FRIDAY, AUGUST 6, 1858.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Monday, August 2, 1858.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to express Her satisfaction at being enabled to release you from the duties of a session, which, though interrupted, has, by your unremitting assiduity, been productive of many important measures.

Her Majesty is happy to believe that Her relations with Foreign Powers are such as to enable Her Majesty to look with confidence to the preservation of general peace.

Her Majesty trusts that the labours of the Plenipotentiaries now sitting in Conference at Paris may lead to a satisfactory solution of the various questions which have been referred to them.

The efforts, the gallantry, and devotedness displayed in India by Her Majesty's Forces, and those of the East India Company, have been above all praise; and Her Majesty hopes that those efforts have already been so far crowned with success, that the formidable revolt which has raged throughout a large portion of Her Indian Possessions may now, under the blessing of Almighty God, be speedily suppressed, and peace be restored to those important Provinces.

In this hope Her Majesty has given Her willing assent to the Act which you have passed for transferring to Her direct authority the Government of Her Indian Dominions; and Her Majesty hopes to be enabled so to discharge the high functions which She has assumed, as, by a just and impartial administration of the law, to secure its advantages alike to Her subjects of every race and creed, and, by promoting their welfare, to establish and strengthen Her Empire in India.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to thank you for the judicious liberality with which you have made provision for the exigencies of the public service.

The present state of the revenue authorizes Her Majesty to entertain a confident hope that the supplies which you have granted will be found fully adequate to the demands upon them.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The sanitary condition of the Metropolis must always be a subject of deep interest to Her Majesty, and Her Majesty has readily sanctioned the Act which you have passed for the purification of that noble river, the present state of which is little creditable to a great country, and seriously prejudicial to the health and comfort of the inhabitants of the Metropolis.

Her Majesty has also willingly assented to an Act, whereby greater facilities are given for the acquisition by towns and districts of such powers as may be requisite for promoting works of local improvement, and thus extending more widely the advantages of municipal self-government.

Her Majesty trusts that the Act which you have passed for the future government of the Scotch Universities, will be found highly advantageous to those venerable institutions, and will greatly promote and extend a system of sound moral and religious education in Scotland.

The Transfer of Land Bill, which extends the powers hitherto exercised by the Incumbered Estates Commissioners, and facilitates the acquisition of an indefeasible title by purchasers of land in Ireland, cannot fail to be highly beneficial to the landed proprietors, and to advance the prosperity of that part of Her Majesty's dominions.

The Act to which Her Majesty has assented for the establishment of the colony of British Columbia was urgently required, in consequence of the recent discoveries of gold in that district; but Her Majesty hopes that this new colony on the Pacific may be but one step in the career of steady progress, by which Her Majesty's dominions in North America may ultimately be peopled, in an unbroken chain, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, by a loyal and industrious population of subjects of the British crown.

Her Majesty thankfully acknowledges the diligence and perseverance which has enabled you in a comparatively short time to pass these and other measures of inferior but not insignificant importance.

Many of you, in returning to your respective counties, have extensive influence to exercise, and duties to perform of hardly less value to the Community than those from the labours of which you are about to be released; and Her Majesty entertains a confident assurance that, under the guidance of Providence, that influence will be so employed, and those duties so performed, as to redound to your own honour, and to promote the general welfare and the happiness of a loyal and contented people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the nineteenth day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the nineteenth day of October next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order; and that any such Order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered and annulled;

And whereas by the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England and Wales, and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and that any such Order may be, in like manner, from time to time altered and annulled; and that in and by any such Order Her Majesty may direct by whom any powers or duties incident to the provisions applied under the said Act, or "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such Court or Courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such Court or Courts the provisions so applied:

And whereas, it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said two Acts, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall extend and apply to the Court of Record, holden in and for the Borough of Poole;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, all the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof, shall extend and apply to the said Court of Record, holden in and for the said borough of Poole;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Judge or Deputy Judge of the Court of Record for the said borough, shall have the same powers and duties with reference to the said Court as the Chief Judge, or other Judge of either of the Superior Courts at Westminster may have by the said Acts, or either of them, with reference to proceedings in such superior Courts;

That all the power and duties which by the said Acts, or either of them, are given to, or imposed upon, the Masters of the Court of Queen's Bench, may and shall be exercised and performed by the Registrar of the said Court of Record;

That wherever, in either of the said Acts, any matter or thing is authorized to be done by the Court or a Judge, the same may be done by the Court of Record, or the Registrar thereof—except that the Registrar shall not have the power to try any issues of law or in fact;

And that all rules, orders, and affidavits, and all other matters and things (except the trial and issues in law or in fact) in any way relating to the business of the said Court which, when this Order shall have taken effect, might by law be made, sworn, or done, either in Court or out of Court, before the Judge or Deputy Judge of the said Court, may thenceforth be made, sworn, or done, either in Court or out of Court, in the absence of such Judge, or Deputy Judge, by or before the Registrar of the said Court.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that all the provisions of the said Act should be

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to direct that the forms given in Schedules A and B to the said Act annexed, may and shall be so altered as to make the same applicable to the said Court of Record, and the Judge and Deputy Judge thereof, instead of to Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, and the Judges thereof; and that the costs mentioned in the first section of the said Act shall be fixed by the Registrar of the said Court of Record, subject to the approval of the Judge thereof, and that the Judge of the said Court, or any Deputy or Assistant Judge thereof, shall and may, as to the said Court, exercise all the power given by the said Act to any Judge or Judges of the Superior Courts at Westminster, in or by the first, second, third, and fourth sections thereof.
