FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1858.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 4, 1858.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's Palace on Friday the 11th instant, at two o'clock :

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees are to send a card having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come, to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to the Queen; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

DE LA WARR,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, June 3, 1858.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

ON this day, the anniversary of our beloved Sovereign's birth, we the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, most gladly embrace the opportunity of recording our gratitude to Almighty God, who has hitherto spread over you the buckler of His protection, so that your peace and safety have hitherto been secured, not by hosts of embattled warriors, nor by the terrors of vindictive justice, but by the perfect love which casteth out fear, and the moral admiration due to a monarch whose placid dignity, and calm benevolence are conspicuous, not merely in the halls of her palaces, and in the presence of the great, but in all places of her dominion, so as to be irresistibly impressed on the hearts of the most obscure and lowly, as well as the highest and mightiest in the land.

While we pray for the prolongation of a life so precious in the estimation of all the inhabitants
