Whitehall, August 9, 1858.

THE Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole has received the following Despatch from the Earl of Malmesbury, dated Cherbourg, August 5, 1858.

Sir,

Cherbourg, August 5, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to inform you that Her Majesty, the Prince Consort, and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales arrived here, at 6.30 yesterday evening, in the royal yacht, after a passage of five hours from Osborne. Her Majesty was attended by the Earl of Delawarr, Sir John Pakington, myself, and by the Countess of Desart and Miss Bulteel. The escorting squadron met the yacht five miles from Cherbourg, and entered the harbour in two lines, the royal yacht leading the centre. Her Majesty was received by a general salute from nine line-of-battle ships and a heavy frigate, ranged in line within the breakwater, and from all the batteries. This was returned by the English ships, and the roar of two thousand pieces of cannon produced a most striking effect. The royal yacht anchored within the French line of battle, surrounded by the escort, at 8.30. The Emperor Napoleon and the Empress came on board, under a general salute. Their Majesties were attended by the Maritime Prefect, the Admiral of the Fleet, the Minister of Marine, Marshals Pelissier and Baraguay d'Hilliers, Generals Niel and McMahon, and the Princess d'Essling. Their Majesties retired at 9.30, under a general salute and illumination of the British men-of-war. This day Her Majesty will breakfast with the Emperor, at the Prefecture, and dine with His Majesty on board the Bretagne, four-decker.

To-morrow Her Majesty proposes to return to Osborne, at twelve o'clock.

Her Majesty and the Royal Family are in perfect health, and appear much pleased with their reception.

I have, &c.,

MALMESBURY.

The Right Hon. S. H. Walpole, M.P.,

THE following papers have been received at the East India House:

No. 1.

Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, to the Adjutant-General, Bombay Army.

Camp Pooch, April 30, 1858.

Sir,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, that on the 1st of April the force under my orders, fought a general action with the so-called Army of the Peishwa, which attempted to relieve Jhansi while I was besieging it, and gained a complete victory over it, pursuing him two miles beyond the river Betwa, taking 18 guns, of which one was an eighteen pounder, one an eight-inch mortar, two twelve pounders, and two English nine pounders, and killing upwards of 1500 rebels.

For some time past Sir Robert Hamilton had given me information that Tantia Topee, a relative and the agent of Nana Sahib, had been collecting and organizing a large body of troops in the neighbourhood of Mhow and Nowgong, in Bundelcund, which was called "The Army of the Peishwa," and displayed the standard of that abolished authority. After the fall of Chicharee, this army was reinforced by the numerous rebel troops, Sepoys from Calpee and Bundelas, who had besieged and taken it. Towards the end of last month I received constantly reports that this force, estimated at 20,000 or 25,000 men, with 20 or 30 guns, was advancing against me. On the 30th ultimo, Sir Robert Hamilton informed me, that its main body had arrived at Burra-Saugor, about three miles from the Betwa, would cross that river during the night, and attack me next morning.

In hopes of forcing the enemy to engage with the river in his rear, I left the parks and heavy baggage of the second brigade, with which I was, with the 1st brigade, and marched at 9 p.m. on the 30th ultimo from Jhansi to the village of Bussoba, six miles from Jhansi, which commands the two fords of Rajpore and Kolwar, by which the enemy coming from Burra-Saugor must cross the Betwa.

At Bussoba I received reports from the two outposts which I had sent to watch the fords, that they had been and heard nothing of the enemy. The next morning they made a similar report,

I came to the conclusion that the enemy would not cross the river whilst I was so close to it, and that nothing would be more likely to encourage them to do so, than a retrograde movement on my part, which they would construe into a retreat. I returned, therefore, to camp, leaving the outposts to watch the fords. I was not mistaken; that same day the enemy crossed the upper ford, the Rajpore, in great numbers, preceded by an advanced guard of Vilaities, and took up, after sunset, a position in order of battle, opposite the rear of the camp of the second brigade.

At sunset the enemy lit an immense bonfire on a rising ground on the side of the Betwa, as a signal to Jhansi of their arrival; it was answered by salutes from all the batteries of the fort and city, and shouts of joy from their defenders.

It was evident that the enemy sought a battle with my force; this self-confidence was explained afterwards by prisoners, who stated that Tantia Topee had been informed by his spies, that nearly all my force was scattered, and engaged in the siege and investment, and that he could easily destroy the few who guarded the camp.

The fact is, that Jhansi had proved so strong, and the ground to be watched by cavalry was so extensive, that my force had actually enough on its hands. But I relied on the spirit of British soldiers, which rises with difficulties, and resolved, whilst I fought a general action with the enemy, not to relax either the siege or the investment.

The details in the margin* show how weak I was when compared with the enemy. My first brigade had only a little more than 200 European infantry; my 2nd brigade about the same. On the first news of the approach of the enemy, I had sent Major Orr, with a party of his cavalry, along the road to the Betwa, to watch their movements.

I drew up my force across the road from the Betwa, half-a-mile from my camp. On the right flank of my 1st line, the 2nd brigade, I placed Lieutenant Clark's Hyderabad horse, a troop 14th Light Dragoons, and 4 guns Horse Artillery; in the centre, detachments of the 24th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, and 3rd Europeans, three heavy guns, and detachments Hyderabad Infantry; on the left flank, Captain Lightfoot's Battery and two troops 14th Light Dragoons.

The second line was in contiguous columns at quarter distance; a weak troop 14th Light Dragoons on the right, and Hyderabad Cavalry on the left flank; in the centre Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, Captain Woolcombe's Battery of six, and Captain Ommaney's Battery of nine pounders, and detachments 25th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry.

I threw out pickets and lines of videttes of the 14th Light Dragoons and Hyderabad Cavalry, well to my front and flanks. The Vilaities' outposts called out during the night, that they were very numerous, that we were very few, that in the morning they would finish us, &c.

In consequence of the lateness of the enemy's advance, and the distance of my first brigade, my force was not in position till long after dark. The silent regularity with which it was effected did credit to their discipline.

Both ourselves and the enemy slept on our arms opposite each other.

Artillery, 3 siege guns, 16 light field guns; 14th Dragoons, 243 rank and file; Hyderabad Cavalry, 207 sabres; 86th Regiment, 208 rank and file; 3rd Bombay European Regiment, 226 rank and file; 24th Bombay Native Infantry, 298 rank and file; and 25th Bombay Native Infantry.

in as hard as he could, and reported that the enemy were crossing in great numbers. I thought it probable that they would make this move, of which the object was to turn my left flank, and force their way along the Burragong road, through Major Scudamore's Flying Camp into Jhansi. I had, therefore, ordered the outpost at the Kolwar ford to watch it with the utmost vigilance.

I detached Brigadier Stuart at once with the first brigade along the Burragong road to the village of the same name, about eight miles from Jhansi, close to the river Betwa, from whence he could oppose and out-flank the enemy, who had crossed by the ford above Burragong.

The accompanying report from Brigadier Stuart shows how well he executed my instructions, and how much he contributed to the success of the day. I beg to record my acknowledgement of the service he did, and to second warmly his recommendation of the officers and men of his gallant brigade.

The departure of the First Brigade left me without a second line, I was therefore obliged to withdraw the detachment of the 24th Native Infantry from the 1st, and make a second line of them.

The best way with Indians, for making up for numerical inferiority, is a determined attack on their weak point. I had therefore intended to commence the attack at daylight, advance in line, pour into the rebels the fire of all my guns, and then double up their left flank. But the enemy, before daybreak, covered by a cloud of skirmishers, advanced against me.

My pickets and videttes retired steadily, closing to each flank, in order that I might open upon them the fire of my guns, and then turn his left flank from my right.

Before my line was uncovered, the enemy took ground to his right. I conformed, to prevent his outflanking my left, but very cautiously, lest he should draw me away too much to the left, and then fall on my right flank. This was probably his intention, for a body of horse was seen towards my right. I halted and fronted; the enemy did the same, and instantly opened a very heavy artillery, musket, and matchlock fire on my line from the whole of his front, to which my batteries answered steadily.

The enemy had taken up an excellent position, a little in rear of a rising ground, which made it difficult to bring an effective fire on him. I ordered my front line of infantry to lie down, the troop of Horse Artillery to take ground diagonally to the right, and enfilade the enemy's left flank. In this movement a round shot broke the wheel of a Horse Artillery gun.

Captain Lightfoot took up an advanced position to his left front, which made the fire of his battery much more efficacious. Whilst the enemy were suffering from the fire of the troop and battery, I directed Captain Prettejohn, 14th Light Dragoons, to charge with his troop, supported by Captain McMahon, 14th Light Dragoons, the enemy's right flank, and I charged myself their left with Captain Need's troop, 14th Light Dragoons, supported by a strong troop of Hyderabad cavalry.

Both attacks succeeded, throwing the whole of the enemy's first line into confusion, and forcing them to retire.

I beg to do justice to Captain Need's troop; they charged, with steady gallantry, the left, composed of the rebels' best troops, Vilaities and Sepoys, who, throwing themselves back on the right, and resting the flanks of their new line, four or five deep, on the rocky knolls, received the charge with a heavy fire of musketry.

We broke through this dense line, which flung itself amongst the rocks, and, bringing our right shoulders forward, took the front line in reverse and routed it.

I believe I may say, that what Captain Need's troop did on this occasion was equal to breaking a square of infantry; and the result was most successful, because the charge turned the enemy's position, and decided in a great measure the fate of the day.

I have the honor to recommend to his Excellency's favorable consideration, Captain Need and his devoted troop, and Lieutenant Leith, who saved Captain Need's life, for which I have ventured to recommend him for the Victoria Cross.

The enemy's right gave way, before the squadron of the 14th Light Dragoons, under Captain Prettejohn, reached them; he pursued and cut up several of them.

In order to follow up rapidly this success, I ordered a general advance of the whole line, when the retreat of the rebels became a rout.

I moved forward the whole of the artillery and cavalry in pursuit, the Horse Artillery following the road to the Betwa, from which it had enfiladed the enemy's position, the field battery going across country. We soon came up with six guns and the ammunition waggons, which we left for the infantry, and passed on to the main body of the rebels, broken into knots, and scattered in every direction.

Severe combats occurred between the pursuing cavalry and the fugitives, who singly, or standing back to back, always took up, like most Indians, the best position the ground admitted, and fought with the desperation which I have described on other occasions. The body wedged themselves so dexterously into the banks of a nullah, that neither musketry nor artillery fire could destroy them. Lieutenant Armstrong, of the 3rd Bombay European Regiment, coming up with a few skirmishers, dashed at them and bayoneted them all, but not without some loss. This officer is postmaster of the force, but his zeal always leads him into action, where he does good service on those occasions which require bold decision.

The pursuit had now penetrated and cleared away the first line. A cloud of dust, about a mile and a half to our right, pointed out the line of retreat of another large body, the second line of the rebels, which, by a singular arrangement of the rebel general, Tantia Topee, must have been three miles in rear of his first line.

The whole force again went in immediate pursuit, and came up with the skirmishers in rocky and difficult ground, covering the retreat of the second line: driven in, they closed to their right, and uncovered the main body which cannonaded the troops in pursuit with an 18-pounder, an 8-inch mortar and other guns.

Colonel Turnbull answered with a few rounds, which told. Captain Lightfoot, who had come up, thinking that he could bring his guns to ground from which he could enfilade the enemy's left, I directed him to join the Hyderabad Cavalry, and a troop of the 14th Light Dragoons, whom I had sent to turn their left flank, and take, if possible, their guns.

The enemy did not wait for this attack, but retired with precipitation by the high road to the Rajpore ford.

Neither the jungle, which was set on fire to stop the pursuit, nor difficult ground, could check the ardour of the pursuing troops, who saw within their reach the great prize, the enemy's heavy artillery.

Once on the road, guns and cavalry galloped without a check, till they came within gun shot of the village of Rajpore, where the enemy made their last and third stand.

The troop and battery, advantageously placed on two rising grounds, crossed their fire on the enemy, who rapidly left this, but kept up a heavy fire with musketry, and with a 12-pounder from the opposite bank of the river; the 12-pounder hit by a round shot retired disabled.

I ordered two troops of the 14th Light Dragoons and the Hyderabad Cavalry across the Betwa.

On going down the road to the river, we saw the stream crowded with the enemy's artillery, ordnance park, and quantities of stores, the 18-pounder and the 8-inch mortar, drawn by two elephants, ammunition waggons, and carts full of ammunition of the Gwalior Contingent.

The enemy kept up a heavy fire on us as we crossed the ford, and ascended the steep road leading up the opposite bank; the 14th Light Dragoons and Hyderabad Cavalry gallantly surmounted all opposition, and sabred the rebels, who still held their ground.

I detached parties in pursuit of the numerous fugitives who took across country; another body followed the road and captured, a mile and a half from the Betwa, the disabled 12-pounder, being the eighteenth and last gun of the rebel army.

Two standards were also captured.

The infantry who had followed in skirmishing order, to prevent the escape of any of the enemy, gave proof of their zeal by the rapidity with which they marched up to the front.

Horses and men being completely exhausted by incessant marching and fighting during the last 48 hours, and being now 9 miles from Jhansi, I marched the troops back to camp.

I beg leave to bring to the favourable notice of the Commander-in-Chief, the conduct of the force under my command, which, without relaxing in the least the arduous siege and investment of a very strong fort and fortified city, garrisoned by 10,000 desperate men, fought, with the few numbers left in camp, a grand action with a relieving army, beat and pursued them nine miles, killing 1,500 of them, and taking from them all their artillery, stores, and ammunition.

The officers whom circumstances called prominently into action, and who, profiting by the opportunity, did valuable service, were Brigadier Stuart, and the officers whom he mentions, Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, Bombay Horse Artillery; Captain Lightfoot, Bombay Artillery; Captain Need, 14th Light Dragoons; Lieutenant Leith, 14th Light Dragoons; Lieutenant Armstrong, 3rd Bombay European Regiment; and Lieutenant Prendergast, Madras Sappers and Miners, who, on various occasions, under my eye, has distinguished himself by his merit and gallantry, as devoted as they were unostentatious.

Serjeant Gardiner, 14th Light Dragoons, attacked and killed a cavalry soldier, as well as two armed men on foot; his gallant conduct at Dhar had been previously honourably mentioned. The conduct of the men of the 14th Light Dragoons was so uniformly good, that their Commanding Officer finds it difficult to bring any particular case of good conduct to my notice.

I am much indebted for their zeal and assistance to me during the action, to Major Orr, Commanding Hyderabad Contingent Field Force; Captain Prettejohn, Commanding 14th Light Dragoons; Captain Hare, Commanding regiment Hyderabad Force, and Lieutenant Haggard, Commissary of Ord-vance, in command of the siege train ; as also to my staff Captain Macdonald, Assistant Quartermaster General ; Captain Wood, Assistant Adjutant-General ; Captain Rose, Rifle Brigade, my Aide-de-Camp ; and Lieutenant Lyster, 72nd Bengal Native Infantry, my Interpreter.

I have, &c.,
HUGH ROSE, Major-General,
 Commanding C. I. Field Force.

No. 2.

Brigadier Stuart, Commanding 1st Brigade Central India Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant General Central India Field Force.

Camp, Jhansi, April 6, 1858.

SIR,

FOR the information of the Major-General Commanding Central India Field Force, I have the honor to report the proceedings of the 1st Brigade Central India Field Force, strength as per margin,* on the morning of the 1st April last.

2. In compliance with the instructions conveyed to me by the Major-General, I marched my Brigade from its position as support to the 2nd Brigade, about 1 o'clock, A.M., on the 1st instant, and proceeded by the Calpee road to another ford of the Betwa River, by which the rebels were expected to pass: the village of Boregaum, about half a mile from the ford in question, was reached about daybreak, when I heard heavy firing from the direction of the 2nd Brigade; accordingly, I halted the column and pushed on the cavalry to the ford, with orders to reconnoitre and return with all despatch. In a very short time I received information that none of the enemy were to be seen or heard of in the vicinity of the river, so I counter-marched my force and proceeded to join the 2nd Brigade as quickly as possible: after about an hour's march, some fugitive rebels were observed on our left front. I sent the detachment Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons in pursuit, and many of them were cut up; the brigade was now approaching the village of Kooshabhore, and I found that a large body of the enemy, upwards of two thousand in number, and consisting of artillery, cavalry, and infantry, were prepared to oppose our progress. Having placed some guns in position, in and about the village, I immediately threw all my infantry into skirmishing order, placing my cavalry on either flank, and moving my guns on the main road until within about six hundred yards of the enemy's position; fire was then opened with the artillery with most excellent effect, the enemy were soon shaken, and, the moment our guns ceased firing, the skirmishers of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, and 25th Regiment Native Infantry dashed forward, carried the village at the point of the bayonet, capturing all the enemy's artillery, consisting of six pieces, together with supply of ammunition, &c.; the line then steadily advanced, drove the enemy over some difficult ground in rear of the village, until a second village was reached, on the outskirts of which the enemy made another stand; from this the men of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment immediately dislodged them, and they retired in good order, leaving a strong rear guard to cover their retreat, which was effected in so compact a manner, that though the small body of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and the squadron of the cavalry, Hyderabad Contingent, charged them as opportunity offered, they could do little more than cut up the stragglers; the ground over which the enemy were now passing, was, I regret to say, of such a nature that I could only with the greatest difficulty bring up my artillery; otherwise their loss would have been more severe. About two hundred and fifty of their number were, I compute, killed; and, in addition to their guns and ammunition, two elephants and some camels were captured. Had not the troops of my Brigade been in such an exhausted state from the exertions of the previous thirty-six hours, during which, as the Major-general is aware, they were under arms or marching with but little intermission, I should have continued the pursuit. I felt however that as the enemy were rapidly moving off away from the vicinity of Jhansi, nothing further could be done, so returned to camp.

3. I have now in conclusion the pleasure of placing on record how much I was indebted on this occasion to the Officers of my Staff, to Commanding Officers of Regiments, and to all officers and men under their command: all ranks both European and Native were called upon to exert themselves to the utmost and they responded to the call most nobly: Lieutenant and Adjutant Cochrane, Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, behaved in the most gallant manner during this engagement; he was ever to the front, and had three horses shot under him. I beg to support the recommendation of Colonel Lowth, Commanding Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, that some mark of distinction may be awarded to this deserving officer; Lieutenant Mills, 25th Regiment Native Infantry, also did good service in surrounding and destroying, with a small number of his men, some rebels who had taken up a difficult position amongst rocks; the conduct of Resslerer Allahooden, Khan of the 1st, and Resslerer Trumder Ali Beg, of the 3rd Regiment, C.H.C., was also marked by great bravery; the latter officer, I regret to say, has received two very severe and dangerous wounds.

4. I have already transmitted a casualty roll of the men who suffered in this engagement, and I beg to report that all the guns and ammunition taken from the enemy, have been made over to the Commissary of Ordnance, Central India Field Force.

I have, &c.,
C. S. STUART, Brigadier,
 Commanding 1st Brigade, Central India
 Field Force.

P. S. I have forwarded herewith a duplicate roll of killed and wounded.

No. 6.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Allahabad, May 29, 1858.

No. 172 of 1858.—The Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch, from the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army, dated 23rd May, 1858, forwarding a communication from Brigadier-General Jones, C.B., commanding the Roorkee Field Force, detailing his operations since leaving Moradabad on the 3rd, and his actions with the Rebels on the 5th and 6th of May, near and at Bareilly:—

No. 7.

Brigadier-General Jones, C.B., Commanding the Roorkee Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

Camp Shahjehanpore, May 13, 1858.

SIR,

ON the 3rd instant, the Field Force left Moradabad for Bareilly, and on the morning of the 5th approached Meragunge, where a strong picquet of the rebel army was entrenched.

The force that had been detached under Major Gordon was recalled and joined near the village of Moollick.

I placed 4 guns of No. 7 Light Field Battery on the right, supported by the squadron of Carabineers and the Afghan Horse.

To the left I sent 2 guns, and the Mooltanee Cavalry.

In the centre of the road were the heavy guns, the 1st Sikhs on the right, and the Royal Rifles on the left, supported by the 17th Punjaub Infantry. The 1st Punjaub Rifles were on the left of the 60th. In this formation I passed through the enemy's entrenchments, which he abandoned as I approached, retreating towards the River Dojoora. As I saw it was not his intention to stand on this side of the stream, I determined to push him rapidly, and endeavour to capture his guns, before they could be got into position on the other bank.

The cavalry and artillery on the right, were ordered to pass rapidly round a village, and come down on the enemy's flank.

This order was admirably carried out by Captain Smith in command, who, moving swiftly, came up with the rebels, and charging with the Afghan horse, cut down a considerable number.

Finding it now impossible to get his 3 guns over the ford, with this body in such close pursuit, the enemy halted, formed up his cavalry, and opened fire with his guns.

Captain Austin instantly replied with shrapnell, and the destructive nature of this fire, and the imposing advance of the Carabiniers, disconcerted these horsemen, who turned and fled, leaving the guns in Captain Smith's hands.

The enemy attempted no further opposition: his well-mounted cavalry retreated rapidly to Bareilly, with the General who had been sent from that city with reinforcements to check my advance.

The field force crossed the Dojoora, and encamped on the left bank.

I enclose Captain Smith's report, and also a detailed statement of the captured ordnance.

Early the next morning I struck my camp, and drew up the force close to the city of Bareilly. I failed in gaining positive intelligence of his Excellency's movements, as the country was swarming with fugitive Sowars, but my information led me to believe that Khan Bahadoor had been defeated the day before, and that the Commander-in-Chief's camp was pitched in the cantonment.

I detached Captain Cureton with the Mooltanee cavalry to the left, which appeared to be the enemy's principal line of retreat, and this excellent officer cut up about 100 of their cavalry and infantry, among whom was the General who had been sent out to oppose me.

Brigadier Coke led a party of cavalry to the bridge, by which Bareilly is entered on this side, where he was informed some guns had been abandoned; but he found them in position, and they opened on him with grape.

On this being reported to me by Major Muter, I ordered up the heavy guns, and threw strong parties of the Royal Rifles into the gardens through which the road leads.

Brigadier Coke, having reconnoitred and obtained a most correct idea of the position of those guns, suggested that our heavy artillery should be moved to the right. Lieutenant Stubbs, in charge, got his guns into position at about 1200 yards, and made some excellent practice.

By this fire, and that of the Rifles from the gardens, the enemy were quickly silenced, when the Royal Rifles advanced, supported by the 17th Punjaub infantry, and rushing up the street, captured at the point of the bayonet the guns the enemy were endeavouring to withdraw.

Some Ghazies threw themselves on these soldiers, and were killed in the streets and adjoining houses; but a most valuable colour serjeant of the Rifles was slain, and some men received severe sword cuts.

Under the direction of Brigadier Coke, the captured portion of the city was secured, the principal points being occupied, and barricades erected in the streets.

While these operations were being performed, Captain Lambert with the 1st Punjaub Rifles, 2 guns, and the squadron of Carabiniers, made corresponding advance on the left, and bringing their left shoulders forward, swept the gardens clear of the enemy, and advanced upon the bridge.

Entering the city with a portion of the Punjaub Rifles, he took part in the operations already described.

Captain Cureton was detached with a squadron, and accompanied by my Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant H. Deedes, passed round this city and entered his Excellency's camp, whom I met the next morning in the centre of the city.

In these, the last operations of the Roorkee Field Force, 3 more guns were captured, making in all since crossing into Rohilcund on the 17th instant, 36 pieces of artillery.

The reputation borne by Brigadier Coke, C.B., led me to expect most valuable assistance from that officer, and in this I have in no instance been disappointed. His high courage, energy, and judgment, render him an ornament to the service to which he belongs.

I am much indebted also to the officers of his brigade; to Major Palmer, who has so well commanded the 1st battalion 60th Rifles; to Major Gordon, commanding the 1st Sikhs; Captain Larkins, of the 17th Punjaub Infantry; and Captain Lambert, of the 1st Punjaub Rifles.

I have before expressed the high estimation in which I hold Captain Cureton, of the Mooltanee Cavalry, who has shown himself so admirable a leader of irregular cavalry; and I am happy in bringing to his Excellency's notice, the distinguished part taken by Captain Smith, of the Afghan Horse, in the operations of the 5th.

I am much indebted to both Captain Austin, of the Artillery, and Captain Bott, of the Carabiniers, for the steady support which they have always rendered.

I have also to notice three officers of the 60th Rifles, whose companies did such excellent and galant service in the city; Captain Bowles, Captain M'Queen, and Lieutenant Ashburnham.

I have received every assistance from Major Muter, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General; also from Captain Tedlie, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster General; Lieutenant H. Deedes, Aide-de-Camp; and Lieutenant Tyler, Orderly Officer. I am much indebted to that most valuable officer, Captain Drummond, of the Engineers, and Lieutenant Brownlow, of the same corps, and also Lieutenant W. Jefferys, who commanded the Sappers and Miners.

Surgeon James, Field Force Surgeon, has always exerted his excellent judgment and great skill to the utmost; and I am indebted to Captain Carter, Deputy Commissary General, for his untiring zeal.

I have, &c.

JOHN JONES, Brigadier General,
Commanding Roorkee Field Force.

No. 8.

Captain A. Smith, Commanding Afghan Horse, to Major D. D. Muter, Assistant Adjutant General, Roorkee Field Force.

Camp Bareilly, May 7, 1858.

SIR, I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier-General J. Jones, C. B., Commanding the Roorkee Field Force, that on the 5th instant, agreeably to orders, I followed in pursuit of the retreating enemy from the village of Meerungunge, with the Afghan Horse and Cook's Bissalah, the latter under Lieutenant R. F. Angelo, 1st Punjab Infantry; strength together about 150.

During the pursuit, several fugitive horsemen were overtaken and immediately cut down. After about 3 miles chase, we came upon a horsed gun which had been abandoned by the flying enemy; having secured which, we had advanced but a short distance in continuance of the pursuit, when the rebels opened on us with grape and round shot. Observing that their fire swept down the road, I made a movement to the right, intending to charge their left flank; as, however, there was a very large force of cavalry in support of their position, and as my men had become much scattered, owing to the rapidity of the pursuit, I deemed it necessary to wait till I should get a larger body collected.

The enemy perceived our flank movement, and kept turning their guns on us, thus removing their fire from the road, and leaving it clear for advance of artillery of the advanced guard, which now came up, and taking up their position on our left opened fire.

During our gradual movement to the right, we were under a heavy fire as the enemy had our range exactly. My own horse was killed under me by a round shot, as was also that of a Sowar, and some were wounded with grape.

As soon as our artillery ceased firing, we galloped forward, and got possession of 2 more guns, cutting down the few men who were just abandoning them, and continued the pursuit as far as the nullah at Dojooora. Here observing the enemy assembled, about 700 strong, on the opposite bank, and most of our own party being very much behind, owing to the length of the pursuit and rapidity of the rebels' flight, I drew up in a tope on this side to get my men together, deeming that I carried out the orders I received in capturing the 3 guns, which were all the enemy were reported to have possessed. I should consider the enemy's loss to be about 60 killed. Our own casualties were of the Afghan horse:—men wounded 3, missing 1, supposed to be killed; horses, 1 killed and 2 wounded. In Cook's Bissalah, men wounded 2, horses killed 1, and wounded 1.

The enemy's force consisted almost entirely of cavalry, and those well mounted.

I have, &c.

ANDREW SMITH, Captain,
Commanding Afghan Horse.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to publish, for general information, the following despatch from the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army, dated 24th May, 1858, forwarding copy of one from Major-General Sir J. SIR,

No. 9858.

I HAVE the honor to report that, on the morning of the 10th instant, the column under my command arrived at Doundea Keira, which is a strong mud fort in the midst of jungle, belonging to the rebel Ram Buksh. On my arrival at this fort, I found it deserted. Three guns were found concealed in wells, one a brass 32-pounder howitzer. I had the fort destroyed as much as possible, and the principal buildings in the town belonging to Ram Buksh burnt. On the 12th, the column marched to Nuggur, and hearing there that Bene Madho and Shewrutten Singh had assembled an army of 15,000 infantry, 1,600 cavalry, and 11 guns at Sirsee, a village with a fort in it five miles off, I determined that afternoon to proceed to attack them, leaving all the baggage, supplies, &c., with tents struck, in a safe position, with a force of cavalry, infantry, and artillery for its protection.

It is very difficult in this country to get good information, though there are several excellent civil officers with the column for that purpose; the consequence was, on arriving at the ground, I found it much stronger than I had reason to expect. The enemy were placed along a difficult nullah with a very strong and large jungle in their rear. The village and fort of Towrie also lay in this jungle. The enemy's first gun began to open about 5 o'clock, but, as soon as our column was formed with the cavalry and horse artillery covering our right flank, they were attacked with such boldness and vigour, that they gave way and were driven into the jungle, leaving two iron guns behind them, a 9-pounder and 8-pounder.

* See London Gazette, July 17, 1858.

Our column was almost surrounded at one time, but the cavalry and artillery, the former commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Hagar, a very superior officer, and the latter by Captain Gibbon, succeeded in clearing our right flank. Brigadier Horsford, with the Rifles and Sikhs, supported by the 90th Regiment, in the most admirable manner drove them away from our left flank; the 38th Regiment supported the heavy guns. The enemy suffered a considerable loss, and it is reported and I believe with truth, that Sheewuten Singh and his brother are both killed.

I did not think it advisable to allow the troops to enter the jungle, and I directed them to bivouac for the night on the ground where the fight had taken place, and returned on the morning of the 18th to the camp at Nugger.

*Head Quarters Camp, Futtehgurh,

SIR,

BY desire of the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to forward, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, two despatches, dated the 24th and 25th instant, from Brigadier-General J. Jones, C.B., announcing his advance on and capture of Mohumdee.

2. The Brigadier-General's operations were, his Excellency considers, pressed with their usual vigour, but the retreat of the enemy was so rapid that he was not able to inflict heavy loss on the fugitives.

3. The Commander-in-Chief had himself arrived at Shahjehanpore with a weak escort on the 18th instant. On the afternoon of that day, the enemy showed in considerable force, and there was a prolonged skirmish. The arrangements of the force did not permit of an advance, and his Excellency restricted the efforts of the troops. The enemy suffered from the effects of our cannonade. A return of the casualties on this occasion is annexed.

4. The Commander-in-Chief thought it advisable to remain at Shahjehanpore till a sufficient force had been assembled at that place to admit of the Brigadier-General's forward movement being made with perfect safety. His Excellency's presence being much needed on the line of the telegraph communication, owing to the numerous references from the Commanders of the various columns still in the field, he returned to Futtehgurh on the 25th instant, very exact instructions having been given to Brigadier-General Jones for his guidance.

5. Head-Quarters are still at Futtehgurh.

I have, &c.

H. W. NORMAN, Major,
Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 20.

Brigadier-General J. Jones, C.B., Commanding Shahjehanpore Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

*Camp, 11 miles from Mohumdee,

SIR,

I ATTACKED the enemy at day-light this morning. The fort was taken quickly, and without loss; but the enemy retired with such speed that I could not come up with him. The carriage of one of his heaviest guns was broken to pieces by a 24-pounder shot; but the gun has not been found. One only was taken in the fort, a gun that had burst.

The enemy were very strong on their own right, and large bodies of their cavalry out-flanking us, checked the advance of Brigadier Hagart with a large portion of the cavalry, and Tomb's troop, horse artillery, on our left. The rebel cavalry charged the Mooltanee cavalry, thirty of them riding through the regiment; five or six of Cureton's men were wounded, but all the rebels that broke through his regiment were killed. A waggon of Major Hammond's battery exploded while moving with the Carabiniers at the gallop, and two Europeans and one native were killed. I advanced about nine miles with great rapidity, but I could not come up with the enemy. The cavalry and light guns were pushed on a few miles further in pursuit. The guns they (the enemy) principally used were drawn by horses, and with these he covered the retreat of those drawn by bullocks, withdrawing the latter at the first round from our artillery.

The country greatly favoured the retreat of the enemy, being everywhere open and unbroken, so that they could scatter, and sufficiently wooded to conceal their principal line of retreat.

The force will reach Mohumdee early to-morrow; it is about eleven miles from my camp.

A few fatal cases of sun-stroke occurred.

I have, &c.

*Camp, Mohumdee,
May 25, 1858, 4 P.M.*

SIR,

I ARRIVED at Mohumdee this morning. I found some of the enemy's cavalry in position in front of the town; but on driving them away, the town was discovered to be abandoned. One damaged gun was taken in the fort. The rebels retreated over the River Goomtee and into the jungles.

The town is now occupied by some of Coke's Infantry, and arrangements are being carried out for blowing up the fort.

I am in hopes of capturing some guns still, for information has reached me that the enemy did not succeed in bringing them all away from Bunnye.

I regret to say that these operations have cost, and are likely to cost, the lives of a considerable number of European soldiers struck down by the sun.

The main body of the rebels under their leaders retreated yesterday into the jungles, carrying their families with them.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General is pleased to publish for general information the following despatch from the Deputy-Adjutant-General of the Army, dated 26th May, 1858, forwarding a report by Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K.C.B., of the operations of the Azimgurh Field Force, with returns of casualties, and ordnance captured in the skirmish at Judgespore, on the 9th ultimo :—

No. 24.

Brigadier-General Sir Edward Lugard, K.C.B., Commanding Azimgurh Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

Camp, Judgespore, May 10, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to make the following report of the operations of the Azimgurh Field

Force under my command, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

My last despatch, dated the 25th ultimo, will have informed you of the result of the pursuit of Koer Sing's force, which I had directed under Brigadier Douglas, C.B., and of my having marched from Azimgurh on the 23rd idem to join the Brigadier in furtherance of the operations against the fugitives.

On the 30th ultimo, learning that alarm was felt for the safety of Arrah, I directed Brigadier Douglas, who had already crossed his troops over to the right bank, to move the 84th Foot, Sikh Cavalry, and two 9-pounder guns to that station without delay; and by making forced marches I reached Synha Ghat on the 2nd instant, and at mid-day of the 4th the whole of my force was crossed to the right bank, notwithstanding the prevalence of a strong easterly gale, which continually prevented the boats leaving the bank, and on the 5th instant I reached Arrah.

As my troops had not halted since quitting Azimgurh, and the marches had been of great length, I remained at Arrah on the 6th, to give them rest and to enable me to have an interview with the Commissioner of Patna and Brigadier Christie, who had come over on purpose to afford me all the assistance in their power in making my arrangements.

On the 7th I moved from Arrah by the railroad to Beheea, with the force as per margin,* leaving my heavy baggage, sick, &c., behind, with eight Infantry and 145 dismounted Sikh Cavalry for their protection, in addition to the party of the 35th Foot and Naval Brigade already holding the entrenched position, and taking nothing but provisions and tents, which in this season are absolutely necessary for the protection of the lives of Europeans, many having already fallen a sacrifice to coup-de-soleil.

So far as I could learn from the extremely scanty information procurable (every soul in the district being apparently against us), the rebels confidently calculated upon my moving upon them east by the direct road from Arrah, via Deena, or due south from Beheea, both of which led through dense jungle, and had been strongly entrenched. I therefore decided upon attacking from the west; but to provide against any attempt upon Arrah, I detached from Beheea on the morning of the 8th a moveable force, composed of a party of Seikh sowars, two 9-pounder guns, two companies 84th Foot, and one company Madras Rifles, under Major Carr, (M.R.), with instructions to take post a few miles from the town of Arrah on the Jugdespore road, and to be prepared to move as circumstances required. At the same time I despatched a patrol of cavalry and horse artillery towards Domnaon under Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, Military Train, to distract the attention of the enemy, and to conceal my ultimate plans, whilst I remained at Beheea threatening that road. A body of rebels made an attempt during the day to cross the line of railroad to my rear, but were driven back into the jungle with some loss.

* Artillery.—3 Royal Horse Artillery; 6 Cotter's Battery; 2 8-inch howitzers (R.A.); 2 5½-inch mortars (R.A.) Cavalry.—Military Train, 188; 4th Madras Cavalry, 100; 3rd Sikhs, 275; 12th Irregulars, 35; total, 598. Infantry.—Punjab Sappers, 57; 10th Foot, 582; 84th Foot, 585; Madras Rifles, 69; Ratray's Sikhs, 114. Total, 1407.

On the 9th I moved through the belt of jungle beyond Beheea, and circling due south came upon the west side of Jugdespore, where the country is pretty open, by the village of Hatumpore. Sowars had given timely notice of my approach to the parties posted at the entrenchments of Deleea and Duwa; so on my arrival opposite Jugdespore I found the whole rebel force prepared to defend their position. This decided me upon attacking the place at once, and as soon as the troops were formed, I advanced upon it in line; the 10th Foot and one company of Sikhs, with two 9-pounder guns on the right, the two 8-inch howitzers in the centre, and the 84th Foot, with a company of Madras Rifles and two 9-pounder guns on the left, the cavalry and horse artillery protecting my flanks and rear.

The rebels made a determined stand, first at the high embankments of a large tank; and, when driven back by the artillery fire, they held with much obstinacy the village and house of Jugdespore, but were speedily dislodged and driven through the jungle by the infantry. Some of the 84th Foot arrived first at Koer Singh's house, and turned a gun they found inside the enclosure, charged with grape, upon the enemy. This gun (with two others unfinished) had been recently constructed for the purpose of defending the position; it was formed of wood, with a copper tube, most skilfully made, and although unfit for much service, would have answered effectually for a short defence. A good deal of ammunition, tents, &c., were captured, with some store of grain. The rebels fled south through the jungle.

After posting four companies of European Infantry and one company of Sikhs, under Captain Norman, 10th Foot, to hold Jugdespore for the night, I encamped the remainder of my force on the plain between Hatumpore and Jugdespore.

My casualties, I am happy to say, amounted to only two men slightly wounded.

I have much pleasure in expressing my great approbation of the conduct of all the troops engaged.

No. 352 A.

BY desire of the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to forward, for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor-General, the enclosed copy of a report from Major W. Middleton, 17th Madras Native Infantry, relating the operations of the column under his command on the banks of the Jumna, near the village of Ghurrah, where a party of rebels was successfully surprised and destroyed.

2. The whole affair appears to his Excellency to be creditable to Major Middleton and the troops under his command.

No. 30.

Major W. Middleton, Commanding Moveable Column, to the Brigade-Major, Madras Troops, Futtelpore.

Camp, Ghatumpore, May 10, 1858.

SIR,

AGREEABLE to instructions received through Brigadier Carthew, from the Assistant-Adjutant-General's Office, Cawnpore, I have the honor to report that not being able to obtain any certain information regarding the movements of a large body of rebels that were threatening this place, I advanced the moveable column under my command to this station on the 8th instant, and upon inquiry I ascertained that about 200 rebel sepoys and a large body of villagers had, after plundering Lallpore, retired to the village of Ghurrah, on the bank of the Jumna, distant from here 12 miles, and were encamped there; and as they appeared to be the dread of this neighbourhood, I determined (with the assistance of a detachment of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, kindly placed at my disposal by Colonel Maxwell) to drive them across the Jumna.

2. On the morning of the 9th instant, I advanced with the force as per margin* towards the village of Ghurrah. On approaching the village I ordered H.M.'s 80th Regiment detachment and Madras Rifles to advance in skirmishing order with supports. The detachment 17th Regiment Madras Native Infantry forming the reserve, the detachment 8th Bengal Irregular Cavalry forming on the right of the skirmishers; the guns moving in rear of the skirmishers. While moving forward in this order, a number of men were seen escaping to the right, with the intention of crossing by a ford, but they were intercepted by the cavalry (the rebels opened fire upon them) and driven back. On the skirmishers approaching the bank of the river the rebels, after firing a few shots, fled, throwing their muskets and matchlocks into the river. Between three and four hundred precipitated themselves into the water, and tried to reach the opposite bank; the guns had by this time got into position and opened fire, which, together with the deadly fire of the infantry, proved so severe that very few reached the opposite shore. Three boats succeeded in escaping before the force came up; these, filled with rebels, opened fire upon us, but were soon silenced by guns and Enfields. They took refuge in the bottom of their boats until a favourable opportunity occurred of escape.

After clearing the river I ordered the retreat to be sounded. We remained under some trees during the remainder of the day, and at 5 P.M. marched for our encampment. It is quite impossible to make any estimate of the loss of the rebels, but I should suppose at the least there were 200 killed and wounded, while the loss on our side only amounted to one private of the 80th Regiment wounded (contusion), and one private, 80th Regiment, missing. I cannot conclude without bringing to the notice of the Brigadier commanding the valuable services rendered by Lieutenant Woodcock, 8th Irregular Bengal Cavalry; by Lieutenant Bridge, commanding Madras Artillery; by Captain Browne, commanding detachment Her Majesty's 80th Regiment; by Lieutenant Obbard, commanding detachment 17th Regiment Madras Native Infantry; by Captain Doveton, commanding Madras Detachment Rifles; and to all other officers and men under their com-

No. 33.

Major-General Sir S. Cotton, K.C.B., to Major H. W. Norman, Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp Kubbull, May 6, 1858.

SIR,

IN continuation of the report made by me to the Quarter master General of the Army, (copy of which is enclosed) announcing the assembly of a field force under my personal command, for service on the Eusuffzai frontier; I have the honor to state, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that, having been joined by the Commissioner, Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., the force marched from Nowshera on the 23rd ultimo.

2. On the morning of the 25th ultimo, the force reached the Eusuffzai frontier, village of Selim Khan (distant from Punjtar about 5 miles) and at the mouth of a pass by which the Punjtar valley is entered.

3. Reconnoitring parties, one under Captain Wright, Chief Staff Officer of the Force, and the other under Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., Commissioner, were at once sent forward, when it was found that the fortified town of Punjtar was only occupied by Mookurrub Khan, the Chief of the Khoodookheil tribe, with about 60 Sowars, the inhabitants having previously wholly evacuated the place.

4. Mookurrub Khan, apparently under the impression that the reconnoitring parties were closely followed up by our column, fled, leaving the town entirely unoccupied.

5. It was now determined to enter the Punjtar district; on the following morning, the force being told off for that purpose into three columns,* as shown in the margin, and making Selim Khan the base of operations, where our camp remained standing, I proceeded, in company with Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, with No. 1 Column, furnished with two days' provisions, so as to enter the Punjtar district by the Durrund Pass; whilst Colonel Renny, Her Majesty's 81st Regiment, proceeded in command of No. 2. Column, direct to Punjtar, with orders to destroy that place; No. 3 Column, under Major Allan, Her Majesty's 81st Regiment, remaining in charge of our standing camp at Selim Khan.

6. At one o'clock on the morning of 26th April, No. 1 Column under my command left camp for Chinglee, and at daylight entered the Durrund Pass which is a remarkably narrow defile of about 2 miles, between two hills. It is not formidable to disciplined troops, because the heights on either side have only to be crowned to cover the safe passage of the force; and the length of the pass is so limited that, if stoutly contested, it could not resist for more than a couple of hours. The enemy did well, therefore, to abandon it, and allow us to ascend unmolested into the elevated valley of Chinglee, or Upper Punjtar.

7. It may be as well to record here, that there is a well of spring water in the pass, at the foot of the last steep.

8. As soon as the column had reached the top of the Durrund Pass, it proceeded at once by the most direct route towards the village of Chinglee, which is the chief place in the Punjtar country. Chinglee contains about 1000 houses, very substantially built, and is an emporium for the wood trade with the plains of Eusuffzai. Here resided Moobarus Khan, uncle of Mookurrub Khan, of Punjtar, who had a substantial little fort of wood and stone. But no resistance was attempted. During the day it was observed that some of the village people with their property had endeavoured to secrete themselves in ravines in the mountain side overlooking the town of Chinglee, and the 9th Punjaub Infantry, under Captain Thelwall, was ordered by a circuitous route to ascend the mountain with a view to cutting off their retreat into the Chumla territory, whilst a party of the 98th Foot under Captain Cotton, my Aide-de-Camp, proceeded straight up the hill to dislodge them from their position. A few shots only were however exchanged, and the enemy hastily escaped, leaving a few killed by the 9th Punjaub Infantry.

During the day the troops were employed under the direction of Captain Hyde, Engineers, in destroying the fort, town, and crops, and at night were bivouacked on a ridge near Chinglee.

9. On the 27th April, the force having completed its work at Chinglee returned to Selim Khan, not by the Durrund Pass through which it came, but through the heart of the country by Swawai and Punjtar, for the importance of adding on this expedition to our knowledge of the independent hills was not lost sight of. On the formation of the force, I attached Lieutenant Taylor, of the engineers, a very able officer, to the staff of the field force, for the express purpose of making a survey of the country through which we passed, a copy of whose map I beg to forward with this report.

10. The direct road by which we returned from Chinglee to Selim Khan, proved to be of about equal length with the road via the Durrund Pass, but there can be no question that the Durrund line is the easiest for an army. From Selim Khan to Chinglee via Durrund, is an open plain, with one difficulty in it, viz., the Pass itself, which can be soon surmounted. From Selim Khan to Chinglee via Punjtar is chiefly through a broken country, winding among ups and downs of jungle and ravine, very embarrassing to a column, and at one point passing through a rocky defile called Turrulee (the bed of the stream which flows under Punjtar, which would be infinitely more formidable than the Durrund Pass, if disputed by the enemy.

11. Mookurrub Khan's horsemen and footmen were seen lurking about our line of march this day, but, apparently, only in the hopes of preying on stragglers from the force. On our return to Punjtar we found scarcely a vestige left of the five villages from which it took its name, so thoroughly had its demolition been completed by the troops of the 2nd column, employed under the direction of Lieutenant Tovey, Assistant Field Engineer.

12. We had now destroyed both Punjtar and Chinglee, and might have moved on to Suttana, but there was a stronghold in Mookurrub Khan's country which he had made over to the Syuds, and Hindustanees, and only resorted to it himself in the last extremity. The name of this place is Mungul Thanna. It stands on one of the chief spurs of the Mahabun mountain, and it was the head quarters of that Moulvie Enayut Allee, who so perseveringly endeavoured at Narinjee and other places, to raise Eusuffzai in rebellion during 1857. This Moulvie died about the beginning of April 1858, and his followers were said to have gone off from Mungul Thanna to Suttana, to place themselves under another Hindustanee Moulvie there. But Mookurrub Khan's family and property were reported to have been removed for safety to the vacant fort of Moulvie Enayut Allee at Mungul Thanna. It would therefore render the chastisement of the Khan more complete and memorable, if we could also destroy this last

* No. 1 Column.—Artillery: 2 9-pounder guns, and 2 24-pounder howitzers, of Captain Stallard's Light Field Battery; 1 3-pounder gun, and 1 12-pounder howitzer, of the Peshawar Military Train Battery. Cavalry: 100 sabres, 7th Irregular Cavalry; 200 sabres, Guide Cavalry; 30 sabres, Peshawar Light Horse. Infantry: 100 Sappers, under Captain Hyde; 260 rank and file, Her Majesty's 98th, under Major Peyton; 300 rank and file, 21st Native Infantry, under Major Milne; 400 rank and file, 9th Punjaub Infantry, under Captain Thelwall; 400 rank and file, 18th Punjaub Infantry, under Lieutenant Williamson; 300 rank and file, Guide Infantry, under Lieutenant Kennedy.

No. 2 Column.—Cavalry: 100 Sabres, 18th Irregular Cavalry, under Major Ryves. Infantry: 47 Sappers, under Lieutenant Tovey; 200 rank and file, Her Majesty's 81st, under Captain Brown; 200 rank and file, Kelat-i-Gilzie Regiment, under Lieutenant Rowcroft; 450 rank and file, 8th Punjaub Infantry, under Lieutenant Brownlow.

No. 3 Column.—Cavalry: 25 sabres, 7th Irregular Cavalry; 25 sabres, 18th Irregular Cavalry; 60 sabres, Guide Cavalry. Infantry: 105 Her Majesty's 81st Regiment; 10 Her Majesty's 98th Regiment; 155 of 21st Regiment, Native Infantry; 254 Kelat-i-Gilzie Regiment; 54 of 8th Punjaub Infantry; 137 of 9th Punjaub Infantry; 185 of 18th Punjaub Infantry; 76 Guide Infantry.

remaining fastness. By all accounts the road from Punjtara to Mungul Thanna was practicable, though difficult. The Totallie people were our allies, and would show us the road. The troops we had, were well suited to such an expedition. I therefore fully concurred with Colonel Edwardes, C.B., in the expediency of attacking Mungul Thanna.

13. On the 28th ultimo, the force was again divided into three columns as per margin,* the 1st column to act against Mungul Thanna; the 2nd column to proceed and halt at Punjtara, as a support to the 1st column; and the 3rd column to remain in reserve at Selim Khan, and to protect the camp which was left standing.

14. At 11 P.M., on the 28th April, the 1st column, under my own personal command, left the camp at Selim Khan, and pushed on by moonlight towards Mungul Thanna. The ascent of the hills was very arduous and toilsome, and half the column was ultimately left as an intermediate support at Dhukara, which is midway between Punjtara and Mungul Thanna. The advance reached the heights about 11 A.M., not a shot had been fired at us, as we laboured up the steep and wooded road, and on entering Mungul Thanna we found the fort abandoned, and every sign of a hasty and recent flight.

15. Mungul Thanna consists of two villages, Upper and Lower. The Lower contains 30 or 40 houses, and is occupied by Syuds, who are peaceable and inoffensive. Upper Mungul Thanna stands on a plateau in the midst of three crests, which are themselves outworks while held by the garrison, but, as soon as carried by an enemy, command the place. On this plateau stood first, the fortified house of Enayut Allee, with enclosures for Hindustanee followers; secondly, the fortified residence of Syud Abbas; and thirdly, Syud Abbas's citadel, a white masonry tower, the whole having about 30 or 40 houses clustered round them. These fortifications had been laboriously constructed of large stones and fine timber, and the Hindustanee fanatics and thieves who flocked around Syud Abbas, must have lived here in great enjoyment and security, and it was easy to understand the prestige that surrounded them.

16. The advanced troops bivouacked at Mungul Thanna for the night; the Sappers being engaged all night under Captain Hyde's instructions in mining the buildings. At daylight of the 30th April, the troops being drawn off, the mines were fired, and when the dust and smoke had cleared away, Mungul Thanna existed no longer.

17. Mungul Thanna is probably between 5000 and 6000 feet above the level of the sea. The trees grow thickly about it, and the scenery about it is much like that of Murree.

18. It would be possible to cross Mahabun from this point and descend upon Suttana in two marches; but all accounts agree that the road is more difficult even than that to Mungul Thanna.

19. On the 30th April, the whole of the troops at Mungul Thanna, Dhukara, and Punjtara, returned to their camp at Selim Khan, and there halted on the 1st May.

20. It now only remained to deal with the fanatic colony of Suttana, for which purpose the force under my command proceeded towards Kubbul, distant from Suttana about four miles. The force encamped at Kubbul on the morning of 3rd May.

21. By previous arrangements, Major Becher, the Deputy Commissioner of Hazara, moved down simultaneously to the left bank of the Indus with the troops as per margin,* with a view to crossing the river so as to co-operate with the force under my command, in making a general attack on the enemy's villages at Suttana, and on their Ghurree, or defensive enclosure near the village of Mundee.

22. Having on the evening of 3rd May reconnoitered the hills and towns of the enemy, and fixed on the following morning to make the general attack, Major Becher with his troops crossed the Indus early in the day, whilst the force under my command marched out of its encampment at Kubbul, towards the enemy's position, thus coming upon him from the eastward and southward simultaneously, the chief of the Umb territory, Jehandad Khan our ally, having occupied the hills northward of Upper Suttana, and by so doing completed the general co-operation.

23. As we approached the Lower Suttana, the column of skirmishers detached as per margin† were directed to crown and hold the heights above the several villages of the enemy. These with other troops, hereafter mentioned, moved up the mountain at no less than six different points.

24. During the progress of these troops up the steep and rugged sides of the mountain, I proceeded with Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., towards Upper Suttana, and was there joined by Major Becher, with the 6th Punjaub Infantry under Lieutenant Quin, and 2nd Sikhs, under Captain Harding, which had just crossed the river. These corps with the Guide Infantry, under Lieutenant Kennedy, proceeded to assist in holding the heights above the town. The Sappers and Miners, under Captain Hyde, of the Engineers, were set to work to destroy all the towns. A wing of Her Majesty's 81st Regiment, under Colonel Renny, was, during these operations, placed in the town of Upper Suttana.

I could from this spot observe the several columns on the hills, and was enabled from thence to direct the operations generally.

25. The 18th Punjaub Infantry, under Lieutenant Williamson having, without opposition, succeeded in reaching the crest of the mountain above Lower Suttana, and having moved northward along the same, and also on a pathway on the side of the mountain in two divisions, came in contact with the enemy (the fanatics) on the height called Shah Noorkee Lurree, where they were strongly posted in a small village, and in a stockade, which position was very desperately defended. Lieutenant Williamson and his gallant corps, the 18th Punjaub Infantry, drove the enemy from this height, having killed 36 on the hill top, and wounded many more. Lieutenant Vandergucht, of that corps, was wounded in a hand-to-hand encounter, in the thigh; a subadar and 4 sepoys being killed, and 15 wounded. The 18th Punjaub Infantry, for the first time in action with the enemy since being embodied, thus highly distinguished itself, under its gallant Commander, Lieutenant Williamson, who reports most favorably on the spirited conduct of the European Officers of his corps, viz., Lieutenant Vandergucht, Lieutenant O'Malley and Lieutenant Green, Her Majesty's 70th Regiment, temporarily attached to the corps. The 19th Punjaub Infantry, under Captain Thelwall, ably supported the attack of the 18th Punjaub Infantry, on the enemy's position. The 6th Punjaub Infantry, under Lieutenant Quin, having ascended the northern spur of the range, took the enemy's position in rear, and thus co-operating with the 18th Punjaub Infantry drove the Hindustanee fanatics towards the latter regiment. The conduct of this regiment, under Lieutenant Quin, was also admirable. The attack was unhesitating and vigorous, and speedily completed the defeat of the enemy. The Detachments, Her Majesty's 98th Regiment, under Major Peyton, 2nd Sikhs, under Captain Harding, also Captain Brougham's Mountain Train Battery, which had several opportunities of making very successful practice in the various positions of the enemy, were all most useful, and efficiently performed the duties allotted to them respectively, during the operations.

26. The position of the enemy having been carried at all points; the fanatics compelled to retreat precipitately in the hills, with very severe loss; and the whole of their villages being destroyed; the Commissioner, Colonel Edwardes, C.B., considered that adequate punishment had been inflicted on them, and called upon me to withdraw the troops, not deeming it expedient to raise against the British Government, by further pursuit of the enemy into the hills, the Judoon and other independent hill tribes who had naturally become excited by the presence of so large a British force in and amongst their mountains.

27. In the general withdrawal of the troops, the detachments, Her Majesty's 98th, under Major Peyton, and Guide Infantry, under Lieutenant Kennedy, rendered excellent service in covering the retirement, in presence of the hill tribes, who, during the day, had assembled in considerable number, and had assumed a threatening attitude on the surrounding heights; and here the practice of the Enfield rifles of the 98th Regiment was most effective, leaving, I am informed, a lasting impression, on the minds of the hill people, as to the vast superiority of this weapon over their own matchlocks.

28. The hill tribes, with some few of the Hindustanee fanatics, having closely followed up the troops during their descent from the hills, I employed with very great advantage two 5½-inch mortars, under Captain Stallard, to assist in covering the retirement of the troops. The practice of these mortars was very effective, and thoroughly arrested the further progress of the enemy.

29. The whole of the force, it being late in the day, returned to camp, and on the following morning, 5th May, on the requisition of the Commissioner, marched to Kubbul.

30. These operations, having been so completely successful, enabled the civil authorities to come to a most satisfactory settlement with the Judoon tribes, whose Chiefs ratified a treaty, by which they were bound to expel from their territories any of the remaining Hindustanee fanatics who attempted to re-establish themselves among them, as also to protect the allies of the British Government, viz., the inhabitants of the villages of Kyr and Kubbul, and Jehundad Khan, the Chief of Umb, who had rendered us great and valuable assistance during the above operations.

31. Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., having notified to me that the objects of the campaign having been fully attained, and that the services of the troops were no longer required, I forthwith directed the return of the force to Nowshera, where, on arrival, the troops will be sent to their respective quarters.

32. It now becomes my pleasing duty to record, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and of the Government, my acknowledgment of the valuable services rendered by the various civil and military officers who have accompanied the force under my command.

I am deeply indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., Commissioner of Peshawur, for his very able co-operations and advice, which have enabled me to bring the operations of this short campaign to such a satisfactory termination. I beg specially to recommend this officer's most important services to the favourable consideration of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and of Government.

I also desire to bring to notice the excellent service performed by Major Becher, Deputy Commissioner of Hazara, who commanded the Hazara field force, during the recent action at Suttana. The disposition made by Major Becher of his troops was indeed admirable, and contributed in no small degree to the success of the general attack made on the enemy's position. My warmest thanks are due to Major Becher, for the very able manner in which he commanded the Hazara force in the operations against Suttana.

To Colonel Renny, Her Majesty's 81st, who commanded the 1st Brigade; and to Major Allen, Her Majesty's 81st, who commanded the 2nd Brigade of Infantry; to Lieutenant-Colonel Mulcaster, 7th Irregular Cavalry, who commanded the cavalry force in camp; and to Captain Brougham, who commanded the artillery, my cordial thanks are particularly due, for the able and energetic support they rendered me in their respective commands.

To the regimental Commanders, Major Peyton, commanding detachment Her Majesty's 98th; Captain Brown, commanding Her Majesty's 81st; Captain Stallard, commanding Light Field Battery; Captain Fulman, in charge of the mortars; Lieutenant Butt, commanding Hazara Mountain Train Battery; Lieutenant Cordner, commanding detachment Peshawur Mountain Train Battery; Major Ryves, commanding detachment 18th Irregular Cavalry; Major Milne, and subsequently, on that officer's illness, Lieutenant Brown, commanding Head-Quarter Detachment 21st Regiment Native Infantry; Lieutenant Rowcroft, commanding Head-Quarter Detachment Kelat-i-Gilzie Regiment; Lieutenant Quin, Lieutenant Brownlow, Captain Thelwall, Captain Blagrove, and Lieutenant Williamson, commanding respectively 6th, 8th, 9th, 12th, and 18th Punjaub Infantry; Lieutenant Kennedy, commanding corps of Guides; Lieutenant Lockwood, commanding detachment of Peshawur Light Horse; I have to offer my best thanks, for the efficient manner in which they commanded their respective corps: the same are due to the officers and men of the whole force, whose excellent conduct and discipline in the field deserve my most unqualified approbation.

To the Engineer Officers, Captain Hyde, commanding detachment of Sappers and Miners; Lieutenant Tovey, Her Majesty's 24th Regiment, Assistant Engineer, Peshawur, doing duty with the same; Lieutenant Henderson and Lieutenant Taylor, whose valuable survey of the country through which the force proceeded, is herewith forwarded, I feel particularly indebted, for the ability and zeal which they have displayed in the performance of their professional duties.

I beg to return my best thanks to the Staff Officers of the Force, Captain Wright, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Chief Staff Officer of the Force; Lieutenant Greaves, Her Majesty's 70th Regiment, who acted as Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General to the Field Force; Captain Cooper, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General; Lieutenant Whigham, Adjutant, Peshawur Light Horse, who officiated in the Quartermaster-General's Department; Captain Jones, Deputy Judge Advocate-General; Captain L. S. Cotton, my Aide-de-Camp; Captain Fane, Peshawur Light Horse, my Orderly Officer; Captain Tonnochy, Her Majesty's 81st Regiment, and Captain Ellerman, Her Majesty's 98th Regiment, who officiated as Brigade Major to the 1st and 2nd Infantry Brigades respectively; Lieutenant Tierney, Staff Officer of Artillery; Lieutenant Osborne, 7th Irregular Cavalry, Staff Officer of Cavalry; Lieutenant White, 12th Punjaub Infantry, Staff Officer to the Hazara Field Force, under Major Becher; all of whom performed the Staff duties of the force with much zeal and efficiency.

To Surgeon Mann, 5th Light Cavalry, who accompanied the force as field surgeon, my especial obligations are due for the skilful arrangements made by him for the care and comfort of the sick.

I have also to state that Mr. Sub-Conductor Cooper conducted the duties of the Commissariat Department much to my satisfaction.

33. In conclusion, I beg to submit for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and of Government, a map of the country in which the operations above detailed have taken place; and also a return showing the number of casualties in the field force in the action of Suttana.

I have, &c.

SYDNEY COTTON, Major-General,
Commanding Peshawur Division.

P.S.—I have the honor to annex for submission to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, a copy of an order which I issued to the field force before breaking it up, and which was called for by the excellent conduct of the whole of the troops during the period they were in the field.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that, on the requisition of the Commissioner of Peshawur, Colonel Edwardes, C.B., and under the sanction of Government, an expeditionary force, composed as per annexed statement, has been concentrated on the left bank of the Cabool River, opposite to Nowshera. The force under my personal command will march to-morrow morning towards the Eusuffzai frontier.

It is proposed by the civil authorities to enter the Punjar valley in view to destroying certain villages which have afforded shelter to a fanatical Moulvie, who caused much annoyance to our frontier villages during the last hot season. Having effected this object, and overcome any opposition which may offer itself in that valley, the force will return to Eusuffzai, and proceed, via Topi, to attack and destroy the fort and village of Suttana, a nest of fanatic Hindoostanees, situate on the right bank of the Indus opposite Hazara.

No. 272.

THE services of the force under the command of Major-General Sir Sydney Cotton, K.C.B., being no longer required in the district, the troops will return to their quarters under orders which will be communicated to corps respectively.

In bidding adieu to the officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers, European and Native of this highly disciplined column, the Major-General offers to all his unqualified thanks for the ready and cheerful obedience to his wishes in the discharge of duties frequently under difficult and trying circumstances of fatigue and exposure.

To the orderly and steady conduct of the soldiers, mainly, must be attributed their efficiency for work and healthiness in a very considerable heat of climate: the absence of crime in this force has been most remarkable; and, when an enemy had to be encountered, the troops displayed their wonted gallantry.

The force now returns to its quarters under the assurance of Lieutenant-Colonel Edwardes, C.B., Commissioner, (to whom the Major-General offers his best thanks for his very valuable co-operation at all times,) that the objects of Government in assembling it, have been most fully and satisfactorily accomplished. Taking ample guarantee for the future from the border tribes, the Eusuffzai district has now been placed in an unprecedented state of security, and it is gratifying to think that whilst this all-important object has been gained by the chastisement of the real enemies of the British Government, the well-disposed and inoffensive have, by a wise discrimination on the part of the civil authorities, been permitted to remain in the undisturbed enjoyment of their ancient rights and privileges.

IN forwarding, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, a copy of a despatch, dated the 25th instant, from Lieutenant-Colonel E. B. Hale, C.B., of Her Majesty's 82nd Regiment, reporting the circumstances attending the investment of the jail of Shahjehanpore by the enemy on the 3rd idem, and his successful defence of that post, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to beg you will inform his Lordship, that the Lieutenant-Colonel hardly does justice to himself in his report of this defence, which was conducted by him with prudence and skill, and consequently with trifling loss.

I am to add that Lieutenant-Colonel Hale, although he makes no mention of the fact, was himself wounded by a musket bullet in the leg, from the effects of which he has not yet recovered.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that agreeably to instructions received from the chief of the staff, I marched on the morning of the 2nd with the force detailed in general order of the 1st instant, from the camp Azeezgunge, for the purpose of occupying the jail in cantonments at this place as a military post. I pitched my camp in a tope of trees adjoining the jail, as there was no shade inside the walls, and immediately proceeded to put the jail in a state of defence by placing the guns (two 24-pounders and two 9-pounders) in position and digging a ditch along the south wall which was much broken, and at the same time storing my ammunition and commissariat stores inside the entrenchment. On the morning of the 3rd, I was informed by Mr. Money, of the civil service, that a spy had come in to say, the enemy were within four miles of this on the Mohumdee road. I immediately directed the camp to be struck and every thing taken inside the intrenchment, at the same time ordering out four companies of the 82nd Regiment, with a view to protect the camp, while it was being moved. After proceeding about 200 yards, I ordered the men to halt while I went on to reconnoitre, when I perceived the enemy's cavalry appearing on the brow of the hill across the Kunhout river. After a time they moved to my left, and, crossing the river, came down in great force, when, being informed that the whole of my camp or nearly so was inside the intrenchment, I retired the 82nd inside also. Lieutenant De Kantzow, who was posted with his cavalry on my right flank, gallantly charged the enemy, but, seeing him greatly out-numbered, and my orders being to act strictly on the defensive, I ordered him in also. The enemy quickly brought guns to bear upon the jail, but fortunately did very little damage; they kept up a constant fire upon us night and day with their guns and matchlock men, while their cavalry patrolled all round, until the arrival of Brigadier-General Jones with his force on the 11th, when they were quickly dispersed.

I have, &c.

No. 43.

Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K.C.B., Commanding Azimghur Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

Camp, Jugdespore, May 14th, 1858.

SIR,

IN continuation of my Despatch, dated 10th instant, I have the honor to report, for his Excellency's information, that, in consequence of intelligence reaching me that evening of the probable arrival, at Peeroo, of Colonel Corfield with troops from Sasseram, to co-operate with me, I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Longden, Chief of the Staff, to proceed the following morning across the open country, west of the jungle, with horse artillery and cavalry, under Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, Military Train, to reconnoitre the country in that direction, and endeavour to communicate with Colonel Corfield, to whom I had written on the 4th instant, after crossing the Ganges, but of whose movements, up to this time, I had only heard indirectly and vaguely.

During the morning of the 11th, the special Commissioner with my camp, Mr. Macdonald, Civil Service, received what he conceived trustworthy intelligence, that the rebels who had been strongly entrenching themselves near Duleepore, and at the Bungalow at Chitoura, were preparing to de-camp; and as I deemed it highly important that a blow should be struck before they separated, I immediately advanced through the jungle with the force as per margin,* carrying nothing but spare ammunition and soldier's rations; elephants laden with pucks of water accompanied the party; and to this arrangement I mainly ascribe the success of the operation, and the safety of the troops; for the heat was beyond all description, scarcely a breath of wind penetrated the dense jungle, and many old and tried soldiers sank exhausted.

At the same time, I communicated, by express my intentions to Lieutenant-Colonel Longden, who, receiving my letter at Peeroo, to which place he had pushed on, leaving Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson and his party to guard the west, at once applied to Colonel Corfield for 2 9-pounder guns under Lieutenant Franklin, Royal Artillery, and 100 of Rattray's Sikh Sowars, and proceeded to watch the south-western portion of the jungle; whilst Colonel Corfield got the remainder of his force under arms, consisting of about 750 European Infantry, 110 Naval Brigade, with 2 9-pounder guns, 1 5½-inch mortar, and 60 Sikh Battalion, as per copy of report annexed.

At Duleepore, the rebels first attempted to oppose our progress, and, after being routed by the line of skirmishers, which extended well into the jungle, and a few discharges of grape, they spread round, right and left, through the thickest part of the jungle, where our soldiers could scarcely penetrate, and attacked the rear flanks of the column, but the steadiness and quick fire of the companies of the 10th Foot in support, speedily drove them back, and we pushed on to the Bungalow; where another and more determined stand was made, with, however, the same result, except that the loss of the enemy was more severe. About this time firing was heard to the south, which we subsequently ascertained was caused by an attack made by the troops under Colonel Corfield, upon a party of the rebels who had established themselves in the villages at the southern limit of the jungle. Colonel Corfield, after driving the enemy from the villages and setting them on fire, returned to his camp at Peeroo, and it was not until the following day that I learnt of his co-operation, when I moved my party to the vicinity of his camp, as the heat in the jungle was unbearable.

The rebels suffered severely, as shown by several masses of their dead lying about, the extensive cordon of pickets, with which I surrounded our position during the night, preventing their being removed.

My casualties amounted to one officer, 10th Foot (Lieutenant St. John), shot through the left arm; one soldier of the same regiment killed, and five wounded; also three men of the Madras Artillery wounded. After driving the enemy from their position at Duleepore, I sent the Seikh Cavalry, under Lieutenant Jennings, through the jungle, by a path to the east, to cut off any fugitives that might attempt to escape in that direction; this party re-joined me at the Bungalow late in the evening.

A strong body of the rebels, said to be under Ummur Sing, broke from the jungle after our forcing their position at Duleepore, and attacked the cavalry and horse artillery, under Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, but were driven back with severe loss; another body of about 300 showed themselves at the edge of the jungle to the south-west, but retired on Lieutenant-Colonel Longden moving up his guns.

On the 13th, I halted at Peeroo, having previously sent back to Jugdespore, for provisions, but, learning on that evening that the rebels had again shown themselves in force at Jugdespore, attacked our position, and threatened our camp, I marched back on the morning of the 14th, since when I learned that the main bodies of the rebels lie concealed in the thickest parts of the extensive jungle, whence, in consequence of the extreme heat of the weather, and the exhaustion experienced by the troops as soon as they enter the thick jungle, I fear it will be most difficult for me to expel them with the means at my disposal.

I am of opinion that the only measure to be adopted for clearing this district of the rebels, or indeed for getting at them in the jungle, is to cut broad roads through it in several directions. I have already communicated with the civil authorities on the subject.

I beg you will assure his Excellency, that the exertions made by the force under my command, to ensure the success of our operations, have been of no ordinary kind; without tents, or anything but the clothes on their backs, they (one and all) have been exposed to the inclemency of the weather, in the several attempts to accomplish the object in view, viz., the destruction of the rebel force. No troops but the two seasoned regiments now with me could, I feel confident, have gone through all the fatigue and exposure to which they have been subjected; indeed the Casualty Return of Colonel Corfield's Force, which simply operated for a few hours before sunset, will prove my assertion, seven (7) men having died of coup-de-soleil in that time; and further, that out of a party of 110 men of the 6th Foot, which left their camp with Lieutenant-Colonel Longden on the 13th instant, to meet the convoy already mentioned, as ordered from Jugdespore, full sixty (60) men fell out, most of whom had to be carried into their camp.

Lieutenant-Colonel Fenwick, commanding 10th Foot, fell, I regret to say, from the effects of a sun-stroke, near Duleepore,* and the immediate presence of the Doctor alone prevented a fatal result. This officer will not be able to resume his duties again without a change to Europe.

I have, &c.

EDWARD LUGARD, Brigadier-General,
Commanding Azimgurh Field Force.

No. 44.

Colonel T. B. Corfield, Commanding S. P. Shahabad, to the Chief of the Staff, with Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard.

Sir, Camp Peeroo, May 12, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier-General Sir Edward Lugard, K.C.B., that yesterday, after I had detached my cavalry, and two 9-pounder guns of the Royal Artillery with you, on hearing firing in the direction of Juttowra, I immediately proceeded with the force noted in the margin,* towards the jungle. After advancing about two miles, and just at the entrance of the jungle, the enemy opened fire upon me, on which I advanced three companies of infantry in skirmishing order, and opened fire with my guns.

After considerable opposition, I brought up my right shoulder, driving the rebels towards my left, in the direction you had proceeded in with the cavalry and artillery: all firing on my right then ceased, as I had arranged with you that I should not advance into the jungle, unless I heard long continued firing in the Juttowra direction. I then halted to watch the outlets of the jungle on this side; about half an hour afterwards, the rebels again appeared in force, moving from our left front towards the position they first occupied. On this I advanced, and reinforcing the skirmishers, closed round the village and stormed it. The rebels then retreated into other villages close at hand. I pursued them steadily, burning each village as I took it.

At sunset I recalled my skirmishers, and was returning to camp, when the Brigadier-General's message to advance on Juttowra reached me. As night was coming on, and my men had had no food all day, I was unable to comply with his orders.

I have the honor to inclose a return of my casualties; it is impossible to estimate correctly the loss of the rebels, but I have every reason to believe it must have been heavy, more particularly on my left.

I beg to state, that I have every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of the officers and men engaged, both with the Infantry under Major Stratton, Her Majesty's 6th Regiment, and the Indian Naval Brigade, under Lieutenant Carew, who worked their guns admirably. The small detachment of Seikhs under Lieutenant Earle behaved with their usual gallantry.

The Deputy Magistrate of Sassaram, Mr. E. Baker, accompanied me, and was of the greatest assistance; and Lieutenant Staunton, Engineers, who, in the absence of my Staff Officer, kindly consented to officiate as my Orderly Officer, was of the greatest use to me.

SIR, Camp near Baroda, 5 June, 1858.

I BEG you will lay before his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the accompanying report by Major Grimes, of his operations against the Kolies of a village named Dubbora, belonging to the Quickwar.

2. These men, when called on to surrender their arms, quitted their village, and, having taken up strong positions in the Hills, sent a threatening letter to the Political Agent, Major Whitelock.

3. A Quickwar's horseman proceeding on service with a note, was shot by these Kolies, and it became absolutely necessary to attack them.

4. Major Grimes' report will show how strong was the country, and how gallantly all obstacles were overcome by the officers and men.

5. Dubbora is a notoriously turbulent village, and the severe punishment inflicted on its inhabitants, when sheltered in their mountain fastnesses, will have an immense effect throughout the country.

6. I beg to be allowed to bring to the favorable notice of his Excellency the valuable service performed on this occasion by Major Grimes and the officers and men under his command.

No. 49.

Major Grimes, Commanding Mahee Kanta Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Northern Division of the Bombay Army.

SIR, Camp Dubbora, 1st June, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier-General Commanding the Division, that, about mid-day on the 28th ultimo, at Edur (where I had proceeded at the request of Major Whitelock to confer with him on our future operations, having left the two columns under my command at Walassna Kheraloo), I was informed by that officer, that the inhabitants of Dubbora were in rebellion, and it was necessary for me to proceed against them. I immediately sent orders to both columns to march on this place that night, so as to arrive here at daylight, in hopes by this sudden move to have been in time to prevent them taking to the jungle and hills. I joined the Head-Quarter column that evening, and reached this place at daylight, on the morning of the 29th, having been joined by the Kheraloo column on the march, and found the town completely deserted; but Lieutenant Le Geyt reported that the Kolies were posted in the jungles at the foot of the Taringa hills, about two miles to the right of my position, and had fired on his party, whom I had detached to reconnoitre. A similar party of the Guzerat Horse had gone round to the left, under Captain Anderson, 11th Regiment, who kindly volunteered his services, and which were placed at my disposal by Major Whitelock. The day being by this time advanced, and the men fatigued by a long march, I did not deem it expedient with the little information I had as to their whereabouts, to attempt to enter the jungle and hills at that time, and therefore encamped for the day, during which I got all the information I could regarding the hills, and the probable place the Kolies would locate themselves in; it was supposed that they would go into these strongholds of Taringa, a fortified position on the top of the hills, and about 4 miles from my camp, and having during the evening examined the nature of the hills and jungle, in company with Major Whitelock, as far as practicable, and during which we came on the body of one of his sowars whom he had despatched in the morning with a note to the Tymba Chief, and who had been cruelly murdered by the Kolies. I determined to attack them the following morning. I accordingly started at half-past four, A.M., on the 30th, with my whole force, excepting double guards left for the protection of the camp, and advanced through the jungles towards the hills, with four companies, 2nd Grenadiers, under Lieutenants Law and Macdonnell in skirmishing order. Finding on this side, that the jungles were clear of the rebels, though we came to a large encampment lately vacated by them, the four companies, under Lieutenant Law, advanced over the hill. I ordered Captain Conybeare's Battery and one Company 2nd Grenadiers to return to camp, and proceeded myself with the Mountain Train, the company of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, and 3 companies, 2nd Grenadiers, round the left of the hills, and advanced up the direct road to the Dubbora gate of the Taringa strongholds, and here detached Lieutenant Bell to skirmish to the left, with two companies. The road soon became so steep that I had to leave our horses and the mountain train under the protection of a portion of Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, and a company 2nd Grenadiers. I pushed up the hill, hearing Lieutenants Law and Macdonnell's parties engaged on my right front. On reaching the top of the first range, I met Lieutenant Law, and found the Kolies had been surprised, and were strongly posted in a deep ravine underneath, and to the left of the Dubbora gate of Taringa, which was now plainly visible, and within range of our rifles; and, the road up to it being in many parts completely commanded by us, the retreat of the main body of them into it was cut off, though the gateway was still held by some of them. Lieutenant Bell's party came upon them from the west, and the only retreat for them was round a large and almost inaccessible hill, and here it was that the greatest loss was inflicted on them. The three parties under Lieutenants Law, Macdonnell, and Bell followed them up closely, over immensely difficult ground, and under a very heavy fire, and through a dense jungle, in a manner that excited the admiration of myself and Major Whitelock, who accompanied me through the whole of the operations, and to whom I am much indebted for the assistance and information, which, from his local knowledge of the place, and his position, he was enabled to afford me. At this time, finding the day fast advancing, and that some hours would be required to get up the mountain mortars to shell Taringa, and as there did not appear to be any great number of the enemy in it, I advanced on the gateway with a section of the Company, Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, and a few Grenadiers I had with me. The Enfield Rifles having cleared the gateway, as the first shot from them brought down a man standing sentry on the top of it, at a distance of about 800 yards, which must have astonished them, and made them shy of letting us too near them, we reached the gate in about 20 minutes, and took possession of it; but, finding the interior of the Fort was still occupied by a party of Kolies, we held that, until we were joined by a Company of the Grenadiers which I had sent for; and on their arrival Major Whitelock and myself advanced through the stronghold, driving the Kolies before us, until we arrived at the famous temples of Taringa, the Head Quarters of the Force. The day was now far advanced, and the heat very great, and the men done up, and to pursue was impossible. I had previously desired

Lieutenants Law and Macdonnell to return, and therefore sounded the assembly, and returned to camp, having, I hope, taught the Kolies a lesson, and proved to them that they are not safe from us even in their wildest fastnesses, and we effected this with only two rank and file 2nd Grenadiers severely wounded, and one Guzerat and Irregular Horseman slightly, whereas the loss inflicted on the enemy could not, I think, from the reports of the officers in command, have been less than 80 killed and wounded, and of them, 25 or 30 were certainly killed, ten were taken prisoners, two of them wounded, and are now in my camp, but will be sent to Major Whitelock, in a day or two. I beg to annex the reports of the officers in separate commands, for, after we were once in the hills, communication of orders was impossible, and each officer was left to himself in a great measure; and I have great gratification in reporting my entire approval of the manner in which they carried out my plans. Nothing could have exceeded the zeal and courage of all ranks, and their steadiness under fire, and noble exertions over almost inaccessible country, deserve my warmest thanks.

I beg you will do me the favour to bring prominently to the notice of the Brigadier-General the names of Lieutenants Law, Macdonnell, and Bell, of the 2nd Grenadiers, to whose exertions I am in a great measure indebted for the success that has attended us. My staff officer, Lieutenant Browning, Her Majesty's 89th Regiment, was a great assistance to me; and my thanks are also due to Assistant-Surgeon McAlister, for the prompt assistance he rendered, and the arrangements he made in his department in every way.

The Casualty Roll is herewith enclosed.

By desire of Major Whitelock, I have destroyed the town of Dubbora, and propose marching on Oondinee to-morrow morning, unless I get further information where the Kolies have gone to. They have I believe left the Taringa hills entirely, and gone to the North East, but it is very difficult to get any information regarding them.

*Lieutenant J. C. Law, Commanding Head Quarters
2nd Grenadier Regiment N.I. to the Brigade-
Major of the Mahee Kanta Field Force.*

SIR, Camp Dubbora, 31st May, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report for the information of the officer commanding the field force.

2. On the arrival yesterday morning of the force at the edge of the jungle round the Taringa hills, I received the instructions of the commanding officer to extend two companies in skirmishing order, to support them with two companies, and, leaving the remainder of the regiment under Lieutenants Bell and Blair as a guard to the guns, to take the jungle and hills which lay before us. I requested Lieutenant Macdonnell, the Adjutant, to lead the right skirmishers, taking the left myself, there being no other European officers present. We advanced through dense jungle, and, after crossing the first and lowest of the ranges of hills, called the Talinge, we were fired on by the enemy. We still advanced, driving them before us, and firing with good effect, whenever a man showed himself. I learnt from the smart firing on my right that Lieutenant Macdonnell was also engaged and advancing. On our progress we passed two or three deserted camps of the Bheels, the cattle wandering about; clothes, food, cooking pots, hookahs, &c. &c., strewed on the ground; showing how they had been taken by surprise. My left was here prolonged by a company of skirmishers under Lieutenant Bell.

3. The jungle was so dense and the ground so broken that it was often times impossible to see more than 10 or 12 of the men at a time and some men of the supports being too eager to get forward became mixed up with the skirmishers in front. On the second range of hills the fire became hotter and here I lost private Lyenac Luknac, No. 5 company, shot through the chest. Still advancing, we took a very steep hill, on which the retiring enemy kept up a smart fire, by which an excellent non-commissioned officer Naik, Kurrum Sing was shot through the body. Advancing from this position, we climbed the highest and steepest hill in the range; the ascent of which was extremely difficult, and could not have been accomplished but for the mutual aid which officers and men gave each other. On the summit I found Lieutenant Macdonnell and his skirmishers, and we observed together the enemy in flight far away and down the hill.

4. Our men being now thoroughly tired, and blown by the steep ascent, and there remaining no chance of coming up with the Bheels, we retraced our steps.

5. The whole position chosen by those Bheels was immensely strong, and if held by men capable of offering an organized resistance, such a weak force as ours could not have advanced 500 yards, our whole line of skirmishers not numbering 150 men.

6. Once in the dense jungle, each officer was obliged to act somewhat independently, as sometimes a thick jungle, and at others a precipitous hill, separated his men from those on his right or left, and I therefore beg to forward for the commanding officer's information the reports of Lieutenants Macdonnell and Bell; the former places the loss of the enemy at 20, Mr. Bell reports 12, and in my immediate front perhaps 8 or 10 fell, making their total loss at about 60 killed and wounded by the line of skirmishers, but accuracy on this point and on such ground is impossible; three prisoners, of whom one was wounded, were brought in by Lieutenant Bell. On our side, a naik and a private are, I fear, mortally wounded; these were of my party, but I am happy to have to report no casualties amongst the skirmishers on my right and left, on whom a sharp fire was kept up, and the ground they advanced on was well contested from every favorable spot, and these were not few.

7. I trust that I may not be considered presuming (commanding the regiment as I did under fortuitous circumstances only) in wishing to bring to notice the admirable manner in which Lieutenant Macdonnell led his men; so quickly and steadily as to press close on the heels of the retreating Bheels, four of whom during this advance fell to his own rifle, and a fifth subsequently. Mr. Bell, too, was ever to the front, leading and encouraging his men. To the capital leading of these officers may be attributed the really excellent conduct of the men; these were cool and eager, and managed to climb over places and push through jungle which, under other circumstances and to men less willing, might be called inaccessible.

8. Lieutenants Macdonnell and Bell particularize Jemadars Nagoo Chowhan and Paharsing. I also noticed the good behaviour of these two native officers, and would add, for the notice of the commanding officer, the names of Soobedar Sirdar Bahadur Gunga Sing, Jemadar Nowmactur, and Havildar Pearee Lall, as setting examples of coolness and zeal.

SIR, Camp at Dubbora, May 30, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major Grimes, commanding field force, that agreeably to his orders, I marched shortly after daylight with the squadron of the Guzerat Irregular Horso under my command, and took up a position clear of the jungle, to the west of the Taringa Hills, with a small hill in my rear, from which I obtained a view of the country round.

Shortly after the firing commenced, I saw a horseman, accompanied by a man on foot, making for the hill when the firing was going on. I sent a jemadar and ten sowars to intercept them and bring them to me. On seeing the party approaching they tried to make their escape, and succeeded in getting into some thick jungle, &c. Some of the sowars coming up, attacked them; the man on foot was killed, and the other wounded and made a prisoner, but not before they had wounded one sowar and one horse. I saw no people from the hills trying to make their escape, and returned to camp with the prisoner at 1 P.M.

I have, &c.

Lieutenant Stanley Bell, 2nd Grenadiers, to the Adjutant, 2nd Grenadiers.

SIR, Camp Dubbora, May 30, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report that, according to the orders I received from Major Grimes, I threw out No. 7 Company in skirmishing order, supported by No. 8 Company, and advanced towards the base of the hills on the left of our position. On arriving at these hills, having met with no opposition, I heard heavy firing on my right, and at once ordered the men under my command to skirmish over the hills so as to join the centre skirmishers. The ascent was most arduous, and in several places almost impassable, the men being dragged up one after another. On reaching the top of the hill the enemy were discovered in a ravine below me, and, hastily forming up a few men, I advanced to drive them from this position, which was done after a short but determined resistance. The enemy kept up a heavy fire of matchlocks, and, from the loudness of the reports, I fancy that they must have had one or two ginsgalls. Every rock and tree was most obstinately defended, but in every case the enemy were utterly routed. I took three prisoners armed with swords, one of which I could have shot with my revolver, but preferred taking him alive, in hopes of gaining some valuable information from him. At this period I joined the left of the centre skirmishers under Lieutenant S. C. Law, 2nd Grenadiers, and advancing together, we drove the enemy before us.

The loss of the men opposed to me must at least have been from ten to twelve killed, and from twenty to twenty-five wounded, which result was accomplished with no loss on my side. Two men were severely contused from falling down rocks.

I cannot conclude without bringing to the Commanding Officer's notice the very gallant way in which the men under my command behaved; and I would particularly mention Subadar Pahar Sing, who joined me with the left of the centre skirmishers.

I have, &c.

STANLEY BELL, Lieutenant,
2nd Grenadiers.

the Guzerat Irregular Horse, to the Major of Brigade Field Force.*

SIR, Dubbora, June 1, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the officer commanding the field force, that, in accordance with orders received on the 29th ultimo, I marched from camp with a squadron of the Guzerat Irregular Horse on the 30th at daylight, and took up a position to the south of the Taringa Hills, on the skirts of the thick jungle which surrounds them. I placed my videttes and sent out patrols in the directions I thought it probable the Kolies might attempt to escape; but none were seen by us the whole morning, the firing and entire operations of the force being on the other side of the hills. I returned into camp with my men at half-past 1 P.M.

*Lieutenant and Adjutant D. J. Macdonell, 2nd Grenadier Regiment Native Infantry, to Lieutenant S. C. Law, Commanding, Head-Quarters,
2nd Grenadier Regiment, Native Infantry.*

SIR, Dubbora, May 30, 1858.

I HAVE the honor to report that, agreeably to your instructions, I took command of the right skirmishers (Right Flank Company), supported by No. 1 Company, in the attack made this morning on the insurgent Kolies, for the purpose of driving them from their positions in the Taringa Hills.

2. Shortly after crossing the first range of hills nearest the village of Dubbora, I came in sight of several parties of Kolies strongly posted on the further bank of a ravine; these at once opened on us a heavy and well-directed fire, which was returned with effect by the Right Grenadier Company.

3. As my skirmishers advanced steadily, the enemy gave way, still keeping up a heavy fire of matchlocks, and obstinately defending every ridge and favorable position.

4. Our advance was continued as long as the men were able to fight their way (about four miles) over most difficult, indeed almost impracticable ranges of hills, and the attack, or rather pursuit, was only discontinued when from fatigue and the nature of the ground we were unable to proceed further.

5. In ground such as we passed over, it was most difficult correctly to estimate the loss of the enemy opposed to me; but from what I saw myself, I am of opinion that it could not have amounted to less than about twenty killed, and a considerable number wounded. I saw at least nine men killed, and from the nature of the ground it was impossible for me to see at many times more than perhaps one-third of my men.

6. I cannot close this report without bringing to the notice of the Commanding Officer the good conduct of all ranks under my command on this occasion; being mostly young soldiers, their steadiness under the very heavy fire kept up by the enemy was admirable, and it is to this, as well as to the steady manner in which they took advantage of every favourable cover in advancing upon and driving the enemy from their numerous strong positions, that I attribute the impunity with which we inflicted so severe a loss.

7. I would beg to bring prominently to the notice of the Commanding Officer the conduct of Jemadar Adjutant Nagoo Chowan, who accompanied me on this occasion, and to whose valuable assistance much of our success is due.

I have, &c.

D. J. MACDONELL, Lieutenant and Adjutant,
2nd Grenadier Regiment Native Infantry.

No. 56.

Lieutenant-Colonel Malcolm, Commanding Field Force, to the Assistant-Adjutant-General Southern Division of the Bombay Army.

Nurgoond, June 7, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding the division, that the troops under my command, as per margin,* defeated the enemy in the plain between Oomergul and Nurgoond, stormed and occupied the Petta of Nurgoond, on the 1st of June, and captured and occupied the fort of Nurgoond next morning, the 2nd June, at nine o'clock A.M.

2. The first news of the outbreak at Dūmel reached Kulludghee on the 27th May. 150 Southern Mahratta Horse immediately marched; of these 30 were left at Budarmee, 70 sent to Guj-jundurguer, and 40 were brought to Gudduck. Subsequently, on the 30th May, the latter were ordered to Roan. The Dharwar posts of horse,

* One 9-pounder gun and one howitzer, Royal Artillery, under Captain Paget; two companies Her Majesty's 74th 170 rank and file, including serjeants, under Captain Davis; one company 28th Native Infantry, 108 rank and file, including havildars, under Lieutenant Heish; 150 Southern Mahratta Horse, under Ressuldar Sew Pursand Sing.

amounting to 97 sabres, were also concentrated at Gudduck, where I arrived early on the 29th, and immediately urged by telegraph the despatch of troops to Nurgoond.

3. The first detachment, consisting of troops as per margin,* under the command of Captain Paget, R.A., reached Nurgoond on the morning of the 31st. I had been directed to join them with the horse, and to take command. 12 sabres of the Southern Mahratta Horse and a considerable police force were left in Gudduck.

The horse at Roan were ordered to Nurgoond—a portion by way of Yangal, and on the morning of the 31st, besides the artillery and infantry, we had 150 horse at Nurgoond.

4. The state and feeling of the country, and the almost certainty that the Nurgoond chief intended to play the Pindaree game, and plunder, as also that his troops, reported by every one at 3,000 foot and 500 horse, were likely to increase daily,—all demanded active operations. I therefore marched to Oomergul, seven miles, on the morning of the 1st June, arrived there at 6 A.M., and pitched my camp.

5. About 7 A.M., Captain Paget, Lieutenant Thomas, Superintendent of Police, myself, and some others, proceeded with 100 horse to reconnoitre the fort, distant about four miles and a half. We got up to within 500 yards of the Petta walls. The enemy drew up outside the walls, about 600 strong, mostly foot. I retired the horse by alternate troops, and went back to camp, arriving about 9 A.M.

* One 9-pounder, one howitzer, two companies Her Majesty's 74th, one company 28th Native Infantry.

6. At half-past 10 A.M. the horse videttes, posted above a mile from camp, reported the approach of the enemy.

7. The ground between our camp and Nurgood was a gentle rise for about two miles, then a gentle descent of nearly a mile to a broad dry watercourse, fringed with trees, and from thence it gradually ascended for about another mile to Nurgood.

8. Ordering the force to get under arms, I went to the front, and found the enemy, mostly foot, gathering in force on the crest of the first slope.

9. The outlying picket, strengthened to about 60 sabres, was advanced sufficiently near to prevent escape; the remainder of the horse moved out, as it was got ready, in support, and the guns and infantry were ordered to move along the road to Nurgood.

10. My object was to get the enemy to stand till the whole force got up, but in about five minutes he showed symptoms of moving off, and his main body disappeared behind the crest. The rear troops had scarcely closed up, but I directed the 60 leading sabres to advance at a trot, which they did with great order and alacrity, under Russaldars Sirdan Khan and Shumshoodeen. On our gaining the crest, the enemy was in rapid retreat, but he still kept his main body of two or three hundred men well together. My leading troop, weak as it was, dashed at them, while the other troops, about 75 sabres in all, followed at a gallop, led on by Russaldar Sew Pursand Sing and Woodee Major Koondoojee Jadow.

11. The enemy, completely routed, spread over the plain, and the sowars followed up and sabred them to within 500 yards of the Petta. Those whom we pursued down towards the watercourse may have been about 800, but there were more joining from the rear, and I would compute them at not less than one thousand, while our cavalry force was not more than 150 sabres. Their loss was not less than 60 killed, besides wounded; but knots of footmen, armed with sword and matchlock, and fighting to the last, prevented our getting up to the main body, which made good a very hurried retreat into the Petta. Only three prisoners were taken.

12. A party of 12 Mysore horse, who had accidentally joined me, also behaved most gallantly, and their Jemadar Lokajee Kuddum was severely wounded. I saw him and one or two of his men (his son among the number) among the leading men charging a band of nine of the enemy, who would not give up their arms, but fought desperately behind some mounds.

13. This spirited action lasted till about 1 P.M., when our wounded (six men in all, and six horses), were sent back with forty sabres to camp, and we formed up in the watercourse about a mile or less from Nurgood.

14. The infantry and guns joined us about the same time.

15. The enemy's horse had disappeared; and a false report that they had gone round to attack the camp, detained us nearly an hour, and obliged me to detach forty more horse for its protection.

16. At about 3 P.M. the whole force advanced; Captain Davies, as we neared the Petta, throwing out one of the companies of the Highlanders as skirmishers, under Lieutenant Bell, H.M. 74th, and holding his other company, with the company of the 28th Native Infantry, under Lieutenant Heish, as a reserve. At 600 yards, Captain Paget opened fire with shot and shell, which was answered from the Fort guns and a few matchlocks from the Petta, but the enemy's fire was languid, and he was seen moving in crowds to the Fort. The guns were advanced nearer to the Petta, and the skirmishers, strengthened by half the company, 28th Native Infantry, moved close up.

17. The artillery practice was excellent; the round shot was directed chiefly against the Chief's palace and the neighbouring temple, strong buildings commanding the Petta, and the former protected by its position from the fort guns. Our shell burst among the crowds flying to the fort, and these, with the round shot and heavy rifle fire, seemed either to have driven the enemy out, or to have put down all opposition.

18. About 5 P.M. I directed Captain Davies to push forward into the Petta and occupy the Chief's palace; a party of dismounted Sowars, under Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing, also accompanied this column, which entered from the western gateway, previously broken in by the skirmishers, and, in about three quarters of an hour, they were seen going up the steep pathway to the palace. I beg to enclose Captain Davies's report. He acknowledges his obligation to Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing, who showed the way. His progress does not seem to have been seriously opposed, but the work was well and rapidly done. Simultaneously with Captain Davies's advance, a small party of the 28th Native Infantry, with more dismounted Sowars, entered by the south gateway, and made their way also to the palace. The remainder of the 28th Native Infantry remained with the guns, while the horse observed the rear and flanks.

19. About half past 5 P.M., the guns were moved up to the infantry in the chief's palace; guards were placed on the gateways, and the whole place was in our possession by 6 P.M. The camp was ordered from Oomergul, and thirty horse were sent back to increase the escort.

20. The rock of Nurgood is so extensive that any attempt to have invested it that night with my small cavalry force would have been useless. I felt also that its immediate occupation, under any circumstances, ought to be my sole object. I had serious intentions of taking further advantage of the enemy's panic, and making the attempt at once, but on consideration it seemed better to wait till the morning, as the panic would probably decrease the garrison, and our troops would be fresher.

21. The whole Petta was commanded from our position, and the fort guns could not be depressed to bear upon us. The enemy fired from the fort, but his fire did no damage, as we had good cover, and it ceased almost entirely before dark; no doubt a shot from the rifle of Private Thomas Hopkins, Her Majesty's 74th, which killed a man in the embrasures, 200 yards over our head, did much to keep the enemy quiet.

22. We bivouacked for the night; the troops had been without food since 11 A.M. of the 1st June, and the commissariat was not up till the morning of the 2nd.

23. The information gleaned from the prisoners showed that there were, at most, not more than 500 men in the fort, and I felt that I should meet with at least not serious opposition. Four bags of powder were prepared and carried by Privates D. McIntosh, E. Timmins, J. Friend and A. Hamilton, of Her Majesty's 74th, while Serjeant-Major W. Lindsay, Royal Artillery, carried the train powder and fuzee.

Lieutenant White, Engineers, and Lieutenant Burn, Royal Artillery, accompanied the party; I took command of the whole.

24. We started about 8 A.M., with the two companies of Her Majesty's 74th, under the command of Captain Davies, and the company of the 28th Native Infantry, under Lieutenant Heish, Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing, with a few dismounted sowars, leading; this officer had always urged an immediate advance; his conduct throughout the day was energetic and gallant in the extreme, not only in action but with advice. I give to him the chief credit for activity in the operation.

25. It took us about half an hour to wind up the hill to the first gate. Only one man showed himself, without arms, on the wall. Sowar Shaikh Abdoola, of the Southern Mahratta Horse, climbed over the wall and unbarred the first iron-plated gate, and we entered. We passed on to the second. The guard-rooms were deserted; the arms and accoutrements were hanging on the walls; the same sowar opened the second gate in a similar way; the third and fourth were open, and we entered the fort; a few persons armed and disarmed fled down the precipitous rocks on our approach, but there was not a show of opposition. It was a matter of congratulation and thankfulness that such a stronghold had fallen into our hands without the loss of one life.

26. The casualties in the capture of the Petta and fort were, one Highlander severely wounded, and two gunners and four horses severely scorched by an explosion.

27. I am much indebted to the troops of all arms for their gallant and spirited conduct. To this alone is to be attributed our complete success and the prostration of the enemy's spirit.

28. I owe my most cordial thanks to Captain Paget, commanding Royal Artillery, for his quick and effective fire, and to Captain Davies, Her Majesty's 74th, commanding the infantry, for his prompt and spirited advance and occupation of the Petta and Chief's palace, and to both for their ready support on all occasions.

29. My obligations are especially due to Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing to whom our immediate advance into the fort is to be mainly attributed. He is a brave and very useful officer.

30. My thanks are also due to Ressaldars Sindur Khan and Shumshoo Deen and Woordee, Major Khoondajee Jadov. It was the gallant charge of the horse, under the first two officers, which broke the enemy's spirit, and from which they never rallied.

31. I would also bring to your notice the conduct of Sowar Shaikh Abdoolah, who climbed the wall and opened the gates. I beg to assure the Major-General that his conduct was felt by all to be very fearless, and the work was considered to be one of great danger.

32. My thanks are due to Lieutenant Thomas, Superintendent, for his assistance at all times, both in the field and for intelligence of the state of the country; Mr. Skoulding, Veterinary Surgeon, R.A., acted as my staff-officer, and gave me every assistance both in field and quarters. The force is also indebted to Mr. Gray, for his assistance in procuring us supplies and assisting our march. I would also beg to acknowledge the assistance received from Dr. Imlach, who is always at hand both in action and quarters, not only in his own immediate capacity, but to assist in his own quiet way wherever he can be useful.

33. I have omitted to mention that all my cavalry were distributed round the fort early on the morning of the 2nd.

34. It is difficult to state the enemy's loss; it could not be less than 200, independent of those killed in the cavalry action. We took 113 prisoners (some of importance), of whom about 60 have been liberated as non-combatants; the Dewan of the Chief was found drowned in a tank in the Petta.

35. All accounts state that the enemy's force was 3,000 foot and 500 horse. I think this exaggerated, but the force has wholly dispersed, and the country is strewn with arms. The Major-General will, I trust, agree with me in considering that immediate occupation of this famous stronghold was, under any circumstances, the paramount object.

36. As Bheem Rao, of Moordurghee, considered the most active rebel, was still at large, I despatched Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing towards Ramdoorg, in pursuit of the Nurgoodkur, immediately after the capture of the fortress; and, leaving the two companies of the Highlanders to garrison Nurgood, under command of Captain Davies, I proceeded with the rest of the force towards Kopul.

37. The report of the capture of Kopul by Major Hughes, and death of Bheem Rao, which I heard when fifteen miles from Nurgood, made me send back the guns. At Gudduck this news was authenticated, and the capture of the Nurgoodkur by Mr. Souter, was also officially reported to me.

38. Several important arrests have also been made, and I may congratulate the Major-General on the complete frustration of the operation of the rebels, and on restored tranquillity.

39. I returned only yesterday to Nurgood, and this report has consequently been delayed.

40. A return of ordnance and ordnance stores, captured in the fort and Petta, will be forwarded hereafter. The list is scarcely completed.

I have, &c.,

G. MALCOLM, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Commanding Field Force.

No. 57.

Captain A. Davies, commanding a detachment of the 74th Highlanders, to the Staff Officer of the Field Force.

Fort Nurgood, June 2, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of the Officer Commanding the Field Force, that, after receiving his orders to enter the Petta with the reserve, I joined myself to my skirmishers and entered the Petta at the west gate, from whence, driving such opponents as we met in our way, I proceeded to the foot of the eminence, on which appeared to be a fortified place; not knowing the way, however, I was much indebted to Ressaldar Sew Pursand Sing, of the S. Mharata Horse, who was there with a party of that corps, and volunteered to show me the way, by which I was enabled to seize and occupy the strong building in question.

I have, &c.,

A. DAVIES, Captain,
Commanding Detachment, 74th Highlanders.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it was enacted, that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory. And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and the same or certain parts thereof hath or have heretofore been exercised by Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, and other officers resident within the said dominions. And whereas the right of levying hospital duties on British and Ionian merchant vessels entering the ports of the Levant was within the powers conferred upon the late Levant Company by its charter. And whereas under and by virtue of certain rules and regulations duly made and issued by the authority of the late Levant Company and before the surrender of the charter of the said Company in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five a certain tonnage rate or duty was imposed and levied upon all British and Ionian merchant vessels entering the port of Smyrna by the British Consul at that port for the maintenance and support of the Sick Seamen's Hospital there. And whereas the said tonnage rate or duty continued to be so levied and applied as aforesaid until the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four. And whereas under and by virtue of a certain statute made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain Acts relating to the Governor and Company of Merchants of England trading to the Levant Seas, and the duties payable to them, and to authorize the transfer and disposal of the possessions and property of the said Governor and Company for the public service, it was enacted, that from and immediately from and after the enrolment of a certain deed or instrument therein mentioned (which deed or instrument has been since enrolled) all such rights and duties of jurisdiction and authority over His Majesty's subjects resorting to the ports of the Levant for the purpose of trade or otherwise, as were lawfully exercised and performed, or which were by certain letters patent and Acts of Parliament (therein more particularly referred to), or any of them, authorized to be exercised and performed by any Consuls or other officers appointed by the said Company, or which such Consuls or other officers lawfully exercised and performed, under and by virtue of any power or authority whatever, should from and after the enrolment of such deed or instrument as aforesaid, be and become vested in, and should be exercised and performed by such Consuls and other officers respectively, as His Majesty might be pleased to appoint for the protection of the trade of His Majesty's subjects in the ports and places respectively mentioned in the said letters patent and Acts, or any or either of them. And whereas the right of levying hospital dues on ships trading to the Levant was one of the rights theretofore exercised by the said Company and its Consuls, and the same may now be lawfully exercised and performed by Her Majesty's Consuls in and throughout the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte. And whereas it was considered expedient to provide for the establishment, support, and maintenance of British hospitals for sick seamen coming in British or Ionian merchant-vessels, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte. And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was ordered that it should be lawful for Her Majesty's Consuls residing within the said dominions, and they were thereby authorized to levy upon all British or Ionian merchant-vessels which might enter any of the ports within their respective jurisdictions, a tonnage-duty or dues, not exceeding one penny per ton on each vessel; and they were thereby authorized, directed, and required to apply all the said duty or dues, and all moneys raised or received by them on account thereof for and towards the establishment, maintenance, and support of British hospitals for sick seamen coming in British or Ionian vessels within the said dominions. And whereas the said tonnage-duty ordered to be levied and raised as aforesaid is insufficient to provide for the annual expenditure of the said hospitals. And whereas it is expedient, in order to provide for the proper support and maintenance of the said hospitals, to increase the said duty in manner hereinafter mentioned. Now, therefore, under and by virtue and in pursuance of the premises, and of the said recited Acts of Parliament, and of all or any power, jurisdiction, or authority whatsoever, thereby or otherwise vested in or belonging to Her Majesty in this behalf, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited Order in Council of the third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be, and the same is hereby revoked and rescinded; and further, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consuls residing within the said dominions, and they are hereby authorized to levy upon all British or Ionian merchant vessels, which may enter any of the ports within their respective jurisdictions, a tonnage duty or dues not exceeding $1\frac{1}{2}$ per ton on each vessel, and they are hereby authorized, directed, and required to apply all the said duty or dues, and all moneys raised or received by them on account thereof, for and towards the establishment, maintenance, and support of British hospitals for sick seamen coming in British or Ionian vessels within the said dominions. And Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the like advice, to order, and it is hereby ordered that it shall be lawful for her Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from time to time, by any writing under his hand, to make and issue, and he is hereby authorized to make and issue any such rules and regulations as to him may seem fit, with regard to the manner in which the moneys which may be so levied or received as aforesaid by the said Consuls, shall be applied or expended for the establishment, maintenance, or support of such hospitals as aforesaid. And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any such Secretary of State as aforesaid, from time to time, by any rule, regulation, or order in writing under his hand, to provide for the exempting any British or Ionian merchant vessel, which may, within any period therein set forth, have once paid the said tonnage duty or dues, from all or any other or additional or subsequent payment or liability in respect thereof. And Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any such Secretary of State as aforesaid, and he is hereby authorised from time to time, by any such rule, regulation, or order, in writing under his hand, to alter and vary the rate or amount of the tonnage duty or dues, so to be levied or paid as aforesaid, or the manner of levying or paying or receiving the same: provided always, that no such alteration or variation shall extend or operate, so as to increase or exceed the aforesaid rate or amount of tonnage duty, or dues, that is to say, $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton upon each vessel. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, by any writing under his hand, from time to time to limit the extent to which any Consul-General, Consul or Vice-Consul, shall exercise jurisdiction over British subjects within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, in the matter of or in anything relating to the said tonnage duty, or dues, anything in the present Order contained notwithstanding. And Her Majesty is by and with the like advice, pleased further to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that for the purpose of this Order the words "British merchant vessel or vessels" and "British ship or ships," shall be taken and deemed to include all or any merchant ship or vessel, being the property of any subject of Her Majesty.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Malmesbury, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date, the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Worcester for certain estates belonging to his see.

"Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same) and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangement might from time to time be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop for the sale, transfer or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, is seised in right of his see of the lands and hereditaments hereinafter described.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts, is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund, that the said lands and hereditaments should be transferred from the said See of Worcester to us, and that an annual money payment to the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors, should forthwith be substituted for the same.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his corporate seal, that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the hereditaments and premises particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, and all the estate, right, title and interest therein, and thereto of the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and of his successors, Bishops of Worcester, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Worcester, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose that in consideration of and for such conveyance and transfer, and in substitution for the said lands and hereditaments, there shall be paid by us to the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and his successors Bishops of Worcester, the annual sum of eighty pounds; by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fourth day of June, and the twenty-fourth day of December in every year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the twenty-fourth day of December now next ensuing.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All that piece or parcel of land situate in the parishes of Saint Nicholas and Claines in the county of Worcester, adjoining the Sansome Fields Walk, and on the north side of certain lands belonging to the Bishop of Worcester and George Bateman, containing five acres one rood and ten perches or thereabouts, and in the occupation of Robert Hodges.

"And also all that piece or parcel of land situate in the said parishes of Saint Nicholas and Claines, adjoining the said Sansome Fields Walk and on the north of the last-mentioned piece of land, containing five acres two roods and thirty-three perches, or thereabouts, in the occupation of the said Robert Hodges.

"And also all that piece or parcel of land situate in the said parish of Claines, with a tenement and buildings thereon, and adjoining the towing path of the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, and on the east of the two last-mentioned pieces of land, and containing three acres one rood and fourteen perches or thereabouts, in the occupation of George Yeates.

"And also all that piece or parcel of land situate in the said parish of Claines, lying on the west side of the said Worcester and Birmingham Canal, and opposite another piece of land called 'part of Hangman's Acre,' and containing twenty-five perches, or thereabouts, in the occupation of the said George Yeates."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Worcester.

C. C. Grville.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property lately forming the possessions of the prebend or rectory of Wherwell in the county of Southampton.

"Whereas by an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, it is amongst other things enacted that all ecclesiastical rectories without cure of souls in the sole patronage of your Majesty or of any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, where there should be a vicar endowed or a perpetual curate, should, as to all such rectories as might be vacant at the passing of that Act, immediately upon its so passing, and as to all others immediately upon the vacancy thereof respectively, be suppressed; and that as to any such ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls the advowson whereof or any right of patronage wherein should belong to any person or persons or body corporate other than as aforesaid, we should be authorized and empowered to purchase and accept conveyance of such advowson or right of patronage at and for such price or sum as might be agreed upon between us and the owner or owners of such advowson or right of patronage, and might pay the purchase money and the expenses of and attendant upon such purchase out of the common fund thereafter mentioned, and that after the completion of such purchase of any such rectory, and upon the first avoidance thereof, the same should be suppressed, and that upon the suppression of any such rectory as aforesaid all ecclesiastical patronage belonging to the rector thereof as such rector should be absolutely transferred to and be vested in the original patron or patrons of such rectory; and it was also by the same Act enacted, that upon the suppression of any ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls all the estate and interest which the rector thereof or his successor had or would have had as such rector in any lands, tithes, or hereditaments whatsoever should, without any conveyance thereof or any assurance in the law other than the provisions of the same Act, accrue to and be vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the same Act.

"And whereas by an Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, it is amongst other things enacted that so much of the therein secondly recited Act (meaning thereby the hereinbefore recited Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign) as relates to the purchase by us of ecclesiastical rectories without cure of souls should be construed to extend and apply to any ecclesiastical rectory which should, by the archbishop of the province and the bishop of the diocese, be certified to be and should by us be deemed to be an ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls, although there should be no vicarage endowed or perpetual curacy belonging thereto or connected therewith; provided that when any such ecclesiastical rectory, purchased by us, should have become suppressed under the provisions of the same Act, the whole, if it be deemed necessary, or such part as should be deemed necessary by us, of the lands, tithes, or other endowments, belonging to such rectory, and of the proceeds thereof, should by the authority in the same Act provided, be set apart and applied towards the spiritual cure of the population of the parish or district in which such lands, tithes, or other endowments, are situate or accrue, in such manner as by the like authority should be deemed expedient.

And whereas by an instrument in writing, bearing date the fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, under the hands of the Most Reverend John Bird, Lord Archbishop of the province of Canterbury, and the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Lord Bishop of Winchester, they, the said archbishop and bishop, did certify, that the prebend or rectory of Wherwell, in the county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, the patronage whereof belonged to a private person, and not your Majesty or any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, was an ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls, and that belonging thereto or connected therewith was a vicarage, endowed, styled the vicarage of Wherwell, with the chapels of Bullington and Tufton annexed, the patronage whereof belonged to the rector of the said ecclesiastical rectory for the time being.

"And whereas the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell has been deemed by us to be an ecclesiastical rectory without cure of souls.

"And whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and made or expressed to be made between Henry Beaumont Coles, Esquire, the Reverend Roger Bird, Clerk, and the Reverend Henry John Fellowes, of the first part; William Iremonger, Esquire, and Mary Ann Widmore, his wife, of the second part; the Reverend Thomas Lascelles Iremonger, Clerk, and Pennant Athelwold Iremonger, Esquire, of the third part; Dame Henrietta Georgiana Marcia Chatterton, Widow, of the fourth part; William Charles Henry, Doctor of Medicine, Frederick Halsey Janson, Gentleman, and Charles Cooper, Gentleman, of the fifth part; George Rickards, Gentleman, of the sixth part; Pennant Iremonger, Widow, of the seventh part; William Bulkeley Hughes, Esquire, and John Henry Bolton, Gentleman, of the eighth part; John James, Gentleman, of the ninth part; the said Henry Beaumont Coles, Roger Bird, and Henry John Fellowes of the tenth part; Brownlow Wynne Wynne, Esquire, and the said Thomas Lascelles Iremonger, of the eleventh part; the said John James, of the twelfth part; the said Henry Beaumont Coles, Roger Bird, and John Fellowes, of the thirteenth part; Henry Earle, Gentleman, and William Everett, Esquire, of the fourteenth part; the Reverend Edwin Crane (therein called Edward Crane), and Sebastian Garrard, of the fifteenth part; The Reverend Pennant Iremonger, John Henry Bolton, and Thomas Lamb, Gentleman, of the sixteenth part; and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the seventeenth part; and also, by virtue of an indenture, bearing date the fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, endorsed upon the before-mentioned indenture, and made, or expressed to be made, between Edward James Rickards, Esquire, of the first part; the said Dame Henrietta Georgiana Marcia Chatterton, of the second part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part.

The said advowson, donation, right of patronage, and presentation of, in, and to the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell, in the county of Southampton, with all and singular the rights, members, and appurtenances thereto belonging or appertaining, has been, in consideration of the sum of one thousand pounds, expressed to be paid by us, as and for the purchase money for the same conveyed unto, and is now become vested in us in fee simple.

And whereas the said sum of one thousand pounds was, in fact, the proper money of the said William Iremonger, and was advanced and paid by him, and the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage, was conveyed to us by his direction, and with our sanction and approbation, with a view to the suppression of the said rectory or prebend, and to the carrying out of the ulterior measures hereinafter referred to for promoting the spiritual care of the population of the parish of Wherwell aforesaid.

"And whereas by a deed poll, or instrument in writing, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, under the hand and seal of the Reverend Thomas Lascelles Iremonger, Clerk, Bachelor of Arts, the rector or prebendary of the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell, the said Thomas Lascelles Iremonger did absolutely resign and give up the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell, with its rights, members, and appurtenances, into the hands of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester; and such resignation has been accepted by the said bishop, testified by an instrument in writing under his hand, dated the twenty-ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

"And whereas, in consequence of such resignation of the said prebend or rectory by the said Thomas Lascelles Iremonger the said prebend or rectory has become void, and, by virtue of the hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, deeds and instruments, has become suppressed, and all the lands, tithes, and hereditaments belonging to such prebend or rectory have become vested in us in fee-simple, subject to the several existing leases thereof.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, ratifying a scheme of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Winchester, approved by the Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and with the consent of the said William Iremonger, the patron, and the Reverend Thomas Lascelles Iremonger, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of Wherwell aforesaid, the chapels of Bullington and Tufton theretofore forming part of the parish of Wherwell, have been separated from the vicarage and parish church of Wherwell aforesaid, and together constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and a perpetual curacy and benefice, by the name or style of the perpetual curacy of Bullington with Tufton, and the church of Tufton has been made a chapel of ease to the church of Bullington aforesaid.

And whereas it is expedient, that by the authority provided by the said Acts, the whole or such part as shall be deemed necessary by us, of the lands, titles, and hereditaments late belonging to the said suppressed rectory, or the proceeds thereof, should by the authority prescribed by the said recited Acts, be set apart and appropriated towards the spiritual care of the population of the parish of Wherwell, and the said newly constituted perpetual curacy of Bullington with Tufton. But, in as much as such lands, tithes, and hereditaments are held under existing leases at small annual rents, and during such leases will not be available for that object, it is proposed that some of the same lands, tithes, and endowments, should be retained by us, or sold and disposed of as part of our common fund, in consideration of an equivalent sum of money, to be taken thereout, and the remainder be sold, and that the sum so to be taken out of our common fund, and the money to arise by such sale, or such part thereof as by us shall be considered necessary, shall, by the authority hereinbefore mentioned, be applied and set apart for the purpose hereinbefore referred to in such manner as to us shall seem expedient; and application having been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tithes, rent charges, and hereditaments, it appears to us, after due consideration of the premises, to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in all, or any part or parts, of the said lands, tithes, rent charges, and hereditaments, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable.

We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear as us to be just and reasonable.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

All mariners passing the Little Belt, are warned not to anchor over, or in the neighbourhood of the above telegraphic wire; and all those who either intentionally, or through negligence, shall injure the same, will be punished and held responsible for the damages done, as prescribed by law of 29th December, 1853.—Ministry of Marine, June, 30, 1858.
