Admiralty, August 23, 1858.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are copies, have been received by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty from Captain Sotheby, C.B., of Her Majesty's ship Pearl, commanding a Naval Brigade in India.

SIR, Camp, Bustee, June 22, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that a portion of the Naval Brigade,* under charge of Lieutenant Turnour, and the Marines under Lieutenant Pym, R.M., were engaged in a very creditable affair on the 9th instant, in driving the enemy out of Amorha, where one party was posted in the village, and the other in a long belt of bamboo jungle, and a large house at the entrance; and I beg to recommend both these active Officers, then suffering from sickness, to their Lordships' notice, with the accompanying report.

Mr. Foot, Midshipman, was also present with the guns.

I have, &c.,

E. S. SOTHEBY, Captain, R.N.,
Commanding Pearl's Naval Brigade.

The Secretary of the Admiralty.

SIR Camp Bustee, June 11, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report for your information, that while employed on detached service, between the dates of 24th May and 11th June, the force, as per margin,† under command of Major Cox, of the 13th Light Infantry, the following engagement took place on the 9th instant. Information having reached us that the rebels, in force under Mahomet Hussein, were at Amorha, a village five or six miles off, arrangements were made for attacking them. Accordingly having divided our force into two columns, the largest commanded by Major Cox and the other, to which I was attached, by Major Richardson, of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, we left the camp at 2 A.M. and marched along the road leading through the village. When within a mile of the place, we received a heavy fire from their skirmishers; these were immediately attacked and driven in by the Marines, under Lieutenant Pym, while the guns threw shell and shot at their main body, which, after quarter of an hour's firing, retreated into the Bane's house and jungle. There they were met and driven off by the other column under Major Cox; the enemy then retreated towards Belwah, and were pursued four miles by the cavalry, who succeeded in cutting up a considerable number. The force having halted to refresh the men, then returned to Hurreah.

I have, &c.

N. E. B. TURNOUR, Lieut. H.M.S. Pearl,
In command of Naval Detachment.

*To Captain E. Sotheby, R.N.,
Pearl's Naval Brigade, Bustee.*

SIR, Camp Bustee, June 25, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the force, as per margin,* left Captangunge on the 18th instant, at 3 A.M., to attack a body of rebels from 3,500 to 4,000 strong, including 900 sepoy, under Mahomed Hussein, posted in, and entrenched about, the village of Hurreah, eight miles in our front.

On approaching within 1½ miles of the bridge at 6:30, we discovered the enemy's skirmishers thrown across the river, screened in some thick bamboo jungle, villages, tope, and a considerable number in ambush in a dry nullah. Our skirmishers, consisting of 70 of the Pearl's Naval Brigade, and a Company of Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, supported by our 2-horsed 12-pounder howitzers, immediately advanced on our left, and by their quick fire drove them in; following the enemy over the river (which they forded above their waists), they turned their right flank; our guns, after shelling and clearing out the village, galloped over the bridge, rejoined the skirmishers, and broke their centre, drove the rebels from tope to tope whenever they attempted to stand, and pursued them for about four miles. From the quick and well-directed fire, and apparent confusion in the enemy's ranks, they must have suffered very severely from our shells and rifles.

The remainder of the force had in the mean time been engaged on the right, where the rebels obstinately held the jungle, but were finally driven out and over the river. The heat was most intense, and as the troops had been under arms for nearly seven hours, at 10 o'clock we halted and all firing ceased.

I am thankful to say we had only six wounded, whereas the enemy is reported to have lost 200, with all their baggage and a quantity of ammunition.

Mahomet Hussein has since fled to the jungle, and his force is reported to be entirely dispersed, the Sepoys having crossed the Gogra to Fyzabad.

Lieutenant Turnour, assisted by Mr. T. M. Maquay, Acting Mate, was in charge of the guns, and Mr. A. W. Ingles, Acting Mate, with Mr. Herbert H. Edwards, Midshipman, commanded the skirmishers, and Serjeant-Major Argent the Marines, to all of whom I am much indebted for their zealous conduct, as also the rest of the men, whose conduct at all times has been most exemplary, especially Alexander Wilson, Coxswain of the launch; and I must beg you will have the goodness to draw the attention of their lordships that this is the 10th time the Pearl's Naval Brigade has been in action in India during nine months.

I have, &c.,

E. S. SOTHEBY, Captain, R.N.,
Commanding Pearl's Naval Brigade.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officers, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
66th (Ghoorkha) Bengal Native Infantry	Lieutenant John Adam Tytler Date of Act of Bravery, 10th February, 1858	On the attacking parties approaching the enemy's position under a heavy fire of round shot, grape, and musketry, on the occasion of the Action at Choorpoorah, on the 10th February last, Lieutenant Tytler dashed on horse-back ahead of all, and alone, up to the enemy's guns, where he remained engaged hand to hand, until they were carried by us; and where he was shot through the left arm, had a spear wound in his chest, and a ball through the right sleeve of his coat. (Letter from Captain C. C. G. Ross, Commanding 66th (Goorkha) Regiment, to Captain Brownlow, Major of Brigade, Kemaon Field Force.)
37th Bengal Native Infantry	Serjeant-Major M. Serjeant-Major Gill states, that on the same night he faced a Guard of 27 men, with only a Serjeant's sword; and it is also represented that he twice saved the life of Major Barrett, 27th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, when attacked by Sepoys of his own Regiment.
