India Board, August 2, 1858.

THE following General Order has been this day received at the East India House:—

GENERAL ORDER BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

No. 1855.—Foreign Department.

Allahabad, June 24, 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General has the highest gratification in announcing that the town and fort of Gwalior were recovered by Major-General Sir H. Rose, on the 19th instant, after a general action, in which the rebels, who had usurped the authority of Maha Rajah Scindia, were totally defeated.

On the 20th June, the Maha Rajah Scindia, attended by the Governor-General's Agent for Central India and Sir Hugh Rose, and escorted by British troops, was restored to the palace of his ancestors, and was welcomed by his subjects with every mark of loyalty and attachment.

It was on the 1st June that the rebels, aided by the treachery of some of Maha Rajah Scindia's troops, seized the capital of His Highness's kingdom, and hoped to establish a new Government under a Pretender in His Highness's territory. Eighteen days had not elapsed before they were compelled to evacuate the fort and town of Gwalior, and to relinquish the authority which they had endeavoured to usurp.

The promptitude and success with which the strength of the British Government has been put forth for the restoration of its faithful ally to the capital of his territory, and the continued presence of British troops at Gwalior to support His Highness in the re-establishment of his administration, will afford to all a convincing proof that the British Government has the will and the power to befriend those, who, like Maha Rajah Scindia, do not shrink from their obligation, or hesitate to avow their loyalty.

The Right Honourable the Governor-General, in order to mark his appreciation of the Maha Rajah Scindia's friendship, and his gratification at the re-establishment of His Highness's authority in his ancestral dominions, is pleased to direct that a royal salute shall be fired at every principal station in India.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor-General.

Osborne House, July 31, 1858.

This day had audience of Her Majesty;

Don José de Marcoleta, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republic of Nicaragua, and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republic of Costa Rica, to deliver his credentials:

To which audience he was introduced by the Earl of Malmesbury, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Foreign-Office, June 26, 1858.
