FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1858.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Edward Henry Stanley (commonly called Lord Stanley), to be one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this day, by Her Majesty's command, sworn one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the nineteenth day of October next, be further prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of November next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering "more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the "divisions of counties and the limits of cities and "boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as

"respects the election of members to serve in "Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace of the county of Wilts, in quarter sessions assembled at Warminster, on the twenty-ninth day of June last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county of Wilts was insufficient, and praying that Westbury may be a polling place for the said division, within which such place is situate:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that Westbury shall be a polling place for the southern division of the county of Wilts; and that the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act passed in the second and third years of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide such division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.
