Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, for the use of Her Majesty, on all post letters, newspapers or other printed papers to which such Warrant should extend.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said before-mentioned Acts of Parliament, some or one of them have, at various times, and by divers Warrants in writing under the hands of certain of the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, bearing date respectively the 21st day of July, 1857, the 2nd day of September, 1857, the 16th day of October, 1857, the 15th day of January, 1858, the 20th day of February, 1858, the 6th day of March, 1858, and the 13th day of April, 1858, made and given certain orders, directions, regulations, and conditions relating to the weight and dimensions, and to the rates of postage, in conformity with and under and subject to which certain packets therein respectively mentioned might be transmitted by the post, and since the making and giving thereof respectively amongst other packets, consisting of letters, notices, and other communications, partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, have been respectively sent by the post under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, conditions and rates of postage in the said several Warrants respectively, or some or one of them, mentioned and contained, and it is expedient to make other regulations relating thereto in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said several hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or any or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare, as follows:

1. All letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters, or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and rates respectively mentioned and contained in the said several hereinbefore recited Warrants respectively, or in such one or more of them as shall be applicable or relate thereto.

2. Any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post, under or by virtue of any or either of the said several hereinbefore recited Warrants, or the regulations, orders, directions, conditions, or rates in any or either of the said Warrants respectively mentioned and contained. And every such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters, and communications in the nature of letters, posted and addressed in like manner, anything in the said several hereinbefore recited Warrants, or any or either of them relating to any such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

3. If any question shall arise, whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under or by virtue of any or either of the said hereinbefore recited Warrants, or is chargeable as a letter, or as a communication in the nature of a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made and may make, and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.
