In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament passed in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of a message, tenement, or public-house and premises, called the Robin Hood, situate in Church-street, in the parish and city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, devised by the Will of Joseph Finn, now deceased.

TAKE notice, that a petition was presented in the above matters to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, on the 9th day of July, 1858, to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, by Thomas Scarlett, of Rusholme, in the county of Lancaster, Contractor, Mary Ann Scarlett and Charles Edward Scarlett, both infants, by the said Thomas Scarlett, their father and next friend, and Sarah Scarlett, the wife of the said Thomas Scarlett, by William Henry Partington, of the city of Manchester, Gentleman, her next friend, praying, amongst other things, that the reversion in fee simple expectant on the death of the petitioner Sarah Scarlett, of and in, the said message or tenement and premises, in Church-street, Manchester, called the Robin Hood, and the appurtenances thereto belonging, may be sold to Messrs. Robert Needham Phillips and James Chadwick, both of Manchester aforesaid, Warehousemen and Copartners, at or for the price or sum of £3000. And further take notice, that the place where the said petitioners may be served with any order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, is the office of Mr. Nathaniel Charles Milne, Solicitor, No. 2, Harcourt-buildings, Temple, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 19th day of July, 1858.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates;" and in the Matter of an estate and farm, situate in the respective parishes of Clare and Ashen, in the counties of Suffolk and Essex, devised by the Will of William Chaplin, late of Ridgwell, in the county of Essex, Farmer, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition in the above-mentioned matters, and in a certain cause in the High Court of Chancery, wherein Ann Chaplin and others are plaintiffs, and John Chaplin and William Ely (both since deceased), are defendants; and in a cause wherein Robert Richbell Hutton and others are plaintiffs, and John Chaplin and William Ely (both since deceased), are defendants has been presented to the High Court of Chancery, in England, to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Kindersley, by Robert Richbell Hutton, of Great Yeldham, in the county of Essex, Farmer, and Ann his wife, formerly Ann Chaplin, Widow, Waller Chaplin, of Clare, in the county of Suffolk, Butcher, Charles Chaplin, of Sudbury, in the said county of Suffolk, Draper, Ann Chaplin, of Clare aforesaid, Spinster, Ellen Chaplin, of Ashen aforesaid, Spinster, and Dean Chaplin, of Nos. 77 and 78, Saint Paul's Churchyard, in the city of London, Linen Draper's Assistant, praying, amongst other things, that the said farm at Clare and Ashen, devised by the Will of the said testator William Chaplin may be sold in lots, in the month of July or August, in this year, and that the purchasers may be respectively let into possession of the respective lots on the 29th of September, in this year, and that the conveyances of the said lots to the purchasers thereof may be executed as soon as Julia Chaplin, in the said petition mentioned, shall attain the age of twenty-one years, and as soon as the purchasers of the said lots shall have paid the amount of their purchase money into Court to the credit of the first above-mentioned cause, with interest thereon from the said 29th of September, or that the said farm may be sold in such other manner as the said Court of Chancery may think fit to direct; and that for such purposes all necessary directions may be given in the chambers of the Judge, to whose Court the said causes are attached; and this notice is given in pursuance of the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in order that any person, or body corporate, desiring so to do, may be enabled to apply to the said Court for leave to be heard in opposition to, or in support of, the said petition. And notice is hereby also given, that the office of Messrs. Rixon, Son and Anton, of No. 38, Cannon-street, in the city of London, is the place where the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or any notice relating to the subject of the petition.—Dated this 20th day of July, 1858.
