THE following papers have been received at the East India House:

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON-ORABLE THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

> Military Department, Allahabad, March 15, 1858.

No. 32 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Reports of an expedition against Ghose Mahomed Khan, the Agent of the rebel chief of Allygurh, which took place on the 24th of August, 1857, in the district of Allygurh, near Coel.

These documents have only now reached Government in the Military Department.

The Governor-General has much satisfaction in publicly recognizing the eminent services on that occasion of Mr. A. H. Cocks, Special Commissioner; of Brevet-Major Montgomery, 15th Regiment Native Infantry, who commanded the expedition; of Captain Murray, late of the Gwalior Contingent, commanding the Jat Horse: and his Lordship tenders his best thanks to Captain Strover, commanding a detachment of the 3rd European Regiment; to Lieutenant Griffin; commanding the detachment of Artillery; to Lieutenant De Kantzow, in command of the Militia; to Mr. Daniell, Civil Service; to Mr. Volunteer Hennessy, who particularly distinguished himself in the field; to Mr. P. Saunders, whose services are highly eulogized; and to the other gentlemen of the civil service, and to the military and medical officers, whose gallant conduct and good services are mentioned in these Reports.

The Governor-General deeply laments the death of Mr. J. O'B. Tandy, who behaved with conspicuous gallantry in this affair, and whose conduct throughout was only what was to have been expected from his known character, and his former most zealous services.

No. 2.

Mr. A. H. Cocks, Special Commissioner, to C. B. Thornhill, Esquire, Secretary to Government, North West Provinces.

Sir,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, that we are in possession of the important town of Coel; and that, as far as can at present be ascertained, the effects of the victory which was obtained over the rebels, on the 24th ultimo., are as satisfactory as could be hoped for.

- 2. His Honor has already been demi-officially informed of the operations of the force under Major Montgomery. I now record the reasons for the advance on Coel, and a short resumé of matters since I left Agra.
- 3. On the 21st ultimo, I was deputed to Hattrass to collect revenue and restore confidence to the people of that part of the district, who had abstained in a certain measure from evincing the rebellious spirit generally shown by the inhabitants of this Zillah.

- 4. I found, on arrival at Hattrass, that none of the objects of the expedition could be satisfactorily carried out, in consequence of the insolence of Ghose Mahomed Khan, who had, on the part of the King of Delhi, set himself up at Coel as the Ruler of that place. He had sent out a considerable force of his horsemen to Mudrack, 8 miles from Allygurh, on the road to Hattrass, and an advance guard to Sasnee, only 6 miles from the latter place; and his followers boasted of their intention to advance on Hattrass itself.
- 5. All these demonstrations quite paralysed my efforts for good; and, with the hearty concurrence of Major Montgomery, a movement on Coel was decided upon. We accordingly marched to Sasnee on the evening of the 23rd, and halted there. The next morning we resumed our march, and came up with the rebels, 3 miles from Coel, at about 10 A.M., when the battle began, and lasted till 1 P.M.
- 6. Major Montgomery will report the plan of operations as well as the conduct of the troops. I will only observe that, before we left the field, not an enemy was in sight. The corpses of most of their slain were leisurely examined by us; and those of our own, only five in number, were reverently removed and placed on a conveyance.
- 7. On political grounds, I was most anxious to make an entrance into Allygurh; but, for military reasons, (which Major Montgomery will explain, and which were undoubtedly most prudent,) the order was given to retire. This was done in a dignified manner. We remained three hours at Sasnee, and reached Hattras at night.
- 8. The next morning I learnt that all the rebels who fought against us, with Ghose Mahomed at their head, had precipitately abandoned the city; that two of the leaders, (Moulvees), who had inflamed the religious fanaticism of the Mussulman population, had been killed; and that all the peaceful citizens of Coel were anxiously expecting our arrival.
- 9. More ammunition was accordingly procured from Agra; and on the 28th, at 7 A.M., we made a triumphant entry into the town and cantonments, where we have remained ever since in undisturbed possession.
- 10. I beg to bring to your notice the useful and gallant services of Captain Murray, of the late Gwalior Contingent. His Report is herewith enclosed, and it fully shows the aid given by the Jat Horsemen, under Thakoor Gobind Sing. Captain Murray has shown himself throughout the expedition to be as brave and dashing a soldier in the field as he is cautious and sensible in counsel; and his example infused some measure of courage into the Jats. I cordially agree with all he says of his subordinates. Mr. Hennessy is a most promising young gentleman; and I sincerely trust he may obtain a commission from the Honorable Company, to which I pledge myself he will do honor. Mr. P. Saunders was also prominently engaged during the whole action; and I mention him in my Report as he was in some measure associated with me. Major Montgomery will, I doubt not, mention his conspicuous gallantry, as well as that of his cousin, the lamented Mr. J. O'B. Tandy, who fell, as all anticipated, in a noble and self-sacrificing manner.
- 11. I trust Thakoor Gobind Sing will be well rewarded with a Khillut, as well as in some substantial manner, for the services he has rendered, and the sacrifices he has made to prove his fidelity.

- of Hattras, must be mentioned as an extraordinary example of wisdom, bravery, and integrity. His intelligence from all parts has never failed; his advice has been judicious and honest; and his influence with all parties, and respect with which he is treated by them, are as remarkable as his unflinching attitude towards the enemies of the Government. In a word, during the whole of this rebellion, I have seen no native equal to him, or more deserving of the confidence of the Government of India, and of a higher mark of their regard.
- 13. The Deputy-Collector of Boolundshuhur, Doorga Persad, has shown himself to be a man of considerable bravery, as well as of intelligence; and I would say the same of the two brothers of the Chobay Ghunseean, by name, Jey Kissau and Dhunput Roy, Tehseeldars, respectively, of Hattrass and Eglas.
- 14. I beg to express the high opinion I entertain of the services of Messrs. Lane, Daniell and E. Colving. Mr. Lane was only a volunteer, and therefore I had not so much to do with him. Mr. Colvin was with me throughout the expedition. He not only gave me every assistance as a coadjutor in the work of the district, but was also prominent in the field, where he had the good fortune to shoot one of the leading Ghazees. On Mr. Daniell and the foot under Rundeer Sing, devolved the protection of the baggage in the rear. The duty was important and dangerous, and it was well and bravely performed. I forward Mr. Daniell's Report.
- 15. In conclusion, I beg to express my hearty thanks to Major Montgomery for his uniform co-operation; and there is but one opinion amongst all who have been associated with him, as to the qualities he has shown in the command of the force. I know not whether to dilate most on his admirable arrangements on the line of march, or on the field of battle, or in cantonments. He is everywhere, day and night.

I have &c.

A. COCKS, Special Commissioner.

No. 4.

Captain J. J. Murray to A. Oocks, Esq., Special Commissioner.

Sir, Camp Hattrass, August 25, 1857.
AGREEABLY to your request, I have the honour to furnish for your information the following account of the part taken by Thakoor Gobind Sing's Jat Horse,* under my command, in the engagement with the Allygurh insurgents, at Maun Sing's garden, on the 24th instant.

2. Before attacking their position, Major Montgomery ordered the Militia Cavalry, under Lieutenant De Kantzow, and the Jat Horse, to charge 150 Irregular Cavalry, who were threatening our left flank, and circling round to the rear of our column. The Militia Cavalry,† being a small body and easily handled, were the first to move off, but the Jat Horse quickly followed in support, and by their formidable appearance contributed, in no small degree, to the defeat of the Irregulars, who, after firing a few shots, were driven back to the rear of their position in complete disorder, and did not again show themselves during the action.

These latter were in uniform, and armed with earbines, &c.

- 3. Shortly afterwards, I was ordered to sweep round by the right of Maun Sing's garden, and cut up some of the enemy, who were making their escape; but, finding a large party of at least 800 men and 50 sowars, drawn up in good order on the right of the garden, Lieutenant Griffin, at my request, moved up 2 of his guns, and opened fire with terrible effect, killing at least 150 of them, and completely dispersing the remainder.
- I was preparing to follow them up, when I received an order to charge into the garden and clear it of the enemy. This, a portion of the Jat Horse did in gallant style, headed by Kurruck Sing, who (with 3 sowars) was wounded in an encounter with 7 of the most desperate Mussulmans, whom they killed. Kurruck Sing was also dangerously wounded by a musket-ball, on leaving the garden; but, I am glad to say, is going on favourably.
- 4. Thakoor Gobind Sing gave me every assistance, and was under fire throughout the engagement. Deputy Collector Doorga Persad and Jey Kissan, Tehseeldar of Hattrass, also distinguished themselves.
- 5. I have great pleasure in bringing to your notice Mr. Volunteer Hennessy, who kindly accompanied me, and, as you must have observed, particularly distinguished himself. He killed 5 men with his rifle, 1 with a revolver, and would have been very severely wounded, had not his pouch saved him from a sword cut, in an encounter with a Mussulman, and he fortunately escaped with a contusion of the arm.
- 6. Mr. Collier, of the Militia Cavalry, who was attached to me, behaved with his usual gallantry.

I have, &c.,

J. J. MURRAY, Captain,
Late Gwalior Contingent,
Commanding Jat Horse, on the 24th instant.

MEMORANDUM.

Sir,

ON the morning of the 24th instant, under Major Montgomery's orders, I marched with the contingent of footmen, furnished by Thakoor Go-

* 70 sowars under Thakoor Gobind Sing.

† 22 men.

bind Sing, to the number of 111, from Sasnee. They were under the command of Rundeer Sing, the Thakoor's nephew. I was ordered to remain with them all day, and march in the rear of the force, and to carry out the commanding officer's orders, with regard to this part of the force. They marched in excellent order, up to the field, about a mile distant from the rear of the force; the enemy's cavalry were seen a short distance to the right, but made no attempt at attack, keeping parallel to the rear guard until they joined the main body. I there received an order to dispose the men in the rear, with a view to prevent any attack. footmen were therefore drawn up, on each side of the baggage in the fields on the side of the road, and the cavalry, about 10 in number, who were sent to my rear on the road, completed the cordon, being drawn up between the two lines of infantry. They kept this position until the order to return to Hattrass was given, when the horsemen marched in front of the main body, and the footmen in two lines on each side of the baggage. Thakoor Rundeer Sing's activity was conspicuous. The order he preserved among his men was very creditable.

I have, &c.,

C. J. DANIELL, Joint Magistrate.

Sir

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, a copy of a report, dated the 5th instant, from Brigadier-General Sir J. Hope Grant, K.C.B., of the successful storm of the town of Meeangunge, in Oude, on the 23rd ultimo, by the troops under his command, on which occasion 6 guns were captured, and about 900 of the rebels killed or taken prisoners.

2. His Excellency considers that Sir J. Hope Grant, in this, as in all other affairs in which he has been engaged, displayed great energy, zeal, and ability, and that he well deserves the approbation of his Lordship.

I have, &c.,

H. W. NORMAN, Major, Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 8.

Brigadier-General Sir J. H. Grant, K.C.B., commanding Cavalry, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

Sir, Camp before Lucknow, March 5, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report that, on the morning of the 23rd February, I marched with the force pamed in the margin,* to Meeangunge, (with which I had been sent out to clear the country on the left bank of the Ganges, and along the main road from Cawnpore to Lucknow,) where I heard a force of 2000 infantry had taken up a position in the town with 300 cavalry outside, and 5 or 6 guns.

The town was an old walled city with three strong gates, one leading to Lucknow, another to Cawnpore, and the third to Rohilcund; at each of the gates were placed guns behind strong breastworks, and these three sides were covered with trees. I reconnoited, and found on the fourth side an excellent position within 350 yards, where the 2 heavy guns, under Major Anderson, C.B., could be brought up, and a part of the wall, in which was a postern gate beside a house called the Palace, which could be breached. I immediately ordered up the 2 guns, placed the 53rd Regiment with the 38th in support, in rear of the guns behind a village. I sent the cavalry, with 4 guns of the Royal Horse Artillery, to cover the Lucknow road; and the 34th Regiment, with 2 other guns and a troop of cavalry, to cover the baggage on the Rohilcund road. Major Turner's troop of 9-pounders, under command of Lieutenant Bishop, I placed on the right of the heavy guns, to keep down the musketry fire from the walls of the town.

In the space of 50 minutes, the 2 heavy guns made a practicable breach, and I then ordered the 53rd Regiment to advance to the assault. They were formed into two columns, one was to proceed through the left of the town under Colonel English, the other to the right under Major Payne; this duty was performed most admirably by the 53rd; they approached the town through some lanes to the left, they rushed in at the breach, stormed the town and took it; 6 guns were also taken. Numbers of the enemy were killed, and numbers tried to make their escape through the gates, but we were everywhere prepared for them, and altogether there must have been 500 killed and 400 taken prisoners. The cavalry, artillery, and infantry, on all sides, did their duty, and gave me the greatest satisfaction.

I cannot speak too highly of the assistance I received from Major Anderson, C.B., commanding Artillery, from Lieutenant-Colonel J. Hagart, commanding the Cavalry, and from Lieutenant-Colonel Sparks, commanding the Infantry Brigades; also from Major Turner, Bengal Horse Artillery, and from Major Michell, and Lieutenant Bishop, commanding troops of Royal and Bengal Horse Artillery; from Major Horne, commanding 7th Hussers, and from Captain Anson, commanding 9th Lancers; from Lieutenant-Colonel Kelly, commanding 34th Regiment; and from Lieutenant-Colonel Kelly, commanding 38th Regiment; also from Lieutenant-Colonel English and Major Payne, 53rd Regiment, who so successfully commanded all their columns of assault, and from Captain Gough and Lieutenant Watson, commanding detachments of Irregular Cavalry; Lieutenant Dirom, Bengal Horse Artillery, Lieutenant Martin, 9th Lancers, and Captain Fendall, 53rd Regiment, Brigade Majors of Artillery, Cavalry, and Infantry, were of the greatest use throughout the day. Lieutenant Warren, commanding the heavy guns, deserves great praise for the speedy and effective manner the wall was breached.

To my own personal staff I am deeply indebted for their services; Captain Hamilton, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Lieutenant Roberts, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, Captain the Honorable A. Anson, Aide-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Havelock, extra Aide-de-Camp. Captain Bruce, Head of the Intelligence Department, and Captain Evans, Deputy Commissioner, afforded me the most valuable aid in obtaining information on this as on every other occasion; Lieutenants Wilkinson and Hogge, of the Commissariat Department, exerted themselves to the utmost, and materially lessened the difficulties of the march.

No. 38 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General has much pleasure in publishing the following report of an engagement between a detachment of the Jat Horse, under the command of Captain J. J. Murray, and a body of the enemy's cavalry, at Kutchla Ghat, in which the latter were defeated and dispersed.

The Governor-General tenders his acknowledgments to Captain Murray, Lieutenant Hennessy, and the men who were engaged in this spirited affair.

Sir, Camp Kashgunge, March 13, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, a copy of my letter No. 25, of the 11th instant, to Lieutenant Prinsep, Detachment Staff, at Allygurh, giving the particulars of an affair I had with the enemy's cavalry at Kutchla Ghat, on the 11th instant.

- 2. I earnestly beg to bring to the notice of Government, Local Lieutenaut and Adjutant A. C. Hennessy, who was very severely wounded in the charge, and whose bravery was most conspicuous.
- 3. Nothing could exceed the steadiness of the men when retiring, and their bravery in the attack, those opposed to them being Irregular Cavalry, completely armed, and with every advantage in their favour.
- 4. The enemy have not yet carried out their threat of advancing on this place, and I hope to be able to hold my position till the arrival of the column under Major-General Penny, three or four days hence, when, I believe, the Jat Horse will return to Allygurh.

No. 25.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major Eld, commanding at Allygurh, that, having received information last night of the arrival of Nycazalle Khan, at Kutchla Ghat, with 3 guns and 1000 cavalry and infantry, and further that Wulleedad Khan, thus reinforced, intended to cross over with his whole force this morning, I considered it advisable to make a re-advancement towards the Ghat, to watch the movements, and, as far as practicable, ascertain the actual strength of the enemy.

Accordingly, this morning, I took with me 200 horse, and, on approaching the banks of the river, the enemy, who were on the alert, turned out in force, having at least 600 cavalry (Irregulars), 2000 drilled infantry, and 3 field-guns, besides 2 or 3 others in position.

Having satisfied myself as to their strength, and observing no preparations for crossing over, I decided on returning at once to Kashgunge; but had scarcely moved off, when to my great surprise, I saw a strong part of their cavalry crossing the river immediately opposite the Ghat, and where I had been informed it was not fordable, under cover of their field-guns. I continued to retire in perfect order, not wishing to engage with the enemy so near their main body. They, however, advanced rapidly, and a mile on this side of Ruggoub pressed so closely on my column, that I considered it necessary to charge them, and did so successfully, driving them to that village, beyond which I did not deem it prudent to follow them.

We killed 7 of the enemy, and completely checked their further advance.

I was thus enabled to continue my march unmolested to Sarun, where I halted during the day. In the charge, I regret to say that that most gallant young officer, Lieutenant and Adjutant Hennessey, received three very severe sword-cuts in the right arm, and which will deprive me of his valuable services for some time, and 2 sowars of the Jat Horse were killed; 3 horses are also missing.

The advanced portion of the enemy's cavalry, thus driven back, numbered about 200, and came on with great boldness, well knowing that my men were newly raised and without fire-arms.

It appears that the enemy, being checked in their advance in this direction, subsequently, with a strong force, proceeded to the village of Arhair, two miles above the Ghaut, where Darah Sing Thakoor has a strong Ghurrie, defended by 250 armed followers, with a gun. The enemy attacked the place, but were unsuccessful, and recrossed the river in the afternoon, taking with them a gun, which had been left outside the Ghurrie.

When they retired, Darah Sing and his followers left the place, and are now in Sarun. The enemy lost a number of men, and the Thakoor one or two.

> Military Department, Allahabad, March 22, 1858. No. 40 of 1858.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Report, by Colonel F. Rowcroft, commanding Sarun Field Force, detailing the particulars of the signal victory obtained on the 5th instant, by the troops under his command, over a rebel force greatly outnumbering them.

Fully concurring in the praise bestowed by Colonel Rowcroft on Captain Sotheby, R.N., commanding the Naval Brigade of Her Majesty's ship Pearl; on Major Richardson, and Captain Chapman, and the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry led by them; on Colonel Byroon Sing Kooer and Major-Captain Sewuckram Thappa, and in his acknowledgment of the good services of the officers and men of all arms under his orders, the Governor-General further desires to place on record his full appreciation of the admirable manner in which they were commanded in this action by Colonel Rowcroft himself.

ON the signal and complete defeat yesterday of the enemy, who had moved up in great force, from Belwa, Fyzabad, and Nawabgunge, Colonel Rowcroft, commanding the Field Force, offers, with great pleasure, his best thanks and congratulations to all the officers and men of the Pearl's Naval Brigade, under the command of Captain Sotheby, R.N.; the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry under Major Richardson; Gorrucknath and Runnk Goorkha Regionate under under whiterer abares.

of Captains Barclay and Brooks, with Captain MacGregor attached; to Colonel Byroop Singh Kooer, and Major-Captain Sewukram Thappa, Goorkha Commandants; Lieutenant Turnour, R.N., in charge of the naval artillery; Lieutenants Ratcliffe and Grant, R.N., in charge of the Naval Column; Lieutenant Pym, R.N., in charge of marine skirmishers, aided by a party of rifles from the Naval Column, under Lieutenant Ingles; Lieutenant Burlton, in charge of Seikh skirmishers-all rendered their usual most active and excellent services. The charges of the yeomanry cavalry were vices. The charges of the yeomanry cavalry were gallant and most effective; early in the action, that of the right squadron, under Captain Chapman, ordered and directed by Colonel Rowcroft, was carried out with a rapid and telling effect, driving in the left of the enemy, killing great numbers, turning and shaking their centre. The advance of the Naval Brigade and Gorrucknath Regiment, ordered at the same time drove the Regiment, ordered at the same time, drove the whole line of the enemy into full retreat, compelling them to abandon their guns; and here a detachment of 20 troopers, yeomanry cavalry, with Cornets Copland and Prinsep, ordered from the right squadron to the rear of naval guns, to cover and protect them, did excellent and useful service: the combined movements and advance of all the troops leading to the capture of 7 of the enemy's guns. Shortly before this movement, Colonel Rowcroft received a Report from Major Richard-son, commanding left squadron on the left, that the enemy, in great force, had got round our left rear, threatening our camp. Orders were sent to Major Richardson, with a troop of his whole squadron, to attack and clear out the enemy, most gallantly and effectually carried out by Major Richardson and his squadron, actively aided by a few Goorkha companies, under Captain Brooks. Major Richardson reports that he received great assistance from Cornets Kloer and Troup, who were his Orderly Officers. Colonel Rowcroft's best thanks are also due to Captain Morgan, Field Force Staff, and to the Honorable V. A. Montague, his Acting Aide-de-Camp, for their ready and zeal-ous services; also to Drs. Shore and Dickenson, of the Naval Brigade, and to Dr. J. W. R. Aines-bury, of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry and to Rev. W. Williams, Naval Chaplain, present in the

The field force* moved out about $7\frac{1}{2}$ A.M., took up a position and formed line a little to the west of the village of Amorah and our camp, when the bugle calls of the enemy were soon heard, and their lines seen over-lapping our flanks. The action commenced at $8\frac{1}{2}$ A.M. and closed at $12\frac{1}{2}$ P.M., in four hours; the enemy, reported to be 4,000 sepoys of the 1st, 10th, 58th, 56th, 5th Gwalior Contingent, and 2nd Oude Police Corps, 700 strong, 10,000 irregulars, 300 sowars, and 9 guns, being beaten at all points, pursued 7 miles, and completely routed with heavy loss of 7 gunst with limbers and ammunition, and 500 killed and wounded. This most successful action by the field force may be considered to have saved Goruck-pore from a second immediate rebellion.

Colonel Rowcroft is very happy that our Casualty List is not heavy, though he has to regret the loss of Second Master, Mr. John Fowler, R.N., of the Pearl, killed in action by a round shot.

The above ordered to be read and explained to regiments and detachments at a parade ordered for that purpose.

No. 17.

Colonel Rowcroft to Colonel R. J. H. Birch, C.B., Military Secretary, with the Right Hon. the Governor-General, Allahabad.

> Camp Amorah, 9 miles from Belwa, opposite Fyzabad, March 6th, 1858.

SIR.

No. 168.

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, that on the 4th instant, in the evening and during the night, I received reports that the enemy were preparing in great force with several guns to move on us from Belwa, Fyzabad, and Nawabgunge. The camp, baggage, &c., was at once struck and packed that night. About 7.30 the next morning, the 5th instant, the Field Force as per margin, moved out of camp, and I took up a position and formed line a little to the west of the village of Amorah and the camp; the Naval Brigade and guns in the centre across the road, the two Goorkha Regiments on the right and left of the Naval Brigade, the Sikh Detachment on the left of the Goorkhas, and the Yeomanry Cavalry, one squadron on the right, and one on the left of my line. I rode forward a little in advance to meet a Cavalry Patrol. From the officer's report, I at first thought it was a party of the enemy sent into the villages for plunder, but I immediately heard the bugles of the enemy sounding a halt, and then the advance. I doubled the strength of the patrol, and ordered the officer to obtain further informa-tion, and to be careful not to commit his patrol by going into any village.

They soon returned, the officer reporting the enemy to be advancing in great force. Our line remained steady in position, anxiously awaiting the moment for attacking the enemy.

The bugle sounds neared on our line, and the enemy soon showed themselves in great force, their line extending right and left, over-lapping our flanks. Our guns opened from the centre, and the enemy commenced a heavy and rapid cannonade from several guns on our line. I ordered out the skirmishers and the whole line to advance. I received a report from Major Richardson, commanding left squadron, that the enemy in force were pushing round my left rear. I ordered him to detach a troop, or if necessary with the squadron, to attack and clear out the enemy, but not to leave my left for any time. This was gallantly and effectually carried out by Major Richardson and his squadron, zealously and actively aided by Captain Brooks, with a party of Goorkhas, cutting up and killing a number of the enemy. Here Captain Jenkins and Cornet Durnford had their horses shot and killed under them. Major Richardson reports that he received great assistance from Cornets Kloer and Troup, his orderly officers.

2. I saw there was no time to be lost, and that a rapid and decisive blow must be struck. Leaving orders for the guns to continue the advance and fire, and taking a party of Rifles of 20 men from the Naval Column, with Lieutenant Ingles, R.N., to re-inforce the Marine skirmishers, I rode on to the right squadron, and ordered Captain Chapman to advance rapidly with his squadron, inclining to the right, and bringing up his right shoulders to charge the enemy's sowars and infantry, hoping it would also shake their centre. At the same time I sent an orderly trooper with an order to the Gorrucknath Goorkha Regiment, on the right of the Naval Brigade, to advance at the charge, and the Goorkhas moved gallantly forward. The result of this movement was soon apparent. I saw the left of the enemy hesitating, and some pressing towards their centre, the sowars in rapid retreat.

Down came the Yeomanry Cavalry at a charging pace, well and steadily together, on the moving masses of infantry, routing them and cutting down and killing great numbers, upwards of 90 reported. The whole left of the enemy soon gave way. I galloped up to the Yeomanry Cavalry, and thanked Captain Chapman and the squadron for their good gallant movement and charge, and ordered Captain Chapman to move towards the left to threaten the enemy's centre. The combined movement and gallant bearing of the troops, the steady advance of the Naval Brigade, soon shattered the whole line of the enemy. They abandoned their guns and were in full retreat, and our gallant troops captured 7 guns with limbers and ammunition. When ordering the right squadron to advance, I detached a party of 20 troopers to the rear of the naval guns to cover and protect them, and this party, under Acting Cornets Copland and Prinsep, by their gallant and excellent service aided in capturing some of the guns.

3. The pursuit now commenced for 7 miles to near Belwa, the enemy having to be driven out of topes and villages as we advanced.

A short distance from Belwa the enemy made a short stand with a large force, keeping up an effective fire on us from a heavy gun; and here I have to regret the loss of Acting Second Master Mr. John Fowler, R.N., of the Pearl, killed by a round shot, also Private Poirconco Singh, of the Gorrucknath Regiment, mortally struck by a round shot shattering his chest (since dead). The effective fire of our guns, the advance of our troops, and the right squadron moving forward to be ready for a charge, soon drove the enemy out of sight into the heavy jungle and woods.

4. After advancing about a mile further and halting a short time, I prepared for returning to camp. The troops began to feel the fatigue and heat, and the Goorkha troops were much distressed with the heat and marching through much heavy ground and cultivation.

- 5. My best and warmest thanks are due to Captain Sotheby, R.N., Commanding the Naval Brigade of the Pearl, and to the officers and seamen, who with their guns were my main stay in the action, and most valuable to me at all times; also to Major Richardson, Commanding, and to Captain Chapman, Commanding Right Squadron, and to the officers and men of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, whose services have been most useful to me—always active, ready and willing for any duty ordered. Also to Captains Barclay, 68th Regiment Native Infantry, and Brooks, 1st Light Cavalry, in military charge of the two Goorkha Regiments, with Captain MacGregor, 9th Light Cavalry, attached, who were zealous and forward in their duties; and the Commandants, Colonel Byroop Singh Kooer, and Major Captain Sewuckram Thappa, always bravely urging on their men; also to those zealous active officers Lieutenant Turnour, R.N., in charge of Naval Artillery, Lieutenants Radcliffe, R.N., and Grant, R.N., in charge of Naval Column, and to Lieutenant Pym, R.N., with his gallant active Marine skirmishers, and to Lieutenant Ingles, R.N., with the useful and valuable riflemen of the Naval Column, and to Lieutenant Burlton, 40th Regiment Native Infantry, with his brave ready Sikh skirmishers, who reports Havildar Kurrum Singh, Bengal Police Battalion, for his conspicuous good conduct and gallant bearing.
- 6. My best thanks are also due to Captain Morgan, 22nd Regiment Native Infantry, Field

^{*} H.M.S. frigate Pearl's Royal Marines, 32; Naval Column, 140; Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, 200; Gorruknath and Burruk Goorkha Regiments, 850; Bengal Sikh (Police Battalion), 39; 12-Pr. Howitzers, 4.

Force Staff, and to the Honourable V. A. Montague, R.N., my acting Aide-de-camp, for their zealous ready services in the field. Also to Drs. Shore and Dickenson of the Naval Brigade, Dr. J. W. R. Ainesbury, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, ready and active for anything required in their department; as also to Dr. Hilson, in medical charge of the Burruk Regiment, and to Rev. Mr. Williams, naval chaplain present in the field. Also to Deputy Magistrate Shekh Karroodeen, present in the field, and rendering all the assistance in his power. Lieutenant Grunt, R.N., and Midshipman Lord Chas. Scott, and Gunner W. M. Goodfellow, seaman, with a few sailors, quickly and gallantly turned one of the captured guns on the enemy, firing 3 rounds of grape.

- 7. The action commenced at 8.30 A M., and closed at 12.30 P.M. In four hours the enemy, their forces reported to be 4,000 Sepoys, 14,000 irregulars, 300 Sowars and 8 guns, were completely defeated and driven into rapid retreat, with the severe loss of 7 guns and some 500 men killed and wounded. The Sepoys were of the 1st, 10th, 53rd, and 56th Regiments Native Infantry, 5th Regiment Gwalior Contingent, and 2nd Onde Police Battalion, 700 strong. The other regiments had lately been completed to 500 and 600 strong. The Nazim Mahomed Hossen and Rajahs of Gonda and Churdah and other chiefs were present in the field on elephants, but are said soon to have fled in palankeens.
- 8. I am happy to report our easualty list not heavy. I beg to attach it, also a list of guns, limbers and ammunition captured.
- 9. This most successful action by the Field Force, so greatly out-numbered by the enemy in men and guns, may be considered to have saved Goruckpore a second immediate rebellion, the Baboos and Zemindars and villages in neighbourhood being ready to rise to a formidable extent.

10. I beg earnestly to recommend all the officers and men of the different arms in action at the battle of Amorah to the most favourable consideration of the Right Honourable the Governor-General Viscount Canning.

I have, &c.,

F. ROWCROFT, Colonel, Commanding Sarun Field Force, Goruckpore District.

P.S.—I beg to add, since this dispatch was prepared, accounts from the side of the enemy at Belwa and Fyzabad make their loss about 800 men killed and wounded.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to Government Secret Department, Bombay.

Adjutant-General's Office,

Mahableshwur, April 1st, 1858.

SIR,

No. 11.

THE Commander-in-Chief has desired me to transmit to you the accompanying despatch from Brigadier Stuart, commanding 1st Brigade Central India Field Force, received through Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., reporting the capture by storm of the fort of Chandairee, on the 17th ult., and to request that it may be laid before the Right Honourable the Governor in Council.

2. This successful exploit has been obtained by much dash and gallantry on the part of the storming party, and fortunately with small loss of life.

ing party, and fortunately with small loss of life.

3. When the detailed accounts of the siege shall have been received, his Excellency desires me to say they shall be submitted to Government, with such observations as may be necessary.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD GREEN, Colonel, Adjutant-General.

No. 21.

Brigadier Stuart, Commanding 1st Brigade Central India Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General Central India Field Force.

> Camp of Chandairee, March 17th, 1858.

Sir,

No. 83.

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Major-General Commanding Central India Field Force that the fort of Chandairee was carried by assault at 5 A.M. this day by the troops of this brigade, the breach was reported practicable last evening and proved a fair one, the impetuous rush of the stormers of the 86th and 25th regiments carried everything before it. Captain Keatinge, Political Assistant, was, I regret to say, severely wounded whilst forward in the storming party. beg to enclose a list of casualties on our side; the loss of the enemy is unknown at present, but in and about the fort there are from 40 to 50 bodies; their flight was most precipitate, and they scat-tered over the surrounding jungle in every direc-tion, with the exception of about 200, who some-what in a body fled northwards. All the guns in the fort, eight of iron and two of brass, are in our possession. Major Robertson is in charge of the fort, but I propose to make it over to the Sir Soobah of Scindiah after having entirely demol-ished the bastion we breached. The town of Chandairee is now entirely freed from rebels, and the inhabitants are resuming their occupations; the Sir Soobah has now charge of the gates of it, which up to this morning have been strongly held by the rebels, who cut off all communication with it from my brigade.

- 2. Lieutenant Dowker arrived here at half-past 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, giving me information of the approach of Captain Abbott with a considerable body of Irregular Cavalry from the northwards. I instantly despatched a letter by a native officer's party of the 3rd Regiment C.H.C. to Captain Abbott, informing him of my intended attack on Chandairee this morning, and desiring him to invest the north side of the fort; this letter most unfortunately never reached Captain Abbott till this day at noon at this place, and to its miscarriage must be attributed the escape of some of the enemy.
- 3. I shall forward a despatch, giving all particulars of the siege of Chandairee for the information of the Major-General as soon as possible.

I have, &c.,

C. S. STUART. Brigadier, Commanding 1st Brigade Central India Field Force.

Sir,

No. 146.

IN continuation of the letter from this department (No. 2701) under date the 29th ultimo, transmitting a despatch from Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., commanding the Central India Field Force, dated Koomeree, 9th idem, I am desired by the Commander-in-Chief to request you will bring to the notice of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the favorable mention made by the Major-General of the under-mentioned officers in the affair with the insurgents, which resulted in the evacuation of the strong fortress of Garracotta: — Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, commanding 3rd European Regiment; Captain Lightfoot, commanding No. 18, Light Field Battery, Bengal Artillery; Captain Hare, Hydrabad Contingent; Captain Need, Her Majesty's 14th King's Light Dragoons; Lieutenant Dick, 3rd Regiment Light Cavalry; Lieutenant Strutt, Bombay Artillery.

2. His Lordship in Council will doubtless observe that Major-General Sir Hugh Rose has particularly noted the conduct of Captains Hare and Need, and Lieutenaut Strutt, and his Excellency therefore solicits that the Right Honorable the Governor in Council will accord to them, as also to the other officers above mentioned, the approbation they have so well deserved.

I have, &c.,

No. 24.

Major Evans commanding Salpoora Field Force, to the Quartermaster-General.

Camp, Amba Rawnee, April 12, 1858.

(Extract.)

No. 36.

- I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that soon after my arrival at Burwanee, I ascertained that Bheema and Mamassia Naiks had in reality no intention of submitting to terms, and that their only object in negotiating was to gain time.
- 2. I therefore determined on attacking them on the morning of the 11th instant, as also Kaja Sing, Doulut Sing, and Kaloo Bawa, who I learnt were encamped with them at this place.

- 3. With this view I issued orders for Captain Sealy to march on Dalia Bawrie, situated to the eastward of Amba Rawnee, on the morning of the 10th, and for the details, &c., under his orders, that under Captain Langston, which was then at Pursool, and the head-quarter detachment at Burwanie, to leave their respective camps at daybreak, and to join in a simultaneous attack from the north, south, and east, on the enemy's position on the morning of the 11th instant.
- 4. As mentioned in my former letter, Burwanee is to the north, and Pursool to the south of Burwanee.
- 5. The chiefs with 3000 followers, consisting of Makranees and Bheels, took up their position on the top of a narrow and steep range of hills, the summits of which afforded excellent cover, owing to their being crowned with rocks and huge stones.
- 6. My own detachment and Captain Langston's attacked simultaneously from front and rear at about 8 A.M.

The troops actually engaged are mentioned in the margin.*

- 7. Both columns advanced with much spirit, and circling round the enemy's left flank attacked him from three sides.
- 8. The troops were soon on the summit of the range, where a most determined resistance was offered, under cover of the rocks, especially by the Makranees, who here fought desperately, and it was not till 3 P.M. that the hills were cleared of them.
- 9. Many of the enemy escaped eastward, or from the right of the position, owing to the unaccountable non-appearance of Captain Sealy's detachment, which, up to the present moment, I have not heard of. The only surmise I can make as to this detachment not having come up, is that it may have met with resistance on the road.
- 10. The approaches to the enemy's position, excepting from the south, are most difficult. That from the north was scarcely practicable.
- 11. A detachment of the Poona Horse was ultimately so placed as to prevent escape from the right flank, and the enemy were completely surrounded and their entire position gained.
- 12. The enemy must have lost about 150 killed. The number of wounded is unknown. 62 men are made prisoners.

200 women and children have also been taken prisoners.

I enclose a list of casualties.

* Troops engaged:—Head-Quarters Detachment, 45 Poona Horse; 210 Right Wing, 9th Regiment; 60, 4th Rifles; 110 Bheels Corps; 2, 4½-inch mortars.—Captain Langston's Detachment:—58 Poona Horse, 236 Left Wing 9th Regiment; 58, 4th Rifles; 70 Bheel Corps; 2 4½-inch more tars.
