

curacy of Bullington with Tufton, and the church of Tufton has been made a chapel of ease to the church of Bullington aforesaid.

And whereas it is expedient, that by the authority provided by the said Acts, the whole or such part as shall be deemed necessary by us, of the lands, titles, and hereditaments late belonging to the said suppressed rectory, or the proceeds thereof, should by the authority prescribed by the said recited Acts, be set apart and appropriated towards the spiritual care of the population of the parish of Wherwell, and the said newly constituted perpetual curacy of Bullington with Tufton. But, in as much as such lands, tithes, and hereditaments are held under existing leases at small annual rents, and during such leases will not be available for that object, it is proposed that some of the same lands, tithes, and endowments, should be retained by us, or sold and disposed of as part of our common fund, in consideration of an equivalent sum of money, to be taken thereout, and the remainder be sold, and that the sum so to be taken out of our common fund, and the money to arise by such sale, or such part thereof as by us shall be considered necessary, shall, by the authority hereinbefore mentioned, be applied and set apart for the purpose hereinbefore referred to in such manner as to us shall seem expedient; and application having been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tithes, rent charges, and hereditaments, it appears to us, after due consideration of the premises, to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in all, or any part or parts, of the said lands, tithes, rent charges, and hereditaments, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable.

We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend or rectory of Wherwell, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear as us to be just and reasonable.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.
