

Lieutenant-Colonel Riddell, commanding Siege Train, eulogizes Captains Thring, Goodenough, and Walker, R.A., Captain Pearson and Lieutenant Simeon, B.A., and Lieutenants Cuthbert and FitzMaurice, R.A., and Major Turner and Captain Young, Staff officers.

Major Nicholson, R.E., highly applauds the energy displayed by the officers of that department, viz., Lieutenants Malcolm, Wynne, Swetenham, and Keith, R.E., and Lieutenants Watson, Tennant, Hovenden, and Nuthall, B.E.

Lieutenant-Colonel Wells records the services of Major Bruce, Captains Prevost, Duff, and Norton, of the 23rd Fusiliers.

I have next to notice the services of the officers engaged on the south of city side of the river.

Brigadier Napier, Captain Hutchinson, Brigade-Major, and Lieutenant Greathed, of the Engineers, afforded me, on different occasions, the greatest assistance by their professional advice, and I tender them my cordial thanks; they were ably seconded by Lieutenant Tulloch and Mr. May, attached to that department.

Major Brasyer led his Sikhs with his usual gallantry, and, I regret to add, was severely wounded.

My thanks are also due to Captain Bennett, commanding Her Majesty's 20th Regiment.

Captain Coles, in command of two squadrons of the 9th Lancers, did good service in pursuing the enemy when they abandoned their position in the Moosa Bagh. On this occasion, the local knowledge of Captain Carey, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, of the 3rd Division, was of much use to me. Captain Dodgson, Assistant Adjutant-General, Captain Gordon, Deputy Judge Advocate-General, and Ensign Hewitt, 41st Regiment Native Infantry, orderly officer, were present at the occupation of the Moosa Bagh, having joined me from Alum Bagh, where they had been of much service in their respective appointments.

I have, lastly, to bring to his Excellency's consideration, the services of those officers who had the good fortune to be engaged in all the operations on both sides of the river.

Brigadier Douglas has carried out all his instructions with signal ability and success, and deserves my cordial acknowledgments, as does Major Nicholson, R.E., who evinced the most indefatigable industry in the construction of the heavy batteries which it fell to his department to execute, and in choosing sites for which he was constantly exposed to a very heavy fire.

Lieutenant-Colonel Wells commanded the 23rd Fusiliers until incapacitated by illness (on the last day's operation) when the command was assumed by Lieutenant-Colonel Pratt, who also commanded the left column of attack on the 11th instant across the river. Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor was in command of the 79th Highlanders, Major Green, Punjab Rifles, and Captain Cunliffe commanded the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, until the arrival of Captain Hume, who also deserves my thanks. Captain Middleton commanded the field battery, which was actively engaged throughout.

Brigadier Douglas mentions, with approbation, Captain Stevenson, Acting Brigade-Major, and Lieutenants Walker, 79th, and Utteton, 23rd Fusiliers, his Aide-de-camp and orderly officer.

I have the highest pleasure in acknowledging how much I am indebted to the officers of my personal Staff.

His Excellency is already aware of the opinion I have formed of the merits and services of Colonel Berkeley, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, my Military Secretary; and the assistance I have derived from him throughout these operations is an additional obligation I am under to this most deserving officer.

Captain Chamier, Aide-de-camp, and Lieutenant Hargood, Aide-de-camp (horse killed), have worked with the unremitting zeal and activity which has characterized their conduct in all the operations in which I have been engaged since I left Allahabad in September last.

Captain Weston, 65th Regiment Native Infantry, orderly officer, has signalized himself by the spirit and gallantry which he has displayed on several occasions, and has been of much use to me.

Captains Orr and Bunbury, of the Intelligence Department, have performed their duties with great ability, and Mr. Denison, Civil Service, who recently brought up despatches from the Governor-General, accompanied the forces, and was most active and zealous in rendering aid to the poor sufferers who were blown up in the explosion on the 17th instant.

Mr. Kavanagh, Assistant-Commissioner, from his knowledge of the localities, rendered good service on several occasions.

J. OUTRAM, Major-General,
Commanding the 1st Division of the Army.
