia.

2. The operations of Sir Hugh Rose in the field, while they have the cordial approval of the Commander-in-Chief will doubtless be most satisfactory to his Lordship in Council, as the success which has attended them must have the most beneficial effect in tranquillizing a district which has been so long in the hands of the rebels.

3. The Lieutenant-General Commanding-in-Chief has desired me to submit, in the margin of this letter,* the names of the officers prominently brought to notice by Sir Hugh Rose, and to beg that the Right Honorable the Governor in Council will be pleased to bring their conduct prominently to the notice of the Honorable Court of Directors.

4. The Major-General will be directed to constitute a Court of Inquiry under the provisions of Article 273, section 39, of Jameson's Code, with the view of ascertaining if the native officers and men alluded to in the 13th and 14th paragraphs of his despatch are entitled to admittance to the distinction of the Order of Merit.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD GREEN,
Colonel, Adjutant-General.

No. 2.

Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, to Colonel Green, Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to state to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that, after the capture of Rathghur, the rebels who had retired from Chandera-poor to Barodia, as mentioned in my report of the 7th February, 1858, concentrated in the latter place, having been reinforced by such of the garrison of Rathghur as had escaped, and by rebels from Korage and other places in Bundelcund.

2. Barodia, on the left bank of the river Beena, is a strong village, with a gurrie or small fort, with dense jungle on each side, about twelve miles from Rathghur, on the road to Korage, a strong fort twenty-nine miles to the north of Saugor.

3. The object of the rebels in concentrating at Barodia was to prevent or endanger any advance to Saugor, by retaking Rathghur; or, by placing themselves in my rear on the road from Bhopal to Saugor, to cut off, as they had already attempted to do, the supplies coming to me from the friendly States of Scindia and Bhopal. It was consequently necessary to attack the enemy and drive them out of Barodia.

4. Taking with me the force stated in the margin,* I marched, at mid-day on the 31st ultimo, from Rathghur, leaving Brigadier Stuart, with the remainder of my force, to protect Rathghur and the camp.

5. I moved in the order of march, which I always adopt when near the rebels, as a precaution against their system of surprises; that is, a line of flankers of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons on each side of the road, fifty yards in front of the leading file of the advanced guard, which, with a file of Irregulars, has charge of the guide; another line of Irregular Cavalry, 150 yards in echelon, in front of the outward flanks of the 14th; and, should thick jungle border the road, a company of infantry, in extended order on each side of it, to support the flankers of the 14th and the advanced guard. By this means all dangerous ground is searched, surprises are almost impossible, and spies, lying concealed at a great distance from the road, are frequently seized.

6. As we approached Barodia and the river Beena, we had very thick jungle, long grass, and nullahs on our left. The flankers of the Irregular, suddenly halting, reported that they perceived the enemy in force, in ambuscade on our left. Being with the advanced guard, which was under Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, I ordered the two guns of his troops to open their fire to the left on the enemy; before they could do so, the enemy opened a musketry fire on us, killing Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull's horse, and keeping it up with tenacity, although I reinforced the division of Horse Artillery with four of Captain Lightfoot's 9-pounders, firing grape and round-shot; it was too close for shrapnell.

7. Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, with the Horse-Artillery, took ground to the right, with the view to enfilade the enemy; but he could not get a slant at them. However, this movement enabled him to obtain good views of a body of rebel horsemen, with a red standard, endeavouring to gain a wood to our right and outflank us; I had directed a charge of cavalry against them; but it could not be executed in consequence of the staff-officer being unable to find a passage down the high banks of the Beena; two rounds of spherical case burst amongst this batch; they disappeared.

8. I had placed the 3rd Europeans in skirmishing order, in front of the flanks of their guns; their united fire diminished, but did not silence, the fire of the rebels.

9. I therefore charged the rebels out of their advanced position, with the skirmishers of the 3rd Europeans, who, under Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, gallantly drove them out of their own treacherous element, thick jungle, and twisting nullahs, and took possession of the bank of the river commanding the ford to Barodia, which now first became visible; the rebels had displayed so much obstinacy in defending this position, in order to prevent our advance across the Beena to Barodia.

Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, Captain Neville, Royal Engineers, Captain Campbell, 3rd Europeans, Captain Rose, my Aide-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Macdonald,* Assistant Quarter-Master General, were conspicuously in this advance.

I turned the advantage, gained by the 3rd Europeans, immediately to account; and sent the Hyderabad Irregular Cavalry, supported by the 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry under Captain Forbes, to cross the ford, covered by the skirmishers, to pass through the jungle to the front, and fall on the enemy in the open, which I had learnt was between the jungle and Barodia; I followed with 4 guns of the Horse Artillery and a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons in support, under Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, ordering the rest of my force to follow, with the exception of Captain Hare's Infantry and guns, which remained at the ford to prevent the rear being cut off.

Captain Forbes found the enemy's flanks, particularly their left, posted in thick jungle, their centre in comparatively open ground; he charged and broke their centre, cutting up 30 or 40 of them. The third and a very strong position, the village of Barodia, now came into sight; Captain Forbes having observed a body of cavalry retreated leisurely on it, attempted to cut them off, but their flight, on seeing this intention, became so rapid, that he only succeeded in killing 8 or 10 of them, before they got well under the protection of their guns in position at the village, and of their matchlockmen posted in the dense jungle, which surrounded three sides of it, and among the banks of a wet nullah running along their front.

Captain Forbes mentions, for their conduct on this occasion, and I beg to recommend to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, Subadar Soojut Khan, for having killed himself three of the rebels, all of his own caste; Naik Himut Sing, very severely wounded; Naik Bahader Khan, and trooper Vass, also severely wounded, who attracted the notice of their officers by engaging, singly, two or three of the enemy at the same time.

On the day before, when the camp was attacked, the same faithful Subadar hindered the advance of the enemy by the able disposition of his picket.

If his Excellency were pleased to obtain a reward for these brave soldiers, it would have a good effect on their regiment, whose fidelity and courage have never failed.

Jemadar Ihmut Hoosain Khan, 3rd Hyderabad Cavalry, was mortally wounded in courageously attacking, singly, a knot of the enemy.

* Lieutenant Macdonald was slightly wounded, and his horse twice wounded.

* 4 guns horse artillery; 4 guns Captain Lightfoot's battery; two 5½-inch mortars, with 15 men of Captain Woolcombe's battery, under the command of Lieutenant Strutt; 3 troops 14th Light Dragoons; 2 troops 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry; 25 men Madras Sappers and Miners; 3rd European Regiment; Detachment Hyderabad Contingent Field Force, under Captain Hare.

Captain Forbes conducted the charge with the same gallantry and intelligence which distinguished him at Kooshab.

Although the ford was a bad one, Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull took his guns across it rapidly in support of the cavalry, and when, by the strength of the enemy's position, they were compelled to give up the pursuit, unlimbered in front of the village, and the enemy's guns, and opened an effective fire on their position; Captain Lightfoot with the 9-pounder battery arrived shortly afterwards.

The enemy answered with guns and rockets, killing, at my side, to my great regret, Captain Neville, of the Royal Engineers, acting as my Aide-de-Camp. Knowing what excellent service he had done as an engineer officer, before Sebastopol, I had brought him up by forced marches to assist in the reduction of the forts in this country; during the action he was most useful to me, exhibiting to the last, the courage and intelligence which had obtained for him so honourable a reputation.

Driven from their position by the fire of our guns, the enemy retreated across a wall and open space into the village and jungle. I directed Captain Lightfoot to correspond to this movement; he took ground to the left with his guns, and gave them, before they reached cover, an enfilading and destructive fire; the 5½-inch mortars threw shell into the small fort of the village and jungle to which the enemy had retired.

It was now getting dark, taking two companies of the 3rd Europeans which had just come up, I crossed the wet nullah, and bringing their right shoulders forward occupied the wall round the village, and surrounded it with the skirmishers and a troop of the 3rd Light Cavalry. Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell afterwards occupied it and the little fort. But the enemy, except a few Valaitee skirmishers who were killed, had fled to Koray through the jungle, leaving baggage unpacked, and other signs of a precipitate retreat.

It was not at all sure that my camp, with the siege artillery and numerous stores, left with a small force at Rathghur under Brigadier Stewart, might not be attacked during my absence, as it had been before. I, therefore, halted in the village only for a short time, in order to rest the troops, who had been on duty for the last five days, and marched back the same night to Rathghur; they were marching or engaged fifteen hours.

The enemy's loss was severe, they themselves state it to be from four to five hundred, which is not surprising, as they were exposed to well-directed fire for a length of time. Amunt Singh, their ablest military leader, and a nephew of Fazil Mahomed Khan, were killed, and the Raja of Banpore was wounded.

The Valaitees and Puthans fought with their accustomed courage, several of them, even when dying, springing from the ground and inflicting mortal wounds with their broadswords.

The good results of the defeat of the rebels at Barodia exceeded my expectations; not only were my communications with the west and with Saugor completely opened, but the rebels flying from Barodia to Koray, left in their panic that place, although it is a fort in a strong position, and Krulassa, which is between thirty and forty miles to the north-west of Saugor. Nureeawallee, their fortified camp, was also abandoned. All these places, and the country about them, had been in their hands for the last eight months. The rebels also left at Koray their guns which they had had at Barodia.

The troops behaved at Barodia with discipline and courage, keeping, in very bad ground, their formation, and obeying with eager alacrity any orders which brought them closer to the enemy. The 3rd Europeans, although very young, and now for the first time in the field, have qualified themselves for a career of honour, and Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell is sure to lead the way.

I am much obliged to Captain Wood, my Assistant-Adjutant-General, and my Staff for the assistance which they gave me on this occasion, as well as at Rathghur; and I ought to add that the officers of my Divisional Staff, whose duties are non-combatant, still in their zeal accompany me to the field. Captain Campbell, Baggage Master, who was hit, was very useful and intelligent in conveying my orders, and Lieutenant Lyster, my interpreter, of the 72nd Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, was wounded when engaging the nephew of Mahomed Fazil Khan, whom he killed.

I have the honor to enclose a list of the casualties at Barodia, as also a list of Sappers and Miners whom Major Boileau, Commanding Engineer, wishes to be mentioned for having inspected the ditch and the breach of the fort of Rathghur.

I have, &c.,

HUGH ROSE, Major-General,
Commanding Central India Field Force.

SIR,
 IN continuation of previous reports of the operations of the Central India Field Force, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit, for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the accompanying despatch from Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., dated Camp, Koomeiri, the 9th instant.

 Major, Deputy Adjutant-General.

No. 6.

Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, to Colonel Green, Adjutant-General of the Army, Bombay.

SIR, Camp, Koomeiri, March 9, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to state to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, as follows.

The rebels of the Bundelcund, Shaghur, Saugor and Nerbudda districts, having obtained ascendancy in these districts, had, before my force arrived at Ruthghur, invested Saugor from all sides, except one, having occupied the fort of Ruthghur to its west, the fortified camp of Nowreowlee, and the fort of Koray to its north-east, the forts of Sanoda and Garrokota to its east.

The fort of Rehle, to the south-east, was gallantly held by Lieutenant Dickins, commanding a detachment of the 31st Bengal Native Infantry. The only road from Saugor which was open was the one leading to Nursingpore: and this road was frequented by rebels, and only travelled by escorts.

The advance of the 2nd Brigade Central India Field Force to Saugor, and its previous operations, had relieved Saugor from anything like investment, and opened its communications with the west and the north, so that I was enabled to communicate from Saugor, through Koray, with Major Orr, commanding the advanced guard of my 1st Brigade at Goonah, on the Mhow and Agra grand trunk road, and single officers and stores had arrived, unmolested at Saugor from Mhow, and Bombay by the Lahore and Bhopal road, both of which lines of communications I had opened with my two brigades, in obedience to my instructions.

It now remained for my second Brigade to open communications from Saugor towards the east, and to cut through the line which the rebels had drawn from Dutiah and Jhansi to the Nerbudda: as the best means of doing so I determined to attack the fort of Garakota.

Sir Robert Hamilton, Major Western, Deputy Commissioner of the Saugor district, and myself, were of opinion that it would be dangerous for Saugor to leave in the hands of the rebels so important a stronghold on its right flank, more especially as it was garrisoned by sepoys of the 52nd and other regiments, and the consequences and the moral effect would have been bad, if I had advanced against the rebels to the north with Garakota unsubdued in my rear.

Having the day after my arrival at Saugor detached sappers and miners under Lieutenant Prendergast, to destroy as much as was possible the works of Nowreowlee, twelve miles from Saugor; I send Captain Hare, with his detachments of all arms of the Hyderabad Contingent, to take the little fort of Sanoda, where the rebels had stores of supplies, and directed him, at the same time, to render the ford of the River Beas, practicable for the siege-artillery for the operations against Garakota.

On hearing of Captain Hare's approach, the rebels fled from Sanoda, which they had been repairing. He found there large supplies of grain; he destroyed the front face, and restored a good deal of plunder to the villagers, who complained bitterly that the rebels had robbed them of everything, and inflicted the greatest cruelties on them, to force them to give up their property; their nakedness and the barbarous mutilations of the persons of several of them, attested the truth of what they said. However, Captain Hare is of opinion that such is the anarchy caused by rebellion in this part of the country, that many of the plundered villagers, reduced to ruin, have become plunderers and rebels.

Knowing the good effect which rapid operations have on the enemy, and the value of the cool weather for the extensive operations which I had before me, I made the three marches from Saugor to Garakota in two days and encamped on the 10th February, near the village of Bussaree, which is close to Garakota; a detachment of the 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, well conducted by Lieutenant Dick, having cut up a picket of rebels, which I had information was posted at a village two miles from Garakota.

Garakota is strong in every way, it is situated between two rivers, the Giddaree and the Sonar, which may be said to act as ditches to it, it is surrounded, except to the east, by forest, jungle, and the towns of Garakota and Heideenuggur; its defences are so strong that in 1818, a British force of 11,000 men, with 28 siege-guns, was unable to make a breach in them, and the besiegers running short of ammunition, the garrison was allowed to evacuate the fort with the honors of war.

The evening of my arrival before Garakota, I drove in, with some guns of the Horse Artillery, and Captain Lightfoot's battery, and skirmishers of the 3rd Europeans, the enemy, who wished to prevent our occupation of the village of Bussaree, the 3rd Europeans, covered by artillery, storming some houses still more in advance, and taking a ridge close to the walls. During the night and the next morning, the sepoys in numbers attempted to retake the position, but were immediately repulsed by Colonel Liddell, commanding the advanced posts and two 9-pounders under Captain Lightfoot, with which I had reinforced him.

The next morning, Colonel Liddell having reported to me that it would be desirable to take a hamlet, which had good views of, and was near the north face of the fort, I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull to shell it, and Colonel Liddell to pass through some jungle and occupy the hamlet; this was well done, the 3rd Europeans occupying a temple and ground considerably in advance of the hamlet. The mutineers came in numbers out of the fort, and an entrenched camp to the south, to oppose the advance of the 3rd, their buglers repeating the English skirmishing calls, but with the difference that the 3rd went as rapidly forward as the mutineers did to the rear when the advance was sounded.

Lieutenant Dickens had written to me from Rehle, that when I attacked Garakota he would advance from Rehle and take possession of the Panneh Ghât, a ford to the south of the fort, from whence he could prevent the rebels escaping by the Dummoh-road to Shâghur, which would be their most probable line of escape. In order to communicate with this officer, and connect my cordon of investment with him, I made, with Brigadier Steuart and a small force of all arms, a complete reconnoissance of the whole country round Garakota. My guide assured me that Lieutenant Dickens could not hold the Panneh Ghât, because it was close to the defences of the fort, and formed part of Garakota and Heideenuggur, which the enemy held. This made me the more anxious to reach Lieutenant Dickens, and assist him, I therefore pushed on the reconnoissance through Heideenuggur, to the Panneh Ghât, when Lieutenant Dickens had not arrived; the enemy had marked the ranges, and fired pretty accurately at the reconnoissance, but with no casualties. Skirmishers endeavoured to oppose my passage across the ford, but with the 3rd Europeans and Irregular Cavalry I drove them back, took their entrenchments on the opposite bank, and crossing the second river returned to camp after thirteen hours marching, the reconnoissance seized a noted rebel, the Lumba-dar of the village of Majcowa.

On my return, I found a letter from Lieutenant Dickens, stating that he had received subsequent information that the Panneh Ghât could not be held, and had therefore not gone to it.

As the reconnoissance made the circuit of the fort, I left troops of all arms in position, investing the north-east, east, and south-east of the fort; the troops in camp guarded the north and north-west; having reckoned on the Rehle detachment, for the southern investment, that part remained blank. On my return to camp, I gave orders to Captain Hare to occupy, with his detachment of all arms, the Panneh Ghât, which was at some distance; before he could arrive there, the enemy had fled from the fort by the Panneh Ghât and other outlets not watched in that direction.

However, I ought to add, that even if the Panneh Ghât had been occupied, it would have been quite impossible to have investigated completely Garakota, with a force of my numbers, which strictly speaking was only sufficiently strong to guard its camp, field and siege-artillery. My force was more than usually weak, as in order to protect Saugor in my absence, I had left there a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and two companies of the 24th Regiment, I had also sent the 31st and 42nd Bengal Native Infantry to Koray to guard Saugor from the possibility of an attack from the north.

Every one on going round the fort, was surprised how the rebels could have abandoned so rapidly a place of such strength, the thickness of the ramparts varying from fifteen to twenty-four feet.

Everything gave evidence of a sudden panic; the rebels had only half kneaded their cakes, and they left their guns in the entrenched camp without attempting to carry them off; their rapid abandonment of the fort was the more remarkable, because the immense supplies the native mint found in the fort, and other circumstances induced the belief that the rebels intended to make Garakota the seat of their central government; the only money now current in Garakota are the 13 anna rupees coined in this mint.

During the reconnoissance, Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull fired with the 8-inch howitzer, at a gun in the north face of the fort, which was annoying the troops in the advanced posts, the first shot of the howitzer blew in the embrasure, dismounted the gun, and blew off the head of the sepoy, in a red jacket with an English medal and two clasps who served it. I have no doubt that this good shot, one of the many good shots made under fire by Lieutenant Strutt, whom I beg to recommend to your Excellency as a promising artillery officer, made the sepoys reflect, that many such casualties might thin their numbers during the siege, but I think that the fall of Rathghur and preparations for an investment also intimidated them.

I have observed that nothing alarms the rebels more than a move to cut off their retreat.

I have the honor to inclose a list of artillery taken in the fort, and of casualties which I am happy to say are light.

I sent off immediately Captain Hare with half a troop of Horse-Artillery, a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons under Captain Need, and a troop of the Hyderabad Contingent in pursuit of the rebels by a route which from information I had received, I thought would enable him to cut into their line of retreat; they had as I supposed made a round to the south, and then turned northwards towards Shaghur.

Captain Hare came up with the rear of the rebels as they had just crossed the river Beas, at the village of Bear. The river was not practicable for guns, Captain Hare therefore sent the troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons under Captain Need and the Hyderabad Cavalry across the river after the enemy; they cut up 70 or 100 of them, of whom the greater part were mutineers of the 52nd and other native regiments, they had all abundance of ammunition and copper caps. Captain Hare speaks highly of the conduct on this occasion of Captain Need and his troop; Captain Hare describes him as a good and dashing officer; he killed with his own hands five of the rebels, of whom three were sepoys, and pursued with his gallant troop the rebels till dark. I beg to recommend Captain Need to your Excellency, as well as Captain Hare for his intelligence and activity in pursuing and coming up with the enemy.

I have, &c.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Shireshead, in the parish of Cockerham, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous parts of the parishes of Cockerham and Church Town, Garstang, in the said county and diocese should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all Ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Shireshead aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince Bishop of Manchester, of the Reverend Richard Atkinson, of Number 41, Southernhay, in the city of Exeter, patron for the next turn of the said parish of Cockerham, and of the Reverend John Pedder, incumbent of the said parish of Church Town, Garstang, and patron of the same benefice, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Cockerham and Church Town, Garstang, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map hereunto annexed, should be united into one consolidated chapelry for the said church at Shireshead aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul, Shireshead.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Richard Atkinson and John Pedder, as is testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry, should belong to and be exercised by the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Cockerham.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the township of Ellel, in the parish of Cockerham, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing in the centre of the aqueduct by which the Lancaster canal is carried over the river Cocker, and extending thence eastward, northward, and southward, along the middle of such river, and of a watercourse which joins such river, at a place called the Ford, and which skirts an estate called Wham's, as far as the middle of the Dolphinholme road, and thence extending eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, as far as the middle of the culvert by which the stream which skirts An-yon House Farm is carried under the said road, and thence extending southward along the middle of such last mentioned stream, until it meets the river Wyre forming the boundary dividing the said parish of Cockerham from the parish of Garstang Church Town.

"And all that part of the township of Cleveley which is situate within the said parish of Cockerham. And also all that part of the said township of Cleveley, and of the township of Wyersdale in the said parish of Garstang Church Town, which are situate to the north and west of an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the middle of the turnpike-road, leading from Preston to Lancaster, where it crosses the southern boundary of the said parish of Cockerham, and thence extending southward along the middle of such last mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of a township road leading to the river Wyre, and thence extending eastward along the middle of such last mentioned road to the middle of such last mentioned river, and thence extending eastward and northward along the middle of such river until it meets the boundary dividing the said parish of Garstang Church Town from the said parish of Cockerham.

"And also all that part of the township of Forton in the parish of Cockerham aforesaid, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the middle of the Lancaster canal, where such canal crosses the boundary between the said township of Forton and the parish of Garstang Church Town aforesaid, and thence extending northward along the middle of such canal to the centre of the aqueduct by which the said canal is carried over a certain stream called Faulkner Brook, and thence extending in a north-easterly direction along the middle of such last named stream as far as the middle of Winder-lane, and thence extending northward along the middle of such last mentioned lane, and along the middle of Wallace-lane and Pie's-lane to the middle of the road leading from Cockerham to the Bay Horse Railway Station, and thence extending in a south-westerly direction for a distance of twenty-one yards along the middle of such last mentioned road, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of a certain sunken fence dividing a close called Bull Parrock, numbered 666 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Cockerham, and on the map hereunto annexed from the close called Three Nooked Meadow, numbered 665 on the same maps, and thence extending northward along the middle of such fence to the boundary of the said township of Forton."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Shireshead, in the parish of Cockerham, in the county of Lancaster, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to and be exercised by the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Cockerham; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1858,

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for adding to, altering, and improving the Episcopal house of residence at Norwich, belonging to the Bishop of that See:

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of Norwich, that the Episcopal house of residence at Norwich requires certain additions, alterations, and improvements to be made therein, in order to render it suitable and convenient; and it has been proposed to us by the said Bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient, that towards defraying the cost of effecting the said additions, alterations, and improvements, a sum of five thousand pounds, being a sum not exceeding two years' income of the See, should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage, upon the security of all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of, or belonging to, the Bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Thomas Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the herein named Acts, the sum of five thousand pounds, and, as a security for the same, that the said Bishop do mortgage all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of, and belonging to his said See, to the said Governors, by deed, for the term of thirty-five years, or until the said sum of five thousand pounds, with the interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following; that is to say: from and after the expiration of the first year of the said term, computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, in which year no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly, and every year, pay to the said Governors, their successors, or assigns, one-thirtieth part of the said principal sum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall, at the end of the first, and each succeeding year, pay interest at the rate of three pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum on the said principal sum, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, their successors, and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale, in such manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in being at the time of such distress and sale, and that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said John Thomas Bishop of Norwich, as every succeeding Bishop of the said See, until the principal money and interest, costs and charges, shall be paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of five thousand pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being, endorsed on the said mortgage deed, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that, upon the receipt of the said sum of five thousand pounds, the whole, or any part or parts thereof, shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said additions, alterations, and improvements in the Episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that so soon as such additions, alterations, and improvements shall have been completed, the Bishop of Norwich for the time being shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured the said Episcopal house of residence from loss or damage by fire in one of the public Offices of Assurance in London or Westminster, to be approved by us, in the sum of six thousand pounds, and that such Bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become due and payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that, in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable, and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied, and the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said house, or of any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss or damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of Norwich for the time being.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Norwich.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Norfolk, in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month, it was provided (inter alia) that there should be paid by us, out of the common fund created by the said Act, to the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Norfolk for the time being, the annual sum of fifty-three pounds.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of fifty-three pounds was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from other sources, amounted to one hundred and forty-seven pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that such average annual income does not exceed the sum of one hundred and thirty-three pounds.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the annual sum of fifty-three pounds which, under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council is now payable by us to the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Norfolk for the time being, shall be increased to sixty-seven pounds, subject, nevertheless, mutatis mutandis, to the conditions specified in the said Order with respect to the payment of the said sum of fifty-three pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her

Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the Great Synagogue Jewish Burial-ground, in the parish of St. Matthew, BETHNAL GREEN, from the first to the thirty-first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, on condition that no grave be opened within five yards of the boundary-walls;

In the parish churchyard of CROSLAND, Lincolnshire, from the first of July to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the parish churchyard, and in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground, HUSBAND'S BOSWORTH, from the first of May to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the churchyard of SARRATT, Herts, from the first of March to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the New Synagogue Jewish Burial-ground, in the parish of St. Mary, WHITECHAPEL, from the first to the thirty-first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, on condition that no grave be opened within five yards of the boundary-walls.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the eighth of April then next, in the parish churchyard, in the burial-ground of the Baptist Chapel, and in the Friends' Burial-ground, in BANBURY, Oxfordshire, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the use of now existing family vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard and burial-grounds be permitted on the following conditions; viz.: that they are free from water; that they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented; and that the only bodies interred be those of the wives and husbands of persons already buried in the said vaults and brick graves.

ORDINANCE above referred to.

REGULATIONS framed by the COMMISSIONERS appointed for the Purposes of the STATUTE 17th and 18th Vict. c. 81, in relation to the SCHOLARSHIPS founded by DR. THOMAS DYKE within St. MARY HALL, in the UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of St. Mary Winchester," hereby ordain as follows in relation to the Scholarships founded by Dr. Thomas Dyke within St. Mary Hall, in the said University.

1. The Scholarships, now six in number, shall be reduced to four, and shall be respectively tenable for four years from the day of appointment inclusive, and no longer. The emoluments of each Scholarship shall be forty-five pounds per annum; which shall be paid out of the income of the estates and funds of the Foundation; and, if the same shall prove insufficient, out of the annual sum of forty pounds which, by an indenture dated the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty, has been secured to the Trustees by Sir Thomas Dyke Acland. When so much of the net income of the said estates and funds as shall be applicable to the payment of the Scholars, exclusive of the said annual sum of forty pounds, shall for three years successively have exceeded by twenty-five pounds the sum required for the payment of forty-five pounds to each of four Scholars, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to raise the emoluments of each Scholarship to the sum of fifty pounds per annum. It shall be lawful for the Trustees further to raise the said emoluments successively to the sums of fifty-five pounds, sixty pounds, sixty-five pounds, seventy pounds, and seventy-five pounds per annum, when such proportion of the said net annual income, exclusive of the said sum of forty pounds, shall for five years successively have exceeded on an average by thirty pounds the sum required for the payment of fifty pounds, fifty-five pounds, sixty pounds, sixty-five pounds, and seventy pounds, as the case may be, to each of four Scholars. The surplus of the said income and the said annual sum of forty pounds, subject to the foregoing direction, shall be invested by the Trustees in three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and added to the capital funds of the Foundation, until the total income thereof, exclusive of the said annual sum of forty pounds secured as aforesaid, shall amount to three hundred pounds, clear of all deductions for chief rent and incidental expenses. After that period (at which the said annual sum of forty pounds will cease to be payable) each Scholar shall be entitled to receive one-fourth part of the clear annual income of the whole estates and funds, after payment of all incidental expenses.

2. Any person born in one of the counties of Somerset, Devon, and Cornwall, or who for the three years ending with the thirty-first day of December last preceding the day of appointment, shall have been resident in those counties, or any or either of them, or who for the two years ending with such thirty-first day of December, shall have been educated at any school or schools in those counties, or any or either of them, shall be capable of being appointed a Scholar, provided he have not attained the age of twenty years, or exceeded the fourth term from that of his matriculation inclusive, and provided it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Trustees that he is in need of assistance to support him at the University. No other person shall be capable of being appointed a Scholar. No person qualified as aforesaid shall be entitled to preference by reason of his being of the name or kindred of the founder.

3. An appointment to one Scholarship at least shall be made in every year. Previous notice of every intended appointment shall be given by the Trustees in such form and manner as they may deem most proper to ensure publicity.

4. The Trustees may require from each Candidate such evidence of his moral character, and of his place of birth, residence, or education (as the case may be), as they may deem sufficient, and shall, in such form as they may deem proper, present or signify in writing to the Principal of St. Mary Hall the names of all persons, duly qualified as aforesaid, who may offer themselves as Candidates.

5. The examination of the Candidates shall take place at St. Mary Hall, on such day or days in full Term as the Trustees shall from time to time determine, and in such manner as the Examiners shall think fit. The Examiners shall be the Principal of the Hall, or a Master of Arts of the University to be named by him, and two Masters of Arts to be named from time to time, one by the Trustees and the other by the Vice-Chancellor of the University. The Trustees shall, in such form as they may think fit, appoint to the vacant Scholarship the Candidate whom the Examiners shall certify to be of the greatest merit. The emoluments of each Scholar shall be deemed to accrue from the day of his appointment.

6. All acts of presentment and appointment shall be kept and preserved by the Principal of the Hall for the time being, and copies thereof shall be entered in a register to be kept in the Hall for that purpose, and in a register to be kept in like manner by the Trustees.

7. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to allow any one or two of the unsuccessful Candidates, his or their expenses incurred by attendance at the said examination, so as such allowances shall not exceed the sum of five pounds to each of them.

8. Any Scholarship for which there shall be no Candidate duly qualified and of sufficient merit for appointment in the judgment of the Examiners shall not be filled up, and the emoluments thereof, together with any sums which may arise from fines or forfeitures for non-residence, and the emoluments of vacant Scholarships, shall be treated as surplus income of the Foundation.

9. Every Graduate and Undergraduate Scholar shall, as to residence within the Hall, be subject to the regulations of the Hall in force for the time being, with regard to the Undergraduate Members thereof, and to no other conditions or regulations as to residence. The Principal shall, at the end of each Term (Easter and Act Terms being for this purpose counted as one Term), certify under his hand to the Trustees, the name of every Scholar who shall have resided during the time required by the regulations of the Hall as before mentioned, and shall have conducted himself to the Principal's satisfaction. And the annual stipend of each Scholar shall be paid to him by the Trustees in three equal portions, one at the end of each Term, on the receipt of the said certificate, but not otherwise, unless the Principal shall certify under his hand to the Trustees that it has been proved to his satisfaction, in the case of any Scholar, that such Scholar's failing to reside during the time aforesaid, was occasioned by bodily illness, or unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Trustees that the failing to reside was occasioned by some other unavoidable cause in their judgment sufficient to excuse such failing to reside.

10. If the name of any Scholar shall be removed from the books of the Hall by the Principal, for such negligence in his studies or other misconduct as the Principal's judgment shall merit removal, his Scholarship shall thereupon become vacant. The Principal shall at the time of such removal, or immediately afterwards, notify the same, with the cause or occasion thereof, to the Trustees, or to any persons or person whom they may appoint to receive such notice on their behalf.

11. The Vice-Principal of the Hall, in the Principal's absence, may act in his place in all matters to which this Ordinance relates.

12. The meetings of the Trustees shall be held at Taunton, in the county of Somerset, or at such other place in either of the counties of Somerset and Devon as the Trustees shall at any time determine.

13. Three of the Trustees shall be a quorum, and shall be competent to present Candidates, appoint Scholars, and do any act which the Trustees are hereby authorized or directed to do, and to transact any business in relation to the trust. It shall be lawful for the Trustees, if they shall think proper, to appoint from time to time a committee of three or more out of their own number, and to authorize such three or more persons, or any two of them, to transact any business or do any act or acts to be specified or described in such authorization, other than the presentment of Candidates, the appointment of Scholars, or the depriving Scholars of any part of their emoluments for non-residence.

14. The Trustees present at any meeting shall, before proceeding to business, elect a chairman to preside at such meeting, and any question which may arise at any such meeting shall be determined by the majority of the votes of the Trustees then present, and in case of equality the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a Trustee.

15. ## NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 27a, to cancel No. 27, of 18 April, 1858.)

AUSTRALIA—BASS STRAIT.

Flashing Light on Cape Schanck.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty that a lighthouse is in course of erection on Cape Schanck, the southern extremity of the peninsula separating Port Philip from Port Western, south coast of Australia.

The light will be a fixed white light, varied by short eclipses, placed at an elevation of 328 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 23 miles.

The light will probably be exhibited early in the year 1859, of which due notice will be given.

Fixed Light on Wilson Promontory.

Also, that a light will be established on Wilson Promontory, the southernmost point of the Australian continent, Bass Strait.

This light will be fixed, white, placed at 324 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from a distance of about 20 miles in clear weather.

It will probably be exhibited early in the year 1859, of which due notice will be given.

The English vessel Clarendon on the 2nd of December, 1857, whilst in a heavy sea off the eastern side of Curtis Island, Bass Strait, at half tide struck on a sunken rock, from which the highest part of Curtis Island bore W. by S., and the inner Sugar Loaf Rock S.W. by S., distant 3 miles. No soundings were taken, but it is said that the rock was seen and supposed to be about 15 yards in circumference with 10 feet water over it.

Captain Denham, of Her Majesty's surveying vessel Herald, has reported that the rock hitherto placed in the Admiralty charts at 2 miles to the westward of Cape Frankland, on the north-west side of Flinders Island at the eastern entrance of Bass Strait, is found to be upwards of 4 miles in the same direction from the cape.

The rock, which is awash at half-tide, and shows 5 feet above low water, lies in lat.  $39^{\circ} 52' 2''$  S.; long.  $147^{\circ} 41' 11''$  East of Greenwich, with Cape Frankland E. by N. easterly,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles, and the hill (513 feet) on the north part of Hummock Island, S.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S., nearly 11 miles. It is about 10 yards in diameter, steep to on the seaward side, but having a projection to the eastward for nearly one-third of a mile, with 5 and 6 fathoms over it, from the extremity of which the weed rises to within 2 fathoms of the surface.

Sister islands apparently open a sail's breadth of Flinders Island, bearing N.E., lead outside the rock; and Chappell Island mount, its breadth open of Hummock Island, S.E. by S., leads through the fairway between the rock and Cape Frankland.

(All bearings magnetic, Variation  $10^{\circ}$  East in 1858.)

John Washington, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 35.) ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.

Lighthouse on the Needles Rocks.

THE Corporation of the Trinity House of London has given notice, that on or about the 1st of January, 1859, a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse in course of erection on the outer of the Needles rocks, at the western extremity of the Isle of Wight; when the light at present shown from the tower on the cliff will be discontinued.

The light will be fixed, and appear as a red light from S.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S., round westward to N.E. by E  $\frac{1}{2}$  E, excepting between W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N., and N.W. by W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., in which direction it will show white. It will be placed at an elevation of 80 feet above the level of the sea at high water.

The mariner is to observe that the southern limit of the white light leads 2 miles to the southward of Durlston Head, in the depth of 14 fathoms, and the direction of its northern limit clears the Dolphin bank and S.W. tail of the Shingles in 4 and 5 fathoms respectively.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation  $22\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  in 1858.]

By command of their Lordships,

And whereas the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom have found it necessary for the protection of the harbour or haven of Spithead, to prohibit the taking of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks or any portion of the shores or banks thereof, between Saint Helen's Point and Nettlesome Point, and between Nettlesome Point and a post driven into the shore 3000 feet westward of Nettlesome Point.
