TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post Office, and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post Office to detain any letters, which should be posted, or sent by the post, contrary to the regulations therein mentioned, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury should, from time to time, direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established, certain rates of British postage, payable on the transmission by the post of certain colonial letters therein respectively mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain other Warrant under their hands, bearing date the 15th day of January, 1858, did make regulations for the prepayment of the several rates of postage payable on letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any of the colonies therein mentioned, and on letters posted in any of such colonies addressed to the United Kingdom.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said last-mentioned Warrant to letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Barbadoes, Trinidad, and Saint Helena, and to letters posted in such colonies addressed to the United Kingdom.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Barbadoes, Trinidad, and Saint Helena, and on every letter posted in Barbadoes, Trinidad, and Saint Helena, addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Barbadoes, Trinidad, or Saint Helena, without any postage having been paid thereon, or having thereon, or affixed thereto, a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, would be liable, under the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be detained and opened, and shall be either returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Barbadoes, Trinidad, or Saint Helena, having thereon, or affixed thereto, a postage stamp or stamps the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable, under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable on any such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon, or affixed thereto, and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence. And if any letter shall be posted in Barbadoes, Trinidad, or Saint Helena, addressed to the United Kingdom, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable on any such letter if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, every such last-mentioned letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1858.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the sixteenth day of August, 1858.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Assurance Company called the London and County Assurance Company.

THE Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, the Judge of the High Court of Chancery to whose Court the winding up of this Company is attached, doth peremptorily order that a call of £10 per share be made on all the contributories of this Company, who have been included by him in the settled list of contributories of the said Company, and the said Judge doth peremptorily order each of the said contributories on the 20th day of September next ensuing, at twelve o'clock in the forenoon, at No. 3, South-square, Gray's-inn, London, to pay to William Henry McCreight, the Official Manager of this Company, the balance, if any, which will be due from him after debiting his account in the Company's books with such call.

Master of the Rolls Chambers, Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Friday the 6th day of August, 1858.

In the Matter of the Liversedge Iron Company, and in the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857.

THE Master of the Rolls, the Judge of the High Court of Chancery to whose Court the winding up of this Company is attached, doth peremptorily order that a call of five hundred pounds per share be made on all the contributories of this Company who have been included by him in the settled list of contributories of the said Company; and the said Judge doth peremptorily order each of the said contributories, on the 7th day of September, 1858, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at No. 35, Old Jewry, London, to pay the Official Manager of this Company, the balance (if any) which will be due from him after debiting his account in the Company's books with such call.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
July 30, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 30th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

of the cure of any country, and all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

	NAVY BEEF.	NAVY PORK.
	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	4,500 ... 6,500 ...	9,500 ... 4,700
Gosport	1,000 ... 1,500 ...	3,000 ... 1,700
Plymouth ...	1,000 ... 1,500 ...	1,500 ... 800
Haulbowline	500 ... 750 ...	1,000 ... 500

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any ; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows, viz.:—One-third of each quantity for each place by the 31st day of January, 1859; another third thereof by the 15th day of March, 1859; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1859, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable in seven days from and after the respective dates thereof.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the revised form of contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Bills in payment for any beef or pork delivered into Her Majesty's Stores will be sent to parties upon transmitting the usual certificates of receipt.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR WHEAT, OATS, COCOA, AND SOAP.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 10, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 26th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford and Plymouth, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Wheat, 2,000 quarters, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats 300 quarters, Deptford; 150 quarters, Plymouth; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier, if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 100 tons, Deptford; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60lbs. per bushel.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, but separate tenders must be made for each port, and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The cocoa to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts, of the oats (not less than 2 quarts for each port), of the cocoa, not less than 2lbs. and of the soap not less than a bar, must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yard at Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, at the Victualling Yard at Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACT FOR STOCKS, CLASPS FOR STOCKS, AND CAPS WITH BALLS, FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, August 16, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2nd September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded for the use of the Royal Marines, under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

The conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said office, and patterns of the articles at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of one and four o'clock.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACT FOR LEMON JUICE BOTTLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, August 17, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 2nd September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Lemon Juice Bottles, 20,000 number; to be delivered in two months from the date of acceptance, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the bottles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

A sample bottle may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to Commander Goldfinch, conducting the packet service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for lemon juice bottles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

In Chancery.—Harding v. Harding.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the above cause, with the approbation of the Judge to whose Court such cause is attached, in 10 lots, by Messrs. Fergus, the persons appointed by the said Judge to sell the same, at the Commercial-rooms, Corn-street, Bristol, on Thursday, the 2nd September, 1858, at one o'clock in the afternoon:

The following valuable freehold property, in the city of Bristol and in the county of Gloucester:

In the city of Bristol.

Lot 1.—A capital mansion-house, pleasure ground, garden, green-house, and premises, desirably situate on Saint Michael's-hill, at the corner of Southwell-street, in the parish of St. Michael, in the occupation of Mr. Matthew Dunlop, as tenant from year to year, at the annual rent of £70, subject to a ground rent of £6 per annum.

Lot 2.—A dwelling-house and garden, adjoining the last lot, situate in Southwell-street, called Hope Cottage, in the occupation of M. Guiot, at the annual rent of £19 19s., subject to a fee farm rent of £1 10s. per annum.

Lot 3.—A dwelling-house, with coach-house and stable, also situate on Saint Michael's-hill, at the corner of Southwell-street, in the occupation of Mrs. Martyn, at the annual rent of £31.

Lot 4.—Premises in Ellbroad-street, in the parish of St. Philip and Jacob, lately used as a snuff and tobacco manufactory, but now converted into veneer saw mills, with extensive lofts over, occupied by Messrs. Fear and Son.

These premises are now let from year to year to Mr. J. B. Girling, at the annual rent of £60, subject to a right of way for the owner and occupier of Lot 5 through and over the passage on the westward side.

Lot 5.—Premises in Ellbroad-street aforesaid, consisting of a dwelling-house, timber yard, and sheds, held by Samuel Griffiths, Timber Dealer, for the residue of a term of 21 years, commencing 25th March, 1845, at the clear annual rent of £42.

The two last-mentioned premises are subject to a chief rent of 1s. per annum, payable to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Bristol.

Lot 6.—Premises in the parish of St. Philip and Jacob, consisting of an extensive soap manufactory, with yards, sheds, and other buildings, together with a dwelling-house and nine cottages, let to Messrs. John Cox and John George Shaw, on a lease for 10 years from 29th September, 1850, at the clear annual rent of £150.

The above premises have an extensive water frontage against the feeder to the Floating Harbour.

Lot 7.—Plot of inclosed land adjoining to the last mentioned premises, having a frontage of 65 feet against the road leading from Avon-street to the Dings, and extending backwards from thence to the said feeder, with a water frontage also of 65 feet against the same. Let from year to year to Messrs. Cox and Shaw at the low annual rent of £10.

Lot 8.—A yearly fee farm rent of £70, payable out of premises in St. Philip and Jacob aforesaid, belonging to Mr. John Cox, lately used by him as coke works, and now in the occupation of Messrs. George Rogers and Co., and Messrs. Wethered, Cossham, and Wethered.

In the county of Gloucester.

Lot 9.—One undivided moiety in a close of arable land, in the parish of Frampton Cotterell, containing by admeasurement 1A. 3R. 6P., and in the occupation of Lot Ivory, as tenant from year, at the annual rent of £2 2s.

This lot adjoins the turnpike road leading from Bristol to Iron Acton.

Lot 10.—A cottage or tenement, situate in Cutwell-lane, in the borough of Tetbury, in the occupation of Maria Ricketts, as tenant from year to year, at the annual rent of £4 10s.

May be viewed by permission of the tenants; and particulars and conditions had of the Auctioneers, Clare-street, Mr. James Marmont, Surveyor, No. 10, Corn-street, of Messrs. Tanner and Tillard, Solicitors, Shannon-court, Bristol; or of Messrs. Tatham and Procter, Lincoln's-inn, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Rosser v. Hember, with the approbation of Vice-Chancellor Stuart, in 2 lots, by Mr. John Taylor, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Swan Inn, Thornbury, in the county of Gloucester, on Saturday, the 25th day of September, 1858, at five o'clock precisely:

Certain copyhold estates, situate at Thornbury aforesaid, late the property of Harriet Weeks deceased.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis), of Messrs. Jones and Blaxland, Solicitors, 7, Crosby-square; Messrs. Bridges and Son, Solicitors, 23, Red Lion-square; Messrs. Richard Smith and Son, Solicitors, 298, Holborn, London; of Messrs. Scarlett and Son, Solicitors, Thornbury; Mr. Edward Calder, Solicitor, of Shannon-court, Corn-street, Bristol; of the Auctioneers, Messrs. Taylor and Barnes; and at the said Inn.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Price v. Watson, with the approbation of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, Sir John Stuart, by Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye, the persons appointed by the said Judge, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, Cornhill, London, on Wednesday, the 27th day of October, 1858, at twelve o'clock, in one lot:

The Gresford Estate, situate at Gresford, in the Lordship of Broomfield, in the county of Denbigh, North Wales, comprising the rent-charges in lieu of tithes issuing out of lands in the said parish, amounting to £2,544 per annum. The Gresford Parsonage House, the Parsonage Farm, and various other farms, with suitable homesteads and land, together with cottages, gardens, and accommodation land in Gresford village, together 328 acres, let at rentals amounting to £567 per annum. The estate is held under lease, dated 23rd of June, 1858, for a term of 21 years, from 25th of March, 1858, at rents of £65; £51 17s. 2d., £15, £20, £10, £5, and £2 2s. per annum. The lease has been renewable every seven years, on payment of a fine; the renewal fine lately paid amounted to £5,401 3s. 6d.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis), one month prior to the sale, of M. Abrahams, Esq., Solicitor for the plaintiff, 23, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; and at the office of Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye, 6, Lancaster-place, Strand.

In Chancery.

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree, made in a cause Wood v. Wood, with the approbation of the Master of the Rolls, in six lots, on Monday, the 30th day of August, 1858, at six o'clock p.m., at the White Hart Hotel, Carlisle, by Mr. Charles Penford Hardy:

A freehold close or field at Cumwhinton, in the county of Cumberland, containing about two acres of arable land. Also a freehold shop, room, and cellar, adjoining the Fox and Hounds Inn, at Rickergate, in the parish of Saint Mary, Carlisle.

Also the public house called the Plough Inn, and four other tenements adjoining the same, including one room, standing between and upon this and the following property.

Also a public bakehouse, dwelling-house, and four tenements, situate in South-street, Botchergate, and abutting upon the last-mentioned property.

Also freehold property, situate and commencing No. 83, Union-street, Botchergate, called and known as Little's-court, comprising four tenements, with every necessary and proper convenience behind.

And also a freehold property, situate and commencing No. 88, Union-street, Botchergate, also called and known as Little's-court, comprising four tenements as before.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Gill v. Round, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, in one lot, by Mr. H. Stidolph, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Corn Exchange and Victoria Hotel, Dartford, in the county of Kent, on Saturday, the 11th day of September, 1858, at three o'clock in the afternoon:

All that small, but truly compact and valuable freehold fruit plantation, containing by admeasurement 2A. 1R. 30P. (be the same a little more or less), planted with a choice selection of apples, plums, gooseberries, currants, raspberries, and damsons, now producing a most luxuriant crop; together with the residence, built in the old architectural style, with porch entrance, &c., situate in the romantic and delightful village of Wilmington, near to Dartford-heath, and about one mile from Dartford railway station, all in the occupation of Mr. William Round.

This property might at a moderate outlay be considerably improved, and from its proximity to a market town, offers an unprecedented opportunity for occupation or investment.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Russell, Burgon, and Newman, No. 23, Martin's-lane, Cannon-street, London; and of the Auctioneer, Dartford, Kent.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Finney v. Anthony, with the approbation of the Master of the Rolls, in three lots, by Mr. Joseph Nicholson, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Rutland Arms Hotel, at Bakewell, in the county of Derby, on Monday, the 13th day of September, 1858, at three o'clock precisely:

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) of Messrs. Gregory, Gregory, Skirrow, and Rowcliffe, Solicitors, No. 1, Bedford-row, London; of Messrs. Moss and Hickin, Solicitors, Serjeant's-inn, Fleet-street, London; of Messrs. Cree and Sons, Solicitors, Verulam-buildings, Gray's-inn, London; of Mr. Ryall, Solicitor, Sheffield, in the county of York; of Mr. T. Gregory, Solicitor, Pyamview-by-Bakewell, in the county of Derby; of Mr. J. Taylor, Solicitor, of Bakewell, in the county of Derby; of the said Auctioneer, at Sheffield, in the county of York; and at the said Rutland Arms Hotel.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Geary v. Warde, it was, amongst other things, ordered that an enquiry should be made whether all the funeral and testamentary expences and debts of Benjamin Smith, formerly of Lys, near Alresford, in the county of Hants, but afterwards of London, Esquire (who died in the month of February, 1806, at Berwick-on-Tweed), and the legacies bequeathed by his Will have been paid, and whether Letitia Millar, the annuitant named in the said Will, was living or dead, and if dead, whether all arrears of her annuity had been paid. The said testator by his Will, dated the 28th day of June, 1799, bequeathed to Edmund Boehm, of the city of London, Esquire, and to Dorothy Elizabeth Boehm (a niece of the testator) 20 guineas each, and to Robert Taylor, of Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, £100, and to Ann Taylor, his wife, 10 guineas, and to his Housekeeper, Letitia Millar, the widow of James Millar, of the Stoneys, in Scotland, the sum of £100, and the further sum of £20 for mourning, and the said testator also bequeathed to the said Letitia Millar and her assigns an annuity of £30 during her life. All persons claiming to be creditors of the said Benjamin Smith, or to be entitled to any legacies or the annuity under his Will, or to be the legal personal representatives of any of such creditors, legatees, or annuitant, are, by their respective Solicitors, on or before the 13th day of November, 1858, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Torin Kindersley, No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. Wednesday, the 17th day of November, 1858, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated the 14th day of August, 1858.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Donville against Winnington, the creditors of Sir Compton Donville, late of Santry House, in the county of Dublin, and of No. 5, Grosvenor-square, in the county of Middlesex, Bart., deceased (the testator in the pleadings in the said cause named), who died on or about the 23rd day of February, 1857, and all persons having or claiming to have claims upon the estate of the said testator in respect of liabilities, certain or contingent, affecting the personal estate of the said testator, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 16th day of November next, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Master of the Rolls, in the Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree. Monday the 22nd day of November, 1858, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 4th day of August, 1858.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause George Lake Russell and another against Francis Aylmer Graves Sawle, the creditors of Frederick Whitworth, William Lord Aylmer, late of No. 20, Dawson-place, Bayswater, in the county of Middlesex, an Admiral in Her Majesty's Navy, who died on or about the 5th day of March, 1858, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 5th day of November, 1858, to come in and prove their debts, at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, at No. 12, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. Wednesday, the 10th day of November, 1858, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 9th day of August, 1858.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the estate of Richard Hall, late of Kingsbury Green, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased, and in a cause of Robinson against Latham, the creditors of the said Richard Hall, deceased, who died on or about the 27th day of January, 1858, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 22nd day of November, 1858, to come in and prove their debts at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, at No. 12, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Monday, the 29th day of November, 1858, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1858, Henry Thomas Watson, of No. 3, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, Mantle Dealer, assigned all his stock in trade, goods, wares, merchandizes, fixtures, and utensils in trade, being in or about the premises, No. 3, Shoreditch aforesaid, unto Christopher William Smith, of Saint Paul's Church, in the city of London, Gentleman, and George Collar, of Wych-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Gas Fitter, in trust for the benefit of such of the creditors of the said Henry Thomas Watson, as should execute the said indenture, or consent thereto, in writing, on or before the 12th day of November next; and that the said indenture was duly executed by the said Henry Thomas Watson and Christopher William Smith on the 12th day of August instant, and by the said George Collar on the 13th day of August instant, in the presence of, and attested by, Walter Branscomb, of No. 6, Raquet-court, Fleet-street, Solicitor; and that the said indenture is now lying at the offices of the said Walter Branscomb, at No. 6, Raquet-court, Fleet-street, for execution by the creditors of the said Henry Thomas Watson.—Dated this 13th day of August, 1858.
