TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1858.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the master or owner of any ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues, authorized to be levied by the said Act, are paid and collected;

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond are erecting, and about to light, two new lighthouses, at High Whitby, on the coast of Yorkshire;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, upon the completion and lighting of the said lights, there shall be paid in respect of such lights, for every British vessel, and for every foreign vessel privileged to enter the ports of the United Kingdom upon paying the same duties as are payable by British vessels, which may pass or derive benefit from such lights, the toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such vessel, for every time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on an oversea voyage; and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on a coasting voyage; and for every foreign vessel not privileged in manner hereinbefore mentioned double the amount of the respective tolls hereinbefore specified, according to the voyage on which she may be employed. And that the said tolls, in respect of the said lighthouses, shall be levied by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the abatement or discount of twenty-five per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of ten per cent. on vessels engaged in coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and subject also to the further abatement or discount of fifteen per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of fifteen per cent. on vessels engaged in coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council, dated the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and subject also to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, sanctioned by the said Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856," it is enacted that when the burgesses entered on the burgess roll of the borough, shall exceed one thousand three hundred in number, it shall be lawful for the council, with the consent and approbation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to declare that after a time, to be specified in a resolution to be passed by the council for that purpose, the council shall consist of a mayor, six aldermen, and eighteen councillors, and that the borough shall be divided into three wards, and with the like consent to appoint a barrister to divide the borough into three wards, and to set out within the period of one calendar month after the date of his or their appointment, the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of the borough shall be included therein respectively, but so, nevertheless, that no ward shall, at the time of such division, contain less than three hundred burgesses, and the barrister setting out such wards shall apportion among such wards the eighteen councillors of the borough, and in assigning the number of councillors to each ward, the said barrister shall, as far as in his judgment he may deem it to be practicable, have regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in such ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons shall be so rated: Provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward shall be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of such division into wards, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward, shall be signed by the barrister who made the same, and forthwith transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and subject to the approval of Her Majesty by the advice of Her Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and another copy of such particulars shall be delivered to the town clerk of the borough, to be by him safely kept among the public documents of the borough; and the borough shall, after such publication, be deemed to be divided into wards accordingly; and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the borough shall, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number of councillors to be elected in such ward, and shall so continue until the same shall be altered by the authority of Parliament.

And whereas, John Robert Davison, Esquire, the barrister appointed by the council of the said borough of Middlesbrough, under the provisions of the said recited Act, has made an Award, bearing date the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, dividing the said borough into three wards, and allotting the number of councillors to each, and the same has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Award (copy whereof is hereunto annexed), into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her approval of the same; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct, that the said Award, together with this Order, be published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the said Act.

AWARD ABOVE REFERRED TO.

To all to whom these presents shall come, I, John Robert Davison, Esquire, of the Middle Temple, London, Barrister-at-Law, send greeting. Whereas by the second section of "The Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856," it is enacted that the word or expression "Borough," when used in that Act, should mean the Municipal Borough of Middlesbrough, in the North Riding of the county of York, as it existed, and according to the limits thereof, at the time of the passing of that Act; and also that the word "Council" in like manner should mean the Council of the Borough. And by the fourth section of the said Act, after reciting that the borough was not then divided into wards, but that the rapidly increasing population thereof rendered it expedient that provisions should be made for effecting such division at a future period, and for increasing the number of the council, it was enacted, that when the burgesses entered on the burgess roll of the borough should exceed one thousand three hundred in number, it should be lawful for the council, with the consent and approbation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to declare that after a time, to be specified in a resolution to be passed by the council for that purpose, the Council should consist of a mayor, six aldermen, and eighteen councillors, and that the borough should be divided into three wards, and, with the like consent, to appoint a barrister to divide the borough into three wards, and to set out, within the period of one calendar month after the date of his appointment, the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of the borough should be included therein respectively, but so, nevertheless, that no ward should, at the time of such division, contain less than three hundred burgesses; and that the barrister setting out such wards should apportion among such wards the eighteen councillors of the borough; and in assigning the number of councillors to each ward the said barrister should, as far as in his judgment he might deem it to be practicable, have regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in such ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons should be so rated. Provided always that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and that a copy of the particulars of such division into wards and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward, should be signed by the barrister who made the same and forthwith transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and, subject to the approval of Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and another copy of such particulars should be delivered to the town clerk of the borough, to be by him safely kept among the public documents of the borough, and that the borough should, after such publication, be deemed to be divided into wards accordingly, and that the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number of councillors to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by the authority of parliament.

And whereas by "The Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1858," the limits of the existing borough (which last-mentioned expression was thereby defined to mean the borough as it existed, and according to the limits thereof at the time of the passing of that Act), were altered, extended, and straightened so as to include all the lands, houses, buildings, roads, and works situate within a line or limits in the same Act particularly described and set forth. And it was thereby enacted that the lands, houses, buildings, roads and works so then added to the existing borough, and included within the borough (which expression the borough, when used in the now reciting Act, is thereby declared to mean the Municipal Borough of Middlesbrough as altered and extended by that Act) should thenceforth be and be deemed part thereof to all intents and purposes whatsoever, in the same manner in all respects as if such lands, houses, buildings, roads and works had been comprised in the existing borough, and made part thereof by the royal charter of incorporation of the said borough in the now reciting Act recited or referred to, and that all the powers and provisions of the Municipal Corporation Acts, then applicable to the existing borough, and of the said two herein recited Improvement Acts then applicable to the existing borough, should respectively apply to the lands, houses, buildings, roads and works by the now reciting Act added to, and included within, the said borough, and should thenceforth be put in force throughout the same in all respects as if the borough had been described in such charter of incorporation, instead of the then existing borough. And whereas by the sixth section of the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1858," it is, after reciting the said fourth section of the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856," and stating that it was expedient that the time at which under such section the division of the borough into wards would take effect should be more clearly defined, enacted that the division of the borough into wards should after such approval and publication as required by the said section, take effect from the time specified in the resolution passed by the council for that purpose, and the borough should from such time be deemed to be divided into wards accordingly, and the number of the councillors assigned to each ward of the borough should as from such time be the number of councillors to be elected in such ward. And whereas by the ninth section of the same Act, it was enacted that all the powers and provisions of the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856" (in the now reciting Act called "The Second Improvement Act") applicable to the division of the then existing borough into wards and incident thereto, should, subject to the provisions of the now reciting Act, apply to the borough as altered and extended by the now reciting Act. And whereas, at the time of the passing of the resolution next hereinafter mentioned, videlicet, on the fourth day of this instant month of August, the burgesses entered on the existing burgess roll of the borough amounted in number to one thousand five hundred and thirty. And whereas at a special meeting of the council of the said borough of Middlesbrough lawfully convened and held in the Council-room in the Corporation-hall in the said borough, on Wednesday the fourth day of this instant month of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, it was, as appears by resolutions or orders of such meeting, under the hand of Henry Thompson, Esquire, the mayor presiding at such meeting, and also under the corporate common seal of the borough, in pursuance and by the authority of the said recited Acts, that is to say, of the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856," and the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1858," and of each of them, resolved, ordered, ordained, and declared. And they the council of the borough of Middlesbrough did, in pursuance of and by the authority aforesaid, and of all other powers and authorities in anywise enabling them in that behalf, resolve, order, ordain, and declare as follows; that is to say;

First. That from and after the fifteenth day of October in this present year, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the council of the borough of Middlesbrough should consist of a mayor, six aldermen and eighteen councillors, and that the borough should be divided into three wards.

Second. That I, the said John Robert Davison, should be, and I was thereby appointed to divide the borough into three wards, and to set out within the period of one calendar month after the date of that my appointment the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards and what portions of the borough shall be included therein respectively, and also with full power to have and exercise all and every other the powers and authorities of the said two last-mentioned Acts incident to such division which became vested in me by virtue of that my appointment, and of the said Acts. And whereas, on the fifth day of this instant month of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, did by a writing under his hand signify his consent unto and approbation of the said resolutions or orders. Now, therefore, I the said John Robert Davison, having this day attended at the Corporation Hall in the said borough of Middlesbrough, in pursuance of public notice to that effect, and having had produced before me the said existing Burgess Roll, a plan of the borough, and the said resolutions or orders, and also the said consent unto and approval thereof, and having heard witnesses and examined fully into the premises, do, by virtue of the powers and authorities in me vested as aforesaid, hereby divide and set out the said borough of Middlesbrough, as altered and extended by the said secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, into three wards of such extent and limit, and with such boundary lines respectively as are hereinafter mentioned and set forth; that is to say:

NORTH EAST WARD.

All those portions of the borough situate within the following boundary line or limits; (that is to say):

A line commencing at the mid-channel line of the river Tees opposite the extreme north-western point of the borough of Middlesbrough, as defined in the "Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1858," thence in a straight line to the present extreme north-western point, and thence to and along the western side of a row of houses, and of their appurtenances there situate, to and up to the centre of a stell or watercourse at the south-western corner of certain lands, works, and buildings belonging to and in the occupation of Thomas Snowdon and William Randolph Innes Hopkins, heretofore part of lands called "Bell's Inclosure" and "Salt land," thence along the centre line of the said stell or watercourse in an easterly direction for about eighty yards to the western boundary of a certain triangular piece of land lately belonging to the Stockton and Darlington Railway Company and now belonging to and occupied by the said Thomas Snowdon and William Randolph Innes Hopkins, thence in a southerly direction along the western boundary of the said triangular piece of land to the centre of the Middlesbrough branch of the Stockton and Darlington Railway, thence in an easterly direction across the said railway, and thence in a north-easterly direction along the eastern side of the said branch railway to the point where the said branch railway crosses a stell or watercourse which forms the boundary between the land of the said Stockton and Darlington Railway Company and the lands of Thomas Hustler, Esquire, thence in an easterly direction in a line along the centre of the said last-named stell or watercourse to a certain fence at or near the north end of Stockton-street, which said fence forms the boundary-fence between the lands of the said Thomas Hustler, Esquire, and those of Joseph Pease, and the other owners of the Middlesbrough estate, thence in a southerly direction along a line running immediately on the western side of the said fence to a point opposite to the centre line of West-street and parallel with such centre line, thence direct across certain land of Joseph Pease and others and Stockton-street to and along the centre line of West-street, thence through the centre of the Market Place, through the Market House, and along the centre line of East-street to the centre line of the north-eastern end of Cleveland-street, thence along the centre line of Cleveland-street to the point where that street intersects the centre line of Lower Feversham-street, thence along the centre line of Lower Feversham-street to the point where that line intersects the centre line of Grey-street, thence along the centre line of Grey-street to the south end of that street, thence in a straight line across the Stockton and Darlington-Railway and lands of Joseph Pease and others to the nearest point in the centre line of the Marton-road (which road also belongs to the said Joseph Pease and others), thence along the centre line of the Marton-road, first in a south-easterly, and then in a southerly direction to the point where such centre line intersects the boundary line of the borough, thence, first in an easterly, afterwards in a southerly, and again in an easterly direction along such boundary line to the centre of a certain stream or watercourse called Ormesby Beck, forming the boundary between the parishes of Middlesbrough and Ormesby, thence in a northerly direction along the centre of the said stream and parish boundary to the point where the eastern boundary fence of the Middlesbrough and Guisbrough Railway intersects or crosses the said stream or parish boundary, thence along the said eastern boundary fence of the said Middlesbrough and Guisbrough Railway to the point where the said eastern boundary fence intersects the line of a certain private road leading from Middlesbrough to Ormesby; thence across such road, thence along the centre of a certain newly formed stream or watercourse, which at present forms the boundary between the lands of James White Pennyman, Esquire, and of the said Joseph Pease and others, to a point where the said newly formed stream or watercourse takes a decided turn to the east, which said point is distant fifty yards from the south fence of the Middlesbrough and Redcar Railway, and thence in a straight line in an easterly direction along the centre of the said stream so far as it extends, and fifty yards distant from the said south fence of the said Middlesbrough and Redcar Railway, and thence in a straight line, at the like distance and parallel with the same south fence, to the point where such straight line intersects a certain stream at or near Cleveland Port, called Normanby Beck otherwise Spencer Beck, thence along the midstream of the same beck to the Middlesbrough and Redcar Railway, and thence proceeding along the southern fence of the same railway to the one and three quarter mile post from Middlesbrough on the same railway, thence in a northern direction at right angles with the line of the said Middlesbrough and Redcar Railway at the said mile post to the midchannel line of the river Tees, thence along such midchannel line upwards in a north-westerly direction to the said first-named point in the said midchannel line opposite the said extreme north-western boundary of the borough.

WEST WARD.

All those portions of the borough situate within the following boundary line or limits; (that is to say): A line commencing by a junction with the north-east ward immediately on the western side of the boundary fence between the lands of Thomas Hustler, Esquire, and those of Joseph Pease and the other owners of the Middlesbrough Estate at a point opposite the centre line of West-street and parallel with such centre line, thence in a southerly direction along a line running immediately on the western side of the said last-mentioned fence, and of the other fences lying to the southward thereof (and forming continuously a line of boundary fences between the lands of the said Thomas Hustler, Esquire, and the lands of Joseph Pease and others,) up to the extreme south-west corner of a certain plantation called the "Long Plantation," belonging to the said Joseph Pease and others, being the point where the southernmost of the said boundary fences joins the land of James Robertson Bryant, thence in a straight line in a southerly direction to the north-western corner of the boundary wall or fence of the Middlesbrough cemetery, thence along the western side of the western boundary wall of the said cemetery, as far as the south-western corner of the said cemetery, and thence in a straight line in continuation of the said western boundary wall to the northern fence of an occupation road, leading out of the highway from Middlesbrough to Linthorpe, to a certain farmhouse, buildings, and premises belonging to Henry Walker, and called "Oldgate Farm," thence in an easterly direction along the line of the last-mentioned fence, to the centre of the said highway leading from Middlesbrough to Linthorpe (and which same highway is called Linthorpe-road), thence in a northerly direction along the centre line of such road, and across the Stockton and Darlington railway to the southern end of Sussex-street, thence along the centre line of Sussex-street to South-street, thence along the centre line of South-street in a straight line to the point in the market-house, where such line intersects the boundary line of the said north-east ward, thence in a north-westerly direction along such boundary line, to the point where the same line reaches the west side of the said boundary fence between the said lands of Thomas Hustler, Esquire, and those of the said Joseph Pease and others.

MIDDLE WARD.

All those portions of the borough, situate within the following boundary line or limits (that is to say): A line commencing in the market-house at the point of junction between the North-east Ward and the West Ward, as hereinbefore defined or set out, and proceeding thence in a south-easterly direction along the boundary line of the North-east Ward, as before defined, in East-street, Cleveland-street, Lower Feversham-street, across the Stockton and Darlington Railway, and lands of Joseph Pease and others, and to the centre line of Marton-road, thence along the boundary line of the North-east Ward, as before defined in such road, to the point where such last-mentioned boundary line intersects the boundary line of the borough, thence along the same boundary line to the eastern side of the said highway called Linthorpe-road, thence along such eastern side to and as far as a point immediately opposite the south-eastern extremity of the West Ward, as before defined, thence to the centre of the said highway, called Linthorpe-road, thence along the eastern boundary line of the West Ward, as before defined, in Linthorpe-road, across the Stockton and Darlington Railway, in Sussex-street, South-street, the market-place, and market-house, to the before-mentioned point of junction between the North-east Ward and the West Ward in the market-house.

Each of such three wards, containing at this present time upwards of three hundred burgesses: And I do hereby apportion and assign to each of the said three wards six councillors.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this eleventh day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

JOHN ROBERT DAVISON.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, sections nineteen and twenty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, sections nineteen and twenty, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at New Bolingbroke, in the parish of Bolingbroke, in the county and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous parts of the parishes of Bolingbroke, Asgarby, Frieston, Mavis Enderby, Miningsby, Raithby, and Revesby, in the said county and diocese, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at New Bolingbroke aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, patron in right of his see of the said parish of Asgarby, of Sir John James Smith, of No. 30, Berkeley-square, in the county of Middlesex, and of the Down House, in the county of Dorset, Baronet, patron of the said parish of Bolingbroke, of the Reverend William Morley, of Mavis Enderby aforesaid, Clerk, patron of the said parish of Mavis Enderby, of the Most Noble James, Duke of Montrose, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, patron in right of the Crown of the said parish of Miningsby, and of the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, patron in right of the Crown of the said parish of Raithby, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Bolingbroke, Asgarby, Frieston, Mavis Enderby, Miningsby, Raithby, and Revesby, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united into one consolidated chapelry for the said church at New Bolingbroke aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, New Bolingbroke.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, John James Smith, William Morley, James Duke of Montrose, and Frederic Baron Chelmsford, testified as aforesaid that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to, and be exercised by, the trustees named in the Act of the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter forty-six.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those several parts of the parishes of Asgarby, Bolingbroke, Frieston, Mavis Enderby, Miningsby, Raithby, and Revesby, being the allotments belonging to such parishes, and situate in the West Fen, all in the county and diocese of Lincoln, respectively bounded by and comprised within an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked A on the map hereunto annexed) in the centre of the bridge by which a certain road called Stickney Road is carried over Medlam Drain, and extending thence in a north-westerly direction along the middle of such drain to a point opposite to the middle of another drain joining the same, which is known as Small Drain, and forms the southern boundary of Mavis Enderby allotment, and extending thence in an easterly direction along the middle of such last-mentioned drain to the centre of the bridge by which the Hagnaby Lock road is carried over the same drain, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned road, until it trends eastward on meeting the drain forming the boundary between Raithby allotment and Hagnaby allotment, and extending thence still northward along the middle of such last-mentioned drain to the middle of another drain forming the northern boundary of the Raithby Fen allotment aforesaid, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned drain to the middle of Medlam Drain aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned drain to a distance of eighty-eight yards, to a point opposite the middle of another drain intersecting the Revesby Fen allotment, and extending thence westward to the middle of the road called Seven Miles Road, and extending thence northward for a distance of twelve yards along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite the middle of another drain intersecting the said Revesby Fen allotment, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-mentioned drain to the middle of the Revesby Bank Road, and extending thence in a south-westerly direction along the middle of such last-mentioned road crossing the lane called Occupation-lane, and extending thence southerly to the middle of the road called Chapel Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the middle of Seven Miles Road aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of the Stickney Road aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the point at which the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of St. Peter, situate at New Bolingbroke, in the parish of Bolingbroke, in the county of Lincoln, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the trustees named in the Act of the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter forty-six; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, section six, of an Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, section six, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint John, Bradford, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the thirty-first day of the same month a portion of the ancient parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, was duly assigned as a district for the consecrated church of Saint John, Bradford aforesaid.

"And, whereas the said district was called 'the District Chapelry of Saint John, Bradford,' and such District Chapelry has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, section fourteen, become a new parish such as is contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section fifteen.

"And, whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the boundaries of such new parish of Saint John, Bradford, should be altered so as to include in such new parish a further part of the portion of the ancient parish of Saint Peter, Bradford aforesaid within which the vicar of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, the Reverend William Marsh, of Beckenham, in the county of Kent, Doctor in Divinity, the Reverend William Carus, of the city of Winchester, Clerk, the Reverend John Venn, of the city of Hereford, Clerk, the Reverend Edmond Hollond, of Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, and of Benhall Lodge, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk, and the Reverend Edward Auriol, of Mecklenburgh-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Clerk, patrons of the said parish of Saint John, Bradford, of the Reverend John Burnet, Doctor of Laws and Latin, incumbent of the same parish, and the said John Burnet, the Reverend Edward Lyon Berthon, of Fareham, in the county of Southampton, Clerk, and James Franklin Preston, of Ruthin, in the county of Denbigh, Esquire, patrons of the said new parish of Saint John, Bradford, and the Reverend Henry De Lavel Willis, Doctor in Divinity, incumbent of the same parish (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Bradford, should be altered so as to include therein all that part of that portion of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, wherein the vicar of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is situate to the south of the said new parish of Saint John, Bradford, and which is situate between the said new parish and an imaginary line commencing at a point (marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed), in the middle of Crowther-street, on the boundary of the said new parish of Saint John, Bradford, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-named street, as far as the middle of Fitzgerald-street, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last named street to the middle of Little Horton-lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last named lane to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of a road or street called or about to be called Grafton-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last named road or street to the middle of the southern end of the footpath leading from the said last-named road or street to Lansdowne-place and extending thence northward along the middle of such footpath to the boundary of the said new parish of Saint John, in Bradford.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed addition and alteration be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parishes of Ware and Great Amwell, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular parts of the said parishes of Ware and Great Amwell respectively, hereinafter mentioned and described, such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, three pounds per centum consolidated bank annuities, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Robert Hanbury, of Poles, in the said county of Hertford, Esquire, upon the understanding that the annual payment hereinafter mentioned should be made by us to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the said new parish.

"And whereas the said Robert Hanbury has covenanted and agreed with us to provide, at his own cost, and expense a church to be offered for approval by us, and for consecration by the bishop of the diocese as the church of the said district, and so soon as the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish, and for the use and service of the minister or incumbent, and of the inhabitants thereof.

"And whereas it is intended that one-half part at least of the sittings in the said church shall be free and unappropriated, and that the remainder of the said sittings shall be let at annual rents, after a rate or scale to be fixed and determined by us, in accordance with the provisions of the herein thirdly mentioned Act, and that the proceeds of the said rents shall be applied according to the provisions of the same Act.

"And whereas the said Robert Hanbury has also covenanted and agreed with us, that when and as often as the rents to be reserved for sittings in the said church which shall be payable to the minister or incumbent thereof, after deducting therefrom the sum of ten pounds to be applied in and towards the maintenance and service thereof, shall in any year amount to less than the sum of fifty pounds, there shall in each and every such year be paid to the minister or incumbent of the said district or new parish by the said Robert Hanbury, or his heirs and assigns, such sum or sums of money as shall, together with the rents of the sittings in the said church, which may be payable to such minister or incumbent, make up the said sum of fifty pounds clear of all deductions, with a proviso that if at any time hereafter a further permanent endowment shall be made for the said district or new parish, and in consequence thereof the whole or any part of the sittings in the church thereof previously chargeable with rents shall be made free, or the rate or scale of the rents of such sittings, or any of them, shall be reduced under the provisions of the said thirdly mentioned Act, then the last-mentioned covenant on the part of the said Robert Hanbury shall, pro tanto, and to the extent of the alteration or reduction so made, or in case of such alteration or reduction amounting to or exceeding the yearly sum of fifty pounds, then the said covenant shall altogether cease and become void, but subject to any claims which shall have already arisen by virtue thereof.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the premises the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned to the said Robert Hanbury, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Bishop of Rochester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Ware, and also all that part of the said parish of Great Amwell, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Christ Church, Ware.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the annual sum of one hundred pounds shall be paid by us in each and every year by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the said secondly-mentioned Act, and so soon as such district shall have become according to the provisions of the same Act a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the said new parish; and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister or incumbent, as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or incumbent making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or incumbent succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or incumbent of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, tithe rentcharge, or other hereditament, should be conveyed or secured by us to such minister or incumbent, and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, and the exoneration of our common fund from the payment of the whole, or, as the case may be, from a proportionate part of the said annual sum of one hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of such

Order as aforesaid, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Robert Hanbury, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Acts of Parliament."

"SCHEDULE.

"The district of Christ Church, Ware, being—

"All that part of the parish of Ware, in the county of Hertford, and diocese of Rochester, and also all that part of the parish of Great Amwell, in the same county and diocese, which lie to the east and north of an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary between the said parish of Ware and the parish of Thundridge, in the same county and diocese, where the fence dividing the enclosure called or known as Long Sowleys, and numbered 213 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Thundridge, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the enclosures numbered respectively 749 and 750 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Ware, and upon the map hereunto annexed, is met by the fence dividing the two last-named enclosures, and thence extending towards the south-west along the middle of the last-named fence, and of the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 750b on the last-named maps from the enclosure numbered 751 on the same maps, across the lane called Brewer's Lane, and along the middle of a public footpath which extends between the enclosures numbered respectively 746, 744, 729, 715, 714, and 661, on the last-named maps, and the enclosures numbered respectively 753, 756, 745, 728, 727, 726, 725, 724, 723, 722, 721, 720, 719, 718, 717, 716, and 713, on the same maps, to the lane called or known as Fanham's Hall-lane, and thence continuing towards the east along the middle of the last-mentioned lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the road called Musley-road, and thence extending towards the south along the middle of the last-named road, across the lane called Musley-lane, and along the middle of the road known as the New-road, to the street in the town of Ware called Bridge-foot, and thence continuing along the middle of the last-named street to a point in the middle of the bridge over the navigable river Lee called Ware Bridge, and thence continuing towards the west along the middle of the said river, as far as a point opposite to the middle of a certain creek known as the Back Ditch, and thence extending towards the south along the middle of the said creek to the boundary between the liberty of Little Amwell and the parish of Great Amwell, and thence continuing, first towards the east and then towards the south and west along the last-named boundary, as far as the bridge over the New River leading from Broad Mead to the high road leading from Ware to Hertford, and thence crossing the last-named high road obliquely to the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 149 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Amwell and upon the map hereunto annexed from the enclosure numbered 150 upon the same maps, and thence extending towards the south along the middle of the last-named fence and of the fences which divide the enclosures numbered respectively 160 and 162 upon the last-named maps from the enclosures numbered respectively 159 and 163 upon the same maps to an occupation road dividing the enclosure numbered 163 as aforesaid and the enclosures numbered respectively 164 and 165 on the last-named maps from the enclosures numbered respectively 167 and 166 on the same maps, and thence extending towards the east along the middle of the said occupation road across the lane called Hoe-lane and along the middle of the fences which divide the enclosures numbered respectively 179 and 195 upon the last-named maps from the enclosures numbered respectively 180, 186, 187, 188, and 192 upon the same maps to the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 192 as aforesaid from the enclosure numbered 193 upon the last-named maps, and thence extending towards the north-east along the middle of the last-named fence across the high road leading from London to Ware, and also across the New River to the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 105 upon the last-named maps from the enclosure numbered 106 on the same maps, and from the Netherhoe or Ware Marsh, and thence continuing in the same direction along the middle of the last-named fence and of the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 100 upon the last-named maps from the Netherhoe or Ware Marsh aforesaid, across the navigable river Lee aforesaid, and along the middle of the fence which divides the enclosure numbered 101 upon the last-named maps from the enclosure numbered 102 upon the same maps to the boundary between the said parish of Great Amwell and the parish of Ware in the middle of the old river Lee."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said secondly and thirdly mentioned Acts, been duly delivered or transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the parishes respectively, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and whereas certain observations and objections which have been offered by the incumbent of the church of the said parish of Ware have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been, notwithstanding such observations and objections, approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the alteration and improvement of the episcopal house of residence at Cuddesden, in the county of Oxford, belonging to the see of Oxford.

"Whereas, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette of the twenty-second day of the same month, a sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-nine pounds was advanced by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, upon a mortgage of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to the see of Oxford, for the purpose of defraying the cost of certain alterations and improvements in the episcopal house of residence belonging to the said see.

"And, whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, that the said episcopal residence requires some further alterations and improvements to be made in order to render it suitable and convenient, and it has been proposed to us by the said bishop, and it appears to us to be expedient that, towards defraying the cost of effecting the said last-mentioned alterations and improvements, a sum of three hundred and fifty pounds should be provided by borrowing the same by way of a further mortgage upon the security of all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the bishoprick.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said bishop be authorized to borrow from the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend, under the provisions of the herein-named Acts, the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, and as a security for the same, that the said bishop do further mortgage all or any part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of, or belonging to his said see, to the said Governors, by deed for a term of twenty-five years, or until the said sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, with interest for the same, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof shall be fully paid and satisfied, and that such principal sum of three hundred and fifty pounds shall be repaid, with interest, by equal annual instalments in manner following; that is to say: the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors, shall yearly and every year pay to the said Governors, their successors or assigns, one twentieth part of the said principal sum until the whole thereof shall be repaid, the first of such payments to be made in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, on the day on which he shall be bound to pay an instalment of the said sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-nine pounds, and a like payment on the corresponding day in every year until the whole of such sum of three hundred and fifty pounds shall have been repaid. And that the said bishop shall also at the like days and times pay interest at the rate of three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum on the said principal sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid; and that, if and when it shall happen that the principal and interest directed to be paid as herein-before mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governnors, their successors and assigns, to recover the same, and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in such manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in being at the time of such distress and sale.

"And we further recommend and propose that the deed for effecting the further mortgage of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of or belonging to the said see hereby authorized to be made, shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, and shall bind as well the said Samuel, Bishop of Oxford, as every succeeding bishop of the said see, until the said principal sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, together with the interest and any costs and charges accruing in respect of the same shall be paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of three hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid to us, and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge for the same to the said Governors and their successors, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said alterations and improvements in the episcopal house of residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to comprise certain portions of the parishes of Saint Leonard, Bromley, Saint Anne, Limehouse, and All Saints, Poplar, respectively, and of the new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, all in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parishes of Saint Leonard, Bromley, Saint Anne, Limehouse, and All Saints, Poplar, and of the new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, respectively hereinafter mentioned and described, such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas, by a deed bearing date the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, William Cotton, of Walwood House, in the parish of Leytonstone, in the county of Essex, Esquire, has granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors, and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then to the perpetual curate thereof, a clear annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, by means of a rent-charge to be issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain messuages, cottages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments mentioned or described in the said deed.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of the grant of the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, as aforesaid, the right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, should be assigned to and be vested in the said William Cotton, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, and all that part of the said parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, and all that part of the said parish of All Saints, Poplar, and all that part of the said new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, excepting only out of such part of the said parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse that portion of the same which is particularly described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Saint Paul, Stepney."

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall have become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, then of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted

Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised, by the said William Cotton, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

"FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The district of SAINT PAUL, STEPNEY; being—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, and all that part of the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, and all that part of the parish of All Saints, Poplar, and all that part of the new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary between the parish of Saint Leonard, Bromley, and the new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, in the middle of Bow Common Lane, and thence extending towards the south along the middle of the said lane and of North-street, forming a continuation thereof, to the middle of the bridge over the Limehouse-cut, and thence continuing towards the west along the middle of the Limehouse-cut aforesaid, as far as a point opposite to a wall extending at right angles from the said Limehouse-cut to the eastern end of the street or road known as Copenhagen-place, and thence extending towards the north along the said wall to the middle of Copenhagen-place aforesaid, and thence extending towards the west along the middle of Copenhagen-place, and towards the north-west along the middle of the street or road known as Featherstone-buildings to Rhodeswell-road, and thence continuing towards the north along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the road called or known as Saint Paul's-road, and thence continuing towards the south-east along the middle of the last-named road as far as the middle of the bridge which carries the railway called or known as the Blackwall Extension Railway over the same road, and thence continuing towards the north-east along the middle of the said railway as far as a point opposite to the middle of a ditch forming the boundary of certain property belonging to William Cotton, of Walwood House, in the parish of Leytonstone, in the county of Essex, Esquire, and thence extending first towards the north and then towards the east and then again towards the north along the middle of the said ditch to the middle of Bow Common-lane aforesaid, and thence extending towards the south-east along the middle of the said lane to the point where the said imaginary line commenced.

"SECOND SCHEDULE.

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London upon which the National Schools for the education of the poor of the said parish are erected, together with the appurtenances belonging to the said premises, and the boundaries of which land and premises, with the buildings thereon, are marked by stones marked with the initial letters "L. N. S."

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts been delivered or transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons respectively of the churches of the parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and whereas certain observations and objections which have been offered by the incumbent of the church of the said new parish of Trinity, Mile End Old Town, to the said scheme have been laid before Her Majesty in Council, together with the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such observations and objections been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law, on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates, which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of colonial posts."

And whereas it is expedient to make regulations for the transmission by the post, within Gibraltar, of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the before mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare as follows; that is to say:

On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in Gibraltar, and transmitted by the post, addressed to a place within that colony, there shall be charged and taken a uniform rate of postage of one penny.

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in Gibraltar, and transmitted by the post addressed to a place within that colony, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

The postage of all such letters as aforesaid shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage-duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant.

If any letter (whatever may be the weight thereof), sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted without having thereon or affixed thereto, any postage stamp, or having thereon or affixed thereto, a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under the provisions of this Warrant, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged in the first mentioned case with the full amount of postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid, together with the further and additional rate of one penny, and charged in the second mentioned case with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon, or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid, together with the further and additional rate of one penny.

The rates of postage chargeable on letters transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of postage now chargeable by law thereon.

The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant, under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas a Treaty hath been lately entered into between Her Majesty and the Queen of Spain for regulating the communications by post between their respective dominions, and it is expedient for the better carrying out of the same that certain regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore-recited Acts and every of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare, as follows :

1. On every letter, not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, and on every letter, not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the post, via France, or direct by packet-boat between the United Kingdom and any place in Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of sixpence.

2. On every letter not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, addressed to Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands, transmitted through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken for the conveyance of every such letter from any part of the United Kingdom to Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands, whether via France, or direct by packet-boat, an uniform rate of postage of sixpence.

3. All such letters so transmitted as hereinbefore in the first and second clauses of this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say :

On every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one half of an ounce and not exceeding three quarters of an ounce in weight, three rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding three quarters of an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every additional quarter of an ounce in weight, of any letter so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, above the weight of one ounce, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional quarter of an ounce shall be charged as an additional quarter of an ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight.

4. On letters posted in Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, transmitted by the post from Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, to Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, without passing through the United Kingdom, the sea conveyance of which shall be by British packet-boat there shall be charged and taken a British postage of two shillings for every ounce weight thereof.

5. On letters posted in Spain or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, transmitted by the post from Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands to any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, the conveyance from Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands to the United Kingdom being via France, or direct by packet-boat, there shall be charged and taken a British postage of two shillings for every ounce weight thereof.

6. On letters transmitted by British packet-boat between one port in Spain and another port in Spain there shall be charged and taken a British postage of two shillings for every ounce weight thereof.

7. On letters posted in Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to the Philippine Islands, or posted in the Philippine Islands, addressed to Spain or the Balearic or Canary Islands, which may be conveyed between Malta or Gibraltar and Hong Kong, by British packet-boats in the Mediterranean and Indian Ocean, there shall be charged and taken a British postage of two shillings for every ounce weight thereof.

8. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Cuba, and on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in Cuba, addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted between Cuba and the United Kingdom by British packet-boat, there shall be charged and taken a British rate of postage of one shilling and sixpence.

9. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between Cuba and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign countries (France and foreign countries through France, Spain, and the Balearic and Canary Islands excepted) through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken the rates of British postage following; that is to say :

For the conveyance of every such letter between Cuba and the United Kingdom, a rate of one shilling and sixpence, and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country : Provided that in all cases where such additional rate includes both inland and sea services, there shall be deducted from the said rate of one shilling and sixpence in this clause mentioned the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

10. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, transmitted by the post without passing through the United Kingdom, the sea conveyance of which shall be by British packet boat, there shall be charged and taken a British rate of fourpence.

11. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, transmitted through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken over and above the uniform rate of postage mentioned in the second clause of this Warrant for the conveyance from any part of the United Kingdom to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such letter from any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct to such port from any such colony or foreign country : Provided that in all cases in which such additional rate includes both inland and sea services, there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance under this clause of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

12. All such respective letters so transmitted as hereinbefore in the eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh clauses of this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding half an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say :

On every such letter, if exceeding half an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such letter, if exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every additional ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of three ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional ounce shall be charged as an additional ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

13. Every letter, whatever may be the weight of it, posted in Spain, addressed to Gibraltar, and sent by the post to Gibraltar otherwise than by sea, shall be chargeable with a British rate of one penny.

14. If any letter transmitted by the post under the first clause of this Warrant shall be posted without any postage being paid thereon, either in money or by postage stamps, there shall be charged and paid on the delivery of every such letter a postage of double the amount that would have been payable on such letter had the postage thereon been paid when posted ; and if any letter transmitted by the post under the first clause of this Warrant shall be posted with a postage paid thereon, less than the sum of sixpence, there shall be charged and paid on the delivery of every such last-mentioned letter the full double postage to which it shall be liable under the provisions of this Warrant, without giving credit for any postage that may have been paid thereon ; and if any letter transmitted under the first clause of this Warrant shall be posted with a postage paid thereon, either in money or by postage stamps, less in amount than the sum chargeable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the sum of sixpence, there shall be charged and paid on the delivery of every such last-mentioned letter double the amount of the difference between the postage so prepaid and the postage which should have been prepaid under the provisions of this Warrant.

15. The postage of every letter posted in the United Kingdom under the eighth clause of this Warrant, addressed to Cuba, shall be paid at the time of the letter being posted, and if any such letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom without any postage being paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the sum chargeable under this Warrant, every such letter shall and may be detained and opened, and shall be returned or given up to the sender thereof.

16. Registered letters may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant upon the payment of such additional charge or rates of postage, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct or appoint : Provided that all rates of postage and additional charges or rates, from time to time payable thereupon, shall be prepaid, and that no payment shall be made thereupon on the delivery of any such registered letters.

17. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, are now by law entitled to of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

19. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than British newspapers) posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic, or the Canary Islands, may be transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Spain, or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, either via France, or direct by packet boat, which respective packets shall be transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto; and on every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of four pence.

20. All such respective packets transmitted under the 18th and 19th clauses of this Warrant hereinbefore respectively contained shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces in weight, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and the half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and the half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

21. All packets consisting of printed newspapers, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all other printed papers posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, may be transmitted by the post from Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country to Spain, or the Balearic or the Canary Islands, through the United Kingdom, either via France, or direct by packet boat, which respective packets shall be transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained relating thereto; and on every such packet, if not exceeding two ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of three pence.

And on every such packet exceeding two ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:

On every such packet, if exceeding two ounces in weight and not exceeding four ounces in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, eight rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and the half of another pound in weight, twelve rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and the half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, sixteen rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight, of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid four additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding two ounces in weight.

22. Every packet which shall be transmitted by the post under the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st clauses of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained; that is to say:

Every packet shall be sent in a cover open at the ends, or in any other manner which will admit of an examination of its contents.

It shall contain no enclosure, nor any writing, signs, or mark, either within or without, other than the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, the printed title of the publication, and the printed name and address of the publisher, or of the vendor.

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom under the provisions of this Warrant shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

No packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant, which in length, or breadth, or width shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the 18th and 19th clauses of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint, and the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted by the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant; and upon every such packet which shall be posted in Spain, the Balearic or the Canary Islands, the postage thereof, with any transit rate payable thereon, shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

23. If any packet transmitted by the post under the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st clauses of this Warrant, be sent otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by, or under the 22nd clause of this Warrant, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination and any such packet; on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit, not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such packet as an unpaid letter.

24. All packets consisting of printed newspapers and other printed papers posted in Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post to the United Kingdom, either via France, or direct by packet-boat, at the rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say,) if via France, at the rate of fivepence for every British pound net weight thereof, and if direct by packet-boat, at the rate of tenpence for every British pound net weight thereof.

25. All packets consisting of printed newspapers and other printed papers posted in Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, or posted in any foreign country, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, may be respectively transmitted by the post through the United Kingdom, the conveyance between Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, and the United Kingdom being via France, or direct by packet-boat, and all such respective packets shall be charged, and chargeable with a rate of postage of tenpence for every British pound net weight thereof.

26. All packets consisting of printed newspapers and other printed papers posted in Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, or posted in any foreign country addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, may be respectively transmitted by the post otherwise than through the United Kingdom, the sea conveyance being by British packet boats, and all such respective packets shall be charged and chargeable with a rate of postage of five pence for every British pound net weight thereof.

27. All packets consisting of printed newspapers and other printed papers posted in Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to the Philippine Islands, or posted in the Philippine Islands, addressed to Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, which may be conveyed between Malta or Gibraltar and Hong Kong by British packet boats in the Mediterranean and Indian Ocean shall be charged with a British postage of five pence for every British pound net weight thereof.

28. The respective letters and packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets, which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

29. The rates of postage chargeable on letters, printed newspapers, and other printed papers, transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon; and as to the postage to be collected and received on letters transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant from Spain, or the Balearic or Canary Islands, addressed to the United Kingdom, two reals de vellan shall be considered equivalent to the sum of sixpence sterling.

30. The term "packet boat" used in this Warrant shall include the conveyance by any British or Spanish packet boat, and the term "printed papers" in this Warrant used shall for the purpose of this Warrant mean and comprise all printed papers of every kind other than newspapers, whether such papers be printed or lithographed, and whether plain, or illustrated with prints, drawings, maps, or music (provided such illustrations form part of the same publication), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

31. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1858.

And notice is hereby further given, that all persons having an interest in opposing any one of such applications are at liberty to leave particulars in writing of their objections to such application, at the said Office of the Commissioners, within twenty-one days after the date of the Gazette in which this notice is issued.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, July 30, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 30th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

of the cure of any country, and all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

NAVY BEEF. NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford .....	4,500 ...	6,500 ...	9,500 ...	4,700
Gosport .....	1,000 ...	1,500 ...	3,000 ...	1,700
Plymouth ...	1,000 ...	1,500 ...	1,500 ...	800
Haulbowline	500 ...	750 ...	1,000 ...	500

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

The beef and pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows, viz. :—One-third of each quantity for each place by the 31st day of January, 1859; another third thereof by the 15th day of March, 1859; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1859, or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills payable in seven days from and after the respective dates thereof.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the revised form of contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed surties in writing.

Bills in payment for any beef or pork delivered into Her Majesty's Stores will be sent to parties upon transmitting the usual certificates of receipt.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

SALE OF HER MAJESTY'S VESSELS BATHURST AND FLAMER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 27, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 16th September next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of Her Majesty's undermentioned coast-guard vessels, viz. :

BATHURST, about 240 tons burthen, lying at Gravesend.

FLAMER, about 280 tons burthen, lying at Greenhithe.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him (duly authorized in writing), to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for the purchase of H.M. Vessels," and must be delivered at Somerset-place.

Persons wishing to view the vessels must apply to the Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard at Gravesend.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, or on application to the Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard at Gravesend.

SALE OF PROVISIONS, &c., AT DEPTFORD.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place, August 26, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 15th September next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, the Captain Superintendent will put up to sale, in Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, several lots of

ARMY, VICTUALLING, TRANSPORT, AND MEDICAL STORES,

Consisting of Ground Coffee, Salt Beef and Pork, Cook's Fat, Biscuit and Biscuit Siftings, Raisins, Cooperage Stores, Seamen's Clothing, Bedding, &c., &c., &c., all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.
