A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty from Captain Sotheby, of Her Majesty's steam-ship Pearl, reporting proceedings of the Naval Brigade under his command in India :

No. 74.

SIR, Camp Amorha, April 22, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Pearl's Naval Brigade took part in a very successful action with the rebels, on the 17th instant, at the village of Thamowlee. At 7-30 A.M. intelligence was received that about 400 sepoy, with some sowars and two guns, had approached within three miles from our camp and four from Belwar, on a looting expedition; a troop of cavalry, with a detachment of infantry was immediately ordered out to disperse them; but, as reinforcements were requested, I joined, at 9-30, with two howitzers and a party of seamen, and found the enemy retiring, somewhat hastened by a few well directed shell; but, as they were falling back on their forces, which were coming out, whilst we were moving from ours, in concert with Major Cox, in hopes of drawing them out, we retired two miles, immediately followed by the rebels. cheering and keeping up a brisk fire at a prudent distance, we then halted in some topos making very good practice with our two guns. Colonel Rowcroft, at twelve o'clock, joined with the head-quarters, who, with Major Cox, made a flank movement on the enemy's left, whilst we on our left pushed forward, driving the enemy out of the villages, the whole pursuing them for three miles, where a troop (55) of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, under their gallant leader, Major Richardson, made a most dashing charge against 400 sepoy drawn up behind a village with a gun, which they captured, and left 60 dead on the field all with English accoutrements. The heat was intense under a vertical sun, and a furious hot wind in our faces, rendered it nearly impossible to discern the two parties: the men being much fatigued, we rested a few minutes and returned to camp, having 2 killed and 19 wounded, nearly all belonging to the cavalry, 5 of whom were officers.

The enemy's force is reported to be during the latter part 2,000 sepoy and 1,000 irregulars, with 100 sowars and 4 guns, and their loss between 200 and 300; our force was as per margin.*

It is my pleasant duty to record that the behaviour of the men was most excellent, ever most eager to move forward.

Lieutenant N. E. B. Turnour, who has been in six actions with the brigade, was in charge of the guns, and made capital practice. Lieutenant H. D. Grant was in charge of the seamen; a most zealous officer, and to whose services I am at all times much indebted, as well as Lieutenant F. G. Pym and his Marines.

The following officers were present in the field, and rendered most efficient service in this as in all previous engagements: Messrs. A. W. Ingles and J. M. Maquay, Acting Mates; Messrs. C. F. Foot and V. A. Montagu, Midshipmen; Messrs. Parkins, Cooley, and Burton, Warrant Officers, and Drs. W. J. Shone and Dickinson, Assistant Surgeons; and Mr. T. H. L. Bowling, Acting Clerk; as also James Coe, Captain of the Main-top; William Thompson, Gunner's Mate; and Luke Pearse, Carpenter's Mate; at all times most valuable and well-conducted men, and whom I beg most respectfully to recommend to their Lordships' notice.

My Aide-de-Camp, Mr. H. F. Stephenson, Midshipman, was much exposed to the enemy's fire in conveying messages; he has also been six times in action.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) E. S. SOTHEY, Captain, R.N.,
Commanding Pearl's Naval Brigade.

The Secretary of the Admiralty.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of June, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain lease of a coal mine about to be granted by the perpetual curate of Pelsall, in the county of Stafford.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole, (with certain exceptions, which do not include perpetual curates,) from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner thereafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working or of opening and working the same.

"And whereas by the same Act it was further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act should be determined, not being more than three-fourth parts, nor less than one moiety of such improved value, should forthwith, and from time to time as the same should accrue, be paid to us, and should be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us.

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend William Jesse, the present perpetual curate of Pelsall, to grant or demise by lease a certain bed of coal, situate at Pelsall aforesaid, belonging to him as such perpetual curate.

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties, or other reservations which will become payable by virtue of such lease.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that three-fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us ; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three-fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said William Jesse and his successors, perpetual curates of Pelsall, in respect of the remaining one-fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the perpetual curate of Pelsall for the time being : And, further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said William Jesse and his successors, perpetual curates of Pelsall aforesaid, for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed ; and that, for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions, as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized to apply from time to time, if we shall think fit, all or any part of the monies which shall be received by us by virtue or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises), towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the present limits of the perpetual curacy of Pelsall aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said William Jesse, as such perpetual curate as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of June, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain mining lease about to be granted by the Vicar of Gwinear, in the county of Cornwall.

"Whereas by the said last recited Act, it was enacted that it should be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions, which do not include vicars), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise, by lease, in manner thereafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds, belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working, or of opening and working the same.

"And whereas by the same Act, it was further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds, granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first recited Act should be determined, not being more than three-fourth parts nor less than one moiety of such improved value, should forthwith, and from time to time, as the same should accrue, be paid to us, and should be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us.

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend Henry Tremayne Rodd, the present Vicar of Gwinear aforesaid, to grant or demise by lease, certain lands with the minerals thereunder, situate in the said parish of Gwinear, belonging to him as such vicar.

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties, and other reservations, which will become payable by virtue of such lease.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that three-fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease, so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall by such lease be made directly payable to us; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three-fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid, as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said Henry Tremayne Rodd and his successors, vicars of Gwinear, in respect of the remaining one-fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the said vicar for the time being. And, further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with, or separately from, the said Henry Tremayne Rodd, and his successors, vicars of Gwinear for the time being of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed, and that for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

which shall be received by us by virtue, or on account of, the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses, which we may have incurred in respect of the premises), towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the present limits of the parish of Gwinear aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said Henry Tremayne Rodd, as such vicar, as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

CONTRACT FOR RUM.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, June 12, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 24th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Rum (not under 40 per cent. over proof), 6,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the rum.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Rum," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
